What to Do After a Car Accident in Northglenn

A step-by-step guide to protecting yourself and your rights after a collision.

Based on Northglenn Auto Accident Lawyer by McCormick and Murphy

Step 1: Check for Injuries and Call 911

Assess yourself and others for injuries. If anyone requires medical attention, call 911 immediately.

- Move to a safe location if possible, but do not leave the accident scene.
- Call the police even for minor accidents to ensure an official report is filed.

↓

Step 2: Document the Scene

Take photographs of all vehicles involved, the accident scene itself, road conditions, and any visible injuries.

↓

Step 3: Exchange Information

Obtain contact and insurance details from the other driver involved in the accident.

- Collect contact information from any witnesses present at the scene.

Step 4: Seek Medical Attention

Visit a doctor or seek medical evaluation, even if you feel uninjured, as some injuries may not be immediately apparent.

↓

Step 5: Contact an Attorney

Reach out to a lawyer before providing any statements to insurance companies.

- Do not sign any documents or agree to a recorded statement until you have consulted with an attorney.
- An attorney can help protect your rights and navigate the claims process.
