Greeley Auto Accident FAQ

Answers to common questions after a car crash in Greeley

Based on Greeley Auto Accident Lawyer by McCormick and Murphy

Q: What should I do immediately after a car accident in Greeley?

A: Get medical attention right away, even if you don't think you're injured. Call the police to ensure an accident report is filed. Take photos of the vehicles, the accident scene, and any visible injuries. Gather names and contact information from any witnesses.

Q: Should I admit fault at the accident scene?

A: No, you should exchange insurance information with the other driver but avoid discussing fault or apologizing. Anything you say could be used against you later.

Q: What information should I exchange with the other driver?

A: Exchange names, addresses, phone numbers, and insurance company details. Do not discuss the accident details or fault with the other driver.

Q: Do I need to file an accident report?

A: Yes, call the police and make sure an official accident report is filed. This report is crucial for insurance claims and legal proceedings.

Q: Is it important to take photos after an accident?

A: Yes, take photos of the vehicles involved, the accident scene, road conditions, and any visible injuries. These photos serve as important evidence.

Q: Should I talk to my insurance company right away?

A: Notify your insurance company that an accident occurred, but do not give a recorded statement until you have spoken with an attorney. This protects you from saying something that could harm your claim.

Q: What if I don't think I'm injured?

A: Seek medical attention immediately, even if you feel fine. Some injuries, like whiplash, may not show symptoms right away but can become serious over time.

Q: Can I get witness information?

A: Yes, try to get the names and contact information of any witnesses at the scene. Their statements can be valuable in determining fault.

Q: When should I contact a lawyer after an accident?

A: Contact a lawyer before you say anything that could be used against you. It's best to speak with an attorney before giving any statements to insurance companies.

Q: What is the benefit of contacting McCormick & Murphy, P.C. after an accident?

A: McCormick & Murphy, P.C. can advise you on what to say and what not to say to insurance companies, protecting your rights and ensuring you don't make statements that could be used against you.

Q: How can a lawyer help with my auto accident claim?

A: An experienced auto accident lawyer can help you navigate the complexities of insurance claims, gather evidence, negotiate settlements, and represent you in court if necessary.
