Ed Orgeron

Head Coach

@Coach_EdOrgeron

Overall Record: 41-36 • LSU Record: 25-9 (Fourth year)

When it comes to building a championship football program, there's none better than LSU head coach Ed Orgeron. A driven leader with a vision on how to achieve success, Orgeron needed only three years to fulfill a pledge he made at his introductory press conference on Nov. 26, 2016 when he vowed to "build a championship program at LSU."

Orgeron did just that in 2019, earning numerous National Coach of the Year honors on his way to leading LSU to the most dominant season in college football history with a 15-0 record and the CFP National Championship.

But Orgeron's definition of a championship program goes much farther than winning championships on the football field. It's also about developing young men, both on and off the field; it's about fielding a team of high-character players that are determined to compete at the highest level on the field, while pursuing an education off the field; it's about players focused on the success of the team, not individual awards; it's about players doing the right thing, all of the time. It's known as the LSU Standard of Performance, not just on Saturday nights during the fall, but year-round.

And with that mentality, which starts at the top with Orgeron – a coach who never takes credit for his team's success, but instead praises his staff and his players – LSU stormed its way to the 2019 national title, winning 12 of 15 games by double-figures and beating seven Top 10 opponents along the way. LSU had five wins over teams that finished the 2019 season ranked in the Top 10.

Since taking over the Tigers four games into the 2016 season, Orgeron has guided LSU to a 40-9 mark – which ties for the most wins by any coach in school history during the first 49 games of their career. He's also led the Tigers to five postseason victories – one in the SEC Championship Game, two bowl games and two in the College Football Playoffs.

Of LSU's 40 wins under Orgeron, 31 have come by double-figures and 12 have been over Top 10 teams. The 12 Top 10 wins rank as the second-most for any coach in LSU history, trailing only Les Miles who won 16 games over Top 10 opponents in 12 years.

LSU has a 24-7 record under Orgeron against SEC teams, which includes a 37-10 win over fourth-ranked Georgia in the 2019 SEC Championship Game. Under Orgeron, the Tiger program has produced 11 first team All-Americas, four national award winners, including the 2019 Heisman Trophy winner in quarterback Joe Burrow, and 32 NFL Draft picks, which includes nine in the first round. In the 2020 NFL Draft, LSU set an SEC record with five first round picks and tied the all-time mark with 14 players selected during the seven-round event. Quarterback Burrow went No. 1 overall and LSU became the first school in the history of the NFL Draft to have a quarterback, running back (Clyde Edwards-Helaire) and wide receiver (Justin Jefferson) picked in the first round.

When it comes to recruiting, there's none better than Orgeron and his staff who continue to assemble the best roster in college football with a focus that includes keeping the best players in Louisiana at home, while also attracting the top talent from coast to coast.

Now entering its fourth full season under Orgeron, LSU has used the "One Team, One Heartbeat" philosophy along with the ability to "block out the noise" to become the premier program in college football.

2019

In 2019, Orgeron was consensus National Coach of the Year earning the honor from the Associated Press, Walter Camp, Eddie Robinson, Home Depot, George Munger and the AFCA. He was also named the SEC Coach of the Year.

Orgeron guided the Tigers to the most dominant regular season in school history with the Tigers posting a 13-0 mark and outscoring opponents, 621-275. LSU blew through the College Football Playoffs, beating No. 4 Oklahoma, 63-28, and then claimed the school's fourth national title with a 42-25 win over No. 2 Clemson in the national championship game to finish with the first 15-0 record in the history of the SEC.

LSU went 8-0 in SEC play during the regular-season, winning six of the eight games by at least two touchdowns. LSU racked up 46 points and 559 total yards in a 46-41 win over Alabama in Tuscaloosa and then followed that with 714 total yards in a win over Ole Miss in Oxford. LSU closed out the regular-season with a 50-7 win over Texas A&M in Tiger Stadium. LSU captured its 12th SEC title with a 37-10 win over No. 3 Georgia in the SEC Championship Game in Atlanta.

LSU trailed in only six games all season, just twice in the second half and never in the fourth quarter. The biggest deficit the Tigers faced all season was 17-7 against Clemson in the second quarter of the national championship game. LSU responded by scoring 21 unanswered points to take the lead for good at 28-17 just before halftime.

Overall, LSU went into the Clemson game riding a streak of 21 straight quarters without trailing an opponent, a streak that dated back to the Auburn game on Oct. 26.

LSU's offensive success in 2019 was a product of the Tigers going to the spread offense and the play-calling of coordinator Steve Ensminger. During the 2019 offseason, Orgeron hired Joe Brady as LSU's passing game coordinator, who installed the spread and the results followed. Burrow set nearly ever LSU and SEC single-season passing record as the Tigers led the nation in points per game (48.4) and yards per game (568.4) – both school records. LSU scored at least 40 points in 12 games and the Tigers went over the 50-point mark seven times and eclipsed 60 points three times.

Defensively, the Tigers allowed only 21.9 points per game and allowed a combined one passing touchdown in wins over Georgia, Oklahoma and Clemson.

Head Coach

In addition to Burrow's sweep of National Player of the Year Awards and the Heisman Trophy, LSU produced the winner of the Biletnikoff Award (Ja'Marr Chase) and the Jim Thorpe Award (Grant Delpit). LSU set a school-record with five first team All-America selections in 2019 (Burrow, Chase, Delpit, Damien Lewis, and Derek Stingley Jr.).

The Tigers capped the 2019 season by setting an SEC record with first players selected in the first round of the 2020 NFL Draft, led by Burrow who was picked No. 1 overall by the Bengals.

2018

In 2018, Orgeron guided a young and inexperienced LSU team to a 10-3 overall mark and a final ranking of No. 6 nationally. It marked LSU's first 10-win season since 2013 and the highest final ranking for the Tigers since 2011. The Tigers capped the year with a 40-32 victory over No. 7 ranked Central Florida in the Fiesta Bowl, LSU's first New Year's Six Bowl victory since the new format was put in place in 2014.

For the first time in school history, Orgeron directed the Tigers to four wins over Top-10 teams beginning with a season-opening victory over No. 8 Miami. LSU followed that with a road victory over No. 7 Auburn, a home win over No. 3 Georgia and the bowl win over No. 7 UCF. Overall, LSU had five wins over Top 25 teams, which also included a victory over No. 22 Mississippi State.

Individually, Orgeron's 2018 team produced the school's first Butkus Award winner in Devin White along with three first-team all-Americas in White, cornerback Greedy Williams, and safety Grant Delpit. Delpit became only the ninth unanimous All-America in school history in 2018. White was later picked with the No. 5 overall selection in the 2019 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay. Overall, LSU had three players selected in the 2019 NFL Draft (CB Greedy Williams in second round by the Browns and TE Foster Moreau in the fourth round by the Raiders).

2017

In his first full season as LSU's head coach, Orgeron led the Tigers to a 9-4 overall mark, a second straight appearance in the Citrus Bowl and a No. 18 final national ranking. While LSU came up just short in claiming a 10-win season, Orgeron and the Tigers gave plenty of reasons to show that the program is on the rise. A total of 20 true freshmen – the second-highest figure nationally – saw playing time for the Tigers in 2017 and the group of rookies combined for 44 starts.

After opening 3-2 through the first five games of the season, the Tigers won six of their last seven games to finish the regular-season 9-3 overall and 6-2 in league play.

LSU's 2017 season saw the Tigers beat No. 21 Florida, 17-16, in Gainesville to open the month of October followed by one of the biggest comebacks in school history when the Tigers rallied from a 20-0 first half deficit to beat 10th-ranked Auburn, 27-23, in Tiger Stadium. LSU beat Ole Miss, 40-24 at week later for its third straight victory. Following a hard-fought loss to Alabama, the Tigers closed out the regular season with double-digit wins over Arkansas (33-10), Tennessee (30-10) and Texas A&M (45-21).

Following the 2017 season, LSU had seven players selected in the NFL Draft, including three second round picks in defensive back Donte Jackson (Carolina), running back Derrius Guice (Washington) and wide receiver DJ Chark (Jacksonville).

2016

In his first game as LSU's permanent head coach, Orgeron guided the Tigers to a 29-9 win over No. 13 Louisville and its Heisman Trophy quarterback Lamar Jackson in the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl. The win over Louisville capped a remarkable turnaround for the Tigers under Orgeron, who assumed the role as interim coach of the Tigers a day after a disappointing 18-13 setback at Auburn. The loss to Auburn dropped LSU, a preseason favorite to contend for the national title, to 2-2 overall and out of the Top 25.

Orgeron's first duty as interim head coach was to appoint veteran assistant and former LSU quarterback Steve Ensminger from tight ends coach to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. The move paid immediate dividends as Ensminger injected life into the Tigers offense by diversifying the play calling and brought a culture of inclusion to the offensive staff room.

Before Ensminger took over play-calling duties, LSU's offense had scored only nine touchdowns and was averaging a paltry 18 points and 339.5 total yards per game.

In eight games under Orgeron and Ensminger, LSU improved drastically in every offensive category as the Tigers averaged 32 points and 464.9 total yards per contest during that span. LSU scored 38 or more points five times with Ensminger calling the plays, including 54 in a win over Texas A&M and 38 against both Arkansas and Ole Miss. The Tigers averaged 7.1 yards per play and converted 46-of-102 third-down opportunities during that eight-game stretch.

In his LSU debut, Orgeron led the Tigers to a 42-7 win over Missouri, a game that saw the LSU Tigers set the school record for yards in an SEC game (634) as well as time of possession (42:33). The 35-point margin of victory ranked as the second-largest for a LSU head coach in his Tigers debut.

In a 38-21 win over Ole Miss, Leonard Fournette shattered the school's single-game rushing mark with 284 yards.

LSU concluded the regular season in record fashion, racking up 54 points in the Thanksgiving Night win over Texas A&M. In the win over the Aggies, running back Derrius Guice broke the LSU single-game rushing mark with 285 yards and four TD's on 37 carries as the Tigers accumulated 622 total yards (298 rushing, 324 passing) in the win.

In eight games under Orgeron, LSU set offensive records for most yards in a SEC game (634 vs. Missouri), longest scoring play from scrimmage (Derrius Guice 96-yard TD run vs. Arkansas), and twice set the school single-game rushing record (Leonard Fournette 284 yards vs. Ole Miss, Derrius Guice 285 yards vs. Texas A&M).

Defensively, LSU held opponents scoreless for 15 of 32 quarters under Orgeron and limited the opposition to an average of 15.3 points per game over the eight contests. In 12 games, LSU allowed only 16 touchdowns all season, which led the nation. The Tigers also gave up just 1.3 TD's a contest, also first nationally.

Overall, LSU's defense finished in the top two in the SEC in points allowed (15.3) and rushing yards per game (117.2) and were No. 3 in the league in total defense (314.4) and pass defense (197.2).

LSU's 2016 team featured four first team All-Americans in defensive back Jamal Adams, center Ethan Pocic, defensive back Tre'Davious White and running back Derrius Guice.

LSU had eight players from its 2016 team selected in the NFL Draft, including three first round picks in Fournette (No. 4 overall by Jacksonville), Adams (No. 6 overall by the New York Jets) and White (No. 27 overall by Buffalo).

THE COACH O WAY

A native of LaRose, Louisiana, Orgeron developed a passion for the Tigers at an early age, becoming a fan of some of the all-time LSU greats in the 1970s. Players like Bert Jones, Ronnie Estay, Tommy Casanova, Charles Alexander and of course, coach Charles McClendon, ignited a purple and gold fire under Orgeron that still burns today.

Orgeron has reunited the current roster with former players, making them an integral part of the program and he's leveraged his passion and love for LSU into a determination and drive that sees him spend nearly every waking moment focused on LSU football and his vision for the program.

With the "One Team. One Heartbeat" motto, the Tigers seemingly became a different team overnight when Orgeron was elevated to interim head coach on Sept. 25, 2016 and the results that LSU sought soon followed.

As the head coach of the Tigers, Orgeron said he was going to "flip the script" and he assigned a theme for the daily practices. The purpose of the descriptive practice themes for each day during the week is one of the ways that Orgeron and his staff hold the players accountable and focused both prior to and during the workout. The daily practice nicknames are as follows: Tell the Truth Monday, Competition Tuesday, Turnover/No Turnover Wednesday, No Repeat Thursday, and Focus Friday.

Orgeron has also opened the doors for former LSU players to come back and be active in the program. Having former players actively involved is a way for the current Tigers to get a better understanding of who helped build the foundation for the program, while also letting them see first-hand what it means to be a LSU Tiger and the responsibility that goes along with it. Orgeron routinely has former Tigers speak to the team, attend practices and be involved with the organization.

ORGERON COACHING HISTORY

Orgeron, who has also served as head coach at Ole Miss and Southern Cal, is 40-9 at LSU. His career mark as a collegiate head coach is 66-36, however he's 46-11 over his last 57 games. Orgeron went 6-2 as Southern Cal's interim head coach in 2013, taking over a USC team that stumbled to a 3-2 mark over the first five games of the year. Orgeron rallied the Trojans as USC closed out the regular season with wins in six of its final eight games.

Orgeron originally joined the Tiger staff in 2015 as defensive line coach, before adding the title of recruiting coordinator in the spring of 2016.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Orgeron's last coaching stop came at Southern Cal where he served as recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach for the Trojans for four years (2010-13). Orgeron was elevated to interim head coach at USC for the final eight games of the 2013 season.

Orgeron served two stints at Southern Cal, the first as the Trojans' defensive line coach from 1998 to 2004. Orgeron coached under Paul Hackett at USC for three years from 1998 to 2000 and was one of just a handful of coaches retained by Pete Carroll when he took over as the Trojans' head coach in 2001.

Orgeron left USC in 2005 to become the head coach at Ole Miss, where he went 10-25 in three years with Rebels from 2005-07.

Orgeron spent the 2008 season coaching the defensive line for the New Orleans Saints and then joined Tennessee as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator in 2009. He returned to Southern Cal following the 2009 season.

Orgeron made a name for himself as a top defensive line coach at the University of Miami from 1988-92, where he coached eight All-Americans, including NFL first-rounders Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland and Warren Sapp. In 1988, he was a graduate assistant at Miami, working with the defensive line.

Orgeron also was a graduate assistant at Northwestern (La.) State, his alma mater, in 1984 and McNeese State in 1985, working with the defensive line at both schools, then was an assistant strength coach at Arkansas for two years (1986-87).

ORGERON'S LOUISIANA ROOTS

Born July 27, 1961, he has three sons, Tyler, and twins Parker and Cody. Tyler is a member of the LSU football coaching staff, while Cody is the starting quarterback at McNeese State. Cody, who still have one year of eligibility remaining, earned his undergraduate degree from McNeese in May. Parker was a two-year starter at wide receiver for McNeese and is currently one semester shy of earning his degree from LSU.

Away from the field, Coach O has taken up the sport of boxing and trains three times a week at a local gym. He also teamed with Louisiana Governor John Bel Edwards to educate and inform the citizens of Louisiana during the Covid-19 pandemic. Coach O appeared on commercials and other mediums to support the wearing of masks during the pandemic.

He's also been heavily involved in many community service efforts in the Baton Rouge area, including "Basket of Hope", which has the mission of giving hope to children diagnosed with cancer or other serious illness through the delivery of a Basket of Hope filled with toys, games, craft items, stuffed animals, gift cards, and other items. Coach O makes several trips to local hospitals each year to hand deliver these baskets and to spend time with the children and their families.

Steve Ensminger

Offensive Coordinator

@SteveEnsminger

LSU, under the direction of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Steve Ensminger, had the most explosive offense in school history in 2019 as the Tigers set numerous school records on their way to a 15-0 overall mark and the national title.

Ensminger, a starting quarterback for LSU under legendary coach Charles McClendon in the late 1970s, directed a Tiger offense that led the nation in scoring (48.4) and yards per game (568.4) in 2019. It's the first time in conference history that a team from the SEC led the nation in both categories. It's also the first time in school history the Tigers led the nation in either category. The Tiger offense, behind Heisman Trophy quarterback Joe Burrow, set 15 school records, seven SEC records and two NCAA marks.

Ensminger, now in his third season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Tigers, enters his 10th season overall on the LSU staff in 2020. Ensminger, who has also coached tight ends during his LSU career, continues to play a vital role in the recruiting success of the Tigers.

Ensminger was promoted to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2018 after holding that spot for the final eight games of the 2016 season. Ensminger served as LSU's offensive coordinator and quarterback coach for the final eight games in 2016, before returning to coach tight ends in 2017. He resumed offensive coordinator duties in 2018.

LSU's 2019 offense was called by many as the best in college football history as the Tigers were the first to feature a 5,000-yard passer (Joe Burrow), two 1,000-yard receivers (Ja'Marr Chase and Justin Jefferson) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Clyde Edwards-Helaire).

In 15 games in 2019, LSU scored 40 points or more 12 times, which included four 50-point games and three 60-point games. LSU never scored fewer than 23 points and that came in a win over Auburn. Additionally, LSU racked up 500 yards or more of total offense 12 times, including 628 against Clemson in the national championship game and 692 in a win over Oklahoma in the national semifinals.

LSU's 2019 offense featured Burrow, who reset the SEC single-season record books, with the best performance by a quarterback in college football history. Burrow set NCAA marks for passing TDs (60) and total TDs (64) to go along with SEC marks for passing yards (5,671), completions (402), completion percentage (76.3) and total offense (6,039). Burrow's top two receivers in Biletnikoff winner Ja'Marr Chase and Justin Jefferson both set records as well. Chase set the SEC mark for TD receptions (20) and receiving yards (1,780), while Jefferson set the LSU record for total receptions (111).

A brilliant play-caller who has learned from some of the best offensive minds in the game, Ensminger had an immediate impact on the LSU offense in 2018. With first-time starters at quarterback (Burrow), running back (Nick Brossette) and three wide receiver positions, LSU averaged 402 yards and 32.4 points a game. Burrow became the first quarterback in school history to throw for 2,500 yards and rush for more than 350 yards, and his 3,293 yards of total offense ranks No. 2 in school history, while Brossette rushed for 1,000 yards and 14 TDs.

In 36 games with Ensminger calling the plays, the Tigers are averaging 38.9 points and 485.3 total yards per game. In addition, LSU has converted 45 percent of third-down opportunities (219-of-490); scored on 92 percent of their drives into the redzone (149-of-162); and have gone over the 30-point mark 27 times, with 19 of those being 40-point games. LSU has also thrown only 16 interceptions on 1,153 passes (1 of every 72 attempts) in his 36 games.

Ensminger showed that he was more than capable of directing the LSU offense as the Tigers thrived under his watch in 2016 after he was elevated to offensive coordinator after the fourth game of the season. Before his promotion in 2016, Ensminger had previous offensive coordinator duties at McNeese State, Louisiana Tech, Texas A&M and Clemson.

When Ensminger took over play-calling duties in 2016 for the Tigers, LSU's offense had been stagnant, scoring only nine touchdowns and averaging 18 points and 339.5 total yards per game through four games. In eight games under Ensminger that year, LSU improved drastically in every offensive category as the Tigers averaged 32 points and 464.9 total yards per contest during that span. LSU scored 38 or more points five times under Ensminger, including 54 in a win over Texas A&M and 38 against both Arkansas and Ole Miss. The Tigers averaged 7.1 yards per play and converted 46-of-102 third-down opportunities during that eight-game stretch.

Also under Ensminger, LSU's 2016 offense set then school records for yards in a SEC game (634 vs. Missouri), single-game rushing yards by an individual (284 by Leonard Fournette vs. Ole Miss, 285 by Derrius Guice vs. Texas A&M), longest run from scrimmage (96 yards by Derrius Guice vs. Arkansas) and time of possession (42:33 vs. Missouri).

As LSU's tight ends coach, Ensminger has groomed some of the best to play the position for the Tigers. Most recently, Foster Moreau completed his LSU career as one of the best pass-catching tight ends in school history with 52 receptions for 629 yards and six TDs. Moreau was selected in the fourth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders.

Colin Jeter led all LSU tight ends with 12 catches for 132 yards and a TD in 2015 as that unit combined for 18 receptions for 223 yards and a touchdown. In 2014, LSU tight ends played a prominent role in the offensive averaging 225 rushing yards per game. That unit combined for 12 catches, including the game-winning TD, against Ole Miss.

LSU's group of 2013 tight ends were instrumental in the Tiger offense setting a school-record with 37 rushing touchdowns. LSU averaged 453.3 total yards per game, which included 202.3 yards on the ground. In the passing game, LSU tight ends combined for 12 receptions for 211 yards with first-time starter Dillon Gordon leading the way with six catches for 88 yards.

Ensminger's tight ends combined for 16 catches for 182 yards in 2012 in the passing game and they helped pave the way for a 173.7 yards per game rushing attack as the Tigers went 10-3 and finished the year ranked No. 12 in the nation.

In 2011, LSU tight ends combined for 28 receptions for 294 yards and three touchdowns. Deangelo Peterson led all tight ends with 18 catches for 179 yards and a score as the Tigers posted a 13-0 regular season record, claimed the SEC title and reached the BCS National Championship game that year.

In 2010, Ensminger coached a versatile group of tight ends who combined for 24 catches for 301 yards, with Peterson leading the way with 16 receptions for 198 yards despite missing three games with an injury.

A 1982 graduate of LSU, Ensminger played quarterback for the Tigers under head coach Charlie McClendon from 1976-79. Ensminger played in three bowl games (Sun, Liberty, Tangerine) at LSU and has followed that by coaching in 17 bowl games as an assistant coach.

Ensminger joined the LSU staff after serving as an assistant coach at Auburn from 2003-08. Ensminger spent the 2009 season as the passing game coordinator at Smiths Station High School in Auburn, Ala.

During his six seasons at Auburn, Ensminger coached the quarterbacks one year (2003), followed by five years as the tight ends coach from 2004-08. As the quarterback coach at Auburn, Ensminger helped develop Jason Campbell, who went on to become an NFL first round draft pick. While at Auburn, the Tigers led the SEC in scoring offense in both 2004 (32.1) and 2005 (32.2), and they were first in the league in total offense in 2005 (409.8).

Ensminger has also had major college coaching stops at Georgia (1991-93), Texas A&M (1994-96) and Clemson (1997-98). At Georgia, he served as the quarterbacks coach as well as the passing game coordinator. In 1992, Georgia posted a 10-2 overall record and led the SEC in both scoring (32.0) and total offense (450.4).

Ensminger followed that with a three-year run at Texas A&M where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Aggies. The Aggies were 25-9-1 during Ensminger's three years in College Station, which included a 10-0-1 mark in 1994 and a 9-3 record in 1995.

After Texas A&M, Ensminger coached for two seasons at Clemson, holding the title of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Ensminger returned to Louisiana in 2000, serving as head coach and athletic director at Central High School for nearly three years before taking the wide receivers job at West Monroe High School for the 2002 season.

After a brief career in the NFL and CFL, Ensminger got his start in coaching in 1982 at Nicholls State as the receivers coach. After two years at Nicholls State, he moved to McNeese State as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 1984-86 followed by three years from 1988-90 at Louisiana Tech in the same capacity.

As a player at LSU, Ensminger threw for 2,770 yards and 16 touchdowns during his career with the Tigers. He was named Freshman All-SEC in 1976. Ensminger finished his career with the Tigers with an 11-6 mark as a starting quarterback, which included a 7-4 record in 1977.

Ensminger, a native of Baton Rouge, is married to the former Amy Gonzales and the couple has three children – Krystalin, Brittany Rose and Steven – and two grandchildren.

Assistant Coaches

Bo Pelini

Defensive Coordinator

@BoPelini

SUPER BOWL CHAMPION

Bo Pelini, who helped LSU to the 2007 BCS National Championship, returns to the Tiger coaching staff in 2020 and will serve as the defensive coordinator. Pelini brings back a high-energy, attacking defense that will feature a 4-3 scheme. It's the same defense that he used during his first stint at LSU that helped produce some of the top units in school history from 2005-07.

Pelini rejoins the LSU staff after serving as the head coach at Youngstown State for the past five seasons where he guided the Penguins to a 33-28 overall mark and an appearance in the FCS National Championship Game in 2016. Pelini has a head coaching record of 100-55, which includes seven years as head coach at Nebraska.

In his three years as defensive coordinator with the Tigers from 2005-07, LSU went a combined 34-6, claimed the 2007 national title and beat Notre Dame to win the Sugar Bowl during the 2006 season. LSU also appeared in the SEC Championship Game twice, winning the league title in 2007.

In his first stint as defensive coordinator with the Tigers, LSU's defense ranked No. 3 nationally in total defense all three years. LSU finished No. 1 in the Southeastern Conference in total defense in both 2006 and 2007 and ranked No. 2 in the league in 2005.

With Pelini as defensive coordinator, LSU led the SEC in scoring defense twice in 2006 and 2007. LSU allowed only 12.6 points per game in 2006, which ranked No. 4 nationally, while the 14.2 points per game the Tigers gave up in 2005 rated No. 2 in the league and No. 3 in the nation.

Under Pelini, LSU averaged 38 sacks a season over that three-year span and the Tiger defense was credited with a combined 71 turnovers, which included 36 in 2007, a figure that led the SEC and ranked No. 3 nationally.

In Pelini's three years with the Tigers, LSU had defensive players earn seven first team All-America honors and had eight defenders selected in the NFL Draft, which included first round picks in Glenn Dorsey and LaRon Landry. Dorsey also became the most decorated defensive player in LSU history claiming four national awards – Outland, Lombardi, Nagurski and Lott.

During LSU's national championship season in 2007, the Tigers forced 36 turnovers and ranked No. 3 in the nation in total defense, allowing only 288.8 yards per game. LSU also ranked in the top 20 nationally in pass efficiency defense (3rd), passing yards allowed per game (9th), rush defense (14th) and scoring defense (17th) on its way to a 12-2 mark capped with a win over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game.

In 2006, LSU's defense thrived in its second year under Pelini, leading the SEC in six categories and ranking among the top five in the nation in total defense (No. 3 at 242.8 yards per game), scoring defense (No. 4 at 12.6 points per game), pass defense (No. 3 at 145.7 yards per game) and pass efficiency defense (No. 3 with a 92.2 rating). The 2006 Tigersi don't know. Shes had streaks of 16 and 10 quarters without allowing a touchdown and they also limited opponents to only 27 first quarter points and just 87 first half points the entire season.

Furthermore, the 242.8 yards LSU allowed per game in 2006 were the fewest surrendered by a Tiger team since the 1976 squad allowed 233.1 yards per game. Also, the LSU secondary gave up only 145.7 yards passing a contest a year ago, the fewest since the 1990 Tigers allowed 126.8 yards per game.

Pelini made an immediate impact in his first year at LSU in 2005, taking over a Tiger defense that ranked among the best in the nation the two previous years and making them even better. With an attacking style, Pelini's 2005 defense ranked among the top 10 in the nation in four categories, including No. 3 nationally in total defense (266.8 yards per game), scoring defense (14.2 points per game) and pass defense efficiency (96.3 rating). LSU also ranked No. 6 in the nation in total defense (91.5 yards per game).

Pelini's defense allowed seven points or less six times, including holding Miami to only three points in the Peach Bowl. The Tiger defense also held opponents out of the endzone in the first quarter 11 times in 13 games in 2005. LSU's most dominating defensive performance came in the season finale against Miami as the Tigers limited the Hurricanes to 153 yards of offense and only six first downs in the 40-3 victory. In the second half, the Hurricanes mustered only three yards of offense as they were held without a first down for the final two quarters.

Pelini served as the head coach at Youngstown State from 2015-19 with his best season coming in 2016 when the Penguins posted a 12-4 mark and reached the FCS National Championship Game. It was Youngstown State's first appearance in the FCS title game since 1999.

One of the most respected and innovative defensive minds in the game, Pelini spent seven years at head coach at Nebraska from 2008-2014 where he led the Cornhuskers to a mark of 66-27. Pelini's Nebraska teams won at least nine games all seven years he was in Lincoln, which included three 10-win seasons from 2009-11. Pelini also became only the fifth coach in FBS history at the Power Five level to win nine games in each of his first seven seasons as a head coach. Others in the elite group include Tom Osborne (Nebraska), Barry Switzer (Oklahoma), Earle Bruce (Ohio State), and Steve Spurrier (Florida).

Pelini guided Nebraska to appearances in the Big 12 Championship Game in 2009 and 2010 and then followed that with a Big Ten Legends Division Crown in 2012 and the school's lone appearance in the Big Ten title game. Nebraska appeared in a bowl game in all seven of Pelini's seasons with the school. Pelini's Nebraska teams also produced 22 NFL Draft picks during his seven years with the Cornhuskers.

Under his guidance, Nebraska was one of three schools to win at least nine games during a 7-year span from 2008-14, joining only Alabama and Oregon. In his seven full years on the Husker sidelines, Pelini won 66 games, which was one more than legendary Nebraska coach Tom Osborne did in his first seven campaigns at NU. Pelini remains the third-winningest coach in Nebraska history, trailing on Osborne and Bob Devaney. Since his departure in 2014, the Huskers have only had one winning season that coming in 2016.

One of his most high-profile players was defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh, who finished his career as one of the most decorated defensive players in college football history. The first defensive lineman to be a finalist for the Heisman Trophy in 15 seasons, Suh finished fourth in the voting in 2009. He was also the first defensive player to be named the Associated Press Player of the Year, and he was a unanimous All-American. Suh's hardware included the Outland, Lombardi, Nagurski and Bednarik awards.

Not to be overshadowed with the on-field success were the academic accolades that were a key part of his Nebraska programs. In seven years, NU had 11 Academic All-America honorees (five first teamers), 20 CoSIDA Academic All-District selections and an impressive 145 student-athletes who earned academic all-conference honors.

Prior to arriving at LSU for the first time in 2005, Pelini served as Oklahoma's co-defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach in 2004, helping the Sooners to the national championship game against USC. In his only season in Norman, Oklahoma ranked sixth in the nation in rushing defense, allowing only 94 yards per game. The Sooners were 11th nationally in scoring, limiting opponents to just 16 points per contest.

Pelini spent the 2003 season as the defensive coordinator for 10-3 Nebraska. In Lincoln, Pelini led a Cornhusker defense that tied the school record with 47 turnovers. In addition, Nebraska was No. 2 in the nation in takeaways and led the nation in turnover margin at +1.77 per game. Pelini's defense also led the nation in pass efficiency defense (88.66 rating), ranked No. 2 in scoring defense (14.5 points per game), No. 11 in passing yards per game (177.8 yards per game), and No. 11 in total defense (297.2 yards per game).

At the conclusion of the 2003 regular season, Pelini was promoted to interim head coach at Nebraska where he guided the Cornhuskers to a 17-3 win over Michigan State in the Alamo Bowl. Pelini's defense held the Spartans to only 174 total yards, nearly 210 yards below their season average, while also sacking MSU quarterback Jeff Smoker five times and intercepting three passes.

Pelini's coaching background includes nine years in the NFL coaching for the San Francisco 49ers, the New England Patriots and the Green Bay Packers. Pelini broke into the NFL in 1994 as assistant secondary coach for head coach George Seifert and the 49ers. Originally hired as a scouting assistant, Pelini was quickly promoted to defensive backs coach in the spring of 1994. Less than a year after his promotion to defensive backs coach, Pelini was coaching in the Super Bowl, helping the 49ers to a 49-26 win over San Diego in Super Bowl XXIX. Pelini held that position for three years before moving to the Patriots for the 1997 season.

As a member of the Patriots staff, Pelini coached the linebackers under head coach Pete Carroll. Pelini helped the Patriots go 27-21 over a three-year period with the club making the playoffs twice. Pelini's efforts were highlighted with a Pro Bowl appearance by Chris Slade in 1997, the first Patriot linebacker to be named All-Pro since 1989.

After three years with the Patriots, Pelini moved to the Packers, coaching linebackers for three seasons. In three years in Green Bay with head coach Mike Sherman, the Packers posted a 33-15 record and advanced twice. In 2002, the Packer defense ranked fourth in the NFL in pass defense, allowing 188.4 yards per game.

Pelini got his start in coaching in 1991, serving as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa. From there he moved into the high school ranks, serving as quarterbacks coach at Cardinal Mooney High School in Youngstown, Ohio in 1993 before taking the leap to the 49ers.

As a player, Pelini was a standout free safety at Ohio State, earning four letters from 1987-90. He helped the Buckeyes to a 15-8 record over his final two seasons. He was a three-time selection to the Academic All-Big Ten team as well as serving as team captain for the Buckeyes as a senior in 1990. He played in two bowl games during his collegiate career, appearing in the Hall of Fame Bowl in January of 1990 and the Liberty Bowl in December of 1990.

Pelini is a 1990 graduate of Ohio State. He and his wife, Mary Pat, have one son, Patrick, and two daughters, Kate, and Caralyn. Patrick is a member of the Notre Dame football team.

Bill Busch

Safeties

@BillBuschLSU

Bill Busch, a veteran with over 20 years of collegiate experience coaching the secondary, has made an impact both on and off the field since joining the LSU staff in 2018. Busch enters his third season with the Tigers in 2020, coaching the LSU safeties.

On the field, Busch coached safety Grant Delpit to back-to-back first team All-America seasons in 2018 and 2019. Delpit, who also claimed the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back in 2019, was a unanimous All-America as a sophomore in 2018. He was also a finalist for the Nagurski Award that year.

Off the field, Busch used his recruiting prowess to help LSU land graduate transfer quarterback Joe Burrow, who led LSU to a 15-0 mark and the national championship in 2019. Burrow, the Heisman Trophy winner in 2019, set NCAA records for passing TDs (60) and total TDs (65) as the Tiger offense set numerous SEC and school records on their way to winning the school's fourth national title. Busch was also instrumental in LSU landing several other highly-rated prospects, including nose tackle Siaki Ika from Salt Lake City.

Under Busch, LSU's group of safeties continue to be a defensive strength for the Tigers. Along with Delpit, Jacoby Stevens earned SEC Defensive Player of the Week three times in 2019, while Kary Vincent Jr. had four interceptions and played a key role in LSU leading the league in interceptions for the second straight year.

In 2018, LSU led the SEC in interceptions (17) and finished second in the league in pass efficiency defense with a 104.5 rating. The Tigers were the only team in the league to hold opposing quarterbacks to less than 50 percent completion percentage (49.7) in 2018.

Busch joined the Tigers after spending two seasons at Rutgers where he served as defensive backs coach in 2016 and then added the title of co-defensive coordinator in 2017.

In his first season at Rutgers, Busch took over a group of safeties mixed with veterans and underclassmen and helped the Scarlet Knights rank among the nation's best in both redzone defense (No. 6 at 72.7 percent) and passing defense (No. 18 at 186.5 yards per game).

Busch spent the 2015 season at Ohio State handling quality control on defense. Prior to joining the Buckeyes, he worked for two seasons as the safeties coach at Wisconsin. Busch also assisted with the special teams unit for the Badgers. In his first season at Wisconsin, Busch helped lead a defensive backfield that ranked 17th nationally in passing defense and tied for 13th in passing yards per attempt in 2013.

Busch arrived at Wisconsin after spending four seasons at Utah State. In his first two seasons (2009-10), Busch served as defensive coordinator before taking over as safeties and special teams coach during the 2011-12 seasons. Busch also served as associate head coach for the Aggies in 2011 and 2012.

In 2012, Utah State won a school-record 11 games and finished the year ranked No. 16 in the nation. Defensively, the Aggies were No. 7 nationally in scoring defense (15.4 points per game) and No. 14 in total defense (322.1 yards per game)

In 2004, Busch returned to Nebraska for his second stint with the Huskers, coaching the outside linebackers and serving as special teams coordinator. He previously worked as a graduate assistant at Nebraska from 1990-93. Busch moved over to coach the safeties and continued to handle special teams duties in 2005-07.

During his tenure, the Huskers blocked 16 kicks, including seven in 2005. Nebraska ranked in the top 25 nationally in net punting (24th in 2006) and punt returns (17th in 2005) under Busch, as well. NU's kickoff coverage unit ranked 15th nationally in 2006 after finishing 22nd the previous year.

Busch coached the secondary at Utah from 2001-03, spending a season under head coach Urban Meyer. Utah boasted one of the top defenses in the Mountain West Conference in 2003 to help the Utes to a 10-2 record and their first outright conference title since 1957. Utah's 10 victories that season tied the then-school record and its No. 21 final national ranking in both polls was the school's highest since 1994. The secondary ranked second in the Mountain West and 27th nationally in pass efficiency defense, as Utah surrendered just nine passing touchdowns in 12 games.

In 2001, Utah ranked 17th nationally in pass efficiency defense while earning an 8-4 overall record that concluded with a victory over USC in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Before his three seasons at Utah, Busch spent four years at New Mexico State where he coached the defensive backs. His first full-time coaching job was at Northern Arizona where he was the secondary coach in 1995 and 1996. Busch also served as the co-defensive coordinator in 1996 where he helped guide Northern Arizona to its first appearance in the Division I-AA (now FCS) playoffs as the Lumberjacks posted a 9-3 overall mark and finished second in the Big Sky Conference.

Busch, a Pender, Nebraska, native, earned his bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska Wesleyan in 1988. He added a master's degree in 1990 from Nebraska-Kearney. He married the former Laura Bonta in April of 2019 and the couple has three children – Sydney, Olivia, and Gianna.

James Cregg

Offensive Line

@CoachCregg | #LSUTrenchmen

SUPER BOWL CHAMPION

James Cregg, who has six years of NFL experience and another 17 seasons at the collegiate level, is in his third year as LSU's offensive line coach. Cregg was named to the position in December of 2017.

Prior to joining LSU, Cregg spent four seasons as the assistant offensive line coach for the Los Angeles Chargers. He held the same position at previous NFL stops with the Denver Broncos (2014-16) and the Oakland Raiders (2007-08). He won a Super Bowl with the Broncos in 2015.

LSU marks Cregg's third coaching stop at a Power 5 school as he spent four seasons at Southern Cal (2010-13) and one at Tennessee (2009).

Cregg did perhaps his best coaching job in 2019, molding the Tiger offensive line into a unit that claimed the Joe Moore Award., which is presented to the best offensive line in college football. It's the first time in the history of the award that a unit from LSU won the honor.

LSU had eight players start at least one game on the offensive line and the Tigers didn't use the same starting lineup on the offensive line in consecutive games until games 8 and 9 in wins over Auburn and Alabama. Center Lloyd Cushenberry and right guard Damien Lewis started every game for the Tigers and both earned All-America honors.

LSU's offensive line in 2019 helped pave the way for the first offense in NCAA history to feature a 5,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher. LSU's offense led the country in both scoring and total offense and set numerous SEC and school records on its way to a 15-0 record and a national title.

In his first year with the Tigers in 2018, Cregg inherited an offensive line that returned only two starters (Garrett Brumfield and Saahdiq Charles) and he transformed that unit into a dominant group by the end of the season. Cregg's unit helped pave the way for 1,000-yard rusher Nick Brossette.

LSU had eight different players start at least one game on the offensive line in 2018 and the Tigers used a total of seven combinations on the offensive line in 13 games. LSU opened the season starting a different combination on the offensive line for the first seven games of the year. Cushenberry and Lewis – both first-time starters – were the only Tigers to start every game up front for LSU in 2018.

Cregg joined the Tigers after one season in the NFL with the Chargers where he assisted with an offensive line that allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL (18) and helped running back Melvin Gordon rush for a career-best 1,105 yards in 2017.

He coached a line that featured three players making their first NFL start, and tutored Russell Okung to an appearance in the 2018 Pro Bowl. The Chargers finished as the top passing offense in the NFL and they ranked fourth overall in total yards in 2017.

Cregg spent three seasons (2014-16) as the assistant offensive line coach for the Denver Broncos. He tutored Matt Paradis, who played every snap for the Broncos in both 2015 and 2016. Paradis was an alternate for the 2017 Pro Bowl.

The 2015 season saw Cregg coach seven different starters along the offensive line, including four players making their first career start. The season culminated in a 24-10 victory over the Panthers in Super Bowl 50, marking the franchise's third World Championship.

In 2014, he assisted an offensive line that provided the foundation for a unit that finished fourth in total offense and second in scoring offense. Cregg tutored a line that allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL (17).

Cregg spent one season in Knoxville with the Vols (2009) before moving to California to become the offensive line coach at USC for the next four seasons (2010-13). Cregg coached first-team All-Pac-12 selections in each of his four years with the school, including offensive tackles and future NFL first-round picks Tyron Smith (No. 9, Dallas, 2011) and Matt Kalil (No. 4, Minnesota, 2012).

In 2011, USC finished second in the nation in sacks allowed (eight) despite not starting a senior along the offensive line. Kalil was named first-team All-America, while guard Marcus Martin was chosen as a first-team Freshman All-America.

Cregg spent two seasons (2007-08) as the assistant offensive line coach with the Oakland Raiders, marking his first NFL job. In 2007, he oversaw a line that blocked for the No. 6 rushing attack in the NFL, finishing with 130.4 yards-per-game, including 1,000-yard rusher Justin Fargas.

A native of Syracuse, N.Y., Cregg prepped at Norco (Calif.) High School before spending four years (1992-95) as an offensive lineman at Colorado State University. He was a first-team All-Western Athletic Conference selection as a senior in 1995.

In 1994, Cregg helped Colorado State to the first 10-win season in school history as the Rams posted a 10-2 mark and played in the Holiday Bowl. As a senior, Cregg and the Rams went 8-4 overall and advanced to the Holiday Bowl for a second straight year.

Cregg remained at Colorado State and landed his first coaching job as a defensive graduate assistant from 1997-99. After three seasons at his alma mater, Cregg moved on to Colgate (2000-03) and Idaho (2004-06), coaching the defensive line at both stops.

At Colgate, Cregg was part of a staff that led the Raiders to the 2003 NCAA Division I-AA championship game. Colgate won 21 straight games during his time on the coaching staff. In four years at Colgate, claimed two Patriot League titles and finished in the Top 10 in the nation in rushing defense twice.

In 2007, Cregg landed his first NFL job as an assistant offensive line coach with the Oakland Raiders (2007-08). In 2009, he was hired to coach the offensive line at the University of Tennessee. That season, the Volunteers allowed just 12 sacks, tied for fewest on the Southeastern Conference.

Cregg received his bachelor's degree in social science from Colorado State in 1997. He was born Aug. 18, 1973 and he and his wife, Dayna, have a daughter, McKenzie.

Kevin Faulk

Running Backs

@feezy_k

SUPER BOWL CHAMPION

Kevin Faulk, LSU's all-time rushing leader and three-time Super Bowl Champion, enters his first season as running backs coach for the Tigers after being promoted to that position in February of 2020.

Faulk, who played his entire NFL career under legendary coach Bill Belichick in New England, had spent the previous two years on the LSU staff as Director of Player Development. In that role, Faulk worked with LSU student-athletes on their academic direction, social development and overall quality of life.

Faulk is one of three former Tigers in a full-time on-field coaching position on the LSU staff, joining offensive coordinator Steve Ensminger and cornerbacks coach Corey Raymond.

Faulk, who remains LSU's all-time leader in rushing yards (4,557) and rushing TDs (46), starred in the backfield for the Tigers from 1995-98, helping LSU to three bowl appearances over that span. Faulk earned All-America honors from the Associated Press in 1996.

Faulk capped his record-setting LSU career as the SEC's all-time leader in all-purpose yards with 6,833. He still ranks third in SEC history in rushing yards and rushing TDs.

Drafted in the second round of the 1999 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots, Faulk spent his entire 13-year NFL career with that franchise. Faulk appeared in five Super Bowls with the Patriots, winning the title three times.

Faulk scored 33 touchdowns (16 rushing, 15 receiving, 2 kickoff returns) during his career with the Patriots and he holds the franchise record for all-purpose yards (12,349) and kickoff return yards (4,098).

A native of Carencro, Louisiana, Faulk retired from the NFL on October 9, 2012, and was elected into the Patriots Hall of Fame on May 18, 2016. Faulk is a member of the Patriots All-Decade Team for the 2000s and was named to the franchise's 50th Anniversary team as a return specialist.

Faulk is also a member of the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame as well as the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame.

Faulk graduated from LSU in 1999 with a kinesiology degree. He served as an assistant football coach at Carencro, his high school alma mater, following his retirement from the NFL.

Bill Johnson

Defensive Line

@CoachDJ_

SUPER BOWL CHAMPION

Bill Johnson, a pro football coaching veteran that coached the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in both 2017 and 2018, enters his second year on the LSU staff in 2020. Johnson has won both a Super Bowl title (2009 with New Orleans Saints) and a CFP National Championship.

Johnson was named to his current role on the staff on Aug. 17, 2019.

In his first year with the Tigers in 2019, Johnson was instrumental in the continued development of the Tiger defensive front. Senior Rashard Lawrence was named second team All-SEC after recording 6.0 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks. Overall, LSU's defensive line combined for 22 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks as the Tigers ranked No. 3 in the SEC in rushing defense, allowing 120.8 yards per game. LSU's defensive line included first-time starter Tyler Shelvin at nose tackle, who emerged as one of the top defensive linemen in the SEC in 2019. Shelvin finished 2019 with 39 tackles and 3.0 tackles for loss. Defensive end Neil Farrell led all Tiger defensive linemen with 46 tackles, 7.0 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks.

Johnson joined the LSU staff after serving as the defensive line coach for the Los Angeles Rams in 2017 and 2018. He helped the Rams reach the Super Bowl in February of 2019. Johnson's NFL career spans 18 seasons with four organizations – Rams (2017-18), Saints (2009-16), Broncos (2007-08) and Falcons (2001-06).

While with the Rams, Johnson's standout defensive lineman Aaron Donald was twice named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year. Donald was also the NFL's sack leader in 2018 with a league-record 20.5 a year ago. In 2017, Donald became the first player in Rams history to earn NFL Defensive Player of the Year, becoming the first defensive tackle in the league to win the award since 1999.

Prior to joining the Rams, Johnson spent eight years with the New Orleans Saints where he was part of the franchise's only Super Bowl win. Johnson coached the Saints defensive line, helping that group to numerous honors and records.

Under Johnson's watch Cam Jordan (Saints), Rod Coleman (Falcons), and Patrick Kerney (Falcons) all earned All-Pro honors.

Prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks, Johnson spent over 20 years coaching the defensive line at the collegiate level, which included stops at Arkansas (2000, 1990-91), Texas A&M (1992-99), Louisiana Tech (1988-89), Miami (1987), McNeese State (1985-86) and Northwestern State (1980-84).

Johnson coached alongside Ed Orgeron at Northwestern State and McNeese State. The staff at McNeese State in 1985 also included current LSU offensive coordinator Steve Ensminger.

While at Miami in 1987, Johnson worked under College Football Hall of Famer Jimmy Johnson where the Hurricanes went 12-0 and claimed the national title that year.

Johnson is a 1980 graduate of Northwestern State, where he was a two-year starter at center for the Demons. Following his playing career from 1976-79, Johnson got his start in coaching with the Demons in 1980 as a graduate assistant.

Mickey Joseph

Assistant Head Coach/Wide Receivers

@daboot02

Mickey Joseph, a Louisiana high school football legend with strong ties to New Orleans, enters his fourth season as LSU's wide receivers coach in 2020. Johnson also serves as assistant head coach for the Tigers, a position he was elevated to in February of 2020.

Joseph has over 20 years of coaching experience as well as four years as a quarterback at Nebraska under Tom Osborne.

Joseph was responsible for putting the best group of receivers in SEC history on the field in 2019 as LSU's three starters – Ja'Marr Chase, Justin Jefferson and Terrace Marshall – combined for 241 receptions for 3,991 yards and 51 touchdowns. Overall, LSU's offense set numerous SEC records in 2019, including passing yards (6,024), passing TDs (61) and total offense (568.4).

Chase won the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver as well as being a unanimous All-America selection after setting SEC records for receiving yards (1,780) and TDs (20). Jefferson set the LSU record with 111 receptions to go with 1,540 yards and 18 TDs, while Marshall caught 46 passes for 671 yards and 13 scores.

Chase and Marshall both return in 2020, while Jefferson is expected to be a first round NFL Draft pick in 2020. Chase is the first player in school history to eclipse the 2,000-yard mark in receiving yards in only two years. Chase goes into 2020 with 107 receptions for 2,093 yards and 23 TDs.

In 2018, Joseph took a young and unproven group of receivers at the beginning of the year and developed them into a dependable, playmaking unit by seasons end. Jefferson, who had never caught a collegiate pass prior to 2018, led the Tigers with 54 catches for 875 yards and six TDs. Jefferson ranked in the top 10 in the SEC in receiving yards (No. 6 at 875), yards per game (No. 8 at 67.3), and receptions (No. 10 at 54).

LSU's 2018 wide receiver corps featured Jefferson, three juniors who have previously combined for only 13 starts prior to last year, and two talented true freshmen in Chase and Marshall.

In his first year at LSU, Joseph helped groom wide receiver DJ Chark into an explosive playmaker as he ranked among the leaders in the SEC in yards per catch (21.9) and yards per game (67.2). Chark earned second team All-SEC honors after hauling in 40 passes for 874 yards and three scores. He doubled as a threat in the punt return game, leading the SEC in punt return TDs (2) and finishing second in the league in punt return yards (190) and average (10.6). His 75-yard punt return for a TD against Auburn helped the Tigers overcome a 20-point first half deficit to win, 27-23, in what was the largest SEC comeback for LSU in Tiger Stadium history.

Chark went on to become a second round draft pick (No. 61 overall) of the Jacksonville Jaguars. Chark earned a spot in the Pro Bowl following his second season in the NFL in 2019.

Another of Joseph's LSU products was that of Russell Gage, a seldom-used wide receiver until Orgeron took over the squad in September of 2016. Under Orgeron and Joseph, Gage flourished as a dynamic playmaker in both the passing and running game as well as making an impact on special teams. Gage developed so much under Joseph that he was drafted in the sixth round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

Joseph joined the LSU staff after serving as running backs coach at Louisiana Tech in 2016. In his one year in Ruston, Joseph helped the Bulldogs to a 9-5 overall mark and a 48-45 win over 25th-ranked Navy in the Armed Forces Bowl.

The Bulldogs ranked No. 2 in the nation in scoring in 2016, averaging 44.3 points per game. Tech averaged 514.9 total yards game, which included 363.4 passing and 151.6 on the ground.

Prior to Louisiana Tech, Joseph helped turn around a Grambling State team that went 1-11 prior to his arrival to winning 16 games over the next two years. The Tigers posted a 7-5 mark in 2014 and followed that with a 9-3 overall mark and an appearance in the SWAC Championship Game. In 2015, Joseph's receivers totaled 2,250 receiving yards and 25 touchdowns as Grambling's scoring offense ranked fourth and passing offense ranked 21st among all FCS programs nationally.

Joseph was special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach at Alcorn State in 2013, helping the Braves to a 9-3 overall mark, the most wins for the school in 30 years. While at Alcorn, Joseph guided a receiving corps that caught for 2,728 yards and 23 touchdowns with an average gain of 13.0 yards per reception.

Joseph spent six years at Langston University from 2008-13, which included two years as the head coach. Joseph led Langston to a 7-3 mark in his first season as head coach in 2011. He went 13-7 overall as the head coach at Langston.

Joseph got his first collegiate coaching job at Wayne State College in Nebraska in 1997, which he followed with a season at his high school alma mater Archbishop Shaw High School in New Orleans in 1998. From there, Joseph served as a graduate assistant at Tulane in 1999 and then coached receivers at Alabama State in 2000.

He coached quarterbacks at Nicholls State for three years (2001-03) and then spent two seasons as the running backs coach at Central Oklahoma (2004-05).

Before his tenure at Langston, Joseph served as the head football coach and Director of Athletics for Desire Street Academy, a private school in the New Orleans' Ninth Ward area. His main goal was to help get young kids out of the underprivileged area to improve their overall quality of life through sports. At the time of Hurricane Katrina, Joseph was responsible of moving the private school to Florida along with relocating the student- athletes. That year, the team had a record of 1-3, however, in 2008 Joseph turned the team around to a 10-3 record. Seven out of 25 players were able to sign with NCAA Division I programs.

During the summer of 2012 he also spent time with Houston Texans as part of an NFL minority internship. While in Houston, Joseph worked with the running backs and all aspects of the special teams units.

Joseph played quarterback at Nebraska from 1988-91. As a junior Joseph led the Cornhuskers to a 9-3 overall mark after accounting for 21 touchdowns (11 rushing, 10 passing). In his four years at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers posted a 39-9-1 overall mark and appeared in the Orange Bowl twice, the Citrus Bowl and the Fiesta Bowl.

In four years with the Cornhuskers, Joseph played in 34 regular season games and accounted for 30 touchdowns (16 rushing, 14 passing). His best season came as a junior in 1990 when he played in all 12 games, throwing for 624 yards and 11 touchdowns to go along with 554 rushing yards and 10 TDs.

Joseph was the top recruit coming out of Archbishop Shaw High School in Marrero when he was recruited to the University of Nebraska. In 1987, he was awarded Gatorade Player of the Year and First-Team Parade All-American. The standout football player was also a two-time All-State MVP and three-time All-District MVP.

Joseph, who is married to Priscilla Arzaga, has six children – Jacob, Zachary, Makiyah, Maya, Malania, and Mickey Reign.

Scott Linehan

Passing Game Coordinator

Scott Linehan, who served as head coach of the St. Louis Rams and has over 20 years of combined experience as an offensive coordinator in the NFL and the collegiate level, joined the LSU staff in February and serves as the passing game coordinator.

Linehan works alongside offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Steve Ensminger on the LSU staff. Linehan joins the LSU staff after spending 17 years in the NFL, 13 of which came as an offensive coordinator.

Linehan most recently served on the Dallas Cowboys staff for five years, handling passing game coordinator duties in 2014 before his promotion to offensive coordinator from 2015-18. While in Dallas, Linehan helped the Cowboys to three divisional titles and to three playoff appearances.

The Cowboys went 12-4 and claimed the NFC East with Linehan calling the plays as the passing game coordinator in 2014. In 2016 with rookie quarterback Dak Prescott, Linehan helped lead Dallas to a 13-3 mark and the NFC East title. The Cowboys also won the NFC East in 2018.

Prior to that, Linehan was the offensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions from 2009–13. In 2011, Linehan helped the Lions to a 10-6 mark and a berth in the playoffs. Quarterback Matthew Stafford earned AP Comeback Player of the Year honors after throwing for career-highs of 5,038 yards and 41 touchdowns.

Linehan coached the St. Louis Rams from 2006-08, compiling an 11-25 mark as the head coach.

Other NFL stops for Linehan include offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Minnesota Vikings (2002-04) and offensive coordinator for the Miami Dolphins (2005). While with the Vikings, quarterback Daunte Culpepper was selected to the Pro Bowl twice and led the NFL in passing yards (4,717) and completions (379) in 2004. Also, during that span, Viking wide receiver Randy Moss caught 37 TD passes and led the NFL in touchdown receptions with 17 in 2003.

Prior to get his start in the NFL, Linehan held offensive coordinator and quarterback coach duties for Louisville for three years (1999-2001). The Cardinals reached a bowl game each season and claimed the Conference USA title in 2001, going 11-2 overall.

He spent five years on the staff at Washington, coaching wide receivers for two years (1994-95), followed by three years as offensive coordinator (1996-98). The Huskies reached a bowl game four times with Linehan on staff and finished 9-3 and ranked No. 16 in the nation in his first year as offensive coordinator in 1996.

