CHARLIE TATE

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

CHARLIE TATE took over as Athletic Director at the University of Miami June 1, 1968, succeeding Andy Gustafson who retired after holding the post since December, 1963. Head Football Coach Tate directs a program embracing seven varsity sports—football, basketball, tennis, golf, baseball, swimming and soccer.

In announcing Tate as U-Miami Athletic Director, Dr. Henry King Stanford, president of the University of Miami, said: "To fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Andy Gustafson, we did not have to look far to find a man who possesses the skills which this multi-responsibility requires."

"In his short period as head coach here, Charlie Tate has proven himself to be far more than a successful football coach. He's a leader, builder and organizer. He has earned the respect of those who work with him on the campus and know him in the community. He has the kind of vision, drive and energy with which my colleagues are moving this University forward on many fronts."

Tate was born in Tracy City, Tenn., but his family moved to Jacksonville, Fla., and he played at Landon High school where he captained the high school football team. He won All-City, All-State and All-Southern honors, was All-State in basketball and was catcher on the All-America baseball team which toured Europe.

Charlie played college football at University of Florida where he gained SEC honors in successive seasons. The coming of World War II saw him enter the Navy. He was an officer, serving in the South Pacific from 1942 through 1945.

Turning to coaching, Tate became head football coach at Miami Senior High and in five years won the state title four times. His record showed 43 wins, six losses and a tie. Charlie served as freshman coach at University of Florida in 1956, then moved to Georgia Tech where he coached the freshman team in 1957 and 1958 and was varsity assistant to Bobby Dodd the next five years. In 1961, 1962 and 1963 he was in charge of the overall defense.

Tate took over as head coach at University of Miami in 1964. He has piloted Miami into bowl games, into the nation's top 10 and has scored some of the most stirring upsets in Hurricane grid history. Victory over Southern California and a dramatic tie with Notre Dame are among his many stunning feats. In 1966, his Hurricanes defeated the teams which went to the Rose Bowl, Orange Bowl and Cotton Bowl.

RON GODFREY

HEAD COACH

Ron Godfrey made an impressive debut as head coach at his alma mater, University of Miami, last year. He had just two starters back from the 1966-67 team but when all the returns were in, his 17-11 record was the best since the departure of Rick Barry and he had piloted the Hurricanes to their first triumph in the Hurricane Classic since 1964-65.

It wasn't easy, and the final result had to be a tribute to the coaching skill of Godfrey, and to his ability to improvise and rally his forces in the face of the unexpected.

His first blow came when a sophomore who had been slated to become a starting guard and the team playmaker did not return to school. Then Charles Noti, a senior who was to fill the gap, suffered a crippling accident while at work during summer vacation which not only idled him during the fall drills but kept him from ever regaining his expected form.

A series of mishaps to other players made most of fall practice a nightmare to Godfrey who was seeking to make some key adjustments in Miami's style of play.

The final blow surrounded the opener in Seattle, Wash., against University of Washington. The Hurricanes planned to arrive there the day before the game for a workout. Instead they were snowbound for hours in Chicago and did not reach Seattle until just before daylight on game day. Miami took a 96-54 pasting but the resilient Godfrey refused to give up. He saw some adjustments were mandatory, made them so effectively that only a free throw and ball possession on a late game technical foul call carried the same Washington team to an 81-80 squeaker the next night.

After that start, Miami won two-thirds of its games despite later woes which kept ace forward Rusty Parker out of full time action in a key stretch.

Godfrey, 29, played high school basketball at Martins Ferry, Ohio, where he scored more than 800 points in his senior year and had a single game total of 51.

In three years, starting with the 1958-59 season, he was a first string forward at University of Miami and, along with Rick Barry, is listed on Miami's all-time team at forward.

As a senior in 1960-61, Godfrey received honorable mention All-America. His 1,383 points for a career is third high at UM and his 767 rebounds is fifth in the school's all-time records. Following graduation, Ron became assistant basketball coach at Miami and held that position until he took over the head coaching reins.

DICK HICKOX

ASSISTANT COACH

Dick Hickox starts his second season as assistant on University of Miami's all graduate coaching staff in basketball. Hickox was a teammate of Head Coach Ron Godfrey's for the three seasons starting with the 1958-59 campaign and like Godfrey is a member of UM's All-Time team.

Dick made the Associated Press All-America in his junior year (1959-60) and won acclaim on the United Press Little Man All-America three years in a row. He was named to the Hurricane Classic All-Star team three consecutive years and the tournaments most valuable player twice in succession.

Hickox's collegiate career saw him shatter University of Miami's scoring record and, though that mark has since fallen to Rick Barry, the new Hurricane assistant still holds second place and is the all-time leader among UM guards.

Dick is remembered as a fine dribbler, an excellent ball handler and a sensational outside shot. He led Miami in scoring all three seasons and, despite his size, was 11th in the all-time rebound standings at the time of graduation.

After leaving Miami, Hickox started a pro career with Kansas City but his play with the pros was short-circuited by a call into the armed forces. Later, he coached freshman basketball at University of Miami (1963-64 and 1964-65), then taught high school physical education in his home town, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Past Records of Basketball Coaches

Art Webb, two years—Won 15, Lost 5.

Tom McCann, three years—Won 33, Lost 14.

W. H. Steers, one year—Won 8, Lost 5.

Hart Morris, 10 years, part of 11th—Won 121, Lost 84.

Dave Wike, one year, part of another—Won 12, Lost 20.

Bruce Hale, 13 years, Won 220, Lost 112.

Ron Godfrey, 1 year, Won 17, Lost 11.

THREE HOME COURTS

University of Miami plays its home basketball games on three different courts. The largest seating capacity is at Miami Beach Convention Hall where the Hurricanes drew 6,524 to see Rick Barry in his last collegiate game. Miami Dade Junior College seats more than 5,000 while Miami Beach Auditorium has a capacity of approximately 3300.

