

TRAINING ON IRISH CLAIMS

To Members of The MGA
Association by DAC
Beachcroft Dublin

DAC Beachcroft Dublin would like to offer any members of the MGA Association complimentary training sessions for their teams in relation to Irish claims.

DAC Beachcroft opened its Dublin office 10 years ago. Since then it has steadily grown the team into the largest Insurance defence practice in Ireland. We act for a vast array of London Market Insurers and Insurers based in Ireland. Most of our team has either worked in London or in-house over the years. We can easily “translate” the Irish system so UK based clients can better understand it.

We offer training sessions on anything to do with Irish claims including the Personal Injuries Assessment Board, Circuit and High Court procedures and strategies, Quantum and how to reserve Irish claims as well as the recent changes introduced by the Consumer Insurance Contracts Act 2019 commence.

If you are interested in a training session about Irish claims, please contact:
