Steps to take after a dog bite incident in Superior, CO

Based on Dog Bite Lawyer In Superior Co by McCormick and Murphy

1. Immediate Medical Care

Prioritize your health and document your injuries.

- Seek medical attention immediately, even for minor-looking wounds.
- Clean the wound with soap and water if possible.
- Go to urgent care or an emergency room.
- Take photos of your injury.
- Follow all medical advice and treatment plans.

2. Information Gathering

Collect crucial details at the scene.

- Get the dog owner's contact information.
- Obtain the dog owner's insurance information.
- Collect names and phone numbers of any witnesses.
- Note the date, time, and location of the incident.

3. Official Reporting

Create an official record of the incident.

- Report the dog bite to Boulder County Public Health.
- Ensure the report includes all gathered details.

4. Legal Consultation

Protect your rights and understand your options.

- Do not give a recorded statement to any insurance company.
- Consult with a dog bite lawyer before speaking with insurers.
- Discuss the details of the incident with your lawyer.
- Gather all relevant documents for your lawyer.

5. Documentation and Evidence

Preserve evidence for your case.

- Keep records of all medical visits and treatments.
- Save all bills and receipts related to your injury.
- Document lost wages or income due to the injury.
- Take photos of the dog, if possible and safe.

- Note any previous incidents involving the dog.