THE OUTLOOK

Rusty Parker, second in U. of Miami scoring and rebounding, and Billy Soens, leading rebounder and third in scoring a year ago have completed their college playing days, leaving tremendous holes for coach Ron Godfrey to fill in his second varsity coaching year. Returning is Don Curnutt, who broke all sophomore scoring marks at Miami in 1967-68 with a 22.7 average. The 6-2 guard will again be one of the best scoring threats anywhere around. Jerry Stevenson, 6-7, scored 9.1 and averaged 7.9 in rebounds as a sophomore and has the potential to fill much of the gap left by Parker. His running mate at forward is expected to be sophomore Willie Allen, 6-6, who appears to be an excellent rebounder and reliable scorer. They may come close to combining for the point and rebound totals of Parker and Stevenson in 1968. Tom Masters is slated for reserve action.

Tom Green outbattled four others to become Curnutt's running mate at guard last year, and he could be a big help if he improves as much in his senior year as he did as a junior. However, he must fight off Mike Hutsler, now a junior. Mike, 6-2, outscored and out-rebounded Green last year, but Tom was better in other phases of the game. Hutsler also plays forward. John Osbourne, a junior college transfer, could be the key to the situation. Dave Roddy, 5-11 and a brilliant outside shot, is another who could help the Hurricanes.

Three men will fight it out to replace Soens. Dennis Cantrell, 6-10, now a junior, scored 6.2 and rebounded 5.6 as a replacement last year. He has both height and experience. Sophomore Ron Welch, 6-8, appears to have rebounding skill and is a fairly good shot. However, newcomer Wayne Canady, 6-7, could surpass both. He was All-America in junior college last year, and has speed, shooting skill and rebound ability in abundance.

PLAYER SKETCHES

WILLIE ALLEN

Sophomore forward from Rockville, Md. . . . Physical Education . . . age 19 . . . hgt. 6-6 . . . wgt. 230 . . . Allen has great jumping ability which will give him the edge on most players several inches taller than he is. This skill will come in handy this season as Miami seeks to replace its two leading rebounders of last year. As a freshman, Willie showed ability to get high on the boards and a knack of being able to latch onto the ball. He's a fine inside shooter and ranks high as a defensive player. Allen is one of the new cagers who must come through in a big way if the Hurricanes hope to wind up on the winning side of the ledger. Thus far, he has passed his preliminary tests in promising style. Willie put his high school team on the Maryland basket ball map. After three sensational seasons, he had led his team to 55 victories in 64 games, including one state championship. As a senior, his team was 20-1. Willie had a scoring average of 25 points and a rebounding mark of 23 rebounds per game. In three years, he scored 1,251 points, pulled in 1,117 rebounds, and had numerous All-Star selections to his credit. His high school coach was Earl Walthall.

WAYNE CANADAY

Junior center from Vincennes, Ind. . . . Physical Education . . . age 20 . . . hgt. 6-7 . . . wgt. 220 . . . Canaday was a junior college All-American at Vincennes and carried that school into the play-offs at the National Junior College tournament two years in a row.

He was one of the 48 athletes invited to the U.S. Olympic team tryouts. Wayne was one of the most sought after junior college players in the land and is a top prospect at center where his skill in the pivot job is well established. At Vincennes last year, he averaged 16.8 points and 12.3 rebounds per game — which comes close to the marks of Billy Soens, whom he will be attempting to replace in the Miami lineup this year. Canaday is an excellent all around player. He has a hook shot from either side and is an effective jumper. Allen Bradfield was his coach at Vincennes.

DENNIS CANTRELL

Junior center from Daytona Beach, Fla. . . . Physical Education . . . age 21 . . . hgt. 6-10 . . . wgt. 220 . . . letters, one . . . Cantrell is the tallest man on the squad. He saw service in 24 games as a replacement for Billy Soens last year and in his comparatively limited playing time, he had an impressive 6.2 scoring average along with 5.6 rebounds. If he improves as much as expected after one season as a reserve, the Floridian could nail down the starting center job and give the Hurricanes some ball control under the boards. There's a good chance, too, he could duplicate the 14.4 scoring average of the graduated Soens, regular 1967-68 center who led the team in the rebounding with 10.7 per game. Dennis possesses a good jump shot and is reliable from the charity line. He had three 12-point games last season against Brown, Dartmouth and Creighton. In the second Hawaii game, he had 11 rebounds and tallied 10 each in the two Tampa contests. He was All-State at Seabreeze High and played in the annual North-South high school All-Star game. His high school Coach was Jack Suretee.

His varsity record:

Year	G	FG	Pct.	FT	Pct.	Reb.	Pts.	Ave.
1967-68	24	42	.400	65	.739	135	149	6.2

DON CURNUTT

Junior guard from Tipton, Ind. . . . Physical Education . . . age 21 . . . hgt. 6-2 . . . letters, one . . . wgt. 160 . . . Don was All-State and All-America in high school and a freshman sensation at University of Miami. He kept right on going in his sophomore year in 1967-68 as he shattered all UM sophomore offensive records, including those of Rick Barry. His 635 points and 268 field goals are the third highest ever for one season at Miami, as is his season scoring average of 22.7 points per game. Primarily an outside shooter, Curnutt was not fouled as frequently as some of the other top scorers in Miami history, but his deadly accuracy from the free throw line (.825) is seventh best for one season at Miami. Only Barry had more 20-point games in a season than the 19 turned in by Curnutt last year. The Hoosier wizard chalked up four 30-plus point games. He saved his big night for his final appearance, when he hit on 17 of 30 field goal tries and was five for five from the free throw line for 39 points against Florida State. His best free throw night was against Maryland when he hit on all 11 attempts. He had one stretch of 14 consecutive games in which he was above the 20 point mark. Only once was he under 10, and that was the second game of the season when he had nine against Washington in Seattle. Only once all season did Curnutt collect five personal fouls. While his long, soaring two-pointers get the headlines, Don has an amazing assortment of shots from right or left and is a Grade A dribbler. After scoring 368 points as a junior in high school, Curnutt added 639 more as a senior, including one 42 point night. Dick Barr, his coach, rates him the finest player he has ever coached. Don's 55 points in two games won him All-Hurricane Classic honors in his first Miami season.

His varsity record:

Year	G	FG	Pct.	FT	Pct.	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1967-68	28	268	.480	99	.825	64	635	22.7

TOM GREEN

Senior guard from Vincennes, Ind. . . . Industrial Engineering . . . age 22 . . . hgt. 6-0 . . . wgt. 160 . . . letters, two . . . Green drew a few starting assignments in his sophomore year and then grabbed off a starting post in the 1967-68 campaign after early season battling with three other aspirants. Tom is a steady reliable athlete who has proven himself a capable ball handler and defensive player. He has good speed and qualities of leadership. He does not shoot much, preferring to pass off. He averaged just over three shots per game last year, and it was only due to his better-than-average skill from the free throw line that he boosted his season scoring total to 96 points. His season high of 12 points came in the Hawaii game. Tom is slated for another busy year with the Hurricanes to round out his varsity career. Back in high school, Green captained his team two years in a row, and was All-Sectional, All-Regional, All-Conference, All-State and All-America. He averaged 10 assists and 17 points a game as a high school senior. He also won track and golf letters in high school and shoots in the low 70s in the latter sport. John Dotson coached him in basketball at Vincennes High.

His varsity record:

Year	G	FG	Pct.	FT	Pct.	Reb.	Pts.	Ave.
1966-67	21	16	.421	8	.818	9	41	1.9
1967-68	28	30	.337	36	.783	46	96	3.4

MIKE HUTSLAR

Junior forward-guard from Oakland, Cal. . . . Physical Education . . . age 21 . . . hgt. 6-2 . . . wgt. 175 . . . letters, one . . . Although Hutslar was a reserve, he was fifth both in scoring and rebounding for the Hurricanes as a sophomore. His apprenticeship could lead lead to bigger things this year. Mike is a sensational jumper. At 6-2, he still is able to leap above the rim of the basket. Mike moves well toward the basket and is a deadly jumper from the top of the key. A year ago, he was the most accurate man of the squad from the field with an amazing .557 mark in field goal shooting. He scored 19 points against Loyola, caging 9 of 14 field goals and adding one of two free throws. In the same game, he picked off 11 rebounds. Hutslar played for St. Joseph's High in Oakland, where he made All-State as well as All-League two times. He played one season at Alameda Junior College, where he averaged 19 points. His high school coach was Des Leonard.

His varsity record:

Year	G	FG	Pct.	FT	Pct.	Reb.	Pts.	Ave.
1967-68	25	68	.557	28	.667	92	164	6.6

TOM MASTERS

Senior forward from Lebanon, Ind. . . . Business Administration . . . age 22 . . . hgt. 6-5 . . . wgt. 220 . . . letters, two . . . Back in high school, Tom was All-Sectional and All-County in basketball and was honorable mention on the Indiana All-State high school baseball team. He also played end on the football team, was a shot putter in track and competed in cross country. A near fatal accident in his early childhood impaired the sight of one eye but Masters overcame this obstacle. Tom has had two varsity campaigns as a reserve at Miami and is slated for somewhat more extensive action this fall, although he is out-ranked at present by the other forward candidates. The Hoosier cager played center in high school. His high in scoring as a Hurricane is six points against Tulane and his top rebound effort was four against Tampa. Both came in his junior year. James Rosenstihl was his high school coach.

His varsity record:

Year	G	FG	Pct.	FT	Pct.	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1966-67	16	10	.526	5	.714	15	25	1.5
1967-68	18	9	.429	14	.736	17	26	1.4

JOHN OSBOURNE

Junior guard from Burlington, Iowa . . . Business Administration . . . age 20 . . . hgt. 6-1 . . . wgt. 170 . . . In two years' play at Burlington Junior College, Osbourne has established himself as a top flight leader and an excellent playmaker. He is as outstanding at one end of the court as he is at the other. He had an overall average of 11 points a game in junior college. Osbourne played 55 consecutive games before being felled by appendicitis. He played much of his final season at Burlington in considerable pain as he refused to divulge his ailment for fear he would be taken out of the lineup. Hard nosed and aggressive, he will make a strong bid to earn a starting role.

DAVE RODDY

Sophomore guard from McKeesport, Pa. . . . Physical Education . . . age 18 . . . hgt. 5-11 . . . wgt. 145 . . . Dave has utilized his excellent speed and quickness to enhance his skill as a ball handler. He is extremely able on the fast break and has an uncanny knack of connecting on a high percentage of long shots. He averaged 29 points a game as a freshman last season and only a fraction of his two-pointers were from less than 20 feet from the basket. Roddy was an outstanding high school player. In his senior year, he posted a 19 point per game average, despite the fact that he spent considerable time as playmaker. He was named the most valuable player in the annual

City-Catholic high school tournament in the Pittsburgh area. Dave is the smallest man on Miami's varsity squad but despite his lack of height, he's certain to wind up in the thick of action. Neeny Campbell was his high school coach.

JERRY STEVENSON

Junior forward from San Lorenzo, Calif. . . . Physical Education . . . age 21 . . . hgt. 6-7 . . . wgt. 175 . . . letters, one . . . Stevenson should come into his own this year after an excellent sophomore season in which he averaged 9.1 points and 7.9 rebounds a game. He does everything a man his size is expected to do and can run well in addition. Jerry scored on both long and short shots a year ago, posting an even 50 per cent from the field and 75 per cent from the free throw line. He's an exceptionally good ball handler and passes well. Coach Godfrey termed Jerry one of the best on the squad potentially last year, and believes he is well on his way to stardom. The Californian led his high school team to an undefeated season. With the freshman in 1967, he averaged 24 points per game. His high school was Arroyo and his coach was Boyd McCasslin.

His varsity record:

Year	G	FG	Pct.	FT	Pct.	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1967-68	28	94	.500	67	.744	222	255	9.1

RON WELCH

Sophomore center from Atlanta, Ga. . . . Pre-Law . . . age 21 . . . hgt. 6-8 . . . wgt. 230 . . . Welch did not play basketball until his junior year in high school. His intense desire, tabs him as a future sparkler. Coach Godfrey rates the Georgian as an athlete with high potential. Ron sat out last season when he transferred from Clemson at the end of his freshman year. Big, strong and a real hustler, the hard-working Welch is bound to play a lot of basketball for Miami this year, though probably not as a starter. He played for Briar Cliff High School in Atlanta and helped carry his team to the state finals with a scoring average of 18 points and 20 rebounds per game in his senior year.

TWO NEWCOMERS ON SCHEDULE

Alabama and Illinois appear on the Hurricane basketball schedule for the first time this year. However, it is not a sure thing that Miami and Illinois will actually play one another as they have been drawn in opposite brackets in the Hurricane Classic. Miami meets Alabama at Tuscaloosa Dec. 13.

* * * *

CURNUTT ON WAY UP

Although he has played just one varsity basketball season, Don Curnutt, guard, already ranks 27th in all time scoring at University of Miami with 635 points. He needs just 21 points to displace Kenny Allen in the top 25.

* * * *

ACCURATE SHOOTING

In 10 games last season, Miami averaged better than 50% on its field goal attempts. Best showing was 40 of 61 against Dartmouth (66% in the opening round of the Hurricane Classic). In the finals, Miami was 36 for 73, just under 50%.

THE OPPOSITION

LaSalle College, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dec. 11 at Philadelphia, Pa.

Coach, Tom Gola. First year

1968 record—W 20, L 8. Points, 2171, Opp. 1924.

1968, LaSalle won 92-84. All-time series, UM won 2, lost 7. Points, UM 732, LaSalle 792.

All five starters return from last year's great team. Leading the gang is Larry Cannon, 6-5 forward who averaged 19.5 points and 9.9 rebounds in 1967-68. Dave Ervin, No. 6 man last season, is the lone loss. Depth will be improved by the addition of Ken Durrett, 6-7 high school All-America two years ago. He was 25.1 in scoring and 14 in rebounding as a freshman. Another frosh ace, 6-5 Bill Pleas, scored 17.3 points and 12.8 rebounds. Bill Michuda, 6-3 transfer from St. Norberts, adds still more class to what may be LaSalle's best team since the famed Gola playing era.

* * * *

University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, Alabama

Dec. 13 at Tuscaloosa.

Coach, C. M. Newton. Career record—W 169, L 138.

1968 record—W 10, L 16. Points, 1982, Opp. 2025.

First Meeting

C. M. Newton, former coach at Transylvania, makes his Alabama varsity coaching debut with seven lettermen available. Three of them were 1967-68 starters.

Alabama retains Gary Elliott, 6-3 guard, who averaged 16.3 points and Randy Hollingsworth, 6-5, who hit at an 11.5 pace last year. Rich Deppe, returning 6-7 center, was second best rebounder by a slight margin last year. Deppe may move to his favorite forward position if 6-10 George Harrison, highly touted sophomore, clicks at center. That would leave one guard spot open, with David White, 6-1 junior, and Eddie Lumpkin, 6-2 sophomore, the top contenders. The Tide will need time to make the adjustments, but it should be an improved team over a year ago.

* * * *

Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa.

Jan. 4 at Miami Beach Convention Hall.

Coach, Donald Smith. Four year record at Bucknell—W 49, L 45.

Overall, W 184, L 129.

1968 record—W 12, L 11. Points, 1846, Opp. 1798.

First Meeting

Bucknell retains seven lettermen from the highest scoring outfit in Bucknell basketball history and picks up choice talent from a 15-3 frosh team. Jim Wherry, 20.4 in scoring, and Craig Greenwood, who scored 13.2 points and had 32.8 rebounds last year, are the team's top men. If Tom Marble, 6-7, can come through, the height problem will be solved. Greenwood, 6-6, and Thomas Schneider, 6-4, are the only other veterans over 6-2 tall.

University of Tampa, Tampa, Fla.

Jan. 6 at Tampa; Feb. 18 at Miami Dade Junior College North.

Coach, Dana Kirk. Career record—W 27, L 24.

1968 record—Won 16, L 9. Points, 2133, Opp. 1960.

1968, UM won 104-103, lost 76-78. All-time series—UM won 43, lost 9. Points, UM 4267, Tampa 3646.

Six veterans return to give Tampa its tallest and most experienced team in years. Ace is 6-6 Bob Stevens, who scored 19.2 and rebounded at a 21.5 clip to top the team a year ago. Four other players averaged 11 points or better last year and two of them—Lester Henley and Rudy Bradley—return. Tampa out-rebounded its foes 1,359-1,018 in 1967-68 and expects to have even better control in 1968-69.

Tulane University, New Orleans, La.

Jan. 16 at Miami Beach Convention Hall.

Coach, Ralph Pedersen. Career record—W 38, L 60.

1968 record—W 12, L 12. Points, 2068, Opp. 1991.

