Centennial Auto Accident Lawyer FAQ

Answers to common questions about auto accidents in Centennial

Based on Centennial Auto Accident Lawyer by McCormick and Murphy

Q: What should I do immediately after a car accident in Centennial?

A: Prioritize getting medical attention, even if you don't feel seriously injured, as adrenaline can mask pain and some injuries have delayed symptoms. Call the police to ensure an official report is filed.

Q: Should I take photos after an accident?

A: Yes, take photographs of the vehicles involved, the damage to each, the accident scene, and any visible injuries. This documentation is crucial for your claim.

Q: What information should I exchange with the other driver?

A: Obtain the other driver's contact and insurance information. Also, gather contact information from any witnesses present at the scene.

Q: Who should I contact after gathering accident information?

A: Contact McCormick & Murphy, P.C. at 888-668-1182 before speaking with any insurance adjusters. They will guide you on the next steps.

Q: Why shouldn't I talk to insurance adjusters right away?

A: Insurance adjusters may try to get you to make statements that could harm your claim. It's best to have legal representation protect your rights from the beginning.

Q: Can adrenaline mask injuries after an accident?

A: Yes, adrenaline can mask pain, and some injuries may not show symptoms immediately after the crash. Seeking medical attention is vital.

Q: Is it important to file a police report after a car accident?

A: Yes, calling the police and ensuring an official report is filed is a critical step after an accident. This report serves as important evidence.

Q: What if I don't think my injuries are serious?

A: Even if you believe your injuries are minor, seek medical attention immediately. Some injuries have delayed symptoms and can worsen over time.

Q: How can a lawyer help after a car accident?

A: A lawyer can walk you through the process, protect your rights from the start, and ensure you don't make statements that could jeopardize your claim.

Q: What is the first thing I should do after an accident?

A: The very first thing you should do is get medical attention, even if you feel fine. Then, call the police to file a report.

Q: When should I call McCormick & Murphy, P.C.?

A: You should call McCormick & Murphy, P.C. at 888-668-1182 immediately after gathering necessary information from the scene and before speaking with any insurance adjusters.
