In light of recent events in the Middle East region we have decided to POSTPONE our Marine Money event due to be held in Dubai on 26th March. We have a ready agenda and great support from sponsors and we hope that when we are able to reschedule the event we will all get together in a safe environment and truly celebrate our 20th anniversary Marine Money Gulf Ship Finance Forum.

Our 20th Anniversary Marine Money Gulf Ship Finance Forum will be held at the Waldorf Astoria DIFC, Dubai at a date TBD later in 2026. The Gulf region and the world have changed tremendously in these past 20 years. The influence of the Gulf region in terms of oil and commodity trading has grown many times over, the region has welcomed huge investment from commerce and finance from around the globe, the quality of life is next to none with massive inflows of wealthy families but also of leading global businesses.

The world at large has much changed also and currently wars and geopolitics are headline news. Oil has had a reprieve these past five years such that the fate of the offshore industry in the region has thrived. Trade into and out of the region likewise has grown multifold and shipping and logistics companies have fared well.

Our 20th anniversary event in Dubai will look back and look forward. What were the successes and the challenges of the past 20 years and where is the opportunity for the next decade?

Some of the topics under discussion are:

- 20 Years: Looking back. Looking forward. Lessons learned and opportunities ahead.
- Fleet Renewal & Asset Values in 2026. Are prices and earnings in balance?
- The offshore market and the continuing demand for oil and gas.
- Does trade and economic uncertainty on the global scale play well to the strategic importance of the Gulf region?
- Capital Providers vs. Shipowners – Bridging Expectations
- and more