A graduate of the University of Idaho, Linehan got his collegiate coaching start at his alma mater where he handled the wide receivers in 1989 and 1990. He then spent one season as the quarterbacks coach at UNLV before returning to Idaho as offensive coordinator and quarterback coach in 1992 and 1993.

The Sunnyside, Idaho played quarterback at Idaho from 1982-86, earning offensive MVP honors for the Vandals in 1986 when he led the team to an 8-4 overall mark and a berth in the I-AA playoffs. In 1984, Linehan passed for 2,407 yards and 17 TDs and then in 1986, he threw for 3,954 yards and 22 scores.

He and his wife Kristen have three sons – Matt, Michael and Marcus. Matt was a four-year starter at quarterback for Idaho from 2014-17 and earned All-Sun Belt honors for the Vandals. He capped his career as the No. 2 passer in Idaho history with 10,752 yards. Mike played collegiately at both Idaho (2015-16) and North Texas (2018-19).

Greg McMahon

Special Teams Coordinator

SUPER BOWL CHAMPION

Greg McMahon – a NFL coaching veteran with unmatched expertise in special teams play - enters his third season as LSU's special teams coordinator in 2020. McMahon, who won a Super Bowl with the New Orleans Saints, joined the LSU staff as an analyst in 2017 before taking over as special teams coordinator a year later.

McMahon joins Bill Johnson, James Cregg and Kevin Faulk as coaches on the LSU staff to win both a Super Bowl and a national title at the collegiate level.

The play of LSU's special teams since McMahon took over that unit has gone a long way in the Tigers posting a 28-3 overall mark and claiming both the SEC and CFP National titles during that two-year span. LSU has led the SEC in points by kicking in back-to-back years.

In 2019, true freshman Cade York led the SEC and ranked No. 2 nationally in points by a kicker with 152, while kickoff specialist Avery Atkins led the nation in touchbacks (110) and finished No. 3 in touchback percentage (83.9). Three-year starting punter Zach Von Rosenberg averaged 42.8 yards on 47 punts with 21 of those being downed inside the 20-yard line.

York, who earned second team All-SEC honors as well as being a Freshman All-SEC selection, became the first player in LSU history with two 50-yard field goals in a game and he's one of only two kickers in school history to have four 50-yard field goals in a season. He finished his rookie season by connecting on 21-of-27 field goals and going 89-of-93 on extra-point attempts.

LSU also accounted for two special teams touchdowns – one punt return and one return of a blocked punt.

McMahon's impact on LSU's special teams was nothing short of remarkable in 2018 as the Tigers rode the leg of record-setting kicker Cole Tracy, along with the punting of Von Rosenberg and kickoff ability of Atkins to a 10-3 record and a Fiesta Bowl victory.

In his first full season in charge of LSU special teams, McMahon's unit set or tied seven school-records, including field goals in a game (5 vs. Georgia), field goals in a season (29), longest field goal (54 yards by Tracy vs. Miami) and points by kicking in a game (18 by Tracy vs. Georgia).

The Tigers led the SEC in points scored by kicking (129) and field goals made (29), finished second in the league in kickoff returns (24.7) and were third in net punting (41.0).

Individually, graduate transfer Tracy, who kicked a 42-yard walk-off field goal to beat Auburn, 22-21, in September, earned second team All-America honors and was a finalist for the Lou Groza Award in his only season with the Tigers. Tracy capped his collegiate career with more field goals (97) and points kicking (502) than any player in college football history, no matter the division.

Tracy led the SEC and ranked No. 2 in the nation in field goals (29) and field goals per game (2.23). He also paced the league in scoring (129), which ranked No. 7 nationally.

Von Rosenberg earned second team All-SEC honors after finishing No. 2 in the league in punting with a 45.7 average, which ranks as the third-best single-season total in school history.

As LSU's kickoff specialist, Atkins saw 71 of his 79 kickoffs go for touchbacks and the Tigers held opponents to only 126 yards in kickoff returns all year. Opponents managed only 64 return yards on 13 punts, an average of 4.9 yards a return.

Prior to his arrival as an analyst for the Tigers in the fall of 2017, McMahon spent 11 years with the New Orleans Saints, the first two as assistant special teams coordinator followed by nine seasons as special teams coordinator. During his 11 years with the Saints, special teams play under McMahon was defined by solid performances in the kicking game, coverage units and by the return specialists.

McMahon, a graduate of Eastern Illinois, served on the coaching staff at Illinois for 13 years before transitioning to the NFL. At Illinois, McMahon coached wide receivers for five years and then spent eight years coaching special teams and the tight ends. McMahon was part of the 2001 Illinois staff that won the Big 10 and faced LSU in the Sugar Bowl.

Under McMahon's watch, the Saints recovered 15 fumbles on special teams, scored 12 touchdowns – including seven on punt returns – and blocked three punts, five field goals and three extra points. With McMahon on staff, the Saints made five playoff appearances, won the NFC South three times and claimed the franchise's first Super Bowl championship with a 31-17 win over the Colts in Super Bowl XLIV.

As the special teams coordinator for the Saints, McMahon was responsible for some of the best special teams play in franchise history. In the biggest win in Saints history – the Super Bowl victory over the Colts – New Orleans became the first team to successfully execute an onside kick prior to the fourth quarter of a Super Bowl. Called "Ambush", the Saints shifted the momentum of the game in their favor with the onside kick to open the second half, going from down 10-6 at halftime to taking a 13-10 advantage following the onside kick.

Saints kicker Garrett Hartley also became the first player in Super Bowl history to kick three field goals of 40-yards or more in the same game.

In 2014, New Orleans' punt coverage units ranked first in the NFL in opponent punt return average (4.1), setting a club record. Punter Thomas Morstead, who evolved into one of the best in the league at his position, ranked No. 2 in the NFL in net punting in 2014 with a 42.9 average.

In 2013, Morstead finished third in the league in net punting (42.3) and the Saints won three games, including one in the postseason, on field goals at the end of regulation. Morstead earned a spot in the Pro Bowl and was named second team All-Pro by the Associated Press in 2012 after he set club records for both gross (50.1) punting average and net (43.2) punting average. His 42.3 ranked second in NFL history at the time.

McMahon had perhaps his best year with the Saints in 2011 as the club finished eighth in the Dallas Morning News special teams rankings. Morstead finished second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL with a 48.3 gross punting average and second in the league with a 43.1 net average. Morstead also ranked first in the league with an NFL-record 68 touchbacks. Kicker John Kasay ranked second in the NFL in scoring among kickers and set a team record with 147 points.

Darren Sproles made an immediate impact on the return units, handling both punt and kickoff return duties as part of a season where he set an NFL record with 2,696 all-purpose yards. He averaged 10.2 yards on punt returns with one touchdown and ranked third in the NFC and sixth in the league on kickoff returns. McMahon's coverage units ranked fifth in the NFL in opponent punt return average, allowing only 6.2 yards per return.

McMahon fostered improvement out of both Hartley and Morstead in 2010. In his first full NFL season, Hartley made his final 10 field goal attempts and 15-of-his-last-16. The punter enjoyed a solid campaign, finishing sixth in the NFL with a 45.9 gross average. The Saints were only one of four NFL teams to not allow a blocked kick or give up a special teams score.

In McMahon's first season as coordinator in 2008, New Orleans finished as one of only four teams to rank in the top 10 in both punt return average (fourth) and kickoff return average (eighth). Reggie Bush scored on two punt returns against Minnesota to tie an NFL record.

McMahon served as assistant special teams coach for his first two years in New Orleans, following a one-year stint as tight ends/special teams coach at East Carolina. In 2005, the Pirates finished in the top 20 in the nation in field goal accuracy. McMahon also tutored tight ends as part of a staff that directed ECU to the fourth-highest passing total in school history.

He spent 13 years at the University of Illinois (1992-2004), working primarily with the special teams, tight ends and wide receivers. In 1997, McMahon took on the additional responsibility of overseeing the special teams. His efforts were integral in Illinois making four bowl appearances and twice appearing in the final national rankings, and in 2001 the school finished 10-2 and captured the Big Ten title.

Based on the records his units established, the play of the special teams during McMahon's years at Illinois are unmatched in school history. Illinois blocked 16 kicks from 2001-04 and accounted for nine touchdowns. Players under his direction included the school leaders in career punting average, single-season scoring and all-time punt return yardage.

McMahon joined Illinois in 1992 from Nevada-Las Vegas where he spent two years as special teams coordinator as well as coaching offensive tackles and tight ends. He has also had stints with Valdosta (Ga.) State, Southern Illinois, North Alabama, Minnesota and his alma mater Eastern Illinois.

As a defensive back at Eastern Illinois, he was a member of two teams that played for the NCAA Division II National Championship. The Panthers won the title in 1978 and again went to the championship game two years later. McMahon earned a degree in psychology from EIU in 1982. McMahon and his wife Linda have three children and two grandchildren.

Corey Raymond

Cornerbacks/Recruiting Coordinator

@LSUCoachRaymond

Corey Raymond, a former LSU standout who spent six years playing in the NFL, enters his ninth season with the Tigers in 2020. Raymond coaches the LSU cornerbacks, while also serving as the recruiting coordinator, a position he added in February of 2020.

Raymond's expertise as been critical in the development of LSU defensive backs as the Tigers secondary has consistently been one of the strengths thus enhancing the school's claim of being "DBU."

Under Raymond, LSU's secondary has produced nine NFL Draft picks, including Jamal Adams and Tre'Davious White, who were both selected in the first round of the 2017 NFL Draft. Most recently, cornerback Greedy Williams was selected in the second round of the 2019 NFL Draft, while Donte Jackson was taken in the second round in 2018.

Raymond has coached three first-round draft picks at LSU, a list that also includes Eric Reid. Other LSU NFL Draft picks under Raymond's watch include: cornerback Tyrann Mathieu (third round in 2013), cornerback Tharold Simon (fifth round in 2013), safety Jalen Collins (second round in 2015), cornerback Rashard Robinson (third round in 2016) and safety Jalen Mills (seventh round in 2016).

Raymond's secondary has produced seven first team All-Americans during his time at LSU, a list that includes Reid (2012), Mills (2015), Adams (2016), White (2016), Williams (2018), Grant Delpit (2018 and 2019) and Derek Stingley Jr. (2019).

Raymond's primary focus for the past two years has been that of the cornerbacks and that unit has thrived under his watch. Stingley Jr. was along with Kristian Fulton were two of the top-rated cornerbacks in college football in 2019. Stingley earned consensus All-America honors as a true freshman and he led the SEC in both interceptions (6) and passes defended (21), while Fulton had one interception and 15 passes defended for the national champion Tigers. Fulton is expected to add his name to the list of LSU first round NFL Draft picks in April.

For the second straight year, LSU led the SEC in interception in 2019 with 17 and the Tigers ranked No. 2 in the league in pass efficiency defense, allowing opponents to complete only 50.7 percent of its passes, the best percentage in the conference.

In 2018 with his focus primarily on cornerbacks, Raymond continued the development of Williams, who earned first team All-America honors and was a finalist for the Thorpe Award. Raymond's impact was also evident with the emergence of Fulton into one of the top cornerbacks in college football after sitting out the previous two years.

LSU led the SEC interceptions with 17 and ranked second in the league in pass defense efficiency in 2018. LSU was the only team in the SEC to hold opponents to less than 50 percent completion percentage for the season.

In 2017, LSU's secondary featured a pair of second team All-Americans in Williams and Jackson. Williams had a breakout year with the Tigers in 2017, leading the SEC in interceptions (6) and finishing No. 2 in the conference in passes defended (17). As a unit, LSU allowed only 11 passing touchdowns, which was the second-lowest total in the SEC, and the Tigers were No. 2 in the league in pass efficiency defense.

In 2016, Raymond's secondary allowed only nine passing touchdowns all season and ranked No. 3 in the Southeastern Conference in yards per game at 197.2. White, who ranked No. 2 in the conference in passes defended with 16, along with Adams were both named first team All-SEC. For the second-straight year, Adams led all LSU defensive backs with 76 tackles.

LSU's 2015 secondary featured Mills, a first team All-America selection despite missing the first five games of the season with a broken ankle. Mills was joined in the secondary by White and Adams, who were both second team All-SEC selections. Adams led all Tiger defensive backs with 67 tackles and four interceptions.

In 2014, LSU's secondary featured another young, but talented group as the starting lineup included a true freshman, one sophomore, two juniors and a senior. The play of LSU's secondary was prominent in the Tigers leading the SEC in total defense (316.8 yards per game), pass defense (164.2 yards per game) and pass efficiency defense (101.6 rating). LSU allowed an SEC-best 10 passing touchdowns in 2014 and the Tigers were the only team in the league to hold teams to fewer than 200 completions.

LSU ranked No. 4 in the SEC in pass defense in 2013, allowing 197.5 yards per game. The Tigers limited opponents to 15 touchdown passes and ranked second in the league in yards allowed per attempt (6.4) and third in the conference in completion percentage at 56.0 percent.

In his first year back with the Tigers in 2012, Raymond coached safety Reid to first team All-America honors. Reid was later chosen in the first round (18th overall) of the NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Starting cornerback Tharold Simon was picked in the fifth round by the Seattle Seahawks.

As a unit in 2012, LSU's secondary, despite using a pair of first-time starters, combined for 15 interceptions and helped the Tigers rank No. 11 nationally in pass efficiency defense.

Raymond returned to LSU after spending the 2011 season as the secondary coach at Nebraska. In his one season with the Cornhuskers, Raymond coached a Nebraska secondary that featured the 2011 Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year in Alfonzo Dennard. Despite inheriting a group that lost four starters from the season before, including three NFL Draft picks, Raymond's secondary helped Nebraska rank No. 18 in the nation in pass defense in 2011.

Prior to his one-year stay in Lincoln, Raymond served as the cornerbacks coach for two seasons at Utah State. Raymond's top pupil at Utah State was that of Curtis Marsh, who earned All-WAC honors and later went on to become a third-round pick in the NFL Draft. Raymond served on the LSU staff for three years from 2006-08 before taking the job at Utah State.

During his three years on the LSU staff from 2006-08, Raymond was part of two BCS bowl victories, including a 38-24 win over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship. LSU's defense ranked No. 3 nationally in both 2006 and 2007 as the Tigers combined to post a 23-4 record during that span.

Prior to joining the LSU staff in 2006, Raymond coached at the high school level for three years in his hometown of New Iberia. Raymond was the defensive coordinator at New Iberia High School in 2003 and then held the same position at Westgate High School in 2004-05.

Raymond was a three-year starter in the secondary for the Tigers from 1989-91. He capped his LSU career with 185 tackles and eight interceptions. Following his career with the Tigers, Raymond spent six seasons in the NFL – three with the New York Giants and three with the Detroit Lions. In 90 games in the NFL, Raymond started 60 times and intercepted 11 passes to go with 258 tackles.

Raymond, who earned his undergraduate degree from LSU in 1993, has four children – Cody, Ariel, Christopher and Madison.

Burrow Becomes LSU's Second Heisman Winner

LSU senior quarterback Joe Burrow had one of the most prolific passing seasons in college football history, as he became LSU's first Heisman Memorial Trophy winner since Billy Cannon won it as a running back for the Tigers in 1959. Burrow won the trophy by the widest margin in its 81-year history, earning 90.7 percent of first-place votes and 94.8-percent of the total possible points. He threw for an SEC-record 5,671 yards and an NCAA-record 60 touchdowns on his way to earning the most prestigious award in college athletics. When Burrow mentioned those impoverished in his hometown of Athens, Ohio, during his Heisman acceptance speech, he inspired donations off more than a half-million dollars of donations to the Athens Food Pantry. Setting numerous LSU, SEC and NCAA records, Burrow solidified himself as the Heisman of all Heismans.

Orgeron, Tigers Sweep Award Season

The Tigers' prolific 2019 season on the field led to a number of LSU players and coaches winning postseason national awards. Senior quarterback Joe Burrow led the way, winning every award that he was up for including the Heisman Memorial Trophy, the Davey O'Brian Award, the Maxwell Award and the Manning Award among many others. Head coach Ed Orgeron earned National Coach of the Year recognition by at least six organizations. Sophomore receiver Ja'Marr Chase won the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver and junior safety Grant Delpit won the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. LSU's offensive line of Saahdiq Charles, Lloyd Cushenberry III, Austin Deculus, Ed Ingram, Damien Lewis, Adrian Magee, Badara Traore, and coach James Cregg earned the Joe Moore Award as the nation's best offensive line. Passing Game Coordinator Joe Brady, who was critical for LSU's offensive breakout year, was named the nation's top assistant as the Broyles Award recipient.

Seven Wins Against AP Top-10 Teams

Throughout LSU's historic championship run in 2019, the Tigers defeated an NCAA-record seven AP Top-10 teams including No. 9 Texas, No. 7 Florida, No. 9 Auburn, No. 2 Alabama, No. 4 Georgia, No. 4 Oklahoma and No. 3 Clemson. Not only did the Tigers handle business in each one of these games, but they never trailed in the fourth quarter, winning all these games by an average of 15.9 points. LSU is the only team in college football history to defeat all teams ranked in the a preseason AP Top 4: No. 1 Clemson, No. 2 Alabama, No. 3 Georgia and No. 4 Oklahoma. The Tigers defeated the previous two national champions and the champions of the Big 12, ACC, SEC East, Orange Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Sugar Bowl and Citrus Bowl.

LSU Becomes Second 15-0 Team in CFB History

The 2019 LSU Football team became the second team in college football history to go 15-0 and win a national championship, joining the 2018 Clemson Tigers. Dating to the 2019 Fiesta Bowl, LSU has won 16-consecutive games, entering the 2020 season with the nation's longest active winning streak. When LSU faced Clemson in the 2020 National Championship, LSU snapped Clemson's 29-game win streak which, at the time, was the longest active streak in college football dating to the start of Clemson's 15-0 season in 2018. LSU's 16-game win streak is the second-longest in its history behind a 19-game streak from 1957-59 when the Tigers won the program's first National Championship. Along with the 2011 LSU Tigers, the 2019 Tigers are the only LSU squad to go 8-0 in SEC play.

LSU Rewrites Record Books (See Pg. 78)

From the 2019 season opener to the College Football Playoff, LSU shattered single-game and single-season school, SEC and NCAA records. No. 6 LSU Dominates Season Opener, 55-3

Joe Burrow tied a school record with five touchdown passes, as the sixth-ranked LSU football team scored on its first five possessions to batter Georgia Southern, 55-3, on Saturday night in Tiger Stadium. LSU (1-0) tied its second-most points in a season opener in the SEC era (since 1933), amassing 473 yards of total offense while holding the Georgia Southern (0-1) to only 98 in its first trip to Baton Rouge. Burrow, LSU's senior quarterback, was 23-of-27 for 278 yards and five touchdowns, tying Zach Mettenberger's school record set in 2013. All five of Burrow's scoring passes came in the first half. Myles Brennan entered in the third quarter and finished 7-of-12 passing for 72 yards. Fourteen different Tigers caught passes in the contest, as Justin Jefferson led the way with 78 yards on five catches including LSU's first touchdown of the night. Sophomore Terrace Marshall Jr. scored on three of his four receptions, TD's of 8, 3 and 11 yards. LSU was balanced offensively, rushing 33 times for 122 net yards. Clyde Edwards-Helaire had team highs of 45 yards on nine carries including a 1-yard touchdown on the Tigers' second drive. Georgia Southern managed only eight first downs and was 1-of-12 on third down against a fast and furious LSU defense coach Ed Orgeron challenged prior to the season to dominate opponents. Rashard Lawrence and K'Lavon Chaisson both forced fumbles recovered by Patrick Queen and Grant Delpit, respectively.

Burrow, LSU Make History in Victory Over Texas

Joe Burrow passed for 471 yards, as No. 6 LSU earned its first non-conference road victory over a AP Top-10 team in program history, 45-38, over No. 10 Texas. LSU (2-0), which made its first trip to Austin since 1954, found itself in a see-saw battle with Texas (1-1) in the second half. The teams combined for 56 points in the final 30 minutes including 39 in the fourth quarter on a hot and dry evening at Darrell K Royal - Texas Memorial Stadium. Burrow finished 31-of-39 passing for 471 yards and four touchdowns. LSU had three receivers record more than 100 yards in a single game for the first time in program history: Justin Jefferson had nine catches for 163 yards with three touchdowns; Ja'Marr Chase added eight catches for 147 yards; Terrace Marshall Jr. had six catches for 123 yards with a touchdown. Running back Clyde Edwards-Helaire led the Tigers with 87 yards on 15 carries with a touchdown in the fourth quarter. Linebacker Michael Divinity Jr. had a team-high 10 tackles, while JaCoby Stevens added eight and Jacob Philips had seven. LSU recorded five sacks and had two goal-line stands in the first quarter in which the Tigers turned Texas over on downs twice inside the 2-yard line. The Tigers trailed only once, 7-3 in the first quarter, in a game that featured only one punt in the second half - on the first drive of the third quarter.

Death Valley Comes Alive, as No. 5 LSU Tops No. 7 Florida

LSU quarterback Joe Burrow tossed three touchdowns and running back Clyde Edwards-Helaire ran for two more, as the fifth-ranked LSU Football team shutout No. 7 Florida in the final 25 minutes of a 42-28 victory. The Tigers defense stepped up its game for the duration, while its offense continued to operate like a surgeon - slicing Florida to the tune of 10.6 yards per play, third-most in school history and most against an SEC opponent. LSU ran only 48 plays against the Gators and scored 42 points while facing third down only four times, the fewest on record by a Tigers team (records since 1978). Edwards-Helaire and freshman running back Tyrion Davis-Price added third-quarter touchdowns of 5 and 33 yards to give LSU a lead it wouldn't relinquish with 3:15 remaining in the third quarter. Leading by a touchdown midway through the fourth quarter, Burrow connected on a 54-yard touchdown pass to Ja'Marr Chase that gave LSU an insurmountable two-score advantage. Burrow and the Tigers offense were a model of efficiency against the Gators. The LSU signal caller completed 21-of-24 passes for 293 yards with two touchdown passes to Chase and another to Justin Jefferson, who led LSU with 10 catches for 123 yards. Chase had a team-high 127 yards on seven receptions. Edwards-Helaire had 134 net rushing yards, while Burrow added 43 on six carries without being sacked. Davis-Price made the most of his three carries, totaling 40 yards. The Tigers defense overcame a frustrating first half - which included a dropped interception in the end zone which resulted in a Florida touchdown - to shutout the Gators with the game in the balance.

Burrow, Edwards-Helaire Guide No. 1 LSU to End Bama Streaks

Joe Burrow had 393 yards passing with three touchdowns and Clyde Edwards-Helaire scored four times, as No. 1 LSU snapped No. 2 Alabama's 31-game home winning streak, 46-41, on Saturday night in Tuscaloosa. LSU, which improved to 5-0 in the SEC and 9-0 overall for the fifth time in school history (2011, 1973, 1958, 1908), tied a school record with its fourth top-10 victory of the season. LSU's senior quarterback Burrow finished 31-of-39 passing with touchdown passes to Edward-Helaire, Ja'Marr Chase and Terrace Marshall Jr. Edwards-Helaire had 180 yards of total offense, with three rushing touchdowns and 103 yards, along with nine catches for 77 and a score. Leading one of the most dynamic receiving corps in college football, Chase finished with six catches for a team-high 140 yards, while Justin Jefferson had seven catches for 79 yards and tight end Thaddeus Moss added six catches for 46 yards. LSU's defense was the star of the first-half show, holding the Tide offense to one big-play touchdown in the opening 30 minutes - a 64-yard touchdown catch by Smith with 6:43 remaining in the half. The Tigers stopped two Alabama drives with turnovers on downs and Patrick Queen intercepted Tagovailoa late in the second quarter, allowing LSU to increase its halftime advantage to 20 with a receiving touchdown by Edwards-Helaire. Linebacker K'Lavon Chaisson was dominant all over the field for the Tigers, recording 10 tackles (3.5 for loss). Linebackers Jacob Phillips and Queen, along with safety JaCoby Stevens each added seven tackles.

LSU Shatters Records in 58-37 Victory at Ole Miss

Joe Burrow set LSU's single-season passing record and tossed five touchdowns, as top-ranked LSU built a 31-7 halftime lead and held off Ole Miss, 58-37, on Saturday evening at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. Burrow, LSU's senior quarterback, completed 32-of-42 passes for a career-best 489 yards to give the Tigers a 10th win in 2019. In the process, he broke Rohan Davey's 2001 yardage record (3,347) and stands at 3,687 through 10 games. Burrow, who had the second-most yards in game in LSU history, saw his favorite targets - wide receivers Ja'Marr Chase and Justin Jefferson - each eclipse 1,000 yards on the season during the contest. The duo became the third in SEC history to reach the milestone, joining LSU's Jarvis Landry and Odell Beckham Jr. in 2013, and Florida's Jabar Gaffney and Reche Caldwell in 2001. Burrow completed a school-record 17-straight passes - including his last 16 of the first half - for 244 yards. Chase caught eight passes for 227 yards - fourth-most in LSU history - and became the first Tiger to record three-straight 100-yard games since Michael Clayton in 2003. With three touchdowns tonight, Chase set LSU's single-season record with 13. Jefferson had a team-high nine catches for 112 yards with two touchdowns, while tight end Thaddeus Moss added five catches for 63 yards. Running back Clyde Edwards-Helaire added his third-straight 100-yard game with career-best 172 yards on 23 carries with a touchdown. LSU's 714 yards of total offense is its second-most in program history and most against an SEC opponent. The most by LSU was 746 against Rice in 1977. The teams combined for 1,328 yards, third most in an SEC game in history.

Quick Strikes Keep No. 1 LSU Perfect, 56-20 Over Hogs

With a relentless up-tempo offensive attack, No. 1-ranked LSU scored 49-unanswered points and defeated Arkansas, 56-20, on Saturday night in Tiger Stadium. LSU, 11-0 for the third time in school history (1958, 2011), improved to 7-0 in SEC play and earned a berth in the SEC Championship game. In 2 1/2 quarters of action, LSU senior quarterback Joe Burrow completed 23-of-28 passes for 327 yards and three touchdowns, including a 50-yarder to wide receiver Ja'Marr Chase on Burrow's final play of the contest with 7:48 left in the third quarter. Chase led the Tigers with six catches for 144 yards, while running back Clyde Edwards-Helaire continued to show off his versatility. The Doak Walker Award semifinalist and Hornung Award finalist had seven catches for 65 yards - all in the first half - and ran only six times for 188 yards and three touchdowns. Needing one yard for 100 on the evening, he took advantage of his last touch of the game, sprinting through the line, down the right sideline, eluding a tackler at 25, and high-stepped for an 89-yard touchdown. It was the fifth-longest rushing touchdown in LSU history. Burrow, who has touchdown passes in 15-straight games, became the fourth SEC quarterback to surpass 4,000 passing yards in a season and moved to third in league history with 41 touchdown passes. Edwards-Helaire became the 14th Tiger to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. Defensively, LSU had 11 tackles for loss including four by safety JaCoby Stevens, who had all three of LSU's sacks. Linebacker Jacob Phillips led the Tigers with 12 tackles.

Perfect Finale: No. 1 LSU Finishes 12-0 with 50-7 Win

On Senior Night, the most prolific quarterback in LSU history took his final bow on Saturday Night in Death Valley by setting a pair of SEC passing records. LSU's Joe Burrow threw for 352 yards and three touchdowns, as top-ranked LSU posted its most lopsided victory in the 58-game series history with Texas A&M, 50-7, to finish the regular season 12-0. Meanwhile, LSU's defense put forth its most complete performance of the season while holding Texas A&M to seven points, 169 total yards, and 2-of-13 on third down while coming up with a safety and six sacks for the first time in three seasons. The Tigers intercepted Kellen Mond three times, as the Aggies quarterback managed only 10-of-30 passing for 92 yards. Burrow, the Heisman Memorial Trophy front-runner, broke Kentucky quarterback Tim Couch's 1998 single-season passing yards SEC record (4,275), and tied Drew Lock's (Missouri) 2017 passing touchdowns record with his 44th of the season. Burrow, who has 4,366 passing yards this season, left to a standing ovation with 12 minutes remaining in the game. He also moved to second on LSU's career passing yards list with 7,257 - trailing only four-year starter Tommy Hodson (9,115). LSU wide receiver Ja'Marr Chase continued to be nearly impossible to defend, as the sophomore caught seven passes for 197 yards and two touchdowns. It was Chase's eighth 100-yard game in 11 appearances this season, as he moved to second on LSU's single-season receiving yards list behind SEC record holder Josh Reed with 1,457 yards. Clyde Edwards-Helaire scored his 16th rushing touchdown of the season while running for 87 yards on 18 carries. He also caught four passes for 49 yards.' Wide receiver Justin Jefferson also scored for LSU - a 12-yard catch in the 21-0 first quarter - and finished with six catches for 55 yards. Jefferson moved to second on LSU's single-season receptions list with 81 in 2019, trailing only Josh Reed (94 in 2001). Burrow's backup, Myles Brennan, tossed his first touchdown of the 2019 season when he connected with tight end Racey McMath for a 58-yard catch-and-run in the fourth quarter.

No. 1 LSU Wins 12th SEC Title in Rout of Bulldogs, 37-10

Led by Joe Burrow's four touchdown passes, No. 1-ranked LSU won its 12th SEC Championship, 37-10, over No. 4 Georgia on Saturday at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. In head coach Ed Orgeron's third full season in Baton Rouge, LSU improved to 13-0 and solidified its place in the College Football Playoff Semifinals to be held Dec. 28. The Tigers beat five top-10 teams along the way and brought the league's trophy back to Baton Rouge for the first time since 2011. Burrow, the odds-on favorite to win the Heisman Trophy next Saturday in New York, was named the game's Most Valuable Player after completing 28-of-38 passes for 349 yards and four touchdowns. His footwork and escapability allowed him to lead LSU in rushing for most of the contest (41 yards), and he also caught a deflect pass that he threw for a 16-yard gain. In a contest played 70 miles from Georgia's Athens campus, only the vocal minority of LSU faithful remained in the stands as confetti rained over the purple and gold Tigers. The Tigers improved to 5-1 in SEC Championship games since the current format started in 1992. Wide receiver Justin Jefferson led LSU with 115 yards on seven catches with a touchdown, becoming the 10th LSU player to amass 2,000 career receiving yards. Versatile running back Clyde Edwards-Helaire ran for 57 yards and caught seven passes for 61 more. Wide receiver Terrace Marshall Jr. caught touchdown passes of 7 and 4 yards, finishing the evening with five catches for 89 yards. Ja'Marr Chase battled through illness to catch three passes for 41 yards including a 23-yard touchdown from Burrow on the Tigers' first drive. LSU cornerback Derek Stingley Jr. continued to remind the nation not to throw his way, as the freshman had a pair of interceptions in the second and third quarters. Safety JaCoby Stevens led the Tigers with seven tackles, while Thorpe Award finalist Grant Delpit, and linebackers Patrick Queen and K'Lavon Chaisson each had sacks of Georgia quarterback Jake Fromm.

Burrow, Jefferson Lead LSU to CFP Title Game, 63-28

Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Joe Burrow tied an NCAA record with seven first-half touchdown passes, as top-ranked LSU imposed its will on No. 4 Oklahoma to advance to the College Football Playoff National Championship, 63-28, in the 2019 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. LSU (14-0) earned its first College Football Playoff National Championship berth in the sixth season of the current format. The Tigers will face No. 3-seed Clemson in the title game scheduled for Jan. 13 at 7 p.m. CT in New Orleans. LSU has won three football national championships (1958, 2003, 2007). LSU's road to the national championship game hasn't come easy, as the Tigers recorded a record sixth victory over an AP Top-10 opponent in 2019. Burrow, who won virtually every major college football award earlier this month, finished 29-of-39 passing for 493 yards and an SEC-record tying seven touchdowns - all in the first half. He added another rushing touchdown in the second half, as LSU built a 49-14 halftime advantage and never looked back. With 71 passing touchdowns in two seasons in Baton Rouge, Burrow also passed Tommy Hodson (1986-89) for LSU's career record. Four of Burrow's touchdown passes were caught by junior wide receiver Justin Jefferson, who finished with 14 catches for 227 yards. Terrace Marshall Jr. added six receptions for 80 yards and two touchdowns, while Thaddeus Moss catch four passes for 99 yards including a 62-yard touchdown catch-and-run. With leading rusher Clyde Edwards-Helaire being used sparingly due to an injury, LSU turned to running back Chris Curry, who led LSU with 90 yards on 16 carries. The Tigers outgained Oklahoma (12-2), 692-322, and set countless program postseason, Peach Bowl, New Year's Six and CFP records along the way. Defensively, LSU was led by linebacker's Jacob Phillips (eight tackles; now 105 in 2019), Patrick Queen (eight tackles, 1.5 for loss), and defensive MVP K'Lavon Chaisson who had six tackles including two sacks. LSU held Oklahoma quarterback Jalen Hurts to 15-of-31 passing for 217 yards with an interception by Kary Vincent Jr.. Hurts ran 14 times for 43 yards and two touchdowns. Wide receiver CeeDee Lamb led the Sooners with four catches for 119 yards including a 51-yard reception.

The Best Team Ever. LSU Wins Its Fourth National Title, 42-25

Led by Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Joe Burrow's six-touchdown performance, Ed Orgeron's top-ranked Fighting Tigers of LSU earned the title 2019 National Champions and arguably The Best Team Ever. The Tigers - playing 60 minutes southeast of the Baton Rouge campus - won the fourth national championship in program history: 1958, 2003, 2007 and 2019. Orgeron became the third-straight LSU head coach to win a title. Burrow, Offensive Player of the Game, was 31-of-49 passing for 463 yards with five touchdown passes, while adding another 58 rushing yards and including a TD run. He accounted for all but 107 of LSU's 628 yards of total offense, as the Tigers broke NCAA records for points and yards in a season. Burrow set NCAA single-season marks for passing touchdowns (60) and total touchdowns (65). After facing its biggest deficit of the season - 17-7 early in the second quarter - LSU scored 21 unanswered points to lead 28-17 at halftime. Though Clemson narrowed the margin to three, LSU scored the final 14 points of the contest including a 24-yard dagger from Burrow to Terrace Marshall Jr. with 12:08 to play that gave the Tigers the final margin. LSU linebacker Patrick Queen was named Defensive Player of the Game after leading the Tigers with eight tackles including 2.5 behind the line of scrimmage. Fellow linebacker Jacob Phillips added eight tackles to finish the season with a team-leading 113 in 2019, while safety JaCoby Stevens had seven and cornerback Kristian Fulton had six tackles and a PBU. Wide receiver Ja'Marr Chase broke Josh Reed's single-season receiving yards record in the second half. He caught nine passes for 221 yards and two touchdowns, while Justin Jefferson added 106 yards on nine catches. Tight end Thaddeus Moss also scored twice and caught five passes for 36 yards. Marshall finished with three catches for 46 yards. Running back Clyde Edwards-Helaire ran 16 times for 110 yards. Grant Delpit sealed the game with a force fumble against Trevor Lawrence recovered by Derek Stingley with 3:52 left in the game.

Ed Orgeron

Head Coach

2020 NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

In 2019, Orgeron was consensus National Coach of the Year earning the honor from the Associated Press, Walter Camp, Eddie Robinson, Home Depot, George Munger and the AFCA. He was also named the SEC Coach of the Year.

Orgeron guided the Tigers to the most dominant regular season in school history with the Tigers posting a 13-0 mark and outscoring opponents, 621-275. LSU blew through the College Football Playoffs, beating No. 4 Oklahoma, 63-28, and then claimed the school's fourth national title with a 42-25 win over No. 2 Clemson in the national championship game to finish with the first 15-0 record in the history of the SEC.

LSU went 8-0 in SEC play during the regular-season, winning six of the eight games by at least two touchdowns. LSU racked up 46 points and 559 total yards in a 46-41 win over Alabama in Tuscaloosa and then followed that with 714 total yards in a win over Ole Miss in Oxford. LSU closed out the regular-season with a 50-7 win over Texas A&M in Tiger Stadium. LSU captured its 12th SEC title with a 37-10 win over No. 3 Georgia in the SEC Championship Game in Atlanta.

LSU trailed in only six games all season, just twice in the second half and never in the fourth quarter. The biggest deficit the Tigers faced all season was 17-7 against Clemson in the second quarter of the national championship game. LSU responded by scoring 21 unanswered points to take the lead for good at 28-17 just before halftime.

Overall, LSU went into the Clemson game riding a streak of 21 straight quarters without trailing an opponent, a streak that dated back to the Auburn game on Oct. 26.

LSU's offensive success in 2019 was a product of the Tigers going to the spread offense and the play-calling of coordinator Steve Ensminger. During the 2019 offseason, Orgeron hired Joe Brady as LSU's passing game coordinator, who installed the spread and the results followed. Burrow set nearly ever LSU and SEC single-season passing record as the Tigers led the nation in points per game (48.4) and yards per game (568.4) – both school records. LSU scored at least 40 points in 12 games and the Tigers went over the 50-point mark seven times and eclipsed 60 points three times.

Defensively, the Tigers allowed only 21.9 points per game and allowed a combined one passing touchdown in wins over Georgia, Oklahoma and Clemson.

In addition to Burrow's sweep of National Player of the Year Awards and the Heisman Trophy, LSU produced the winner of the Biletnikoff Award (Ja'Marr Chase) and the Jim Thorpe Award (Grant Delpit). 17 Morris Claiborne

CB

2011 THORPE AWARD WINNER

Morris Claiborne cemented his legacy as one of the top cornerbacks in LSU history after he wrapped up a stellar career in 2011. As a junior, Claiborne took home the prestigious Jim Thorpe Award that annually goes to the nation's top defensive back, becoming the second straight LSU player to earn the award after Patrick Peterson claimed the honor in 2010.

Widely recognized as one of the top defensive players in the nation as a junior, the Shreveport, La., native earned unanimous consensus All-America honors when he led LSU to a 13-1 record, SEC title and a spot in the national championship game. Claiborne led the nation in interception return yards with 173 on six interceptions, and he showed his athleticism and playmaking ability by scoring two touchdowns in 2011 – one on a pivotal 99-yard kickoff return at West Virginia and one on a 45-yard INT return that cemented LSU's SEC championship game victory over Georgia.

In addition to earning All-America honors, Claiborne was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Year by the SEC coaches in 2011, and he also earned First-Team All-SEC recognition and finished as a Nagurski Award finalist. Following his outstanding junior season, Claiborne was chosen with the sixth overall selection in the 2012 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

Claiborne ended his career with 95 tackles, 12 pass breakups and 11 interceptions, ranking inside the LSU top 10 in career interceptions and interception return yards.

2011 BEDNARIK AWARD WINNER

An outstanding player with tremendous heart and talent, Tyrann Mathieu collected the 2011 Bednarik Award, an honor given annually to the nation's top defensive player. Gifted with some of the best pure football instincts ever seen in an LSU uniform, the cornerback/return specialist became LSU's first Heisman Trophy finalist to travel to New York City since Charles Alexander in 1977.

In 2011, Mathieu helped LSU finish with a 13-1 record, an SEC title and a berth in the national championship game as he led the team with 76 total tackles, led the nation with five fumble recoveries and finished fourth nationally in punt return average at 15.6 yards per return.

Mathieu was a consensus All-American as a sophomore at cornerback and return specialist. He finished his career accumulating 133 total tackles, 16 tackles for loss, 16 pass breakups, 11 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries, six sacks, four interceptions and four touchdowns – two on punt returns and two on fumble returns. Josh Reed
WR

2001 BILETNIKOFF AWARD WINNER

When one thinks of some of the finest players in the history of the Southeastern Conference, Josh Reed's name is included on that list. Reed, who is one of the most decorated players in school history, virtually re-wrote both the LSU and SEC receiving record books despite playing only 28 games at wide receiver.

Originally signed out of Rayne (La.) High School as a tailback, Reed moved to wide receiver in week 9 of the 1999 season out of a necessity. The results were immediate as he caught five passes for 100 yards against Houston in just his second game at the position.

A year later, in 2000, Reed earned first-team All-SEC honors after catching 65 passes for 1,127 yards and 10 touchdowns for the 8-4 Tigers. His 102.5 yards receiving a contest led the SEC, and he ranked second in the league with just under six catches a game.

Reed put together the finest year for a receiver in SEC history in 2001 as he shattered the league's single-season yardage mark with 1,740 yards on a school-record 94 catches. Reed set a pair of league marks in a 35-21 road victory over Alabama as he hauled in 19 passes for 293 yards and a touchdown. He capped his record-setting career in grand fashion, setting a pair of Sugar Bowl records with 14 receptions for 239 yards and two touchdowns in leading the Tigers to a 47-34 victory over Illinois.

At the conclusion of his junior season, Reed was named the winner of the Biletnikoff Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top collegiate receiver. Reed was drafted with the fourth pick of the second round of the 2002 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.

Billy Cannon

HB

1959 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

Even by today's standards Billy Cannon was a rare athlete, combining sprinter speed with brute strength. Cannon could consistently run a 9.5 in the 100-yard dash and, at 6-1, 210 pounds, he had the size to overpower his opponents as well as outrun them. In 1957, he was an immediate standout as a sophomore, offensively and defensively.

As a junior, Cannon was the driving force behind the Fighting Tigers as they carved out a perfect season and captured the 1958 national championship. He passed for a touchdown and kicked the extra point in LSU's 7-0 win over Clemson in the Sugar Bowl and earned MVP honors.

Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss. Top-ranked LSU trailed the third-ranked Rebels 3-0 early in the fourth quarter, when Cannon fielded a punt at the LSU 11-yard-line and broke seven tackles on his way to paydirt. LSU won the contest 7-3. Considered one of the best collegiate backs of his era, Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy at the conclusion of the 1959 season. In 2008, the legendary Cannon was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

Billy Cannon was presented with the 1959 Heisman Trophy by then Vice President Richard Nixon.

KEVIN FAULK

1996

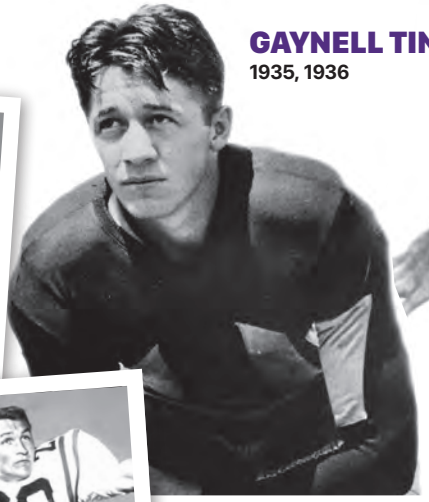

Wendell Davis, Kevin Faulk and Josh Reed all impacted the SEC record books during their careers. Reed holds the league record for single-season receiving yards per game (145.0), while Davis ranks sixth in SEC annals in that category (113.1). Faulk remains the SEC's all-time leader in career all-purpose yards (6,833).

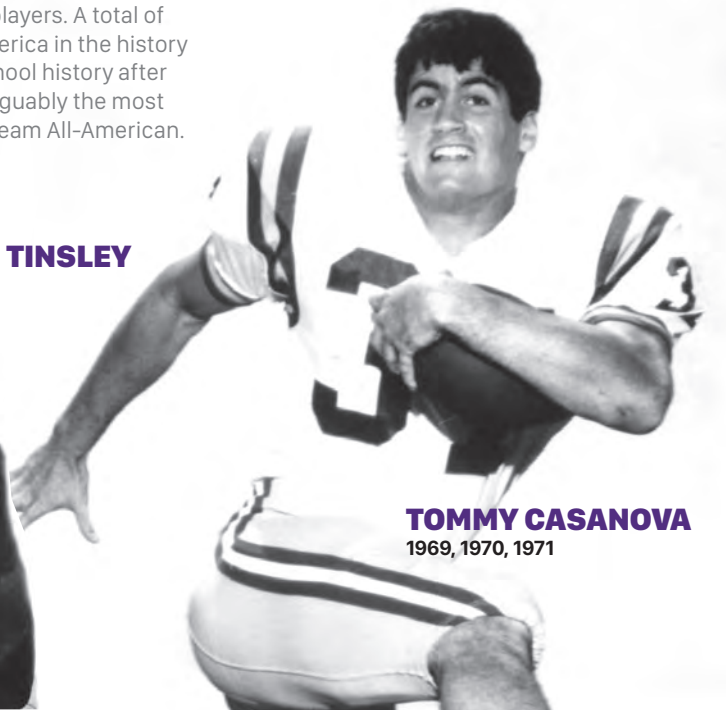

In 2011, Tyrann Mathieu and Morris Claiborne became the first cornerback tandem from the same team to earn Associated Press All-America honors in the same season.

LSU All-Americans

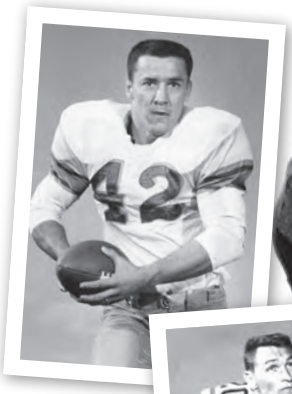

LSU has been the home of some of college football's greatest players. A total of 78 LSU players have earned the distinction of first-team All-America in the history of the program. Gaynell Tinsley was the first All-American in school history after earning the recognition as an end in 1935. Tommy Casanova, arguably the most versatile player in school history, is LSU's only three-time first-team All-American.

Jimmy Taylor and Billy Cannon were the faces of LSU's successful teams of the 1950s. Taylor, who went on to a legendary pro career with the Green Bay Packers, was the first fullback in LSU history to earn All-America honors. Cannon, now a member of the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame, was the national player of the year in 1958 and 1959.

Gaynell (Gus) Tinsley
End - 1935, 1936
Associated Press
The Tigers' first consensus All-American, Gaynell (Gus) Tinsley was a unanimous selection in both 1935 and 1936. He played both ways as an end and led LSU to two SEC titles and three Sugar Bowl appearances. After earning three letters with the Tigers from 1934-36, he went on to a successful NFL career where he was twice named an All-Pro selection while playing for the Chicago Cardinals. Tinsley later returned to LSU where he served as the Tigers' head coach from 1948-54. During the 1949 season he led LSU to an 8-2-0 season that included wins over the Southern, Southeastern and Southwest Conference champions and a Sugar Bowl tilt versus Oklahoma. He was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Marvin (Moose) Stewart
Center - 1935, 1936
Helms Foundation
A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1934-36), Marvin (Moose) Stewart was selected to the Helms Foundation All-American team in 1935. Later named an All-SEC selection by the Associated Press in 1936, he helped the Tigers to back-to-back SEC titles in 1935 and 1936. Stewart was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

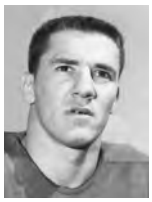

Ken Kavanaugh, Sr.
End - 1939
Associated Press
A standout receiver for the Tigers from 1937-39, Ken Kavanaugh, Sr., was selected as an All-American by the Associated Press and finished seventh in the Heisman balloting during his senior season. A two-time AP first-team All-SEC selection (1938-39), Kavanaugh was known for scoring all four touchdowns in the Tigers' 28-7 victory over Holy Cross in 1939. He went on to an outstanding professional career with the New York Giants, where he continued with the organization as a scout after his playing career. A superb athlete, Kavanaugh also enjoyed a brief stint in baseball's professional ranks after lettering on the diamond at LSU. His son, Ken. Jr., lettered at LSU from 1969-71 as a receiver on the football team.

George Tarasovic
Center - 1951
National Editorial Alliance
George Tarasovic was a junior college transfer who, although playing and lettering only one year at LSU, was named both an All-America and All-SEC selection that season. An all-around athlete in high school, Tarasovic's college career was abbreviated because of military service during the Korean War. However, after returning from the service Tarasovic resumed his playing career at the professional level where he saw over a dozen years of action in the NFL and AFL.

Sid Fournet
Tackle - 1954
Associated Press, UPI, Look, Football Writers Association of America, National Editorial Alliance, Williamson, INS
An extremely durable performer, Sid Fournet played guard and tackle on both sides of the ball. Earning All-America distinction in 1954, Fournet was credited with seeing action in 83 percent of the Tigers' total plays that season. Also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection, he was honored by both AP and UPI in 1953 and 1954.

Jimmy Taylor
Fullback - 1957
Football Writers Association of America-Look
Viewed as one of the most complete football players to have ever played the game, Jimmy Taylor was named a All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look in 1957. Voted the MVP of the 1958 Senior Bowl, he went on to a legendary pro career with the Green Bay Packers (1958-66) and New Orleans Saints (1967) and was later inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1976. Taylor is also a member of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Billy Cannon
Halfback - 1958, 1959
1959 Heisman Trophy, Associated Press (1958-59), UPI (1958-59), National Editorial Alliance (1958-59), Central Press (1958-59), American Football Coaches Association (1958-59), The Sporting News (1958-59), Football Writers Association of America-Look (1958-59), New York Daily News (1958-59), NBC (1958-59), Time (1958), Leahy (1958), Hearst (1959).
The greatest football player ever to don the Purple and Gold, Billy Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy in 1959. He was given virtually every honor that could be bestowed on an individual, including All-America accolades in 1958 and 1959. Cannon was considered almost as valuable on defense as he was on offense. His 89-yard punt return in 1959 against Ole Miss has become a gridiron legend, but few remember that he and Warren Rabb stuffed Ole Miss at the goal line of a fourth and inches to preserve the dramatic 7-3 victory. A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1957-59), he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1958-59).

Max Fugler
Center - 1958
Football Writers Association of America-Look, NBC
A bulwark for the White Team, Max Fugler was instrumental in the Tigers' 1958 national championship run. Named an All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look and NBC that same year, he was heralded as an outstanding blocker on offense and incomparable down lineman on defense. His defensive work was exemplified by the number of goal line and fourth down stands the Tigers had during the glory years of 1958 and 1959. He was also named a first-team All-SEC selection by UPI in 1958.

Roy (Moonie) Winston
Guard - 1961
Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/ American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time
A 1961 All-America selection at guard, Roy (Moonie) Winston excelled on defense with a strong initial charge, plus speed and agility. Soft-spoken, Winston was a born leader that was elected by his teammates as the Tigers' team captain in 1961. Winston also earned first-team All-SEC honors from the AP and UPI that same year. In addition, he played on LSU's SEC champion baseball team in the early 1960's before enjoying a brilliant NFL career in Minnesota.

LSU All-Americans

Fred Miller

Tackle - 1962

Football Writers Association of America

A stellar lineman for the great LSU teams of the early 1960s, Fred Miller originally signed with Tulane after finishing at Homer High School, but he found out he was one English credit short, so he was bound for Texas A&M until Paul Dietzel sold his family on LSU. He played alongside Moonie Winston in 1961 and was a blocker for Heisman runner-up Jerry Stovall in 1962. In his three seasons, LSU played in two bowls, the Orange (25-7 over Colorado) and Cotton (13-0 over Texas). He was drafted by the Colts and later earned All-Pro honors. He is a member of LSU's Modern Day Team of the Century.

Jerry Stovall

Halfback - 1962

Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time, CBS

Ironically, Jerry Stovall was the last recruit signed by LSU after he graduated from high school. Once with the Tigers he earned All-America accolades and finished second in the 1962 Heisman Trophy balloting. Also a two-time All-SEC selection, Stovall went on to play nine seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals before becoming an assistant coach at South Carolina. He later returned to LSU as assistant coach and was named head coach after the tragic death of Bo Rein in 1980. He took LSU to the 1983 Orange Bowl and was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation after the 1982 season.

Billy Truax

End - 1963

Football News

Billy Truax was an excellent blocker, but LSU's offense in that era was geared towards the run and, consequently, his talents as a pass receiver were never exploited. Football News honored him as an All-American in 1963, the same year the UPI recognized him as a first-team all-conference honoree. Truax's son, Chris, was an offensive lineman at LSU from 1988-91.

Remi Prudhomme

Tackle - 1964

National Editorial Alliance, New York Daily News, Football News

A stalwart of the Chinese Bandits, Remi Prudhomme was an unusually strong player. His size and weight made him unique and his aggressive temperament was ideal for the role in which he was cast. Named a 1964 All-American by the National Editorial Alliance, the New York Daily News and the Football News, he also garnered all-conference honors from the UPI. Prudhomme went on to a brilliant pro career with the Buffalo Bills, Kansas City Chiefs and New Orleans Saints.

Doug Moreau

Split End - 1965

Football News

Doug Moreau's pass-catching ability was heralded, but his place kicking had to be recognized. In his junior season, his talented toe was responsible for the first two victories of the year, a 9-6 win over the Texas Aggies and 3-0 victory against Rice. The AP named him a first-team All-SEC pick in 1964 before he earned All-America honors from the Football News in 1965. Moreau went on to play professional ball with the Miami Dolphins, earned a law degree and served as a district judge in Baton Rouge. He currently serves as the color analyst for the LSU Sports Radio Network.

George Rice

Tackle - 1965

Time, The Sporting News

A local lad, George Rice's prowess in high school overlapped three sports: football, basketball and track. Extremely powerful, his specialty in track was the shot put. On the gridiron he was a devastating blocker and tackler who played in three bowl games during his career. Rice was named a first-team All-SEC selection by UPI in 1964 and an All-American by Time and The Sporting News a year later. He participated in the Hula Bowl and went on to a long, successful career in the NFL before returning to LSU as a graduate assistant.

John Garlington

End - 1967

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

An incredible athlete whose talents typified his play and teamwork, John Garlington had excellent speed and lateral pursuit. Opponents were timid when it came to attacking his side of the defensive line. Even with his size, he was a speed merchant. In the 1966 Rice encounter, Garlington picked off an errant pass and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown. A 1967 Kodak/AFCA All-American, he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1966 and 1967).

George Bevan

Linebacker - 1969

Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

Possibly the finest all-around linebacker ever to play at LSU, George Bevan's size had absolutely nothing to do with his desire, competitiveness, leadership and commitment. In the first game of his junior year, he injured his Achilles tendon to such an extent that he underwent several surgeries and spent 32 months on crutches. There was little hope he would ever play football again, but by the summer of 1969, his determination had earned him a starting role. Although Bevan had many notable moments, his blocked extra point against Auburn in the classic 21-20 victory by LSU had to be his crowning achievement. He was named both an All-America and All-SEC (AP and UPI) selection in 1969. Bevan earned his law degree from LSU.

Tommy Casanova

Cornerback - 1969, 1970, 1971

Associated Press (1969-70), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1969-70), UPI (1971), Central Press (1971), Football Writers Association of America (1971), Walter Camp (1971), Football News (1971), Time (1971)

Versatility personified might be the best description of the myriad talents of Tommy Casanova. During his three-year LSU career, he played offense and defense, returned punts and kickoffs, and did everything except handle the water cart. A fearless competitor, he led the team by example through three brilliant seasons and entered immortality as a result of his actions, both on and off the field. A three-time All-American, Casanova is one of just six three-time All-SEC performers in LSU history (1969-70-71). Following his collegiate career, Casanova played several seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals while pursuing his medical degree. He is now is an ophthalmologist in his hometown of Crowley, La.

