

Strengthen your programming skills, and maintain your coding warrant of fitness

With your free account you can save your progress and track your programming fitness over time.

```
def greet(name):
print("Hello " + name)
```

A wide variety of questions including functions, Parson's Problems and debugging questions.

Earn points and achievements for attempting and completing questions.

{code:WOF} is developed by UCCSER in partnership with DTTA to enable teachers and students in New Zealand to practice and maintain their programming skills.

