

MarketGoo Case Study # 2

Client: www.wappapaddleboards.com

Industry: Water Sports, Seasonal

Time using MarketGoo: 2 years

Plan: MarketGoo PRO 6-Month Plan

Time dedicated to SEO: 1 hour per week

Layne Pennel is a MarketGoo power user who uses the tool to optimise his site Wappa Paddle Boards. They are low cost, eco-friendly stand-up paddle boards that are high quality.

The site is built on Weebly's platform, and also functions as an online shop where you can directly buy paddle boards. Layne began using MarketGoo when his site was still very young and had a lot of technical SEO to fix. He initially dedicated a total of about 120 hours fixing all his sites issues with MarketGoo's recommendations and his hard work paid off when he began to see his keyword rankings and Alexa positioning start to climb.

So how did he use MarketGoo to reach his website goals?

Layne in his own words:

Technical suggestions have been the most helpful. I knew some SEO prior to joining MarketGoo, but I have learned a lot from it too.

Most of all, I like the reporting tools. Keyword ranking on search engines, links, competitor comparison etc.

He evaluated other tools prior to using MarketGoo and maintains that he is getting very good value for the price.
