Based on Auto Accident Lawyer Broomfield by McCormick and Murphy

1. Immediate Safety and Medical Attention

Prioritize safety and well-being at the scene.

- ■ Check for injuries to yourself and passengers.
- ■ Call 911 immediately if anyone needs medical attention.
- ■ Move vehicles to a safe location if possible.
- ■ Ensure everyone is out of harm's way.

2. Documenting the Accident

Gather crucial information and evidence at the scene.

- ■ Call the police to document the accident.
- ■ Take photos of all vehicle damage.
- ■ Photograph the accident scene, including the street and traffic signals.
- ■ Take photos of any visible injuries.

3. Information Exchange

Collect necessary details from all parties involved.

- ■ Exchange names with the other driver.
- ■ Exchange phone numbers with the other driver.
- ■ Exchange insurance details with the other driver.
- ■ Exchange vehicle registration information with the other driver.

4. Witness Information

Identify and record details from anyone who saw the accident.

- ■ Ask for contact information from any witnesses.
- ■ Note down witness names and phone numbers.

5. Medical Follow-Up

Seek professional medical evaluation after the accident.

- ■ Seek medical attention even if you feel fine.
- ■ Understand that some injuries may not show symptoms immediately.
- ■ Follow all medical advice and treatment plans.

6. Insurance Company Interactions

Be cautious when speaking with insurance adjusters.

- Do not give a recorded statement to any insurance company.
- Consult with an attorney before speaking to insurance companies.
- Avoid admitting fault at the scene or to insurance adjusters.

7. Legal Consultation

Understand when to seek legal advice.

- Contact an attorney specializing in auto accidents.
- Discuss your case with your lawyer before making statements to insurance.
- Understand your rights and options with legal guidance.
