

Premises Injury Checklist

Steps to take after an injury on someone else's property

Based on Denver Premises Injury Lawyer by McCormick and Murphy

1. Immediate Medical Care

Prioritize your health and document your injuries.

- Seek medical attention for your injuries, even if they seem minor.
- Be aware that some injuries may not show symptoms immediately.

2. Report the Incident

Formally notify the responsible party.

- Report the fall or incident to the property owner or manager.
- Request that the incident be documented in an official report.

3. Document the Scene

Gather visual evidence of the hazard.

- If able, take photos of the specific hazard that caused your fall.
- Photograph the surrounding area where the incident occurred.
- Document any absence of warning signs or barriers.

4. Gather Witness Information

Collect details from anyone who saw the incident.

- Obtain contact information from any witnesses to the accident.

5. Record Incident Details

Preserve your memory of the event.

- Write down exactly what happened as soon as possible.
- Include all details while the memory is still fresh.

6. Preserve Physical Evidence

Keep items that may be relevant to your case.

- Keep the clothing you were wearing at the time of the incident.
- Keep the shoes you were wearing at the time of the incident.

7. Seek Legal Counsel

Protect your rights and ensure evidence is preserved.

- Contact a premises liability lawyer as soon as possible.
- Understand that prompt action helps preserve critical evidence.