Mike Anderson

Linebacker - 1970

Associated Press, UPI, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News, Time

Mike Anderson started every game during his three years as a linebacker at LSU. In fact, he was the second of three straight All-America linebackers produced by the Tigers: George Bevan in 1969; Anderson in 1970; and Warren Capone in 1973. Anderson was noted for one great play -- at Auburn in 1970, LSU was leading 17-9, the Plainsmen had the ball, fourth and one inch and 6-2, 225-pound fullback Wallace Clark drove for the TD. Anderson met him head-on short of pay dirt and his feat became that of which legends are made. Named an All-American in 1970, he was also recognized as a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP and UPI that same year.

Ronnie Estay

Tackle - 1971

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

One of the quickest defensive linemen ever to play at LSU, Ronnie Estay, a true Cajun, anchored a defense that allowed the fewest yards in the nation. During his junior year, he tackled both quarterbacks Pat Sullivan of Auburn and Archie Manning of Ole Miss for safeties. In 1971, he was recognized as a Kodak/AFCA All-American as well as a first-team All-SEC selection by the AP and UPI.

Bert Jones

Quarterback - 1972

UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Time, The Sporting News

Bert Jones possessed as strong an arm as any quarterback in college history. He finished fourth in the balloting for the 1972 Heisman Trophy, won an SEC title as a sophomore and played in three bowl games while compiling a 26-6-1 career mark. He started only two games prior to the next-to-last game of his junior season, but started every one after that. Jones' most notable feats came against Notre Dame in 1971 (28-8), and Ole Miss in 1972 when, with time expired, he threw a touchdown pass to Brad Davis for the 17-16 LSU victory. LSU Academic All-Americans

National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award

In 1959, The National Football Foundation unveiled an entirely new concept in college football -- it's National Scholar-Athlete program. In the history of American sports, this was the first time an organization honored football players, not only for their athletic ability, but also for their academic and civic leadership. The Foundation's National Scholar-Athlete Awards program consists of graduate fellowships that are awarded on an annual basis to a select group of college football players in their senior year of eligibility who have demonstrated outstanding academic success, exemplary community leadership and superior football performance. LSU has had eight players named as a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, including Rudy Niswanger, who claimed the 2005 William V. Campbell Trophy, which goes to college football's most outstanding student-athlete.

OVERALL RECORD: 9-2 • SEC RECORD: 5-0
COACH: BERNIE MOORE

The start of the season proved to be tough for LSU as Rice came to Baton Rouge and handed the Tigers a 10-7 defeat.

But led by the exploits of a freshman end named Gaynell Tinsley, the Tigers would not lose again in the regular season. It started with an 18-6 win over Texas in which the Tigers scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns for the victory, then continued all the way to New York City with a 32-0 rout of Manhattan, then to Shreveport for a win over Arkansas and on to Nashville with a 7-2 victory over Vanderbilt in the SEC opener.

Auburn would fall in a 6-0 tussle in Death Valley, but no opponent the rest of the way would be that close. The Tigers then disposed of Mississippi State and Georgia before crushing Southwestern Louisiana 56-0 and Tulane 41-0 to end the season 9-1 and send SEC champion LSU to its first bowl game ever, a Sugar Bowl date with Sammy Baugh's TCU Horned Frogs.

With heavy rains turning the Tulane Stadium field to slop, the expected passing matchup between Baugh and LSU's Abe Mickal never developed. Baugh threw an incomplete pass in the endzone for a safety that gave LSU a 2-0 lead, but the Frogs drove for a game-winning field goal and 3-2 triumph in front of an overflow crowd of 35,000.

1936

OVERALL RECORD: 9-1-1 • SEC RECORD: 6-0
COACH: BERNIE MOORE

LSU started off in fine fashion against a pair of SWC powers, defeating Rice, 20-7, at home then tying Texas at Austin, 6-6, before destroying Georgia in the SEC opener, 47-7, and shutting out Ole Miss, 13-0.

The Tigers beat border rival Arkansas in Shreveport, 19-7, blanked Vanderbilt in Music City and Mississippi State in Birmingham, then returned home to down Auburn 19-6 and Southwestern Louisiana 93-0.

LSU finished the regular season by whitewashing rival Tulane, 33-0, leaving the Tigers as the nation's highest scoring team with 281 points. The Tigers finished runner-up in the AP poll to Minnesota, but took national championship honors in the Williamson poll. The Tigers' season went sour again in the Sugar Bowl, though, as coach Buck Shaw's Santa Clara club shocked LSU, 21-14.

1958

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS • OVERALL RECORD: 11-0 SEC RECORD: 6-0
COACH: PAUL DIETZEL

In the modern era of college football, many coaches, especially in the hyper-competitive world of the SEC, would not survive seasons of 3-5-2, 3-7 and 5-5, but LSU athletic director Jim Corbett showed patience with the Tigers' young innovator, 35-year-old Paul Dietzel, and for his fourth season in Baton Rouge, Dietzel would come up with the innovation that would revolutionize college football, and football on the bayou would never be the same.

Dietzel unveiled his three units--the White Team, the Go Team and the Chinese Bandits--in impressive road victories over Rice and Alabama (in its first game under Bear Bryant), before LSU returned home to defeat Hardin-Simmons.

After crushing Miami and Kentucky, LSU moved to third in the polls for a homecoming showdown against Florida in front of the first sellout crowd in Tiger Stadium history. The 67,500 in attendance weren't disappointed, as the Tigers won 10-7 to move to No. 1 in the Associated Press poll, and LSU then backed up that ranking with a 14-0 shutout of sixth-ranked Ole Miss.

A 50-18 victory over Duke moved LSU up to the top spot in the UPI coaches' poll, but the Tigers nearly lost it all the next week against Mississippi State in Jackson, falling behind 6-0 at halftime before a touchdown in the third quarter and Tommy Davis' extra point gave LSU a 7-6 triumph, leaving only nemesis Tulane standing between the Tigers and the brass ring.

The Green Wave held sway in the first half, limiting the Tigers to two field goals and a 6-0 lead at intermission, but in the second half the Wave was swallowed up, as the Tigers scored an incredible 56 points, including 35 in the fourth quarter, to win 62-0 and leave no doubt as to who was No. 1.

LSU then took its victory lap in the Sugar Bowl against Clemson with a 7-0 victory and the perfect ending to the first perfect season at LSU in exactly 50 years.

OVERALL RECORD: 10-1 • SEC RECORD: 5-0
COACH: PAUL DIETZEL

Coming off a 5-4-1 campaign in 1960, LSU wanted to get its 1961 campaign off to a flying start, but a 16-3 loss to Rice in the season opener signaled the beginning of what could have been a very difficult season. As it turned out, the loss to the Owls meant little.

Over the final nine games of the season, LSU would allow a measly 30 points, with 14 of those scored by Kentucky in a 24-14 Tiger triumph in the fifth game of the year. The Tigers blanked Florida, 23-0, then took a 10-7 win over Ole Miss to leave them needing only a win over archrival Tulane to win a share of the league title.

For the second time in four years, Andy Pilney and his Green Wave suffered a 62-0 humiliation at the hands of the Bayou Bengals, and SEC champion LSU was on to the Orange Bowl to face Big Eight champion Colorado.

In what was Paul Dietzel's final game at LSU, the Tigers had little trouble in silencing the Buffaloes, 25-7.

1970

OVERALL RECORD: 9-3 • SEC RECORD: 5-0
COACH: CHARLES MCCLENDON

Archie Manning and Ole Miss left LSU three points shy of a perfect season and the chance to play Texas in the Cotton Bowl for the national championship in 1969. After refusing a bowl berth following a 9-1 season, LSU was determined to remedy this failure in 1970.

The Tigers' hopes took a serious hit on opening night, as Texas A&M came to town and pulled off a 20-18 upset. The loss left the Tigers bloodied but unbowed, as LSU then rattled off seven consecutive victories, including a 17-9 victory at Auburn over future Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan, then a 14-9 triumph in Birmingham over Alabama, the Tigers' second straight over Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide.

LSU would have two big non-conference games before its December 5 showdown with Archie Manning's Ole Miss Rebels for the SEC championship. First was a visit to South Bend and second-ranked Notre Dame, where LSU limited Ara Parseghian's powerful offense led by Joe Theismann to under 250 yards, but the Tigers missed several chances to win the game and fell, 3-0. The Tigers now needed two wins to lock up an Orange Bowl berth opposite Big Eight champion Nebraska, and got the first at Tulane Stadium over a pesky Green Wave squad, 26-14, setting up the title match with the Rebels.

Manning would return to Death Valley with a cast on his left arm that severely limited his throwing motion. The way LSU played that warm December night, Manning could have been Superman himself and it probably wouldn't have mattered. Tommy Casanova and Craig Burns combined to return three punts for touchdowns, and Ronnie Estay nailed Manning for a safety as LSU brought Christmas to Tiger Stadium early with a 61-17 rout of the Rebels to send the Tigers to Miami.

In the Orange Bowl against a Nebraska team looking to win a share of the national championship, LSU held a 12-10 lead after three quarters before wilting under the charge of the powerful Cornhuskers, 17-12.

LSU's SEC Championship Teams

1986

OVERALL RECORD: 9-3 • SEC RECORD: 5-1
COACH: BILL ARNSPARGER

The Tommy Hodson era began at LSU in 1986 in Bill Arnsparger's third and final season in Tigertown, which got off to a flying start with a 35-17 upset of Texas A&M.

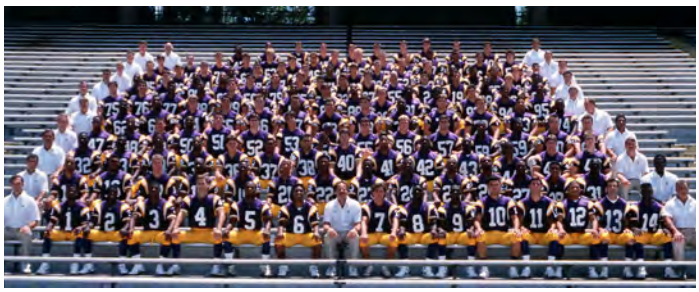

The Tigers then dropped a shocking 21-12 decision to Arnsparger's alma mater, Miami of Ohio the following week.

The loss to Miami was only a temporary setback. The Tigers began to roll behind their new leader, defeating Florida 28-17 in Gainesville, then coming home for a 23-14 win over Georgia. The Tigers rolled to victories over Kentucky and North Carolina before Ole Miss came to Death Valley and won for the first time in Baton Rouge since Archie Manning's sophomore season of 1968, knocking the Tigers out of first place in the SEC.

Now came a trip to league leader Alabama in Birmingham. In a white-knuckle struggle, LSU prevailed 14-10, leaving the Tigers needing only to defeat Mississippi State the next week to win the Tigers' first league crown since 1970.

In front of a pro-LSU crowd in Jackson, the Tigers left little doubt as to who would be kings of the SEC, as they mauled the Bulldogs 47-0 to win at least a share of the league crown. LSU defeated Notre Dame and Tulane to close out the season, then Auburn upended Alabama in the Iron Bowl to give the Tigers the title all to themselves and secure the school's second Sugar Bowl berth in three years.

Arnsparger, who accepted the position of athletic director prior to LSU's game with Tulane, coached LSU for the final time on New Year's Day in a 30-15 loss to Nebraska in the Sugar Bowl.

1988

OVERALL RECORD: 8-4 • SEC RECORD: 6-1
COACH: MIKE ARCHER

LSU looked to win its second SEC title in three years in 1988, and after a 10-1-1 season in 1987 under first-year coach Mike Archer, the Tigers looked the part of champions in their first two games, thrashing Texas A&M 27-0 in Death Valley, then taking the school's first win ever in Knoxville with a 34-9 rout of Tennessee.

LSU would quickly find itself 2-2, though, as it squandered a 13-point lead in the final five minutes of a 36-33 loss at Ohio State, then dropped a 19-6 decision at Florida before heading into a critical showdown with fourth-ranked Auburn.

In a classic defensive battle, two Auburn field goals gave the Tigers of the Plains a 6-0 lead late in the fourth quarter before Tommy Hodson hit Eddie Fuller in the endzone with less than one minute to play, tying the game and causing such a tremor that it was felt on a seismograph in the LSU Geology Department. David Browndyke then kicked the extra point to give the Bayou Bengals a 7-6 triumph in what will forever be known as the "Earthquake Game."

Tough home victories over Kentucky and Ole Miss followed, then came a trip to Alabama where LSU fell behind 15-0 late in the first half before the Tigers rallied and took a 19-18 victory on Browndyke's field goal in the waning seconds. The Tigers won the SEC title the following week with a 20-3 win over Mississippi State.

LSU split its final two regular season games, losing to Miami and defeating Tulane, before a loss to Syracuse in the Hall of Fame Bowl ended the Tigers' season at 8-4.

2001

OVERALL RECORD: 10-3 • SEC RECORD: 5-3
COACH: NICK SABAN

Following a strong 8-4 2000 season under first-year coach Nick Saban, the 2001 Fighting Tigers were widely expected to capture the SEC Western Division championship and play in the school's first SEC Championship Game.

The Tigers got off to a flying start with home victories over Tulane and Utah State before the terrorist attacks of September 11 postponed LSU's SEC opener against Auburn until December 1.

Instead, the Tigers opened SEC play at Tennessee's Neyland Stadium in front of more than 107,000, the largest crowd ever to see LSU play, where the Volunteers got revenge for 2000 with a 26-18 victory, before LSU returned home and fell to 0-2 in the SEC with a 44-15 loss to Florida.

LSU then defeated Kentucky and Mississippi State on the road, but those wins were erased by a 35-24 home loss to Ole Miss that seemingly finished the Tigers' title hopes off, dropping LSU to 2-3 in the SEC.

But instead of folding, the Tigers fought back. First, Rohan Davey threw for 528 yards and Josh Reed caught 19 passes for 293 yards as the Tigers bombed Alabama in Tuscaloosa, 35-21. Home wins over Middle Tennessee and Arkansas closed November and set up the Western division title showdown with Auburn.

The showdown was no contest. LSU rolled to a 21-7 halftime lead and cruised home to a 27-14 victory, sending the Tigers to their first SEC Championship game against a Tennessee squad that would look to punch its ticket to the Rose Bowl and a national championship date with Miami with a second victory over LSU.

Most teams would have wilted under the pressure, especially after losing their starting running back (LaBrandon Toefield) and quarterback (Davey), but LSU didn't just survive; it thrived. Led by the steady play of backup Matt Mauck, the Tigers stunned the college football world by upending the Big Orange, 31-20, sending LSU to its first Sugar Bowl since 1986.

The Tigers capped off this glorious season with a 47-34 pasting of Illinois in the Sugar Bowl, as Davey earned MVP honors by throwing for a bowl record 444 yards and three touchdowns, while Reed caught 14 passes for 239 yards in front of a partisan LSU crowd of more than 77,000, leaving LSU in the top 10 for the first time since 1987.

2003

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS • OVERALL RECORD: 13-1 • SEC RECORD: 7-1
COACH: NICK SABAN

LSU stormed to its second Southeastern Conference title under Nick Saban in three years as the Tigers blew through the conference slate with a 7-1 record, which included five league wins of 21 points or better.

Behind a suffocating defense and a balanced offensive attack, the Tigers earned a spot in the league's championship game for the second time under Saban with a 55-24 win over Arkansas in the regular-season finale in Baton Rouge.

LSU then followed that with a 34-13 trouncing of Georgia in the SEC title game, a contest that saw the Tigers pile up 293 yards rushing against the fifth-ranked Bulldogs with freshman Justin Vincent accounting for an SEC Championship Game record 201 of those yards.

The victory over Georgia propelled the Tigers in the BCS National Championship contest against Oklahoma, a game that LSU won by a 21-14 count to claim the school's second national title in football.

2007

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS • OVERALL RECORD: 12-2 • SEC RECORD: 6-2
COACH: LES MILES

LSU fans across the world had to wait 45 years between the Tigers' first and second National Championships. They only had to wait four between the second and third, but the victory tasted just as sweet.

With a crushing 38-24 win over Ohio State in the Bowl Championship Series Championship Game, LSU left little doubt in the minds of those in the college football universe who the best team was during the 2007 season.

The Tigers (12-2) became the first two-time winner of the BCS Championship by dominating most of the game and outscoring the Buckeyes 31-0 over a 24-minute stretch.

Head coach Les Miles, in his third season at LSU, lifted the $30,000 Waterford Crystal football-shaped trophy amid a cloud of purple and gold ticker tape.

As dominant as LSU's national championship game performance was, it matched how the Tigers opened the 2007 season.

LSU, ranked No. 2 in the preseason, lived up to the lofty ranking with a 45-0 whitewashing of Mississippi State in Starkville in the season opener, followed by a 48-7 pounding of No. 9 Virginia Tech in Tiger Stadium the following week.

The Tigers throttled Middle Tennessee (44-0), No. 12 South Carolina (28-16) and Tulane (34-9) in consecutive weeks, lifting the Bayou Bengals to No. 1 in the Associated Press rankings heading into a Top-10 matchup with defending national champion Florida.

In what has become one of the most memorable games in Tiger Stadium History, top-ranked LSU dueled all night by the Tim Tebow-led ninth-ranked Gators. Trailing 24-14 entering the fourth quarter, LSU outscored Florida 14-0 in the final frame to take a dramatic 28-24 victory. In fact, the Tigers converted 5-of-5 fourth down attempts, including two on a nine-minute drive late in the game that resulted in Jacob Hester's two-yard touchdown plunge. The Tigers batted down a last-second Hail Mary pass from Tebow that dropped harmlessly to the Tiger Stadium turf to seal the epic victory.

Still feeling the effects of the physical clash with the Gators, LSU stumbled the following week, falling 43-37 in three overtimes at No. 17 Kentucky.

Despite the heartbreaking defeat at the hands of the Wildcats, there was no rest for the weary as the Tigers returned to Baton Rouge to square off against No. 18 Auburn in a game that would come down to the final second.

After a slow start against the Tigers from the Plains, LSU roared back with 17 points in the fourth quarter, but it was the ending that stunned the nation. With the Tigers marching down to the Auburn 22-yard line and time running out, head coach Les Miles elected not to call timeout or kick a potential game-winning field goal. Instead, quarterback Matt Flynn lobbed a perfectly-thrown pass to a well-guarded Demetrius Byrd who slid in the endzone to make the touchdown grab with exactly one second on the clock. Tiger Stadium erupted as LSU claimed a 30-24 victory over Auburn.

The Tigers posted another dramatic victory with a 41-34 triumph over Alabama in Tuscaloosa before rattling off a 58-10 win over Louisiana Tech and a 41-24 triumph at Ole Miss.

The top-ranked Tigers had sewn up the SEC Western Division title heading into the regular-season finale against Arkansas, but the upset-minded Razorbacks came into Tiger Stadium and escaped with a 50-48 victory in three overtimes, seemingly sinking the Tigers' hopes of playing for a national championship.

Under the leadership of Miles, LSU rallied the following week in the SEC Championship Game against No. 14 Tennessee. Even with starting QB Matt Flynn unavailable for the game with an injury, LSU turned to backup Ryan Perrilloux who earned game MVP honors by throwing for 243 yards and one touchdown while also adding a two-point conversion late in the game to seal the Tigers' 21-14 victory and give LSU its 10th SEC Championship in school history.

When the BCS pairings were announced, LSU had a date with destiny against Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game in New Orleans, and the Tigers would return home with a third national championship in school history.

OVERALL RECORD: 13-1 • SEC RECORD: 8-0
COACH: LES MILES

For the first time since 1958, LSU football completed a perfect regular season with a 12-0 mark before going on to claim its 11th SEC Championship with a 42-10 dominating win over No. 12 Georgia in the SEC title game in Atlanta.

It was a season of records for the 2011 team, posting a 13-0 mark for the first time in school history and spending 11 straight weeks as the nation's No. 1 team, the longest stretch in school history. The Tigers won 12 of their 13 games by double-digits, representing the most in LSU single-season history.

Led by Heisman Trophy finalist and Bednarik Award winner Tyrann Mathieu, LSU held opponents without a touchdown in 44 quarters. The Tigers set an NCAA record with eight victories over Top 25 teams during the season, with five of those wins coming away from Tiger Stadium.

LSU opened the year in the nation's most anticipated non-conference matchup of the season, rolling over No. 3 Oregon, 40-27, in front of 87,711 fans in the new, state-of-the-art Cowboys Stadium on Sept. 3. Mathieu's Heisman campaign began with a roaring start as he forced a fumble and recovered it for a touchdown in the second quarter, which gave LSU a 10-6 advantage. The Tigers scored 24 unanswered points against the Ducks and opened the season with a win over a top-five ranked non-conference squad for the first time in school history.

LSU made its Tiger Stadium season debut on Sept. 10 with another brilliant defensive outing, holding Northwestern State to six first downs and 95 total yards in a 49-3 win. A week later, facing a short week, the Tigers posted a 19-6 win over No. 25 Mississippi State in a rare Thursday night tilt in Starkville on Sept. 15. It marked the second straight week LSU did not allow a touchdown.

The eyes of the nation were once again focused on the Tigers on Sept. 24 in Morgantown, W.V. With ESPN "College GameDay" on hand for the second time this season, LSU throttled No. 16 West Virginia, 47-21, in a primetime game. LSU's farthest trip to the Northeast since 1947 saw All-American Morris Claiborne race 99 yards on a kickoff return for a touchdown in the third quarter that sealed the victory.

Following a 35-7 win over Kentucky on Oct. 1, the Tigers posted their largest margin of victory over Florida since 1971 with a 41-11 thumping of the No. 17 Gators on Oct. 8 in Tiger Stadium. LSU's defense did the job again a week later at Tennessee on Oct. 15, pitching a second-half shutout in a 38-7 win in Knoxville.

Quarterback Jarrett Lee threw for a pair of touchdowns in a 45-10 romp of No. 19 Auburn on Oct. 22 in Tiger Stadium, setting the stage for the "Game of the Century" two weeks later. Four quarters were not enough to decide a winner as the nation's top-two ranked teams battled on Nov. 5 in Tuscaloosa, Ala. Safety Eric Reid saved a score with an acrobatic interception and Drew Alleman's 25-yard field goal in overtime lifted No. 1 LSU past No. 2 Alabama, 9-6. The six points were the fewest total for the Tide in the Nick Saban era.

On Nov. 25, the Tigers put a punctuation on an unblemished regular season with a 41-17 win over No. 3 Arkansas in Tiger Stadium. After trailing 14-0, Mathieu sparked LSU with a spectacular 92-yard punt return touchdown in the second quarter. The Tigers posted 17 unanswered points in the fourth quarter highlighted by a 48-yard touchdown run from quarterback Jordan Jefferson.

For the second straight week, LSU had to recover from a double-digit deficit, but did so when it counted most to claim its fourth SEC Championship game victory. The Tigers trailed 10-0 to No. 12 Georgia and went the entire first half without a first down. In the second half, LSU pummeled the Bulldogs with 35 unanswered points to win 42-10 in the Georgia Dome.

Once again, it was Mathieu who provided the momentum. Mathieu scampered 62 yards for a punt return touchdown in the second quarter, while his electrifying 47-yard return weaving through defenders in the second half set up another score. Kenny Hilliard recorded three touchdowns and Alfred Blue raced 48 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter as the coronation was complete. For the second time in the Les Miles era, the LSU Tigers were the undisputed SEC champions.

LSU went on to face Alabama in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game at the Superdome in New Orleans.

LSU's SEC Championship Teams

2019

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS • OVERALL RECORD: 15-0 • SEC RECORD: 8-0
COACH: ED ORGERON

The 2019 LSU football team cemented itself as "The Best Ever" with a 15-0 record, wins over seven Top-25 teams and a sweep of the major awards.

Top-ranked LSU claimed its fourth national title and completed the most dominant season in college football history with a 42-25 win over No. 2 Clemson in the CFP National Championship Game in New Orleans.

Led by quarterback Joe Burrow's four touchdown passes, top-ranked LSU on December 7 won the 2019 SEC Championship, 37-10, over No. 4 Georgia at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta. Burrow finished 28-for-38 for 349 yards. Burrow set the SEC record for touchdown passes in a season. In head coach Ed Orgeron's third full season in Baton Rouge, LSU improved to 13-0 and solidified its No. 1 ranking in the College Football Playoffs.

In their march to the SEC title, the Tigers beat five Top 10 teams and brought the league's trophy back to Baton Rouge for the first time since 2011. Burrow was named the SEC Championship Game's Most Valuable Player after completing 28-of-38 passes for 349 yards and four touchdowns. Defensively, the Tigers kept Georgia's offense off the field by allowing only 3-of-13 third down conversions, while holding the Bulldogs to their lowest rushing total (61 yards) since 2017.

The 2019 season began with a 55-3 win over Georgia Southern, as Burrow tied a school record with five touchdown passes — all in the first half — as sixth-ranked LSU scored on its first five possessions to batter the Eagles. Fourteen different Tigers caught passes in the contest, and Georgia Southern converted only one of 12 third downs against a fast and furious LSU defense.

In Week 2, the No. 6 Tigers earned their first non-conference road victory over a top-10 team, trailing the No. 9 Longhorns only in the first quarter. On a hot and humid evening the teams combined for 56 points in the last 30 minutes of LSU's 45-38 victory. Burrow threw for 471 yards and four touchdowns; for the first time, three LSU receivers recorded 100 yards or more in one game.

LSU returned home the next Saturday for a 65-14 win over Northwestern State, as the Tigers passed for 300-plus yards for the fourth-straight game, scored 48 unanswered points, and allowed no second-half scores. In vanquishing the Demons, No. 4 LSU became the 12th program in NCAA Division I to win 800 games.

The No. 4 Tigers torched Vanderbilt in Nashville, 66-38, scoring LSU's most points in regulation against a conference opponent in school history. Burrow threw a school-record six touchdowns and set LSU records for passing yards in a first half (357) and for consecutive 350-yard passing games, with three.

After a bye week, LSU rolled to a 42-6 triumph over Utah State in a Tiger Stadium day game. The Tigers defended their No. 5 ranking by dominating the Aggies, allowing only one of 12 third downs to be converted, recording 10 tackles for loss and snagging three interceptions.

Florida came to Death Valley in Week 6, and for the first time in 2019, No. 5 LSU trailed in the second half, 28-21, when Florida scored with just under 11 minutes remaining in the third quarter. But it was all Tigers the rest of the way, as the defense shut out the No. 7 Gators for the final 25 minutes in a 42-28 win. The offense ran only 48 plays, but with surgical precision, for an astounding 10.6 yards per play — LSU's most ever versus an SEC opponent.

The Tigers then traveled to Starkville, Miss., and rolled to a 36-13 victory over Mississippi State. In just the seventh game of the year, Burrow broke two LSU single-season records to vault the No. 2 Tigers over the Bulldogs. Burrow set the school mark for single-season touchdown passes (28) and single-season TD responsibility (28 throwing, 2 rushing). Meanwhile, the defense forced three turnovers from the overmatched Bulldogs.

On a Tiger Stadium turf slick from heavy rain a day earlier, No. 2 LSU compiled more than 500 yards of total offense and overcame a pair of turnovers to defeat No. 9 Auburn, 23-20. Burrow posted career highs in both completions and attempts, going 32-for-42, and the defense held the other Tigers to just 287 yards. LSU earned its third top 10 victory of the season.

After their second open date, the now top-ranked Tigers journeyed to Tuscaloosa, Ala., and posted an epic 46-41 win over No. 2 Alabama. Burrow had 393 yards passing with three touchdowns and junior running back Clyde Edwards-Helaire scored four times to help LSU snap the Tide's 31-game home winning streak. LSU, which never trailed, built a 33-13 halftime lead and then held off the Crimson Tide with unrelenting offensive efficiency. The Tigers improved to 5-0 in the SEC and 9-0 overall for the fifth time in school history, tying a school record with four top-10 victories in one season.

