On The Break

LSU Set To Face Coach Kim Mulkey's Alma Mater Louisiana Tech on Saturday

LSU, which has won 10 straight games, heads to New Orleans for the third and final time this season to play Louisiana Tech in the Compete 4 Cause Classic at the Smoothi King Center, home of the New Orleans Pelicans. The contest will be the first of two games in a doubleheader format, which is scheduled to begin at 5 p.m. CT on ESPNU with Chuckie Kempf (pxp) and Christy Thomaskutty (analyst) on the call. The LSU men's basketball team will follow the women's team at 7:30 p.m. CT to take on SMU in game two of the doubleheader. Fans are encouraged to listen to the LSU Sports Radio Network with Patrick Wright and Shaeeta Williams calling the action. LSU is coming off its 10th straight victory with a 126-62 win over New Orleans at the Lakefront Arena. LSU collected its ninth 100-point output on the season, which is the most by any LSU team ever. The Tigers will play the Lady Techsters for the 31st time in series history with LSU leading 17-14 all-time. LSU is 4-2 against La. Tech when playing at a neutral site. The last time both teams played at a neutral site was 2006 when they met in the Katrina Relief Basketball Classic in New Orleans.

LSU To Play In Regular Season Matchup at NBA Arena for First Time Since 2013

LSU women's basketball has played in several NBA arenas throughout its history, but the contest between LSU and Louisiana Tech at the Smoothi King Center marks the first time the Tigers have played in such a venue since 2013. LSU last played at an NBA arena when it defeated Iowa in the 2023 National Championship game. With this matchup at the home of the New Orleans Pelicans, it signals the first time LSU has played in an NBA arena since the Tigers battled Rutgers and Michigan at Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y. At the time, LSU was competing in the Barclays Center Invitational, where the Tigers beat the Scarlet Knights, 69-65, and the Wolverines, 64-62. LSU is set to take on the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs for the 31st time in series history Saturday night with the Tigers leading the series, 17-14.

Kim Mulkey Coaching Against Alma Mater for Second Time In Head Coaching Career

For the second time in her head coaching career, Kim Mulkey will lead a team against her alma Louisiana Tech. On Saturday, Dec. 13, LSU will take on the Lady Techsters inside the Smoothi King Center New Orleans, holding overall record of 17-14 in the series history. Mulkey, who played for Louisiana Tech from 1980-84, winning two national champions at the AIAW level and the NCAA level. Mulkey was a member of the final AIAW Championship in 1983 and the first NCAA Championship in 1984. During her time in Ruston, Louisiana Tech amassed 130 wins in 136 total games and in addition to the national titles, she was a part two other Final Fours and one national runner-up season. The only other time Mulkey coached against her alma mater came in 2009 when Baylor welcomed La. Tech to the Ferrell Center in Waco and downed the Lady Techsters 77-67. After finishing her playing career at Louisiana Tech, she became an assistant coach under Leon Barmore from 1985-2000 when La. Tech held a record of 430-68 in 15 seasons. Mulkey developed under coaching legends Sonja Hogg and Barmore, who is the second winningest coach all-time by winning percentage (.869). In her 25-plus seasons as a head coach, Mulkey's accumulated 764 wins to 124 losses at Baylor and LSU.

Kim Mulkey Coaches 150th Game at LSU vs. Washington State

Coach Kim Mulkey, who was hired in April of 2021 at LSU, coached the 150th game during her time in Baton Rouge against Washington State on Nov. 29. The Tigers won the contest, 112-35, and took home the 2025 Paradise Jam Reef Division Championship. Through four-plus seasons coaching at LSU, Mulkey has won 132 games and only lost 20. In her second season at the helm of the progam, she led LSU women's basketball to the national championship, where the Tigers defeated the Iowa Hawkeyes, 102-85. Mulkey's winning percentage of 86.7% is the highest of any LSU coach that has coached in at least 152 games. LSU legend Sue Gunter coached the women's basketball program for 22 seasons and closed her time in Red Stick with a record of 442-221 (.667). Nikki Fargas led LSU for 10 seasons, which culminated with a record of 168-116 (.592). Here is a look at Coach Mulkey's win-loss record during her time at LSU:

LSU, which has started 7 of the 13 players in its rotation, has seen the Tigers coming off the bench making an impact on winning and scoring the basketball. Through 10 games, LSU leads the country in bench scoring with 53.0 points per contest from players coming in off the bench. Indiana State ranks second behind LSU with 38.1 bench points per game, while the next best SEC team in Texas ranks 20th in the nation with 31.1 points per game from its non-starters. The Tigers coming into the Louisiana Tech game has only three players averaging 20 or minutes per game (Flau'jae Johnson, Mikaylah Williams, & MiLaysia Fulwiley), emphasizing the depth LSU has on its bench. LSU's High-Powered Offense
Through 10 games, LSU's fast-paced offense under head coach Kim Mulkey, has been just that. LSU has scored 100 points in nine games thus far including contests against Houston Christian (108), Southeastern Louisiana (115), Georgia Southern (118), Charlotte (117), Tulane (101), Alcorn State (112), Marist (113), Washington State (112), and New Orleans (126). The eight consecutive games reaching the 100-point mark to start the season is an NCAA record that was established by the Tigers against Washington State on Nov. 28. The current record surpassed Mulkey's 1982 Louisiana Tech team she played on, which recorded six straight games with 100 points. LSU has averaged 111.5 points in its 10 games this season, which leads the country. The next best team, Oklahoma State, has averaged 96.4 in 11 games played. LSU leads the country in seven statistical categories including bench points per game (53.0), field goal percentage (56.2), rebound margin (23.9), offensive rebounds per game (20.9), scoring margin (55.8), scoring offense (111.5), and three-point percentage (43.0).

LSU's non-conference slate features five nationally televised games including the Tulane, Duke, Louisiana Tech, Texas-Arlington and Alabama State contests. Duke and Louisiana Tech are set to be shown on ESPN and ESPNU, respectively. The UT-Arlington and Alabama State games are slated to be televised on SEC Network. The final game in that event will be based on the first-round results with the Tigers playing at 4 or 6:30 p.m. CT. Both games can be streamed on ESPN+.

International Success for Preseason All-SEC Trio
The Preseason All-SEC trio in Flau'jae Johnson, Mikaylah Williams, and MiLaysia Fulwiley each competed for the United States in international basketball competitions throughout the summer.

Johnson earned her first gold medal on the international stage Sunday as the United States basketball team defeated Brazil, 92-84, at the FIBA Women's AmeriCup in Santiago, Chile. She made her debut in USA Basketball competition and was a part of a squad consisting of 12 collegiate players. Team USA went a perfect 7-0, and Johnson averaged 4.3 points, 3.3 rebounds, and one assist per game. Johnson's top performance occurred in the quarterfinal round against the Dominican Republic on July 4. She finished with 22 points, seven rebounds, and two assists. Johnson became the ninth USA player to record 20-plus points in an AmeriCup game with her defining performance the key to advancing the United States to the semifinal round.

Williams, a mainstay on the summer 3×3 circuit, was announced Wednesday on the USA Basketball 3×3 Women's Series roster which will begin May 23-24 in Marseille, France. Williams helped USA earn three straight FIBA 3×3 U18 gold medals from 2021-23. The 2022 USA Basketball 3×3 Athlete of the Year and 2023 USA Basketball 3×3 Female Athlete of the Year, Williams has continually made an impact for her home country. Last summer, Williams competed in the FIBA 3×3 Nations League Americas Conference, a series of qualifying tournaments for the 2024 FIBA 3×3 U23 World Cup. She and the U23 team also played in a 3×3 exhibition game at the 2024 WNBA All-Star Game against the USA 3×3 Olympic team.