1968, Miami lost, 99-88. All-time series, UM won 2, lost 2. Points, UM 307, Tulane 306.

Three starters, three often used reserves and two of the finest soph prospects in the South make Tulane prospects bright. Top returnees are John Arthurs, 6-4, who led scoring and rebounding in 1967-68; Terry Habig, 6-2, second in scoring, and Bill Fitzgerald, 6-4, third in scoring and rebounding. Added to the squad is John Sutter, 6-8, who last season set a frosh scoring record of 27.5 and was second to the much heralded Harold Sylvester in rebounding. Sylvester, 6-6, scored 18.6 as a frosh. These two are expected to add the rebounding punch and size which has hampered Tulane in the past.

Florida Southern College, Lakeland, Fla.

Jan. 28 at Lakeland.

Coach, Tom Greene. Career record—Won 232, L 192.

1968 record—W 15, L 9. Points, 1948, Opp. 1913.

1968, UM won 94-76. All-time series, UM won 56, lost 7. Points UM 4323, FSC 3522.

The Mocs retain their three top performers of 1968—Fred Lewis, 5-10 playmaking guard; 6-5 center John Schweistahl and forward Gary McGriff. If John Jurecko, 6-7, or Mike Sullivan, 6-8, can come through, the Mocs will be dangerous. Otherwise, their lack of height will make things rough.

Stetson University, Deland, Fla.

Jan. 29 at Deland; Feb. 4 at Miami Beach Convention Hall.

Coach, Glenn Wilkes. Career record—W 291, L 156. At Stetson, W 168, L 126.

1968 record—Won 8, lost 18. Points, 2023, Opp. 2114.

1968, UM won 72-67 and 88-71. All-time series—UM won 35, lost 38. Points, UM 4152, Stetson 3938.

Coach Wilkes had one of the few losing seasons in his career last year and the 1969 outlook is not exactly bright. While seven lettermen return, the hopes of the team must rest with newcomers. Rick Frosch and Mike Klarer, 6-8, and Mike Uhelski, 6-7, are among the new men who, hopefully, could solve the height problem for the Hatters. Several other junior collegians may make this an all-new Stetson team. However, resourceful Coach Wilkes can be depended upon to have his team make things difficult for any opponent.

University of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii

Jan. 31 at Miami Beach Convention Hall.

Coach, Red Rocha.

1968, UM won 102-83, lost 76-110.

Coach Rocha says: "We have good size and mobility, but our big question mark is at guard, where Junious Simon, who sat out last season, is our only experienced man." Three fine junior college transfers, plus Paul Hoffman, who played at Utah State, and Tom Baird, a transfer from Idaho State, will help. Six lettermen are available.

Morehead State University, Morehead, Kentucky

Feb. 1 at Miami Beach Convention Hall.

Coach, Bob Wright. Career record—W 40, L 29.

1968 record—W 12, L 9. Points, 1763, Opp. 1626. All-time series—UM won 3, lost 2. Points, UM 408, Morehead 420.

Eight veterans, four of them starters, return from 1968. Jerry Conley, 6-2 guard who garnered All-Ohio Valley honors and was the team's leading scorer (16.5) last season, leads returnees. Other returning starters include: Lamar Green, 6-7 forward who a year ago averaged 14.2 in rebounds and 12.8 in scoring; Willie Jackson, 6-7 center with a 14.3 average, and Danny Cornett, 6-1 guard who shot at a 9.2 clip. Jackson has recovered from a knee injury which hampered him a year ago. Ron Gathright, 6-3, will replace the graduated Jordan. Ron averaged 9.4 and had an 8.8 rebound mark as a reserve last year. Jim Day, 6-8, is best of a promising group of sophomores. Strong defense, excellent rebounding and balanced shooting make the Eagles dangerous.

Florida A & M

Feb. 8 at Miami Beach Auditorium.

Coach, Ed Oglesby. Eighteen years.

1968 record—W 18, L 9. Points, 2,496. Opp. 2,385.

1968, Miami won 108-98. First game.

Florida A. & M. retains four of its five 1967-68 starters and expects to have one of its finer basketball teams in the school's history. Returning are David Wright (6-4), Dennis Jackson (6-4), Alfred Lawson (6-5) and Charles Estes (5-10). Clarence Allen (6-4), who played a lot of basketball last year, is expected to take over the vacated forward job, while Ernest Jones, a 6-7 center, is being eyed closely for a major part on the new Rattler team.

Loyola of the South, New Orleans, La.

Feb. 15 at Miami Beach Convention Hall.

Coach, Bob Luksta. First year at Loyola.

1968 record—W 11, L 14. Points, 1908, Opp. 2008.

1968, Loyola won 86-84. All-time series—UM won 8, lost 6.

Points, UM 1119, Loyola 1141.

Lone returning starter for the Wolfpack is Charley Powell but he's a great one. Powell averaged 26 points a game last year. Earl Butler will help a lot if he recovers from an operation, while Al Jackson and Stephen Johnson, sophomores, are good prospects. Generally, this is a rebuilding year at Loyola where Bob Luksta makes his head coaching debut after six years as assistant at DePaul.

Miami University, Oxford, Ohio

Feb. 22 at Miami Beach Auditorium.

Coach, "Tates" Locke. Four year record—W 65, L 37.

1968 record, W 11, L 12. Points 1615, Opp. 1251. All-time series—UM won 4, lost 3. Points, UM 572, Miami 560.

Six lettermen return, plus two men who sat out 1968. Lost are the two leading scorers. Miami's big job is tightening the defense to take up the slack. No new brilliant scorers appear to be in sight. Team has good depth and adequate height.

Eleventh Annual Hurricane Classic

Miami Beach Convention Hall

Dec. 27: First Round—Illinois vs. Creighton; Miami vs. Pittsburgh.

