ABOUT THIS RESOURCE

How to Use These Visual Reminders

Visual reminders help students stay independent, reduce interruptions, and understand expectations during independent work time. Use these cards as quick, consistent prompts to support focus and responsibility in your classroom.

Teacher tip
Introduce the visuals before independent work begins and refer to them consistently.
When students know what to expect, they are more likely to stay on task and work independently.

Why Visual Reminders Work

- Reduce repeated verbal reminders
- Support independence and responsibility
- Help students remember expectations
- Keep independent work time calm and focused
- Create consistent classroom routines

PERFECT FOR:

Ways to use these visuals:

- Display on the board during independent work
- Place on student desks as reminders
- Add to a focus or calm-down area
- Use during small group or centers
- Review expectations before work time begins

HOW TO USE:

Print and prepare:

- Print on cardstock for durability
- Laminate for repeated use
- Cut out each card
- Keep extras ready for new students
