If possible, move vehicles to a safe location away from traffic. Then, call the police to file an official accident report.

Step 3: Document the Scene

Take photos of all vehicles involved, the damage sustained, road conditions, traffic signs, and any other relevant details at the scene.

Step 4: Exchange Information

Swap contact and insurance details with the other driver. Also, obtain the names and phone numbers of any witnesses present.

Step 5: Seek Medical Attention

Get medical attention even if you don't believe you are seriously injured, as some symptoms may not be immediately apparent.

Step 6: Report to Your Insurer

Notify your insurance company about the accident.

- Do not give a recorded statement to any insurer before speaking with an attorney.

Step 7: Contact an Attorney

Contact McCormick & Murphy, P.C. to ensure you do not say anything that could be used against you later.