Dec. 28: First Game—First night's losers; second game, first night's winners.

Two All-America stars, Bob Portman of Creighton and Dave Scholz of Illinois, along with Don Curnutt of Miami and Tony DeLisio of Pittsburgh give the 1968-69 Hurricane basketball classic plenty of class.

Portman, 6-5, averaged 29.5 points and 15.4 rebounds for Creighton a year ago. Wally Anerzun, 6-8 forward who was out last season, and transfer Joe Bergman, 6-9, bring height to the Bluejays, something which was lacking in 1967-68. The club is four deep in veteran guards. Coach John McManus has a 125-105 record in nine campaigns. Creighton lost 106-93 to Miami last winter, giving the Hurricanes a 2-1 lead in the series. The scoring edge belongs to Creighton, 298-291. Creighton had an 8-17 record in 1967.

Dave Scholz, 6-8 captain and center, was Helms All-America and All Big Ten in 1967-68 as Illinois came up with an 11-13 record under new coach Harv Schmidt. Scholz averaged 22 points and 9.6 rebounds. Illinois returns six lettermen. Three other squad members and four sophomores are also available. The sophs are expected to play a lot. They are the key to the expected big Illinois surge in 1968. One newcomer, 6-8 Greg Jackson, is expected to be good enough to make it possible for Scholz to move to forward. Fred Miller, 6-4 soph, appears set to take the other forward spot. Rick Kowat, 6-2 and Bob Windmiller, 6-0, are brilliant guard prospects. Rebounding was the team's weakness a year ago and Jackson is the man expected to turn the tide in that area. This will be the first match between Illinois and Miami in basketball.

Pitt's new coach Buzz Ridl was NAIA Coach of the Year in 1962 and had a 215-90 win-loss record at Westminster College before moving to Pitt. The Panthers were 7-15 a year ago with a sophomore ball club. They have 10 lettermen back, including the team's four leading scorers. Good sophomore material is available but lack of height continues to be a problem. Tallest men are junior Charles Hunt and sophomore Bob Gailus. They're calling this the best Pitt squad since 1962-64. Miami beat the Panthers 100-84 last year to take a 5-4 lead in the all-time series between the schools, but the Hurricanes still trail in scoring, 613 to 640.

History of Hurricane Classic

(First Year)

December 29, 30, 1958, Miami Beach Auditorium
First round: Miami, Ohio, 75; N.Y.U., 55

Miami, Fla., 74; Tulane, 72

Third Place: New York U. 77; Tulane, 47.

Championship: Miami, O, 89; Miami, Fla., 87 (OT)

First night attendance, 2,342. Second night, 2,450.

All-Star team: Forwards—Ramsey, New York, and Thomas, Miami (O); guards—Hickox, Miami (F) and Hamilton, Miami (O); center—tie, Wingard Miami (O) and Klinker, Tulane.

Most valuable, Hamilton.

Vern Lawson's 15 second-half points broke up a close game as Miami of Ohio ripped New York U in the tournament opener. Dick Hickox, with 20 points, and Harry Manushaw, with 16 rebounds, paced the way for the host Hurricanes against Tulane.

New York had no trouble with Tulane, either, in the run-nerup game as Cal Ramsey hit for 27 points and picked up 16 rebounds, but the championship game, Miami against Miami was a thriller. Ron Godfrey made 24 of his 26 points in the second half. Experience told at the finish and the Hurricanes went down to defeat. Thomas, of the Ohioans, finished with 25 points.

(Second Year)

December 28, 29, 1959, Miami Beach Auditorium

First round: Xavier, 86; Florida, 74

Miami, 110; Brigham Young, 93

Third place: Brigham Young, 74; Florida, 65.

Championship: Miami, 87, Xavier, 69.

First night attendance, 3,009. Second night, 3,346.

All star team: Forward—Godfrey, Miami; guard—Hickox, Miami; center—Thobe, Xavier; guard—tie, Miller and Earnest, Brigham Young; forward, Castelle and Kirvin, Xavier.

Most valuable, Hickox.

First round games were lopsided. Miami's 110 points still stands as a tournament record while the 34 by Dick Hickox was tops until last season. Brigham Young took off early and slowly increased its margin to tame Florida.

Miami turned in a near perfect performance with Hickox scoring 26 more points to outpace Xavier. Miami led 39-28 at halftime. The Hurricanes always held the initiative.

(Third Year)

Dec. 28, 29, 1960, Miami Beach Convention Hall

First round: Holy Cross, 68; Tennessee, 67

Miami, 82; Army, 75

Third place: Tennessee, 88; Army, 71.

Championship: Miami 77, Holy Cross 71.

First night attendance, 4,116; Second night 4,305.

All-star team: Forwards—Sager, Army, and Foley, Holy Cross; guards—Shea, Holy Cross, and Hickox, Miami; center—Fisher, Tennessee.

Most valuable, Hickox.

Both first night games were rousers for one half. Tennessee, down by eight points, roared back and lost by one as Thompson's 20 rebounds and Shea's 11 of 12 free throws were just enough. Miami had a furious first half with Army leading only 39-38—but then Ron Godfrey hit for 14 in the second half and the Hurricanes sailed on to victory.

The Vols continued their hot streak the next night, and never gave Army a chance. Only Sherard's 27 points kept Army's score respectable. Miami had a rough first half against Holy Cross, leading only 37-36 as Bruce Applegate scored 12 points. Bruce added 13 more in the second half and when Godfrey recorded 12, the Hurricanes had enough to win.

(Fourth Year)

December 28, 29, 1961, Miami Beach Auditorium

First round: Temple, 70; Minnesota, 66

Miami (Fla.) 83; Miami (O.), 73

Third place: Minnesota, 98; Miami (O), 64.

Championship: Temple 85; Miami (Fla.), 67.

