

Alison Meredith

Educator – Author – Coach – Founder of PiDayParty.org

Alison Meredith is an educator, mother of 7, author and coach who helps families rediscover confidence and curiosity in learning.

Through her work at PiDayParty.org and her upcoming book “I Hate Math!”, she equips parents and teachers with practical, fun tools to make math engaging again.

Drawing on more than three decades of family life and education at home and in the classroom, Alison blends encouragement and real-world strategies so learning becomes a source of connection — not stress.