Burrow tossed five touchdowns to set LSU's single-season passing record, staking the top-ranked Tigers to a 31-7 halftime lead in a 58-37 victory versus Ole Miss in Oxford. In just the 10th game of the season, Burrow's career-best 489 yards broke Rohan Davey's 2001 school yardage record (3,347). The 714 yards of offense LSU accumulated against the Rebels was its second-most in program history and the most ever against an SEC opponent.

Back in Death Valley, the No. 1 Tigers scored 49 unanswered points, overwhelming Arkansas, 56-20, to secure a berth in the SEC Championship Game. Clyde Edwards-Helaire gained 188 yards on just six carries, becoming the 14th Tiger to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. LSU moved to 11-0 for the third time in school history.

In the 2019 regular-season finale, Burrow took his final bow on Senior Night in Tiger Stadium, as No. 1 LSU overwhelmed Texas A&M, 50-7. Burrow set SEC records for passing yards with 4,366 and for passing touchdowns with 44. In preserving their undefeated regular season, the No. 2 Tigers defense held the Aggies to 169 total yards and just 2-of-13 on third down while recording a safety and six sacks.

20-STRAIGHT BOWL SEASONS

LSU has played in a bowl game for 20-straight seasons. The Tigers own a record of 14-7 in bowl games during the stretch, which began in 2000 and includes two bowl appearances/playoff games in the 2019 season. LSU's current streak of 20-straight bowl seasons ranks No. 4 nationally, trailing only Virginia Tech (27), Georgia (23), and Oklahoma (21).

LAYING THE FOUNDATION

Charlie McClendon, seen here riding the shoulders of his players after guiding the Tigers to a 13-0 victory over Texas in the 1963 Cotton Bowl, led LSU to 13 bowl games in 18 years from 1962-79.

28 ALL-TIME VICTORIES

LSU owns a 28-23-1 mark all-time in bowl games. The 28 wins rank eighth among all schools nationally and fourth in the Southeastern Conference.

Great Moments in LSU History

CANNON'S HALLOWEEN RUN
TIGER STADIUM • OCT. 31, 1959

Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return for a touchdown against third-ranked Ole Miss is not only one of the most memorable plays in LSU football history, but it also ranks among the most memorable in college football. Trailing 3-0 late in the game, Cannon, the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner, fielded the punt at the Tiger 11-yard line and began his run into immortality. He eluded seven would-be tacklers down the east sideline and crossed the goal line of Tiger Stadium for the only touchdown of the game, giving the top-ranked LSU Tigers the 7-3 victory.

1966 COTTON BOWL
COTTON BOWL • JAN. 1, 1966

LSU entered the 1966 Cotton Bowl as a heavy underdog to the second-ranked Arkansas Razorbacks, but the Tigers knew they had nothing to lose and a lot of respect to gain. Arkansas, which entered the game riding a 22-game win streak and knew a victory over LSU meant a possible national title, struck first, but LSU's Joe Labruzzo reached the endzone twice in the second quarter to give the Tigers a 14-7 lead that would stand and foil the Razorbacks' hopes of a title.

JONES TO DAVIS
TIGER STADIUM • NOV. 4, 1972

"You are now entering Louisiana. Set your clocks back four seconds," read a sign put up on the Louisiana-Mississippi state line after this game. With undefeated and No. 6 LSU on the ropes, and four seconds remaining in the contest, Bert Jones' pass to Jimmy LeDoux fell incomplete in the endzone sending the Ole Miss sidelines into a celebration. But somehow, the game clock still showed :01 remaining. Following an Ole Miss timeout, Jones hit Brad Davis, who bobbled the football, and then dove into the endzone tying the game at 16-16. Rusty Jackson's extra-point provided the winning margin in what was one of the most improbable wins in school history.

THE EARTHQUAKE GAME
TIGER STADIUM • OCT. 8, 1988

With time winding down and LSU saddled with fourth-and-10 at the Auburn 11-yard line, quarterback Tommy Hodson found running back Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the game-winning touchdown as LSU stunned fourth-ranked Auburn, 7-6, in Tiger Stadium. In what is now known as the "Earthquake Game", Hodson's touchdown pass to Fuller with 1:41 left in the contest caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Department of Geology registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the TD was scored.

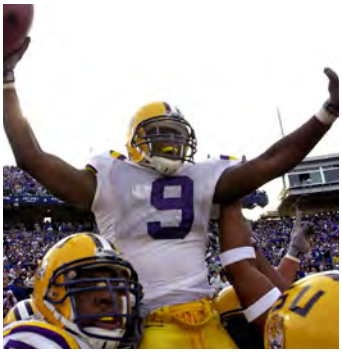

NO. 1 FALLS!
TIGER STADIUM • OCT. 11, 1997

Oct. 11, 1997, marked the first time LSU defeated the No. 1 ranked team in the nation when the Tigers upended top-ranked Florida, 28-21, in Tiger Stadium. LSU jumped out to an early lead, but the Gators would score a touchdown with 6:44 remaining in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to single digits. LSU's defense sealed the victory when Raion Hill intercepted a Florida pass with less than three minutes to play, and the Tigers ran out the clock to set off one of the greatest celebrations in Tiger Stadium history.

SEC CHAMPIONS!
GEORGIA DOME • DEC. 8, 2001

LSU, playing in its first SEC Championship Game, shocked No. 2 Tennessee to win its first SEC title since 1986 by a score of 31-20. Tiger starting QB Rohan Davey went down to injury and was spelled by redshirt freshman Matt Mauck, who scored two rushing touchdowns to claim MVP honors. The game was dedicated to the memory of former coach Charles McClendon, who passed away a day earlier while the Tigers were en route to Atlanta. The win secured LSU's first Sugar Bowl appearance since 1987.

BLUEGRASS MIRACLE
COMMONWEALTH STADIUM • NOV. 9, 2002

Trailing 30-27 to Kentucky with 11 seconds to play in the game, LSU mounted a two-play 87-yard drive that will forever be known as, "The Bluegrass Miracle." QB Marcus Randall connected with WR Devery Henderson on the game-winning 75-yard pass as time expired to give the Tigers a 33-30 victory.

LET THE VALLEY SHAKE!
TIGER STADIUM • SEPT. 20, 2003

QB Matt Mauck rolled to his left, fired to the endzone and found wide receiver Skyler Green for an over-the-shoulder 34-yard touchdown with 3:03 remaining as No. 11 LSU outlasted No. 7 Georgia, 17-10, in an early SEC thriller at a raucous Tiger Stadium. All-American Corey Webster sealed the victory with an interception in the final minute. With ESPN College GameDay on hand for the first time since 1997, the win catapulted the Tigers onto the national scene where they would eventually go on to claim their first national title since 1958.

2003 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME • JAN. 4, 2004

LSU, the No. 2 team in the Bowl Championship Series rankings, beat No. 1 BCS ranked Oklahoma in the Nokia Sugar Bowl to win the 2003 National Championship, the Tigers' first title since 1958. Freshman RB Justin Vincent, named the game's MVP after totaling 117 yards, scampered 64 yards on the first play of the game to set the tone as LSU never trailed, winning 21-14. The LSU defense, ranked No. 1 in the nation, stifled the Sooner's top-ranked offense, holding Oklahoma to 154 yards and sacking Heisman winning QB Jason White five times.

PRIMETIME DRAMA
TIGER STADIUM • OCT. 6, 2007

In one of the most exciting games ever played in LSU's storied Tiger Stadium, No. 1-ranked LSU overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to beat defending national champion and ninth-ranked Florida, 28-24, in front of 92,910 emotionally spent fans. TB Jacob Hester plunged into the endzone from 1-yard out that gave LSU its first lead of the game and sent Tiger Stadium into pandemonium with 1:06 to go in the fourth quarter. It marked LSU's first national primetime game on CBS since 1981.

2007 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME • JAN. 7, 2008

LSU became the first school in the nation to win multiple BCS national titles as the second-ranked Tigers downed top-ranked Ohio State, 38-24, in the 2008 BCS National Championship Game. LSU trailed 10-0 in the first quarter but rallied for 31 unanswered points on a school-record tying four TD passes from QB Matt Flynn to claim the third national title in program history. DT Ricky Jean-Francois garnered defensive Most Outstanding Player honors chiefly for blocking a second-quarter, 38-yard field goal attempt that kept the game tied at 10-10 and swung the momentum completely in LSU's favor the remainder of the game.

GAME OF THE CENTURY
BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM • NOV. 5, 2011

Billed as the "Game of the Century" after weeks of media hype, Drew Alleman's 25-yard field goal in overtime propelled No. 1 LSU past No. 2 Alabama, 9-6, in Bryant-Denny Stadium. With rosters featuring future NFL players, neither team was able to score a touchdown. With the Tide driving in the fourth quarter, S Eric Reid made arguably the biggest play of the entire college football regular season, when he grabbed an acrobatic, diving interception at the 1-yard line that prevented an Alabama score.

3RD-AND-17
DARRELL K. ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • SEPT. 7, 2019

Clinging to a 37-31 lead at No. 9 Texas, LSU faced a 3rd-and-17 at its own 39-yard line with 2:27 left in the game. Quarterback Joe Burrow eluded a fierce Longhorns rush, stepped up in the pocket, and connected with wide receiver Justin Jefferson on a 61-yard touchdown reception that proved to be game-winning score in a 45-38 triumph. The victory was No. 6 LSU's first-ever non-conference road win over a Top-10 team. Burrow threw for 471 yards and four touchdowns; for the first time in school history, three LSU receivers recorded 100 yards or more in one game.

ROLL CLYDE
BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM • NOV. 9, 2019

The top-ranked Tigers journeyed to Tuscaloosa, Ala., and posted an epic 46-41 win over No. 2 Alabama to snap the Tide's 31-game home winning streak. Running back Clyde Edwards-Helaire had 180 yards of total offense, with three rushing touchdowns and 103 yards, along with nine catches for 77 and a score. Quarterback Joe Burrow threw for 393 with three touchdowns, and the Tigers rolled up 559 yards of total offense. LSU, which never trailed in the contest, built a 33-13 halftime lead and then held off the Crimson Tide with unrelenting offensive efficiency.

2019 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS – THE BEST EVER
MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME • JAN. 13, 2020

Led by Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Joe Burrow's six-touchdown performance, top-ranked LSU earned the title 2019 National Champions and arguably The Best Team Ever. LSU (15-0) proved its dominant season by ending Clemson's 29-game winning streak in a 42-25 victory over the defending champs. The Tigers recorded their seventh win of the season over a Top 10 team. Burrow was 31-of-49 passing for 463 yards with five touchdown passes, while adding another 58 rushing yards and one TD. He set NCAA single-season marks for passing touchdowns (60) and total touchdowns (65).

LSU Football Traditions from A to Z

The rich history of LSU football is impossible to portray in only a few pages. However, below are tidbits from the Tiger Football annals that have contributed to the story that is 127 seasons of LSU Football. These items are presented as background material with the hope that they will encourage a better understanding of the many traditions that are associated with Tiger football and LSU Athletics.

ALMA MATER

Since 2005, LSU has followed a win by singing the alma mater on the field. Ed Orgeron has carried on the tradition following a victory. Orgeron and the team gather in front of the student section and join the student body in a rendition of the alma mater.

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias shade inspiring halls,
There stands our dear Old Alma Mater who to us recalls
Fond memories that waken in our hearts a tender glow,
And make us happy for the love that we have learned to know.

All hail to thee our Alma Mater, molder of mankind,
May greater glory, love unending be forever thine.
Our worth in life will be thy worth we pray to keep it true,
And may thy spirit live in us, forever L-S-U.

JOE "BURREAUX"

Quarterback Joe Burrow cemented his place in LSU lore by winning the Heisman Trophy and leading a Tigers squad many considered "The Best Ever" in college football to the 2019 national championship. "Burreaux," an homage to LSU worn by the graduate transfer during his Senior Tribute in Tiger Stadium, set countless single-season records including NCAA marks for touchdowns and SEC records for completions, attempts, passing yards, passing TD's, total TD's, completion percentage, total yards, total yards per game and total plays. Burrow, who earned his masters degree in 2019, was 25-3 in two seasons at LSU, including 11 victories over top-10 ranked opponents. In his final game as a Tiger, Burrow threw for 463 yards and accounted for all six of LSU's TD's in the 42-25 CFP National Championship game victory over Clemson. Three months later, the Cincinnati Bengals made Burrow the No. 1 overall selection in the 2020 NFL Draft.

BILLY CANNON, NO. 20

The great Billy Cannon, two-time All-American and Heisman Trophy winner, played at LSU from 1957-59. He led the Tigers to the 1958 National Championship and is best known for his 89-yard punt return to beat Ole Miss in 1959. In his career, Cannon rushed for 1,867 yards on 359 carries, an average of 5.2 yards per carry and scored 19 rushing touchdowns. He also scored two touchdowns by receiving and one each by punt return, kickoff return and interception return. LSU went 24-7 during Cannon's stay on the Baton Rouge campus, including 19-straight victories from the end of the 1957 season to the eighth game of the 1959 campaign. Following that 1959 season, Cannon's jersey was retired into the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame. A sign honoring Cannon was unveiled in the southeast corner of Tiger Stadium during LSU's game against Ole Miss on Nov. 22, 2008. Cannon was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in the summer of 2009. Cannon passed away on May 20, 2018, at the age of 80.

BILLY CANNON STATUE

Billy Cannon became the third LSU Tiger to have a statute unveiled on campus. The statue, located on the Champions Plaza on the southwest corner of Tiger Stadium, commemorates the accomplishments of the most heralded football player in LSU Football history. Cannon led LSU to the 1958 national championship and the following year won the 1959 Heisman Trophy as the top player in college football. His No. 20 jersey was retired by the University in 1959 and he was inducted into the LSU Hall of Fame in 1975.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders have long been a part of college football tradition, and the LSU Varsity Cheerleaders are no exception in their role in Tiger gridiron lore. The cheerleaders traditionally lead the Tigers onto the field before and after halftime of every game. The 1989 Tiger cheerleaders captured the National Championship in the annual Universal Cheerleading Association competition.

Special thanks to Peter Finney of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who has documented the history of LSU football in his book "Fighting Tigers", the late Marty Mule' of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who penned "Eye of the Tiger" in celebration of LSU's football centennial in 1993, and to the late historian H. Warren Taylor whose relentless pursuit of accurate information and record-keeping in the early years of LSU athletics has kept alive the accomplishments of Tiger athletes in football, basketball, track and boxing dating back to the late 1800s.

CUBA: TIGERS ON FOREIGN SOIL

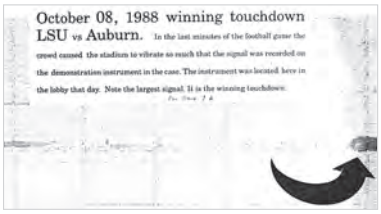

LSU was the first college team to play on foreign soil when, in 1907, coach Edgar R. Wingard took his Tigers to Havana for an international gridiron bout. The University of Havana team had dominated every American service team it had played, but had never encountered football collegiate style. The finesse of the Tigers took the big Cuban team by surprise on Christmas Day at Almendares Park and LSU walked away with a convincing 56-0 victory before 10,000 fans.

DORMITORIES

Tiger Stadium once housed some 1,500 dorm rooms, home to many LSU students over the years. The concept was introduced in 1928 by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, who learned that LSU president James Smith proposed to use $250,000 to build new dormitories on the LSU campus. Heard sold Smith on the idea of raising the stands on both the East and West sides of the stadium and extending them to the end zones, then constructing the dorms inside the stadium. Thus the University got its dorms and Tiger Stadium's capacity increased by 10,000 seats in 1931. Today, the dorms are used for storage.

EARTHQUAKE GAME (1988)

October 08, 1988 winning touchdown LSU vs Auburn. In the last minutes of the football game the crowd caused the stadium to vibrate so much that the signal was recorded on the demonstration instrument in the case. The instrument was located here in the lobby that day. Note the largest signal. It is the winning touchdown.

With time winding down and LSU saddled with fourth-and-10 at the Auburn 11-yard line, quarterback Tommy Hodson found running back Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the game-winning touchdown as LSU stunned fourth-ranked Auburn, 7-6, in Tiger Stadium. In what is now known as the "Earthquake Game", Hodson's touchdown pass to Fuller with 1:41 left in the contest caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Department of Geology registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the TD was scored.

FIGHTING TIGERS

In the fall of 1896, coach A.W. Jeardeau's LSU football team posted a perfect 6-0-0 record, and it was in that pigskin campaign that LSU first adopted its nickname, Tigers. "Tigers" seemed a logical choice since most collegiate teams in that year bore the names of ferocious animals, but the underlying reason why LSU chose "Tigers" dates back to the Civil War. During the "War Between the States," a battalion of Confederate soldiers comprised of New Orleans Zouaves and Donaldsonville Cannoneers distinguished themselves at the Battle of Shenandoah. These Louisiana rebels had been known by their contemporaries as the fighting band of Louisiana Tigers. Thus, when LSU football teams entered the gridiron battlefields in their fourth year of intercollegiate competition, they tagged themselves as the "Tigers." The 1955 LSU "fourth-quarter ball club" helped the moniker "Tigers" grow into the nickname, "Fighting Tigers."

THE GOLDEN BAND FROM TIGERLAND

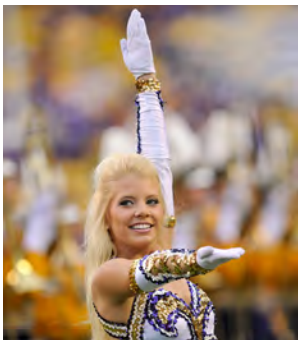

The grandest band in all the land, the Golden Band from Tigerland, is as much a part of Saturday nights in Tiger Stadium as the team itself. Among the many favorites of LSU fans is the band's traditional pregame march down North Stadium Drive from the Band Hall to the tune of "Hold That Tiger." That tradition is a carry-over from the old pregame parades through downtown Baton Rouge. Castro Carazo was the man handpicked by Louisiana Governor Huey Long in 1935 to revamp the Tiger band. Carazo and Long together wrote fan favorite "Touchdown for LSU," and two years later, Carazo also penned the official LSU fight song, "Fight For LSU." The tradition of the LSU Tiger Marching Band continues today. The LSU Tiger Marching Band is made up of some 325 musicians, Golden Girls and Colorguard members. In 1997, the band was selected as the top band in the Southeastern Conference by SEC band directors. In December 2001, the band was awarded the Sudler Trophy, the highest honor a collegiate marching band can receive. The award has been called "the Heisman Trophy of marching bands," according to Frank Wickes, director of LSU bands from 1980-2010 who passed away in 2020. A state-of-the-art, 17,640 square foot band hall opened its doors on April 26, 2012.

THE GOLDEN BOOT

The Golden Boot is a trophy awarded each year to the winner of the Battle for the Golden Boot football matchup between LSU and SEC rival Arkansas. The trophy was introduced to the series prior to the 1996 season. Molded from 24-karat gold in the shape of the states of Arkansas and Louisiana, the trophy stands four feet in height, weighs nearly 200 pounds and is valued at $10,000. It is believed to be the heaviest trophy awarded in a college football rivalry. After a win in the series, the victorious team keeps the trophy until the following year's matchup.

THE GOLDEN GIRLS

Taking the field with the Tiger Band at LSU for the first time in 1959, the prestigious LSU Golden Girls represent the oldest and most established danceline on the LSU campus. The line consists of a very talented group of young ladies who are chosen each spring by a special audition. The Golden Girls are one of the feature units with the LSU Tiger Band and perform for all home LSU football games and selected campus events, as well as, away games with the full Tiger Band. The 2019 season represented the 60th anniversary of the group's foundation.

HALL OF FAMERS

Fourteen members of the LSU football community have the distinction of being inductees into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame that was established in 1947. In 1956, former end Gaynell Tinsley was enshrined in South Bend, Ind., as LSU's first Hall of Famer. Ken Kavanaugh (1963), Abe Mickal (1967), Doc Fenton (1971), Tommy Casanova (1995), Billy Cannon (2009) Jerry Stovall (2010), Charles Alexander (2012) and Bert Jones (2016) all have been inducted into the event that is annually held in New York City in December. Glenn Dorsey will become the newest College Football Hall of Famer from LSU when he is officially inducted in December 2020. Five LSU coaches are members of the NFF Hall of Fame, a list that includes the legendary Charles McClendon. Five former LSU players have earned the highest honor of being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, with Johnny Robinson and Kevin Mawae joining the ranks in 2019. Steve Van Buren was the first in 1965. Y.A. Tittle, who went on to become one of the greatest quarterbacks in history, was inducted in 1971 after a storied career with the Baltimore Colts, San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants. Four-time NFL championship winner and 1962 NFL MVP Jimmy Taylor was enshrined in 1976. Thirty-two LSU football players are also members of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame with Max Fugler as the most recent inductee in the summer of 2019.

LSU Football Traditions from A to Z

H-STYLE GOALPOSTS

Unknown to many Tiger fans, the LSU football team still runs onto the field under the same crossbar that stood as part of the north end zone goalpost in Tiger Stadium as early as 1955. It had long been a tradition that the LSU football team entered the field by running between the goalposts when the new "T-style" goalposts came into vogue. By virtue of tradition, the old "H-style" posts stood on the field of Death Valley until they were removed in 1984. Part of the crossbar, however, was kept and mounted above the door of the Tiger Den through which the Tigers run onto the field each game. In 1993, in celebration of the centennial of LSU football, the "H-style" goalposts were returned to the end zones of Tiger Stadium. Today, Tiger Stadium is one of only three college stadiums in the nation who still use the "H-style" goalposts. Doak Campbell Stadium at Florida State and Martin Stadium at Washington State are the others.

HALLOWEEN NIGHT

Drama on Halloween is as traditional as pumpkins and goblins for LSU and Ole Miss. These schools have met seven times on Oct. 31 with the series tied at 3-3-1. The most notable game on All Hallow's Eve was the 1959 thriller that saw Billy Cannon return a punt 89 yards to spur a 7-3 Tiger victory. The Tigers and Rebels next met on Halloween in 1964. Ole Miss led 10-3 late in the fourth quarter in Death Valley when LSU scored a touchdown to make it 10-9. Quarterback Billy Ezell then threw to Doug Moreau in the front corner of the endzone on the two-point conversion, at nearly the exact point where Cannon had crossed the goal line five years earlier for an 11-10 win. There was a 17-year span before the teams played on Oct. 31 again, this time at Jackson in 1981. A seesaw battle ended with a 46-yard field goal off the foot of LSU's David Johnston as time expired for a 27-27 tie. In the most recent meeting, the teams engaged in the first overtime game in LSU history at Oxford in 1998, but Ole Miss emerged with a 37-31 win. LSU is 8-6-1 all-time on Halloween night, including a 42-0 shutout of Tulane in Tiger Stadium in 2009.

HALLOWEEN RUN

There have been longer scoring plays in LSU football history, but Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return against Ole Miss in 1959 is simply, and undeniably, the most famous play in Tiger gridiron records. In fact, some consider it one of the most memorable in college football history. It was an eerie, misty and humid Halloween night, and the Rebels of Mississippi took a 3-0 lead into the final quarter, threatening to end an 18-game LSU win streak. On third and 17 from the Ole Miss 42, the Rebels' Jake Gibbs punted 47 yards to the Tiger 11 where Cannon hauled it in on the bounce. Cannon careened off seven tacklers down the east sideline and darted 89 yards to immortality. Some say it may have been that run that assured Cannon of the Heisman Trophy he received at season's end. LSU celebrated the 50-year anniversary of the legendary play in 2009 as Cannon was recognized on the field during the Tigers' game with Tulane on Halloween night.

ICE BOWL (1946)

The Tigers of 1946, though not one of Bernie Moore's two SEC Championship teams, was surely one of Moore's finest squads. Only a 26-7 loss at the hands of SEC foe Georgia Tech spoiled the season and the Y.A. Tittle-led Bayou Bengals landed in the Cotton Bowl against Arkansas and star Razorback Smackover Scott. But ice, sleet and snow pelted Dallas on that Jan. 1 as LSU filled oil drums with charcoal and started fires for makeshift heaters on the field. Fans built fires in the stands and watched the Tigers roll to 271-54 advantage in total yardage and a 15-1 lead in first downs. Those numbers, however, didn't equate on the scoreboard that showed 0-0 at game's end. The Tigers finished the season with a 9-1-1 record in Moore's penultimate season as head coach.

JERSEY 18

Jersey No. 18 was an LSU tradition born in 2003 when quarterback Matt Mauck guided the Tigers to their first national championship since 1958. His number became synonymous with success – both on and off the field – as well as a selfless attitude that has become the epitome of being an LSU football player. After his final year with the Tigers, Mauck passed jersey No. 18 down to running back Jacob Hester, who then helped LSU to another national title in 2007. Each season, a Tiger player is voted to wear the No. 18 and is announced prior to the start of training camp in August.

JERSEY 7

A new LSU tradition began in 2011 when one of the most dynamic playmakers in LSU history turned over his No. 7 jersey to the next player up as a force to be reckoned with. NFL Pro Bowler Patrick Peterson's three seasons wearing No. 7 made it a coveted number for future Tigers to wear. The jersey moved to the offensive side of the ball as RB Leonard Fournette inherited the number from Peterson. Fournette had this to say about wearing No. 7, "I know the history behind the number. No. 7 is the number at LSU for big-time playmakers like myself, Patrick Peterson and Tyrann Mathieu. That number changes the program and there's a lot to come from players wearing that number." Unanimous All-American Ja'Marr Chase is the latest player to be awarded the No. 7 jersey for the 2020 season.

HELMETS

LSU's helmet is a striking tradition that has seen its share of changes since the program's inception. From 1947-55, a dark gold helmet was used by the Tigers. Then in 1956, head coach Paul Dietzel entered his second season by introducing a new helmet design. The helmet was changed to a yellow gold, similar to that of the Green Bay Packers, that featured a white one-inch center stripe and purple three-quarter-inch flanking stripes. It is a look that has become synonymous and identified with LSU football since its unveiling. The 1957 Tigers had the addition of black two-inch "NCAA style" identifying numerals placed on each side of the helmet and that size expanded to three inches in 1958, the year of LSU's first national title. In 1972, a logo first appeared on the helmet. In 1977, the logo was modified, and that look remained until 2013. In 2014, the Tiger head logo was updated with a fresh look and is now utilized by several LSU Athletics programs.

THE KINGFISH

No single person can be credited for building LSU football into the entity it is today, but one of the men who most influenced the popularity of Tiger football was neither a player nor a coach. The "Kingfish," Louisiana Governor Huey P. Long, never shied from using his political influence to aid the cause of LSU football. Two examples: In 1934, athletic director T.P. Heard reported low advance sales for the LSU-SMU game because of a circus coming to town the night of the game. Long contacted the proper Barnum and Bailey representatives and informed them of a near-forgotten animal-dipping law. The show was canceled and LSU-SMU ticket sales took off. Later that same year, Long used his influence to "entice" passenger agents of the Illinois Central Railroad to lower fares for LSU students traveling to a road football game. When Long threatened to reassess the value of railroad bridges in the state from $100,000 to $4 million, the railroad generously agreed to give LSU students a $6 roundtrip fare for the Vanderbilt game that season.

NIGHT GAMES IN TIGER STADIUM

The tradition of playing night games in Tiger Stadium began on Oct. 3, 1931, when LSU downed Spring Hill, 35-0, under the lights. The idea of night football was introduced by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, then graduate manager of athletics and later athletics director. Several reasons were cited for playing LSU games at night, including avoiding the heat and humidity of afternoon games, avoiding scheduling conflicts with Tulane and Loyola, and giving more fans the opportunity to see the Tigers play. An immediate increase in attendance was noted, and night football soon became ingrained in LSU football lore. LSU has also traditionally played better at night than in the light of day. LSU is 338-108-13 (.751) under the lights of Tiger Stadium and 93-43-5 (.677) during the day at home.

