TEAM NOTES

- Miami's third play from scrimmage was a 65-yard TD pass from QB Stephen Morris to WR Phillip Dorsett. It was the longest play from scrimmage of UM on the season.
- For the first time this season, the Hurricanes scored the first points of the game. Miami opponents had scored first in the prior three games.
- RB Mike James' 1-yard TD run to end the first quarter was the first rushing TD allowed by Georgia Tech on the season.
- Miami was credited with safety in the first quarter. It was the first safety for the Canes since Sept. 17, 2009 when Georgia Tech's Chandler Anderson kicked an errant snap through the back of the end zone.
- The Canes led 19-0 after the first quarter - the biggest lead after the opening period since leading Charleston Southern, 21-0, on Aug. 28, 2008. It was the largest margin over an ACC opponent after one since going up 21-0 over Wake Forest, 21-0, on Nov. 20, 2004.
- Jake Wieclaw's third quarter 23-yard FG was the first score allowed by the GT defense in either the second or third quarter this season.
- Miami's 17-play third quarter drive was the longest of the season for the Canes. It was also the longest drive of any ACC team this season.
- The Canes recorded nine tackles for loss in the game.
- Miami has now won its last four meetings against Georgia Tech.
- It was the first overtime win for the Hurricanes since defeating Virginia, 24-17, in Charlottesville on Nov. 1, 2008.
- Miami had 609 yards of total offense, the first time reaching 600 since racking up 629 against McNeese State in 2000.
- Today was the biggest comeback to win a game since UM also made up a 17-point deficit at Wake Forest in 2009.
- The UM defense held the Georgia Tech's triple option to 287 yards on the ground. Since 2009, GT has run for less than 300 yards only 18 times. GT is 5-13 in those games, and Miami is the only school to do it three times in that span.
