

McCormick & Murphy Motorcycle Accident Lawyer Comparison

Understanding Helmet Laws and Fault in Colorado Motorcycle Accidents

Based on Boulder Motorcycle Accident Lawyer by McCormick and Murphy

Factor	McCormick & Murphy's Approach	Insurance Company Argument	Legal Outcome
Helmet Requirement (Adults)	Not legally required in Colorado	May argue reduced injury if not worn	Helmet use is irrelevant to fault determination
Injury Location Impact	Focus on all injuries sustained	May focus on head/brain injuries if no helmet	Helmet use is irrelevant for non-head injuries
Comparative Negligence	Advocates for client's full compensation	May use helmet non-use to reduce payout	Client can recover compensation if <50% at fault
Key Determinant of Fault	Focus on accident causation	May try to shift blame to rider's choices	Who caused the crash is the primary question
Protective Gear Relevance	Emphasizes accident responsibility	May argue rider's choice impacted outcome	Protective gear is secondary to accident cause
