Learning with Artificial Intelligence

Start: Planning

Purpose/Learning Task:
Do I understand the task and why I should be using AI? Is using it appropriate educationally or culturally?

Is this a school approved tool?
- YES
- NO

Are you sharing private or licensed material?
- NO
- YES

Have suitable protections been applied?
- NO
- YES

Does this AI tool support the task?
- YES
- NO

Can I access this AI tool?
- YES
- NO

Does the use of AI raise academic honesty issues?
- NO
- YES

Does the tool provide data sources?
- YES
- NO

Is this significant?
- YES
- NO

Check with your teacher. Reselect the tool

Private Information
We are required, under New Zealand law to take all reasonable steps to protect privacy. This includes asking permission before sharing material and ensuring the information is anonimised.

See the Privacy Act 2020

Licensed Material
New Zealand has a strong law to protect the rights of the owners of the "works". In New Zealand, copyright applies to anything a person writes, from the moment you write (or type) it.

To use other peoples work, we must have their permission. This includes sharing the work on an Artificial Intelligence.

See the Copyright Act 1994

Application

Test the Question, Prompt or Stem, then check the outcome:

Did it work as expected?
- YES
- NO

Review and adapt the stem.

Consider bias, perspective, appropriateness, etc.

Is it suitable, accurate and appropriate?
- YES
- NO

Accept and cite.

DTTA Ngā Kaiako o Hangarau Matihiko Aotearoa
DIGITAL TECHNOLOGIES TEACHERS AOTEAROA

NEX NETWORKS OF EXPERTISE