ONE TEAM, ONE HEARTBEAT

When he was hired as LSU's football coach in 2016, Ed Orgeron established "One Team, One Hearbeat" as the slogan by which his program thrives. Orgeron has leveraged his passion and love for LSU into a determination and drive that sees him spend nearly every waking moment focused on LSU Football and his vision for the organization. With the "One Team, One Heartbeat" motto, the players have bought into the Orgeron system both on and off the field, and the results are unmistakable. Through his first four seasons, Orgeron has guided the Tigers to a 39-9 overall mark in his 48 games as the LSU head coach, including the 2019 CFP National Championship. Of his 39 victories, 17 have come against teams ranked in the Top 25, including 11 over Top 10 opponents. Furthermore, of those 39 wins, 24 have come against SEC foes and 30 have come by double-digits.

NUMBERING SYSTEM

LSU, in 1952, introduced a unique - and short-lived - jersey numbering system. The idea of coach Gaynell "Gus" Tinsley and publicity director Jim Corbett, the system utilized an abbreviation of the player's position on his jersey. Thus, ends, guards and tackles wore the letters "E", "G" and "T" followed by a single-digit number. The right side of the line wore even numbers, the left side odd numbers. In similar fashion the centers, quarterbacks, left halfbacks, right halfbacks and fullbacks wore"C", "Q", "L", "R" and "F", respectively, followed by single-digit numerals. The 1953 LSU yearbook, the Gumbo, boldly predicted that the new system "may revolutionize the football jersey manufacturing industry." It didn't.

PURPLE & GOLD

There is some discrepancy in the origin of Royal Purple and Old Gold as LSU's official colors. It is believed that those colors were worn for the first time by an LSU team in the spring of 1893 when the LSU baseball squad beat Tulane in the first intercollegiate contest played in any sport by Louisiana State University. Team captain E.B. Young reportedly hand-picked those colors for the LSU squad. Later that year, the first football game was played. On Nov. 25, 1893, football coach/chemistry professor Dr. Charles Coates and some of his players went into town to purchase ribbon to adorn their gray jerseys as they prepared to play the first LSU gridiron game. Stores were stocking ribbons in the colors of Mardi Gras - purple, gold, and green - for the coming Carnival season. However, none of the green had yet arrived at Reymond's Store at the corner of Third and Main streets. Coates and quarterback Ruffin Pleasant bought up all of the purple and gold stock and made it into rosettes and badges.

OLE WAR SKULE

LSU began in 1860 as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy, shortly before the beginning of the Civil War. In fact, LSU's first superintendent was Civil War commander William Tecumseh Sherman. "Ole War Skule" was formerly a popular reference to LSU, as was the term "Old Lou."

THE RAG

The Rag was the traditional spoils of victory in the LSU-Tulane rivalry for many years. This flag, decorated half in LSU's colors of purple and gold and the other half adorned in the green and white of Tulane, was held for one year by the victorious school until the game the following season. The whereabouts of the original flag are unknown; however, a new version of The Rag was awarded to the LSU squad after the Tigers defeated the Greenies, 48-17, in the 2001 season opener in Death Valley.

LSU Football Traditions from A to Z

PERFECT SEASONS

LSU has had seven unblemished seasons in its history. The Tigers first went undefeated and untied in 1895 under head coach A. P. Simmons with a 3-0 record, but the first truly great LSU team is considered to be the 1908 squad led by one of the most legendary players to wear the Purple and Gold - Doc Fenton. That 1908 team, coached by Edgar R. Wingard, soared through a 10-game schedule without a loss or tie as Fenton scored an incredible 125 points on the year. It was 50 years before LSU would post another perfect season, winning the national championship in 1958 with an 11-0 mark. In 2019, the Tigers surged to the SEC and CFP titles with a perfect 15-0 record in a season regarded as "The Best Ever" by most college football historians.

SOUTH END ZONE

Whether it be the 1959 goal line stand that sealed victory for the Tigers against Ole Miss on the "Billy Cannon Run" night or Bert Jones' pass to Brad Davis as time expired to beat the Rebels in 1972, the south end zone of Tiger Stadium has become somewhat of an enigma for the sometimes strange and often memorable plays in LSU football. The Tiger defenders have put together numerous goal line stands at the south end zone, including the following games: 1985 Colorado State, 1985 Florida, 1986 North Carolina, 1986 Notre Dame, 1988 Texas A&M, 1991 Florida State, 1992 Miss. State and 1996 Vanderbilt. In 1988, the Tigers stymied the Texas A&M Aggies at the LSU 2-yard line despite the distraction of a bank of lights going dark midway through A&M's series of plays. For that series, LSU's defense was nicknamed the "Lights Out Defense." The first great goal line stand at that end of the field may have been in that 1959 game when Warren Rabb and Billy Cannon halted Ole Miss' Doug Elmore at the one-yard line for the 7-3 victory. Then, in 1971, the first and most memorable of LSU's three goal line stands against Notre Dame was at the 1-yard line at the South end of the field as Louis Cascio and Ronnie Estay hit the Irish's Andy Huff at the goal en route to a 28-8 Tiger victory.

Billy Cannon and Warren Rabb make a stop at the South End Zone.

TAILGATING

It has often been pondered whether the attraction of night football is because of the excitement of the atmosphere created by a game under the lights, the more pleasant weather of an evening after the sun has set, or because it allows more time for tailgating. If it is not football that people of south Louisiana crave, then it is food. Tiger fans arrive as early as Thursday evening for Saturday games, set up their motor homes and kick back for a weekend of cooking and enjoyment for two days until kickoff. A stroll across the LSU campus and through the parking lots is a veritable connoisseur's treat. Common entrees include crawfish, boiled shrimp, and jambalaya and, on occasion, one will run across a cochon-de-lait (pig roast). In 2008, ESPN.com ranked LSU as the top tailgating destination in America. In 2010, Sporting News, proclaimed "Saturday Night in Death Valley" and Tiger tailgating as the top traditions in all of college football. LSU's legendary tailgating experience was recently named No. 1 by the Associated Press in a September 2010 poll and by CNN in the network's November 2010 survey.

VICTORY HILL

A pregame ritual for many Tiger fans is to line North Stadium Drive in the hours before kickoff to see the Tiger Marching Band in its walk from the band hall. The band pauses each game on the hill next to the Journalism Building to play "Tiger Rag," to the delight of the LSU throngs. Former head coach Curley Hallman began the tradition in the early 1990s of leading the team by foot down Victory Hill from Broussard Hall two hours before the game. That practice became so popular that Gerry DiNardo, Nick Saban, Les Miles and Ed Orgeron have continued the tradition, even though the team began to stay in a hotel the night before home games. The team buses drive from the on-campus Lod Cook Hotel to the top of Victory Hill between the Academic Center and Journalism Building in order for the players to make their traditional walk down. Orgeron also began inviting L-Club members (former football lettermen) to join the team on the walk down Victory Hill, affirming the bond between past and present Tigers.

WHITE JERSEYS

LSU is one of the few college football teams that traditionally wear white jerseys for home games. The tradition originated when LSU won its first national championship in 1958. Head coach Paul Dietzel had a habit of tinkering with the uniform every year. In 1958, he chose to wear white jerseys for LSU's home games, and the Tigers subsequently won the national championship. A superstitious man, Dietzel didn't change the uniform after that season. LSU continued to wear white jerseys for home games throughout the Charlie McClendon Era. When Jerry Stovall took over as head coach in 1980, he said the Tigers would occasionally wear purple jerseys so that home fans could see a different color. In 1982, the NCAA changed its jersey rule, requiring teams to wear dark colored jerseys for home games. The Tigers wore purple jerseys for all home games from 1983 to 1994. When Gerry DiNardo became head coach in 1995, he vowed to change the NCAA jersey rule. After petitioning the rules committee of the American Football Coaches Association, he personally met with each member of the NCAA Football Rules Committee. DiNardo's efforts were successful and the Tigers were allowed to wear white jerseys again beginning in 1995. A stipulation of the new rule was that the visiting team would have to give the home team permission to wear the white jerseys. The first team to deny LSU's request was DiNardo's former team, Vanderbilt. Instead of going back to purple jerseys, the Tigers took to the field in new gold jerseys. The SEC later adopted a league rule stipulating that the home team has sole discretion in determining its jersey color. Nick Saban became LSU's head coach in 2000 and continued the white jersey tradition, but with a twist. Saban decided that LSU would wear purple jerseys for all non-SEC games, except the home opener. That tradition continues today.

The Tigers celebrated the 2007 national title on the South Lawn of the White House.

"I'm so honored and proud to welcome the LSU Tigers here as the national champs. God bless you. God bless LSU, and God bless America."

- President George W. Bush, April 7, 2008

THE WHITE HOUSE

Winning national championships carries the privilege of visiting Washington D.C., and touring the White House. The Tigers have traveled to the Nation's Capital following each of their three national championships in the 21st Century. Head coaches Nick Saban (2003 BCS title) and Les Miles (2007 BCS title) and their teams had the chance to meet President George W. Bush at the White House. Coach Ed Orgeron (2019 CFP title) and his squad were welcomed to the White House by President Donald Trump. The Tigers arrived in Washington D.C. on January 16, 2020, and took part in a national championship dinner at the Kennedy Center with the Louisiana Congressional Delegation. On the next day, the Tigers were granted a tour of the National Museum of African American History and Culture, which was followed by a tour of the White House and a meeting with President Trump. The Tigers then took a team photo on the steps of the United States Capitol and were welcomed to the floor of the Capitol.

VOICE OF THE TIGERS

For more than 40 years, John Ferguson was known as the "Voice of the Tigers." Ferguson's distinctive baritone voice could be heard nationwide as few teams played night games during his tenure, which began in 1946. The most famous call of all plays, though, belongs to J.C. Politz who was the "Voice of the Tigers" in 1959 when Billy Cannon made his legendary 89-yard Halloween run. Ferguson later returned to the broadcast booth doing television for TigerVision broadcasts beginning in 1984. At that time, Jim Hawthorne took over the radio duties as the football, men's basketball and baseball "Voice of the Tigers." Hawthorne has called some of the greatest moments in LSU history, including play-by-play for the Tigers' 2003 and 2007 national championship seasons. After 32 seasons as "Voice of the Tigers," Hawthorne retired at the conclusion of the 2015-16 basketball season. Chris Blair took over as the "Voice of the Tigers" in February 2016. Blair described all of the scintillating moments of the Tigers' drive to the 2019 CFP National Championship.

"Billy Cannon watches it bounce, he takes it at his own 11, he comes back upfield to the 15, stumbles momentarily, he's at the 20, running hard at the 25, gets away from one man at the 30, still runs at the (inaudible) ...at the 35, at the 45... he's on the 50, he's in the clear on the 45, the 40 (inaudible due to crowd noise)...the 15, the 10, the 5 he scores!

"Billy Cannon raced some 89 yards for a touchdown. Listen to the cheers for Billy Cannon as he comes off the field...great All-American!"

THE PRESERVATION OF TIGER STADIUM

In August 2010, the LSU Athletic Department and the Tiger Athletic Foundation launched a campaign to preserve and restore the look of Tiger Stadium. The highly-successful campaign has enhanced the atmosphere in and around the iconic venue. With the expansion of the South End Zone in 2014, Tiger Stadium's capacity is 102,321. All of the projects were privately funded by TAF.

WEST & NORTH STADIUM PLAZAS

Prior to the start of the 2012 season, construction was completed on the first part of the west side plaza that included new gates, the All-American and Hall of Fame plazas, and the National Championship plaza that showcases the past, present and future of LSU football. Construction on the north plaza of Tiger Stadium was completed prior to the 2013 season. This update maintained the great look and feel of Tiger Stadium while preserving the facility in a way that allows it to continue to function for years to come.

SOUTH END ZONE PROJECT

The south end zone expansion was completed before the 2014 season. The expansion included 66 suites, approximately 3,000 club seats and 1,400 general public seats above the south end zone bowl. The addition also features two HD corner scoreboards that are among the best in the SEC.

TIGER STADIUM WINDOWS

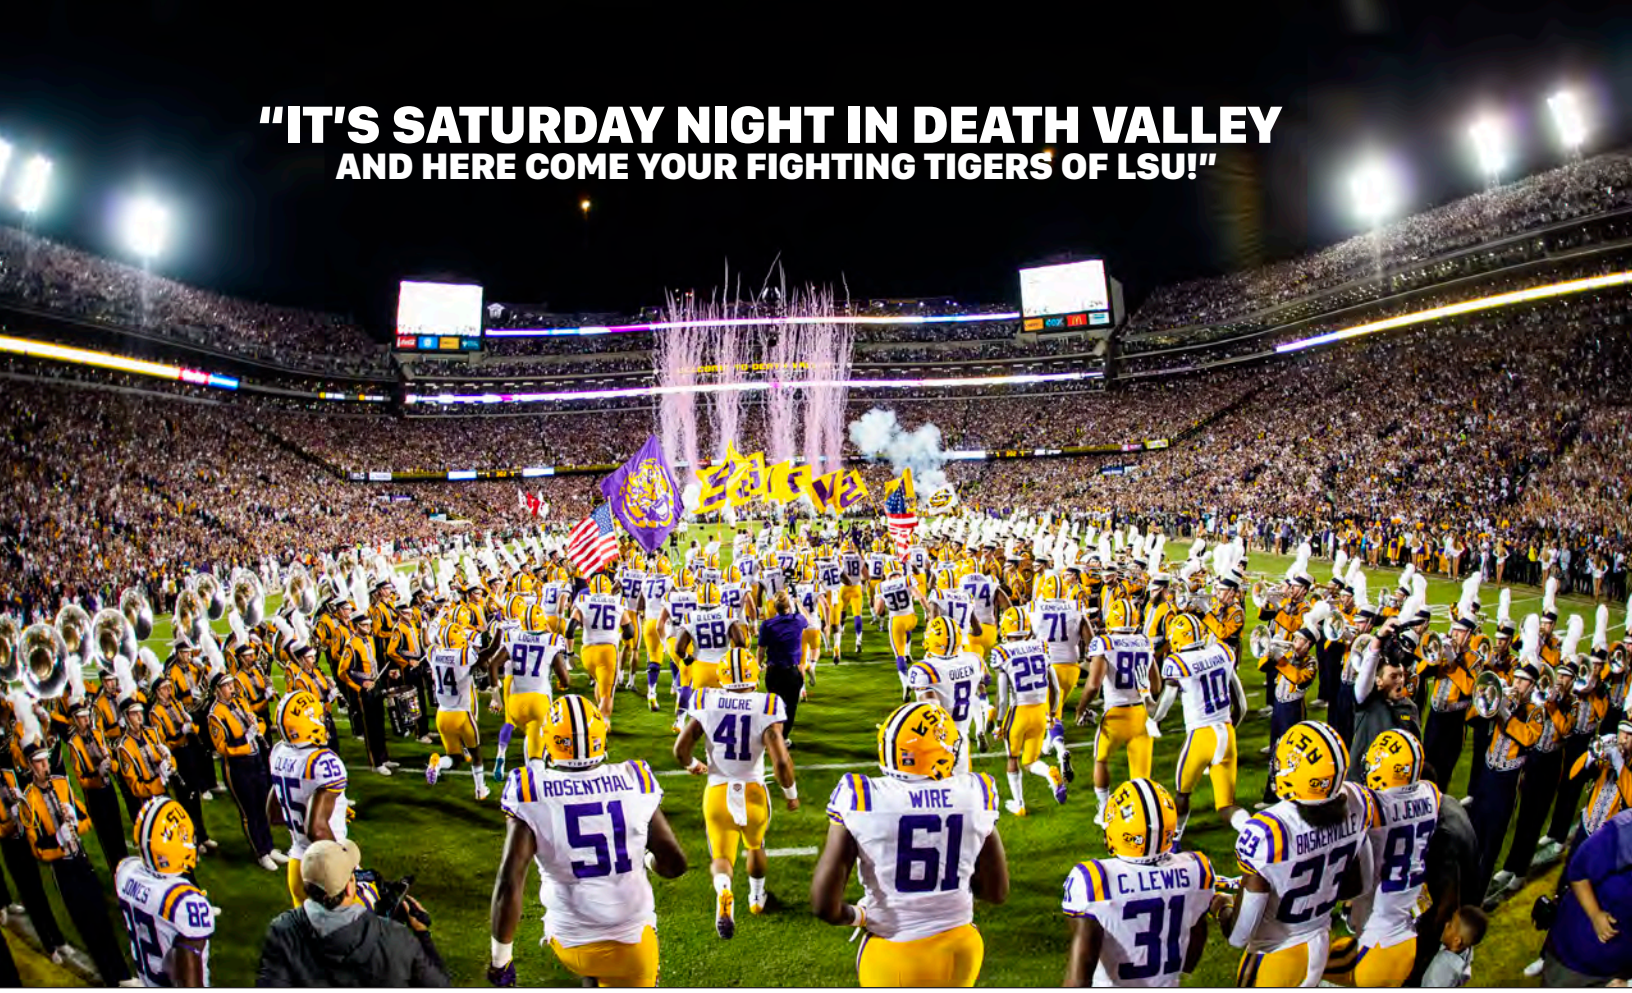

On Nov. 1, 2012, all 428 windows on the North side of Tiger Stadium were replaced, marking the initial phase in the Preservation of Death Valley. The 300 remaining windows on the east and west sides of Tiger Stadium were also sponsored and replaced after the 2013 season. The new windows restore the original look of the stadium on the outside and provide interior protection from the elements.

BRIGHT LIGHTS

A state-of-the-art lighting system was installed prior to the 2012 season that turns the upper archways of the north end of the stadium purple and gold and lights the iconic "LSU" on the stadium's north scoreboard. The visually outstanding system perpetuates the legend of the stadium's night games. Following an LSU win, the north end of the stadium lights up in "victory gold."

"IT'S SATURDAY NIGHT IN DEATH VALLEY AND HERE COME YOUR FIGHTING TIGERS OF LSU!"

Hearing those words from public address announcer Dan Borne' as the Tigers enter the stadium brings chills to even the casual LSU football fan and sends shivers to those on the opposing sideline. On football gamedays, Tiger Stadium becomes the fifth largest city in the state of Louisiana as over 100,000 fans pack the cathedral of college football to watch the Tigers play.

For LSU fans, there's nothing better than spending a night in Tiger Stadium. LSU home football games are events talked about year-round and happenings in Tiger Stadium are passed down from generation to generation.

For opponents, however, it's another story, as Tiger Stadium is an intimidating venue that has been called one of the most dreaded road playing sites in all of college football. Seating over 100,000 fans and nicknamed "Death Valley," poll after poll has proclaimed Tiger Stadium as one of the greatest sites anywhere for a football game -- college or professional.

No Place Like Home

LSU enters the 2020 season having won 121 of its 140 games in Tiger Stadium over the past 20 seasons. That stretch dates back to the start of the 2000 season and includes wins over 30 Top 25 teams. The Tigers established the school record for consecutive home victories with 22 from Oct. 24, 2009, to Oct. 13, 2012.

LSU is 121-19 at home since the 2000 season -- including perfect home records of 7-0 in 2004, 8-0 in 2006, 7-0 in 2010 , 6-0 in 2011, 7-0 in 2013 and 7-0 in 2019. Only four times since 2000 have the Tigers lost more than one home game.

LSU in 2019 outscored its home opponents by an average margin of 48-14. The Tigers' unblemished 2019 home record featured a victory over No. 7 Florida before a sold-out Saturday night crowd of 102,321. Just two weeks later, the Tigers posted a 23-20 win over No. 9 Auburn in a Death Valley afternoon contest with 102,160 in attendance.

In 2018, LSU beat No. 2 Georgia in one of three sold-out games that included a Top-5 showdown with top-ranked Alabama. The season also started with the opening of Tiger Stadium's latest premium area, The Chute. The Chute gives fans the opportunity to purchase beer and food while watching the game and highlights on a giant-screen HD video board and numerous HD televisions.

In 2017, LSU recorded a home win over No. 10 Auburn before 101,601 fans. The 2016 Tigers defeated No. 23 Ole Miss in Tiger Stadium and played top-ranked Alabama before a sell-out crowd of 102,321.

The Tigers in 2015 posted victories before three sell-out home crowds in excess of 102,000, including wins over 18th-ranked Auburn and eighth-ranked Florida.

The 2015 home schedule was marked by a pair of unusual occurrences. The season opener versus McNeese State was stopped in the first quarter due to severe lightning and eventually canceled when the lightning persisted throughout the evening. And, LSU in 2015 held an impromptu home game against South Carolina in Tiger Stadium after severe flooding in Columbia, S.C., the week prior to the game forced the contest to be moved to Baton Rouge.

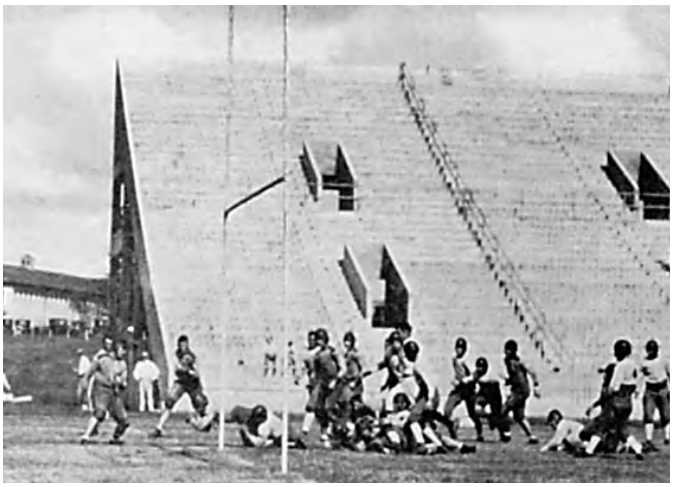

The 2014 season featured the opening of the South End Zone Expansion, increasing Tiger Stadium's seating capacity to 102,321. LSU averaged a school-record 101,723 fans for seven home games, recording sold-out attendance figures of 102,321 for its home games against Mississippi State, Ole Miss and Alabama.

LSU in 2013 was undefeated (7-0) at home for the fourth time in nine seasons. The home schedule was highlighted by wins over No. 17 Florida and No. 9 Texas A&M.

The 2012 season saw the Tigers shatter the school total attendance record, packing in a combined 741,005 fans for eight games. The Tigers knocked off third-ranked South Carolina, 23-21,with a spectacular fourth quarter on October 13. The win was LSU's 22nd consecutive home triumph, representing a school record.

One of the most anticipated games in Tiger Stadium history occurred on November 3, 2012, against top-ranked Alabama. After weeks of buildup, a then school-record 93,374 fans and nearly 1,000 credentialed media saw the Tide escape with a 21-17 victory.

However, the atmosphere that evening left an indelible image for many. ESPN personality Scott Van Pelt, attending his first LSU home game, said this two days later on his radio show: "There is nothing I would put ahead of that, that I've ever seen in any sport. When you're there, you don't want to miss anything."

"DRACULA AND LSU FOOTBALL ARE AT THEIR BEST AFTER THE SUN GOES DOWN."

-Beano Cook, ESPN

Fans and media came from across the globe to attend the event. Alex Ferguson of Sky Sports UK wrote, "This has been one of the greatest experiences of my life, and any self-respecting sports fan has to go to a game in Tiger Stadium."

In 2011, the Tigers capped a perfect 12-0 regular season with a 41-17 victory over No. 3 Arkansas. A crowd of 93,108 -- at the time the third-largest in the stadium's history -- watched LSU erase a 14-0 deficit by outscoring the Razorbacks 41-3 the rest of the way. In six home games during its SEC Championship run, LSU outscored its opponents by a combined 253-57.

On November 8, 2008, LSU eclipsed the 93,000-fan mark for the first time in school history when 93,039 spectators welcomed back former coach Nick Saban and top-ranked Alabama. LSU fell to the Crimson Tide, 27-21 in overtime, in what was then the most to ever see a game in Tiger Stadium. That mark was surpassed in 2009 when once again the nation's top-ranked team, the Florida Gators, played under the lights on October 10. A then school-record 93,129 fans watched Florida defeat LSU, 13-3.

The Tigers posted a 6-1 home mark during their 2007 national championship season, including a thrilling 28-24 victory on October 6 over Florida that was played before a crowd of 92,910 and a national primetime audience on CBS. Legendary CBS Sports announcer Verne Lundquist to this day says it is the loudest he has ever heard a stadium during a broadcast.

The 2005 season saw Tiger Stadium play host to its first Monday night game as LSU dropped an overtime thriller to Tennessee after the game was postponed two days due to Hurricane Rita. The LSU-Tennessee contest was the most-watched college football game in the history of ESPN2 as 2.77 million homes tuned in.

Due to the devastation to New Orleans and the Louisiana Superdome by Hurricane Katrina, Tiger Stadium served as the playing site for four New Orleans Saints games in 2005, as well as hosting the Tulane-Southeastern Louisiana contest. In all, 11 games (seven NCAA and four NFL) were played in Tiger Stadium during the 2005 season.

Part of the lore of Tiger Stadium is the tradition of playing games at night, an idea that was introduced in 1931 versus Spring Hill (a 35-0 LSU victory). Since that first night game in 1931, LSU has played the majority of its games at night and the Tigers have fared better under the lights than during the day. Since 1960, LSU is 253-66-4 (.789) at night in Tiger Stadium compared to a 35-27-3 (.562) record during the day over that span. Since 2000, LSU is 92-11 in Saturday night games in Death Valley.

CBSSports.com's Dennis Dodd wrote in October 2009 of LSU's fabled night history, "It has turned the knees of All-Americans to goo. It has caused coaches to lose their coaching minds. It only happens at a special space at a special time. LSU can be up, LSU can be down, but LSU's best weapon remains ... sunset."

LSU has averaged 76,019 spectators for its 416 contests in Tiger Stadium since the NCAA began compiling official attendance figures in 1957. Since the start of the NCAA's attendance compilations, LSU has finished in the nation's top 10 in average attendance in 56 of the past 63 seasons. The Tigers have drawn 31,623,981 fans since 1957. LSU passed the 30,000,000-mark in all-time attendance in 2016.

Tiger Stadium first opened its gates to fans in the fall of 1924 as LSU hosted Tulane in the season finale. Beginning with that first game in Tiger Stadium, LSU has posted a 431-151-18 (.733) mark in Death Valley. LSU's overall home record since the start of football in 1893 is 514-171-20 (.743).

Tiger Stadium

Testimonials

Tiger Stadium tradition has seen its share of national publicity as one of the most talked about venues in all of sports.

In 1998, Sport Magazine named Tiger Stadium "the most feared road playing site in America," and in 1996, ESPN named LSU's pre-game party the best in all of America. Those surveys supported the previous polls by Gannett News Service in 1995, The Sporting News in 1989 and the College Football Association in 1987, that depict Tiger Stadium as the most difficult place for a visiting team to play.

Sports Illustrated's Rick Reilly, in a column comparing college football to professional football, penned that "College football is LSU's Tiger Stadium at night." ESPN's Chris Fowler called LSU his favorite gameday experience in the Sports Illustrated's On Campus issue in 2003.

In 2002, after a 33-10 non-conference win over Miami (Ohio), UM coach Terry Hoeppner said of Tiger Stadium, "That's as exciting an environment as you can have. I thought the crowd was a factor for us because we had communication problems we haven't had at Michigan and Ohio State."

After a victory before a national television audience on ESPN in 2001, ESPN sideline reporter Adrian Karsten said, "Death Valley in Baton Rouge is the loudest stadium I've ever been in. There are very few stadiums in America worth a touchdown, but the Bayou Bengals certainly have that advantage in Tiger Stadium."

In 2007, the acclaim continued when The Bleacher Report ranked "Death Valley" as the third toughest venue in the world to play in. LSU's run to a national title and record crowds led ESPN.com to proclaim Tiger Stadium as "The Scariest Place to Play in America" for an opposing team in a list of stadium rankings.

