FELLOWSHIP IN CRITICAL CARE MEDICINE EDITION II

The Fellowship in Critical Care Medicine Edition II is a sequence of 3 courses that together give you a comprehensive and holistic understanding of treating and managing critically ill patients across multiple disciplines. Critical care medicine has established itself as a standalone super specialty and is the most technologically advanced and resource-intensive area of medical care.

The fellowship program, certified by Apollo Hospitals Educational and Research Foundation (AHERF) and Medvarsity Online Limited, has been created under the aegis of Course Directors, Dr. Sai Praveen Haranath and Dr. Srinivas Samavedam.

This 12-month course combines virtual learning to strengthen your clinical knowledge, experiential learning at partner hospitals to sharpen your skills, and simulation training for hands-on experience without risk to patients.
