

Pueblo Premises Liability Checklist

Steps to take after a slip and fall incident in Pueblo.

Based on Pueblo Premises Injury Lawyer by McCormick and Murphy

1. Immediate Reporting

Report the incident to the responsible party promptly.

- Report the fall to the property owner or manager immediately.
- Ask the property owner or manager to create an incident report.
- Ensure the incident report is documented.

2. Documenting the Scene

Gather visual evidence of the incident location and cause.

- Take photos of the exact location where you fell.
- Take photos of the hazard that caused your fall.
- Capture clear images of the dangerous condition.

3. Witness Information

Identify and collect details from anyone who saw the incident.

- Identify any witnesses to your fall.
- Obtain the full contact information for each witness.
- Record witness names and phone numbers.

4. Medical Attention

Seek professional medical evaluation on the same day as the incident.

- Seek medical attention on the same day you fell.
- Get examined by a healthcare professional, even for seemingly minor injuries.
- Ensure your medical records link your injuries to the fall incident.
- Understand that some symptoms may not appear immediately.

5. Insurance Company Interactions

Be cautious when speaking with the property owner's insurance.

- Do not give a recorded statement to the property owner's insurance company.
- Avoid discussing the incident details with the insurance company.
- Consult with an attorney before providing any statements to insurance adjusters.

6. Legal Consultation

Consider seeking professional legal advice.

- Speak with a premises liability attorney.

- Discuss the details of your incident with your lawyer.
- Understand your legal rights and options.