Wright Thompson of ESPN.com wrote in 2008, "It was electric. When Death Valley is rocking, it seems as if it might actually take flight. On Saturday, I went back to Baton Rouge to see Alabama barely beat LSU, and was, once again, reminded that Tiger Stadium is the best place in the world to watch a sporting event."

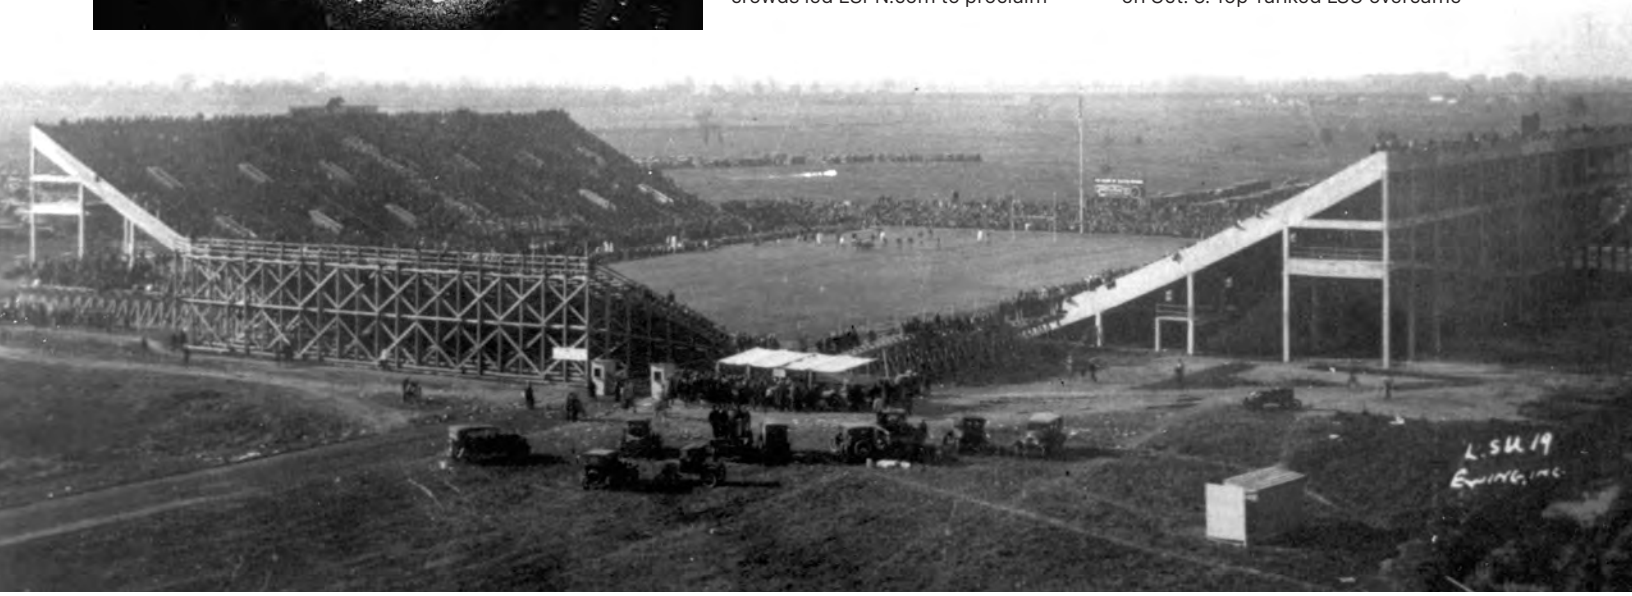

The stadium's sheer noise and tradition has carried into a new decade. In 2010, The Sporting News proclaimed Tiger tailgating and "Saturday Night in Death Valley" as the top gameday tradition in all of college football. That same year, the Associated Press named Tiger Stadium as the top place to tailgate in college football.

Following the 2012 season, Athlon Sports wrote, "Be it the vast and unique tailgating menu or Richter Scale-inducing fans, few places in the nation can send chills down your spine like a game at Tiger Stadium. As one of the loudest and most rabid atmospheres in the nation, LSU boasts one of the most daunting home-field advantages in college football — especially at night."

Great Moments

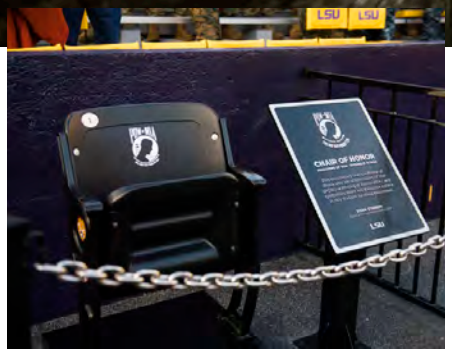

The home schedule of the 2019 national championship season was capped by the Senior Tribute prior to the Texas A&M game, when quarterback Joe Burrow entered Tiger Stadium wearing a "Burreaux" nameplate on the back of his jersey. "Burreaux" was an homage by the eventual Heisman Trophy winner to LSU and to the people of Louisiana.

The 2007 national championship season featured some of Tiger Stadium's most exciting moments, including a 28-24 win over Florida on Oct. 6. Top-ranked LSU overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to beat the ninth-ranked Gators in front of 92,910 fans – then the largest crowd in stadium history – and a primetime CBS national television audience. Just two weeks later, Matt Flynn connected with Demetrius Byrd on a 22-yard TD pass with one second remaining to give LSU a 30-24 victory over Auburn in a game televised by ESPN. LSU rallied from deficits of 17-7 at halftime and 24-23 with three minutes left in the contest to capture the electrifying win.

Though already considered one of the most raucous stadiums in all of college football, the 2003 season saw Tiger Stadium take it to another level during LSU's national title run, as the team, along with the fans, captivated the national media almost on a weekly basis. CBS televised Matt Mauck's last-minute game-winning pass to Skyler Green against Georgia before a crowd of 92,251, while ESPN was on hand for a dominating 31-7 victory over Auburn. The Tigers closed out the 2003 home slate with a 55-24 win over Arkansas before what was then the second-largest crowd in school history (92,213).

In 2001, the Tigers clinched a berth in their first SEC Championship Game with a 27-14 victory over Auburn in the season finale in Tiger Stadium. After the contest, thousands of Tiger fans spilled onto the stadium floor to celebrate the victory. The Auburn game was traditionally played earlier in the season, but the attacks of September 11 postponed the contest until the final week of the regular season.

In 2000, the goal posts came down twice. Immediately after the Tigers upset then-No. 11 ranked Tennessee 38-31 in overtime, the capacity crowd of 91,682 flowed onto the field of Tiger Stadium to celebrate the victory. Hundreds of students lined the sidelines and the back of the north end zone as the Tigers held the Vols scoreless in overtime for the victory.

The goal posts came down again in the final home game of the 2000 season as the Tigers posted a 30-28 win over Alabama, their first victory over the Crimson Tide in Tiger Stadium since 1969.

The goal posts fell for the first time in 1997 as all of America witnessed one of the most explosive nights in the history of the grand stadium when the Tigers upended No. 1-ranked Florida before a national television audience. A sea of Tiger fans swamped the floor of Deathy Valley as both goal posts came crashing down -- a scene that was replayed countless times on college football highlight shows.

One of the most famous moments in Death Valley history took place on "The Night The Tigers Moved the Earth," Oct. 8, 1988. When Tiger quarterback Tommy Hodson threw to Eddie Fuller for a winning touchdown against Auburn, the explosion of the crowd was so thunderous that it caused an earth tremor that registered on a seismograph meter in LSU's Geology Department across campus.

Then there was the night the Tigers nearly upset No. 1-ranked Southern California before a sellout crowd on September 28, 1979. The Tigers came up short, but the crowd roared from kickoff to final gun in a game many ardent LSU followers rank as the loudest in stadium history.

And, of course, there was Halloween night 1959, when Billy Cannon made his famous 89-yard punt return to lead No. 1 LSU past No. 3 Ole Miss. Legend has it that families living near the campus lakes came running out of their homes in fear of the noise erupting around them.

Those are the highlights, some of which have shaped the character of this great stadium. But week in and week out each fall, a new chapter unfolds in the history of Death Valley.

Aside from football, Tiger Stadium served as a concert venue from 2010-16, and again in 2019. Death Valley played host to "Bayou Country Superfest," a three-day country music festival that featured the likes of Taylor Swift, Blake Shelton, Kenny Chesney, Tim McGraw, Zac Brown Band, Rascal Flatts, Keith Urban, Carrie Underwood, Jason Aldean and Luke Bryan.

History

The home of one of football's proudest traditions, Tiger Stadium once served as a dormitory for approximately 1,500 students, and while Broussard Hall, then LSU's athletics dormitory, was being renovated during the fall of 1986, the LSU football players lived in Tiger Stadium.

The original phase of construction was completed in 1924. This first phase included the east and west stands, which seated about 12,000. Seven years later (1931), the sides were extended upward to accommodate an additional 10,000 fans, raising the capacity to 22,000. In 1936, the stadium seating capacity was increased to 46,000, with the addition of 24,000 seats in the north end, making Tiger Stadium into a horseshoe configuration.

The next phase of construction took place in 1953 when the stadium's south end was closed to turn the horseshoe into a bowl, increasing the seating capacity to 67,720.

The original upper deck atop the west stands was completed in 1978, and it added 8,000 seats to the stadium's capacity. More seating in two club level sections, which flanked the existing press box, brought the total addition to approximately 10,000 seats and raised the stadium's capacity to approximately 78,000.

Refurbishing began on the stadium in the summer of 1985, when the east and west stands were waterproofed, and 25,000 chair back seats were added to replace the older "bench" type seats. Another phase of improvements was completed in 1987 when the north and south stands were waterproofed and newer bleachers were again installed to replace the older ones.

The playing field was moved 11 feet south in 1986 to provide more room between the back line of the North End Zone and the curvature of the stadium fence that surrounds the field. It also put the playing area in the exact center of the arena's grassy surface.

Prior to the 1987 season, more seats were installed at the upper portion of the west lower stands in Tiger Stadium. Also, the stadium's seating arrangement was renumbered to make all seats a uniform size. The addition of bleacher seating in 1988 brought the capacity to 80,150, but the elimination of some bleacher seating after the 1994 season dropped the capacity to 80,000.

Now the sixth-largest on-campus stadium, Tiger Stadium continues to provide fans with the ultimate college football experience. Prior to the 2000 season, 11,600 seats were added with the installation of the east upper deck, bringing the capacity to nearly 92,000. In addition to the new east upper deck, 70 skyboxes, called "Tiger Dens," were built, giving Tiger fans luxury accommodations. The addition of the 11,600 seats in 2000 marked the first expansion to Tiger Stadium since 1978, when the original west upper deck was completed.

The distinctive environment of Tiger Stadium became even more pronounced in 2005 as the ambitious West Upper Deck project was virtually completed. Construction on the project -- which began immediately after LSU's home finale against Ole Miss in November of 2004 - carried a $60 million price tag and rebuilt over 3,200 special amenity seats as a well as a state-of-the-art press box. The west side renovation, which included the removal and rebuilding of the upper deck to mirror the east side upper deck, was completely finished during the 2006 season.

In 2009, major technological advances were made when Tiger Stadium added an 80-foot wide high-definition video board to the north end zone of the facility. Called one of the largest video boards in all of college athletics, the HD board measures 27-feet high and 80-feet wide.

In August 2010, the Department of Athletics and the Tiger Athletic Foundation launched a campaign to preserve and restore the look of Tiger Stadium. The 428 windows on the north side of the stadium were completely refurbished. The 300 remaining windows on the east and west sides of the stadium were completed for the 2013 season.

Prior to the 2012 season, construction was completed on the first part of the west side plaza that included new gates, All-American and Hall of Fame plazas and the national championship plaza that showcases the past, present and future of LSU football. Construction on the north plaza of Tiger Stadium was completed prior to the 2013 season.

The 2012 season saw a new tradition established at Tiger Stadium. Following an LSU victory, the north end of the stadium lights up in "victory gold." The unique look is a part of a state-of-the-art lighting system that was installed prior to the season that turns the upper archways of the north end of the stadium to purple and gold. Also prior to the 2012 campaign, letters spelling out "Tiger Stadium" were installed on the west side.

In April 2012, a new era of Tiger Stadium was unveiled, as plans were announced for the South End Zone Expansion. Construction was completed prior to the 2014 season for 66 suites, approximately 3,000 club seats above the existing south end zone seats, and 1,400 general public seats above the new suite and club seating. The project, privately funded by Tiger Athletic Foundation, brought the capacity of Tiger Stadium to 102,321, making it the sixth-largest stadium in the nation.

Scott Woodward

Director of Athletics

Baton Rouge native and LSU alumnus Scott Woodward was named athletics director at his alma mater on April 18, 2019, after serving in the same position for the previous four years at Texas A&M University.

Woodward is a consensus-building leader who is committed to excellence in all facets of athletic department. His vision for success centers on graduating student-athletes, providing an unmatched student-athlete experience, and winning championships with integrity.

As part of his obligation to student-athletes, he forms key relationships across the university community and with the Tiger Athletic Foundation, which raises funds for scholarships, programs and facilities on behalf of the Athletics Department.

Woodward's expertise in promoting the best interests of student-athletes is especially critical at this time in our country's history, as he guides LSU Athletics during a period of significant social change and an unprecedented public health crisis.

Woodward places a priority on making sure students-athletes earn a degree and develop real life skills that will help them throughout their professional careers. He has instituted the LSU Tiger Life program, which serves student-athletes through designing and implementing programming in the areas of career preparation, civic engagement, diversity and inclusion and character development.

LSU student-athletes excelled in the classroom in Woodward's first season, as 96 Tigers received their degrees. LSU's Graduation Success Rate released in November of 2019 by the NCAA registered a score of 89, the second-highest mark in school history.

The academic achievements were mirrored by tremendous athletic success under Woodward's leadership, as the Tiger football team captured the 2019 CFP National Championship with "The Best Ever" season in college gridiron history. LSU posted a 15-0 record - which included seven wins over Top 10 teams - and quarterback Joe Burrow became the first Tiger to win the Heisman Trophy since 1959.

Though the winter and spring portions of LSU's 2020 athletic schedules were interrupted by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Tigers recorded several elite performances. The men's track & field team, the women's track & field team, and the beach volleyball squad each finished their seasons ranked No. 1 in the nation.

Five other LSU programs finished in the Top 25 - softball (No. 5), gymnastics (No. 6), women's golf (No. 12), baseball (No. 17) and women's swimming & diving (No. 21) - and both the men's and women's basketball teams were due to receive NCAA Tournament bids before all postseason events were canceled.

During Woodward's tenure at Texas A&M, every sports program participated in postseason play and the Aggies won nine SEC titles, including men's basketball, baseball, men's tennis (twice), soccer, women's swimming and diving (three times), and men's outdoor track and field.

He also spearheaded the construction of a world-class track & field stadium, as well as a state-of-the-art softball stadium, in addition to renovations of the basketball locker rooms and planned redesign of the swimming and diving facility, nutrition areas and a weight room.

Texas A&M competed at an elite level under Woodward, ranking 10th nationally among more than 300 schools in the 2017-18 Learfield Directors Cup All-Sport Standings, third-best among SEC schools. Woodward solidified A&M's reputation as a national-championship contender in every sport, with his most visible impact coming in the hiring of championship-quality coaches. Six A&M teams were led by coaches who have won national championships.

At Texas A&M, he worked to increase the number of career placement opportunities for student-athletes through engagement initiatives. He led an initiative to redesign and implement a specific program for career placement to help bridge the gap from being a student-athlete to gaining their first full-time job.

Woodward, who previously served as LSU's Director of External Affairs from 2000-2004, served as the Vice President of External Affairs at the University of Washington, prior to being named Director of Athletics in 2008. During Woodward's time leading the Husky athletic programs, UW captured seven national championships and multiple conference titles during his tenure.

As Director of Athletics at Washington from 2008 through 2015,

I BELIEVE

WRITTEN MAY 6, 2019

Dear LSU Family,

Today is my first official day in service to our university, a place that transformed my life many years ago and so many others before and since. Serving as your Director of Athletics is truly humbling. This is home and my alma mater but I chose LSU because I believe.

I believe in who we are. We share a passion for LSU that cannot be measured. Like every one of you, I treasure the accomplishments, traditions and great moments of the past, and I anxiously await to see what we accomplish together in the years ahead.

I believe in LSU. There is no place in America that embodies a people, a culture and a place like LSU in the great state of Louisiana. There is no institution more important to this state and its people than LSU and we will do our part to elevate this university, while graduating our student-athletes and preparing them for their lives after college.

I believe we will win championships. We have some of the best student-athletes in the world right here in Louisiana. We will support them with the best coaches, staff, facilities and academic support in college athletics. And we will win SEC and NCAA championships while building a world-class experience for our student-athletes.

I believe that we can surpass our own high expectations if we do it together. Every single one of you is important to our mission. I know what this place means to you, because it means the same to me. It's difficult to put it into words, but we all feel it when we are together, heading in the same direction with the same passion, joy and determination that makes the LSU family so special. Yes, there are current challenges we must meet and there will surely be new ones ahead but nothing we can't overcome together.

Thank you for your warm welcome back to Baton Rouge. It's good to be home.

Geaux Tigers!

Scott

Woodward supervised a department with revenue exceeding $100 million per year and a staff of more than 200. The Husky football program returned to the postseason in 2010 for the first time since 2001 and made five-straight bowl appearances.

Woodward garnered wide acclaim in 2013 for hiring current head football coach Chris Peterson, who led the UW football team to a College Football Playoff in 2016. The men's basketball program won the 2012 Pac-12 regular season championship, 2011 and 2010 Pac-10 Conference Tournament Championships and reached the NCAA's Sweet Sixteen in 2010.

Washington ranked fourth in the Pac-12 Conference in student-athlete graduation rates and ranked second over a 10-year average. Fundraising set all-time records under Woodward, and he secured multiple high-figure corporate sponsorships. He also led a $280 million renovation of Husky Stadium, completed in 2013, and facility enhancements for baseball.

In recognition of his accomplishments at Washington, Woodward was nominated by the Sports Business Journal for the prestigious Athletic Director of the Year Award in March of 2014.

As LSU's Director of External Affairs from 2000-2004, Woodward acted as the liaison between the university and government and corporate officials, and he advised then-Chancellor Mark Emmert on policy and government appropriations. As with his tenure in External Affairs at Washington, Woodward helped lead LSU to unprecedented economic growth, paving the way for the University's move from a Tier II to Tier I research institution.

At LSU, Woodward also served as the Chancellor's representative to the athletics department. During his time with the Tigers, the institution's intercollegiate athletic teams won 10 NCAA championships, including one in football in 2003.

Prior to working in higher education, Woodward co-owned a government and public relations firm in Baton Rouge and provided strategic policy direction to Fortune 500 corporations, including clients in the education, insurance and oil industries. He also worked on behalf of the Louisiana Nature Conservancy and the New Orleans Center for Creative Arts, and served on the Board of Directors of the Baton Rouge Food Bank.

Woodward earned a bachelor's degree in political science from LSU in 1985. He is married to Nanette Dicharry and has two adult sons, Michael and Josh Evans.

ON THE PROWL
Mike the Tiger was ranked by ESPN as the best mascot in the SEC. Mike's habitat is one of the most visited attractions in the state of Louisiana, located in the shadows of the north endzone of Tiger Stadium.

MIKE THE TIGER

HISTORY OF MIKE

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had seven mascots, with the most recent, Mike VII, taking over the reign in August 2017.

The Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Harvey" was donated to LSU by Wild at Heart Wildlife Center of Okeechobee, Fla. On the first day of the fall semester at LSU, Mike VII officially began his reign on Monday, Aug. 21, 2017. The 11-month-old, Siberian-Bengal, male tiger acclimated well to his new surrounds and was deemed ready to become Mike VII.

For more than 50 years, Mike rode through Tiger Stadium in a travel trailer topped by the LSU cheerleaders before home games. Before the field parade, Mike's trailer was parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast corner of the stadium. Opposing players were forced to pass Mike's trailer to reach their locker room.

In the mid-1980s, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminiscent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave battle.

Trainer and namesake Mike Chambers with Mike I housed in City Park Zoo.

SNEAUX DAYS
On Dec. 11, 2008 and Dec. 11 2017, winter storms blanketed Baton Rouge that hadn't been seen in decades. The early white Christmas gave Mike VI (2008) and Mike VII (2017), LSU's live Bengal/Siberian tigers, a chance to relax and play in nearly two inches of accumulation.

MIKE'S HABITAT

In 2005, a new environment (above) was created for Mike that is 15,000 square feet. The backdrop of Mike's Habitat features an Italianate tower - a campanile - that creates a visual bridge to the architectural vernacular that is the underpinning of the entire LSU campus. This spectacular habitat allows for state-of-the-art technologies, research, conservation and husbandry programs, as well as educational, interpretive and recreational activities. It is, in essence, one of the largest and finest Tiger habitats in the United States. In preparation for the arrival of Mike VII in the summer of 2017, several enhancements were made to the habitat. The enhancements include a comfort rock, rockwork tree, improved water features, and resurfacing of the pool. The comfort rock is a naturalistic element within the habitat that provides a heated or cooled surface for ultimate relaxation in Mike's Habitat. The rockwork tree imitates a tiger's natural habitat and serves to soften the impact of the steel column supporting the overhead mesh canopy. The pool and stream system will help keep Mike cool in the summer months and foster health activity.

1936-1956

MIKE I

The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $750, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his purchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dying of pneumonia.

1956-1958

MIKE II

The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo in New Orleans and came to LSU on Sept. 28, 1956. The young tiger was held overnight in Tiger Stadium and unveiled Sept. 29, the opening day of the football season.

1958-1976

MIKE III

Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

1976-1990

MIKE IV

Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla, on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

1990-2007

MIKE V

Mike V was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton, Ala. Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger habitat across from Tiger Stadium. Mike V died on May 18, 2007, at the age of 17.

2007-2016

MIKE VI

Mike VI arrived on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Indiana. He was designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played Virginia Tech. On Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year and a 2011 SEC championship and perfect regular season. Mike VI was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer in May 2016 and underwent first-of-its-kind radiation treatment He was humanely euthanized on Oct. 11, 2016 at the age of 11 after a four-month battle with cancer.

2017-Present

MIKE VII

On the first day of the fall semester at LSU, Mike VII officialy began his reign on Monday, Aug. 21, 2017. "Harvey" of Wild at Heart Wildlife Center of Okeechobee, Florida, arrived on campus on Aug. 15 and was housed in the night house of the tiger habitat. The 11-month-old, Siberian-Bengal, male tiger acclimated well to his new surroundings and was deemed ready to become Mike VII. The start of his reign ended a 314-day span without the live mascot on the LSU campus, the longest in school history.

LSU
RETIRED JERSEYS

The following 14 individuals are the only student-athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010. Mahmoud Abdul-Rauf is the newest member of the legacy class, as his retirement was showcased on February 29, 2020..

Beginning on January 1, 2007, a provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. Numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports.

To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

50 BOB PETTIT

Pettit was a three-time first-team All-SEC member and he led his Tigers to a second place finish in 1952, conference titles in 1953 and 1954 and to LSU's first NCAA Final Four in 1953. Pettit led the SEC in scoring all three season he was at LSU. He later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 BILLY CANNON

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Billy Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 SHAQUILLE O'NEAL

In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 SKIP BERTMAN

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Skip Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

40 RUDY MACKLIN

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single-game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

19 BEN MCDONALD

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. The LSU Football Operations and Performance Nutrition Center was unveiled the week of July 21, 2019.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS CENTER

Phillips-Bordelon Locker Room
After walking past a display of the history of LSU uniforms and gear, players will enter the LSU Phillips-Bordelon Locker Room, the everyday hub of activity for the Tigers. Over 150 state-of-the-art, proprietary pod-style lockers will be used for storing personal items and practice gear, as well as serving as personal space for rest and recovery. The lower portion of the pods has the feel of an international, first-class flight with a fold-out bed and features charging stations for electronics and an iPad mount for watching film, doing school work, or recreational viewing. A mud room was added to serve as a drying and cleaning area for shoulder pads and shoes, and will have separate ventilation to keep odors outside of the main locker room. Bacteria-resistent phenolic surfaces will ensure that equipment lasts longer, stays cleaner, and performs better. More than 60 lockers have been designated for former LSU Tigers currently playing in the NFL to use while training on-site during the off-season or during a bye week.

Tyrann Mathieu Player's Lounge
The Tyrann Mathieu Player's Lounge is designed as a comfortable space for players to relax and unwind between classes, practices, and workouts. The room offers a stunning view of Tiger Stadium and features virtual reality racing games, video game consoles, theater seating with HD television, refreshment stations, and a ping pong table. Former LSU Tiger Tyrann Mathieu funded the room through a $1 millon donation.

Walk-Through Room
The LSU Walk-Through Room features a state-of-the-art projection system for the players to participate in a virtual walk-through of game simulations. Formations will be projected on a 20-foot wall and players can set up defensive or offensive plays on the purple turf to learn adjustments based on motion, formation and personnel.

Experience Room
The LSU Experience Room showcases a 4D video experience that allows viewers to experience the feeling of running out into Tiger Stadium on Game Day. The screen is shaped like the viewer is sitting inside of the player's helmet, while the seating adds to the experience of motion entering the stadium.

PERFORMANCE NUTRITION CENTER

The LSU Football Operations and Performance Nutrition Center is open to all LSU student-athletes for their nutritional needs throughout off-season training and competion seasons.

Hank Anderson Family Dining Area
The Hank Anderson Family Dining Area seats up to 180 student-athletes, while the Doss & Sally Bourgeois Serving Area includes a brick over for pizzas, and food stations that rival a Las Vegas buffet. Staff dieticians will track trends and adjust a student-athlete's diet based on data collected through the use of a DEXA scanner.

"I think what we've done placing the performance nutrition center and the locker room set up together in such a way that they don't want to leave, has afforded our student-athletes more time to rest, more recovery, more access to our medical facility, more access to their coaches and has made it an inviting place to be."

Senior Associate AD/Health and Wellness

Executive Chef Michael Johnson
The restaurant-style menu is overseen by Executive Chef Michael Johnson, who joined the LSU staff after three years with the Seattle Seahawks. "For me its about what you put into your body, and I believe in that," Johnson said. "Fresh ingredients is everything. Fresh vegetables is the name of the game."

LSU BROADCAST CENTER

SEC Network/Live Productions

Located on the fifth floor of the LSU Athletic Administration Building is the epicenter of LSU live sports productions. Five state-of-the-art broadcast control rooms enable LSU Athletics to annually produce more than 100 live broadcast productions each year which air on the various ESPN family of networks (SEC Network, SEC Network+, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPN News). In addition, more than 140 videoboard shows for football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball, gymnastics, baseball and softball originate from LSU's control rooms each year. Those productions are managed by four in-house staff members who employ over 100 student and professional freelance technicians.

The SEC Network has proven to be one of the most successful launches by a network in all of cable television. Today, it has brought Southeastern Conference sports to over 70 million subscribers.

That was the vision when the SEC and ESPN signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multi-platform network which launched on August 14, 2014. The network and its accompanying digital platform carries SEC contest 24/7 including some 1,500 events each year.

Besides the volume of over the air events, thanks to commitment by athletic departments like LSU, all 14 schools built state-of-the-art control rooms and purchased HD camera equipment to provide the same quality coverage for events that viewers were used to for years on ESPN family of network events.

These events are broadcast exclusively through the ESPN app as part of SEC Network+ on computers, phones, tablets and smart TVs, allowing fans anywhere and almost anytime to watch their favorite teams play their favorite sports.

The SEC Network has also become known for its studio show "SEC Now" and its traveling weekly football pregame show "SEC Nation" besides its weekly coverage morning to night of Saturday SEC college football.
