

The National Association of County Planners (NACCP) is an organization dedicated to the role of the county planner in shaping the future of rural and urban America.

NACP is an affiliate of the National Association of Counties (NACo) and provides a forum for county planners and elected officials to communicate ideas, share experiences, and recognize the vital contributions of all who are involved in the county planning process.

NACP Provides Networking

- Information and referral services from the association's headquarters in Washington, DC.
- Informative presentations on county issues at events around the country such as the American Planning Association and the National Association of Counties annual conferences.
- Planning Project Awards recognition at the CPD annual business meeting during the APA National Planning Conference.

NACP Provides Services

- Publications, Presentations, Podcasts, and a variety of technical reports and resources on a state-of-the-art website that is updated with informative materials for county planners.
- Planners E-Job listserv for all county planning-related jobs and/or special requests
- Webinars on focused county planning issues, many that qualify for AICP Certification Maintenance (CM) credits

NACP Provides Membership

- Open to all members of county planning departments, commissions, and consultants with an interest in county planning issues.
- Annual membership is available on an individual basis at the price of $40.00.

Become a member of the NACP today!