Based on Centennial Auto Accident Lawyer by McCormick and Murphy

1. Immediate Medical Attention

Prioritize your health and document your condition.

- Seek medical attention immediately, even if injuries seem minor.
- Understand that adrenaline can mask pain.
- Be aware that some injuries may not show symptoms immediately.

2. Reporting the Accident

Ensure an official record is created.

- Call the police to the scene of the accident.
- Confirm that an official accident report is filed.

3. Documenting the Scene

Gather visual evidence of the accident.

- Take photographs of all involved vehicles.
- Photograph the damage to each vehicle.
- Take pictures of the accident scene.
- Document any visible injuries with photographs.

4. Gathering Information

Collect essential details from all parties involved.

- Obtain the other driver's contact information.
- Get the other driver's insurance information.
- Collect contact information from any witnesses.

5. Protecting Your Rights

Be cautious when speaking with insurance adjusters.

- Avoid talking to insurance adjusters before consulting an attorney.
- Contact McCormick & Murphy, P.C. at 888-668-1182.
- Let an attorney guide you on next steps.
- Ensure your rights are protected from the beginning.