Fulwiley helped Team USA to the FIBA 3×3 Nations League Championship Sunday in Punta Arenas, Chile. Fulwiley, a game-changing 5-10 guard, competed in the 2025 FIBA 3×3 Nations League Americas Conference. Team USA claimed victory in the week-long event on July 27. Fulwiley played in five of the six stops with the United States winning four of the six over the course of the event. She participated in 14 games and averaged 4.1 points per contest.

Assistant Coach Seimone Augustus
In May of 2024, Coach Kim Mulkey announced the addition of Seimone Augustus as an assistant coach at LSU. Augustus led LSU to national relevance as one of the best teams in the nation during her playing days at LSU. She brought the Tigers to three consecutive Final Fours – beginning a stretch of five consecutive LSU Final Four appearances – before becoming the No. 1 overall pick in the 2006 WNBA Draft. She went on to win four WNBA titles and three Olympic Gold Medals with Team USA. In 2010, Augustus became the first female student-athlete in LSU to have her jersey retired and in 2023 she became the first female student-athlete in school history to receive a statue on campus.

Fifth Straight Season LSU Ranked Inside Top-10
LSU enters the 2025-26 season ranked No. 5 in the AP Poll. It will mark the fifth consecutive season in which the Tigers have been ranked inside the top-10 at any point. The Tigers' highest ranking a season ago was No. 4 against UL-Lafayette after defeating Stanford in a dramatic OT comeback, 94-88, for the ACC/SEC Challenge. LSU peaked at the No. 1 spot to end the 2022-23 season and to begin the 2023-24 season. In Mulkey's first season leading LSU in 2021-22 the Tigers' best ranking was No. 6. The streak of five consecutive seasons with time spent inside the top-10 is the second longest in program history. LSU had six straight seasons from 2002-08 that LSU spent time in the top-10.

20 Win Seasons For Kim Mulkey
In Coach Mulkey's 25 seasons as a head coach, her teams have won 20+ games every year of her career. Spending 15 seasons as an assistant at LA Tech, she has won 20+ games in all but one season in her 40-year coaching career. Mulkey won 30+ games in all four seasons that she was a player at Louisiana Tech. She has 12 30+ win seasons, including one 40-0 season. She has only lost 10+ games twice in her 25-year head coaching career.

The PMAC Is The Place to Be
In each of Coach Mulkey's first three seasons as LSU's head coach, a season-long attendance record has been set in the PMAC for women's basketball: 2021-22: 112,983 2022-23: 148,468 2023-24: 220,932 The final home regular season game in the 2022-23 season against Mississippi had an attendance of 15,721, setting the record for the largest PMAC crowd ever, regardless of sport. In the 2024-25 season, LSU amassed 212,144 fans in attendance at games in the Maravich Center. LSU ranked second in the country for overall attendance behind South Carolina.

Kim Mulkey Became Quickest Coach To 750 Wins vs. Kentucky Last Season
LSU trailed Kentucky by as many as 16 points in the second quarter and were down by 12 points at halftime, but the Tigers rallied in the second half with a 65-58 win. LSU outscored Kentucky by 17 in the third quarter to surge ahead and claim the lead. The fourth quarter was tight and LSU held a one-point lead with under a minute remaining when Mikaylah Williams knocked down a three that helped clinch the victory. The win marked the 750th victory for Coach Kim Mulkey, doing so in 870 games with a .862 winning percentage at the time. She was the fastest coach in NCAA DI history - men's or women's - to reach both 600 and 700 victories. She is on track to be the quickest to 800 too.

A Position Focused On NIL
As the era of Name, Image, and Likeness continues to evolve within collegiate athletics, head coach Kim Mulkey announced on the one-year anniversary of NIL that Jennifer Roberts would take on a first-of-its-kind role in women's college basketball as LSU Women's Basketball's Director of Player Personnel and Influence. In this role, Roberts helps players within the program develop their personal brands, make informed decisions, and maximize their NIL opportunities. Roberts works closely with the NILSU staff to enhance branding opportunities and to ensure each women's basketball player at LSU has the opportunity to grow their brands to the fullest potential.

