Lone Tree Auto Accident FAQ

Answers to common questions about car accidents in Lone Tree.

Based on Lone Tree Auto Accident Lawyer by McCormick and Murphy

Q: What should I do immediately after a car accident in Lone Tree?

A: If anyone is injured or there's significant damage, call 911 immediately. If possible, move vehicles to a safe location. Exchange insurance and contact information with the other driver, but avoid discussing fault.

Q: Should I admit fault at the accident scene?

A: No, you should not discuss who was at fault with the other driver. Stick to exchanging necessary information like insurance and contact details.

Q: What kind of photos should I take after an accident?

A: Take pictures of the vehicles involved, the accident scene itself, any visible injuries, and the surrounding road conditions. These can be important evidence.

Q: Is it important to get witness information?

A: Yes, if there are any witnesses to the accident, be sure to get their names and contact information. Their accounts can be valuable.

Q: Do I need to see a doctor even if I feel fine after an accident?

A: Yes, it's crucial to seek medical attention even if you don't believe you're seriously hurt. Some injuries may not show immediate symptoms.

Q: When should I report the accident to my insurance company?

A: You should report the accident to your insurance company after you have taken the necessary steps at the scene and sought medical attention if needed.

Q: Should I give a recorded statement to my insurance company?

A: No, you should not give a recorded statement to your insurance company until you have spoken with an attorney.

Q: Can I accept a settlement offer right away?

A: It is strongly advised not to accept any settlement offer from the insurance company before consulting with an attorney. They can help ensure you receive fair compensation.

Q: What is the first priority after a car crash?

A: The immediate priority is safety and calling 911 if there are injuries or significant property damage. After ensuring safety, focus on gathering information.

Q: Why is it important not to discuss fault?

A: Admitting fault or discussing blame at the scene can negatively impact your insurance claim and potential legal case. It's best to let professionals determine liability.

Q: How can photos help my case?

A: Photos serve as crucial visual evidence of the accident's circumstances, vehicle damage, and any injuries sustained, which can be vital for insurance claims and legal proceedings.

Q: What if the other driver refuses to exchange information?

A: If the other driver is uncooperative, focus on gathering as much information as possible yourself, including their license plate number, vehicle description, and any identifying features. Call the police if necessary.
