Longmont Auto Accident Checklist

Steps to take after a car accident in Longmont

Based on Longmont Auto Accident Lawyer by McCormick and Murphy

1. Immediate Actions at the Scene

Prioritize safety and gather essential information immediately after the crash.

- ■ Check for injuries to yourself and others.
- ■ Call 911 if medical attention is needed.
- ■ Call the police to create an official accident report.
- ■ Take photos of all vehicle damage.
- ■ Photograph the accident scene.
- ■ Document road conditions.
- ■ Photograph any visible injuries.
- ■ Exchange contact and insurance information with the other driver.

2. Gathering Witness Information

Secure contact details from anyone who saw the accident.

- ■ Get contact information from any witnesses present.

3. Communication and Statements

Be cautious about what you say and to whom.

- ■ Do not admit fault or apologize at the scene.
- ■ Avoid giving a detailed recorded statement to your insurance company without consulting an attorney.

4. Medical Attention

Ensure your health is properly assessed, even for seemingly minor issues.

- ■ Get evaluated by a medical professional, even if injuries seem minor.
- ■ Seek medical attention promptly, as some symptoms may be delayed.

5. Insurance Company Notification

Inform your insurer about the accident but defer detailed discussions.

- ■ Notify your insurance company that an accident occurred.
- ■ Do not accept any settlement offers before consulting with an attorney.

6. Documentation and Record Keeping

Maintain thorough records of all related expenses and treatments.

- ■ Keep records of all medical treatment received.
- ■ Maintain records of all vehicle repairs.

- Track all expenses related to the accident.

7. Legal Consultation

Understand when to seek professional legal advice.

- Consult with an attorney before accepting settlement offers.
- Consider consulting an attorney to understand your rights and options.