A LSU Collection Of Hall of Fame Coaches
LSU is the only women's basketball program with three coaches in the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Sue Gunter was inducted in the Class of 2005, Van Chancellor in th Class of 2007 and Kim Mulkey in the Class of 2020. Gunter coached for 22 seasons (1982-2004) at LSU and put together a 442-221 record. She led LSU to 14 NCAA Tournaments, including its first Final Four in her final season. Chancellor coached at LSU from 2007-11 and compiled a 90-40 record. He was also the head coach of the first WNBA Dynasty in the Houston Comets where he earned three WNBA Coach of the Year honors and won the league's first four titles. Although she was a part of the 2020 class, Mulkey was not inducted into the Naismith Hall of Fame until May 2021 (due to COVID), just a month after being named the head coach at LSU. In her first season in Baton Rouge, she led the greatest turnaround by a first-year head coach in SEC history and earned her third AP National Coach of the Year award. Mulkey led her second team at LSU to a national championship, the first in program history. Through four seasons, she has compiled a 122-20 record in Baton Rouge and her career record has ballooned to 754-124 – a winning percentage of 85.9%. Geno Auriemma, Muffet McGraw and Mulkey are the only three coaches with three AP National Coach of the Year honors.

The Fast Break Club has had over 500 members at its peak.

Coach Kim Mulkey's 10 Steps to Victory
Coach Kim Mulkey's success throughout her coaching career has not come without a consistency in mindset and performance. Kim Mulkey Is A Champion

Kim Mulkey

In four seasons since returning to Louisiana, Kim Mulkey has brought LSU back to national prominence as one of the premier programs in the country.

Mulkey and the Tigers have recorded three consecutive 30-win seasons and three straight Elite Eight appearances, including the National Championship in 2023. It has become one of the most exciting programs across America, with top notch attendance records, driven by an energetic fan base.

Less than two years after Mulkey returned to Louisiana to do good and be a positive figure in her home state as the head coach for the LSU Women's Basketball team, the Hall-of-Famer Mulkey delivered the program's first National Championship to Baton Rouge in 2023.

The Tigers were dominant en route to their first national championship, compiling a 34-2 record, including a perfect 17-0 record at home in the PMAC. LSU defeated Iowa in Dallas for the national championship, 102-85, setting the record for points in a championship game. The championship game drew 9.9 million viewers across ABC and ESPN networks to set the record for the most watched women's college basketball game of all-time.

The Tigers averaged 82.3 points per game throughout the championship season to rank No. 5 in the nation. Scoring 100 points in each of the first five games of the season, LSU tied the NCAA record. The only other team to score 100+ points in five straight games was the 1981-82 Louisiana Tech team that featured Mulkey leading the team as the point guard. LSU set the program record for 100-point games in a season with their sixth in the final game of the season.

Mulkey, the most successful player-turned-coach in college basketball history, was named head coach of the LSU women's basketball team on April 25, 2021.

It did not take Coach Mulkey long to have success at LSU, winning the AP National Coach of the Year award after leading the greatest turnaround in SEC history by a first-year head coach. Coach Mulkey joined Geno Auriemma and Muffet McGraw as the only coaches to earn the AP Coach of the Year award three times. Taking over a team that had won nine games the previous season, Mulkey's first LSU team finished 26-6, in second place in the SEC and the Tigers hosted first- and second-round games in the NCAA Tournament as a No. 3 seed.

Mulkey, who also won an Olympic Gold Medal in 1984, is the only person in college basketball history – men's or women's – to win national championships as a head coach, assistant coach and a player. She's one of just three coaches (Bobby Knight and Dean Smith) in college basketball history to win national titles as a player and a coach.

A native of Tickfaw, La., Mulkey came to Baton Rouge as the most accomplished head coaching hire in LSU history. She returned to Louisiana as a six-time national champion and nine-time Hall of Famer and most recently was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in May of 2021.