First night attendance, 2,973. Second night, 3,047.

All star team: Forwards—Benson, Miami (O), and Magdanz, Minnesota; guards — Cohen — Miami (Fla.), and Drysdale, Temple; center—Gordon, Temple.

Most valuable, Drysdale.

Powerful Minnesota, ahead 37-32 at half time, finally succumbed to a late Temple rush in which Dave Koskinen boosted his night's scoring total to 23. The two Miami teams had a wild first half with the Hurricanes leading 44-40 at intermission. Ken Allen's second half field goals were the difference to ice a Hurricane win.

Minnesota never let up against Miami of Ohio, leading 34-23 at half-time. The Gophers added 64 second-half points. The Hurricanes failed to make a dent in the smooth Temple attack, trailing at halftime 40-31. Drysdale made 28 for the winners. Allen kept Miami fairly close with 15 first half points. Julie Cohen scored 14 points in the second half but this was not enough to give Miami a victory.

(Fifth Year)

Dec. 27, 28, 1962, Miami Beach Convention Hall

First round: Pittsburgh, 96; Louisiana St., 73

Miami, 94; Cornell, 74

Third place: Louisiana State, 55, Cornell, 48.

Championship: Miami, 86, Pittsburgh, 85.

First night attendance, 5,116. Second night, 5,402.

All-star team: Forwards—Rick Barry, Miami, Brian Generalovich, Pittsburgh, Center—Mike McCoy, Miami, center; guards—Dave Roman, Pittsburgh, Elias Cooper, Louisiana.

Most valuable, Rick Barry.

Maury Drummond's 17 first-half points kept LSU within hailing distance of Pitt but the Panthers had things their own way in the final 20 minutes as nine men scored to increase Pitt's 46-38 edge to a big margin. Cornell made a fight of it for a half against Miami, being behind only 39-37, but Rick Barry's 25 rebounds gave Miami the openings to make it a runaway in the last half.

LSU had a little more defense than Cornell. It led 29-27 at half time and then moved steadily ahead for third place tournament honors.

Mike McCoy, Miami, and Brian Generalovich, Pitt, each made 14 first half points, but Barry's rebounding provided openings for Miami's 43-38 lead. Dave Roman scored 21 second-half points for Pitt, but Barry's rebounding was again the key and the Hurricanes hung on to win.

(Sixth Year)

Dec. 27, 28, 1963, Miami Beach Convention Hall

First round: Syracuse, 76; Princeton, 71

Miami, 79; Army, 71

Third place: Army, 60; Princeton, 56.

Championship: Syracuse, 86; Miami, 85, overtime.

First night attendance, 6,487. Second night, 6,329.

All-star team: forwards—Silliman, Army and Bradley, Princeton; guards—Dampier, Miami and Bing, Syracuse; center—Barry, Miami.

Most valuable, Dampier.

Princeton moved ahead of Syracuse 41-36 at half time and apparently had the game wrapped up when Bradley fouled out fairly early in the second half. The Tigers collapsed. A six-point lead by Princeton with 12:49 to go, was a five-point deficit at the finish.

John Dampier set a tournament record of 41 points, yet Miami had a rough time shaking stubborn Army. The Cadets were on top 38-36 at half time but had no defense for Dampier.

Army and Princeton staged a thriller, being tied at half time, but Mike Silliman produced the second-half clinchers.

An ailing Rick Barry, for Miami, and injured Rex Trobridge, for Syracuse, left both clubs weakened but the rest of the players put on one of the tournament's most thrilling games. Miami broke ahead 46-42, but ran into late trouble. With Dave Bing sparkling, Syracuse forced the game into overtime. Miami forged ahead again but made several costly errors, and finally substitute Robert Murray, a last minute addition to the Syracuse traveling roster, hit a field goal with three seconds to go and Syracuse was tournament champion, despite Dampier's 35 points.

(Seventh Year)

Dec. 28, 29, 1964, Miami Beach Convention Hall

First round: Maryland 64; Tulsa, 59

Miami 86; Yale, 71

Third place: Tulsa, 73; Yale, 61

Championship: Miami, 80; Maryland, 73

First night attendance, 5,007. Second night, 5,754.

All-star team: forwards—Barry and Beckner, Miami; center—Ward, Maryland; guards—Trupin, Yale, McMillen, Maryland.

Most valuable, Barry.

Maryland and Tulsa fought an even battle until midway in the second period when, at 48-48 — the Terps hit for eight points in a row and never were headed. Jay McMillen, with 18 points and 12 rebounds for the winners, led in both departments. Yale took a three-point lead on Miami after 6:58 but then Rick Barry went to work and the final count was 86-71. Barry, with 45 points, set a new tournament record. He had 17 rebounds.

Playing for third place, Yale broke away to an 8-4 lead, then gave up eight successive points and never could get back into contention. Yale lost 73-61 to Tulsa. Rick Park scored 20 for the winners. Bon Fedorko took down 12 rebounds.

Miami and Maryland fought a rip-snorter first half, with the midway point tally being 35-35. The lead alternated frequently. Maryland scored eight points in the first 2:01 of the second half before Miami scored. Miami three times drew even, the last time at 60-60 with eight minutes to go. Then Rick Barry and Wayne Beckner scored eight points while the Terps scored none and the issue was settled.

(Eighth Year)

Dec. 27, 28, 1965, Miami Beach Convention Hall

First round: Louisville 54; Georgia Tech 48

Miami 81; Boston U 60

Third place: Georgia Tech 83; Boston U 40

Championship: Louisville 85; Miami 84 (overtime)

First night attendance, 2,909. Second night, 4,029.

All-star team: forwards—Wittman, Miami, and Houston, Louisville; center—Unsel, Louisville; guards—Gee, Miami, and Wagner, Georgia Tech.

