

What to Do After a Car Accident in Northglenn

A step-by-step guide to protecting your rights and well-being after a collision.

Based on Northglenn Auto Accident Lawyer by McCormick and Murphy

Step 1: Check for Injuries and Call 911

Assess yourself and others for injuries. If anyone requires medical attention, call 911 immediately.

- If possible and safe, move vehicles out of traffic.
- Do not leave the accident scene.

Step 2: Call the Police

Contact the police to file an official accident report, even if the accident appears minor.

Step 3: Document the Scene

Take photographs of all vehicles involved, the accident location, road conditions, and any visible injuries.

Step 4: Exchange Information

Obtain contact and insurance details from the other driver. Collect contact information from any witnesses present.

Step 5: Seek Medical Attention

Visit a doctor for a medical evaluation, even if you feel unharmed, as some injuries may not be immediately apparent.

Step 6: Contact an Attorney

Consult with an attorney before speaking with insurance companies or providing any statements.

- Do not sign any documents or agree to recorded statements until you have consulted with legal counsel.
- An attorney can help protect your rights.
