

What to Do After a Car Accident in Boulder

Essential steps to protect your health and legal rights.

Based on Auto Accident Lawyer Boulder by McCormick and Murphy

Step 1: Seek Medical Attention Immediately

Even if you feel fine, get checked by a doctor. Adrenaline can mask pain, and some injuries may not be apparent right away.

- Prioritize your health above all else.

Step 2: Document the Scene

Take photos of all involved vehicles, the intersection, road conditions, and any visible injuries.

- Capture as much detail as possible.

Step 3: Gather Information

Collect names and contact details for any witnesses. Obtain the other driver's insurance information.

Step 4: Obtain a Police Report

If law enforcement responds to the accident, get the police report number.

Step 5: Avoid Recorded Statements

Do not give a recorded statement to any insurance company before consulting with an attorney.

- Your priority is preserving evidence, not speaking with adjusters.
