

Florence Slip and Fall Accident FAQ

Answers to common questions about slip and fall accidents in Florence, CO.

Based on Florence Slip And Fall Accident by McCormick and Murphy

Q: What should I do immediately after a slip and fall accident?

A: Seek medical attention right away, even if your injuries seem minor. Report the accident to the property owner or manager and ask for an incident report to be filed. If possible, take photos of the hazard, the area, and your injuries.

Q: Why is it important to get medical attention immediately?

A: Some injuries may worsen over time or not show symptoms immediately. Prompt medical attention ensures your injuries are documented and treated early.

Q: Should I report the accident to the property owner?

A: Yes, report the accident to the property owner or manager. Request that they document the incident in an official report.

Q: What kind of photos should I take after a slip and fall?

A: Take photos of the specific hazard that caused your fall, the surrounding area, and any visible injuries you have sustained.

Q: Is it important to get witness information?

A: Yes, if there were any witnesses, get their names and contact information. Witnesses can provide valuable testimony about the accident.

Q: Should I give a statement to the insurance company right away?

A: Do not give a recorded statement to any insurance company before speaking with a lawyer. They may try to use your words against you.

Q: What kind of documentation should I keep?

A: Keep all medical records, bills, and any documentation related to time missed from work due to your injuries.

Q: When should I contact a lawyer after a slip and fall?

A: Contact McCormick & Murphy as soon as possible after your accident. We can help preserve evidence and protect your rights.

Q: What if my injuries seem minor at first?

A: You should still seek medical attention. Some injuries do not present symptoms immediately and can worsen over time.

Q: What is the role of an incident report?

A: An incident report officially documents the accident and can be crucial evidence in your claim. It's important to ask the property owner or manager to create one.

Q: Why is preserving evidence important?

A: Evidence such as photos of the hazard and witness information can disappear or change over time. A lawyer can help ensure this evidence is secured.

Q: What if I can't take photos myself?

A: If you are unable to take photos due to your injuries, ask someone else to do it for you or rely on your lawyer to help gather evidence.