Most valuable, Unsel.

In the opening round, Georgia Tech fought favored Louisville down to the wire, trailing only 51-48 with 1:01 to play. Tech missed on a layup after a stolen ball and Louisville was home. Big Westley Unsel had 22 rebounds, 21 points. Miami used its entire squad to toy with Boston U. Rick Jones scored 19 Miami points.

Georgia Tech piled up a 35-22 half time lead in the third-place battle and then out-scored Boston 30 more points in the last 20 minutes with 11 Engineers each getting at least two field goals.

The championship game between Miami and Louisville went into overtime before the Kentuckians emerged the winner. Though trailing by 11 points during one stage of the clash, Miami fought back brilliantly and knotted the score. A UM field goal at the buzzer at the end of regulation time rimmed the basket and stayed out. In overtime, the Hurricanes had the lead most of the way, and at one time had a chance to pull away on missed free throws. Louisville won in the final second on a shot by Wade Houston.

(Ninth Year)

Dec. 27, 28, 1966, Miami Beach Convention Hall
First round: W's't'rn K'ntucky, 94; Holy Cr'ss, 84
Miami, 82; Pennsylvania, 78
Third place: Holy Cross, 89; Pennsylvania, 84
Championship: Western Kentucky, 94; Miami, 89

First night attendance, 3317. Second night, 4,531.

All-star team: forwards—Ed Siudut, Holy Cross; Mike Whitman, Miami; center—Billy Soens, Miami; guards—Clem Haskins, Wayne Chapman, Western Kentucky.

Most valuable, Clem Haskins.

Ed Siudut of Holy Cross fought a one-man war against Western Kentucky in the tournament opener but brilliant Clem Haskins with some hot shooting by Dwight Smith gave the edge to the Hilltoppers. Siudut, who scored 37, wiped out a first-half five point deficit as the final 20 minutes started but Haskins then hit on a jumper and the Hilltoppers stayed a half dozen points ahead the rest of the way. Miami gained a 12-4 start on Penn and stayed eight up at half time. Then the Hurricanes fought off a Penn rally which had the Ivy leaguers on top five times by a point until the final five minutes when Mike Wittman stashed away the last of his 32 points. Penn put a fairly effective clamp on Siudut and dominated the backboards in the third place due, but Ron Teixeira and Al Stazinski hit for 21 and 20 to tip the tide. It was even for seven minutes, then the Crusaders made 10 in a row and it took Penn until the last minute to catch up 69 all, sending the game into overtime. A Siudut jumper and three foul shots gave Holy Cross a bulge midway into the overtime period and Penn could only trade points from there on in. Miami scored first in the championship final but Western Kentucky moved ahead at 6-5 as Haskins made 12 points in four minutes to put the Hilltoppers 15 up after only nine minutes. The Hurricanes shaved this to six at half time. Haskins and George Smith hit on quick second half baskets but the Hurricanes kept on fighting and with Billy Soens hitting on eight straight points, came even at 79 apiece with 5:09 to go. Butch Kaufman hit on two quick jumpers and the Kentuckians were home. Greg Smith's rebounds were as helpful as Haskins' 25 points. Soens was the high man with 26 and 15 points to keep Miami in the tussle.

(Tenth Year)

Dec. 27 and 28, 1967, Miami Beach Convention Hall
First round: New York U, 93; Santa Clara, 88
Miami, 110; Dartmouth, 91
Third Place: Santa Clara, 77; Dartmouth, 69
Championship: Miami, 102; New York U, 91

First night attendance, 2,116. Second night, 2,218.

All-star team: Forwards—Rusty Parker, Miami, and Bob Ogden, Santa Clara; Center—Billy Soens, Miami; Guards—Don Curnutt, Miami, and Jim Miller, New York U.

Most valuable, Rusty Parker.

Miami equalled its own one-game scoring record and shattered its two-game total for the Classic in winning the title for the first time in three years. New York U qualified for the finals against Miami by edging Santa Clara 93-88 in a spine-tingling opening game. After a loose first half, NYU moved ahead by 13 with 9:56 to go in the game. Then, Santa Clara roared back to lead three times in the last three minutes. Aldolfo Porrata scored six points on free throws en route to a 39-point game to build the final margin. Miami never trailed as it defeated Dartmouth 110-91. Don Curnutt, Rusty Parker and Billy Soens all hit for 20 or more points.

On the final night, Santa Clara swept off to a 6-0 bulge in its game with Dartmouth and the Ivy leaguers never caught up. They fought to within three points with 1:31 to go. Bud Ogden scored 11 field goals in 12 tries and had 24 points for the winners. Henry Tyson scored 25 for the losers. In the championship game, Miami stopped Porrata, but soon Jim Miller broke loose for 35 points. Parker tallied 33 for the Hurricanes. Curnutt scored 26 points and Soens 22. Jerry Stevenson recorded 18 rebounds to give Miami a 49-31 domination of the boards. NYU led most of the first half, being in front 34-29 with 5:30 to go before Miami made its move. The Hurricanes pushed ahead 44-38 just before the half ended. The margin was cut to two points at the intermission. NYU stayed close for 12 minutes of the second half, then the Hurricanes broke through for 10 successive points in two minutes and it was all over.

Civitan Sunshine Classic

Jacksonville, Fla.

Dec. 6: First round—Miami vs Florida State; Florida vs Jacksonville.

Dec. 7: Opening round losers meet in first game; opening round winners meet in second game.

This new basketball tournament brings together four of the state's top collegiate cage teams. Miami already has games scheduled with Florida State and Jacksonville but will not meet Florida unless it is in the Civitan Classic.

Florida State received a bid to the NCAA tournament last year after finishing with a 19-8 record, but lost to East Tennessee in the opening round. Back with the Seminoles are three 1967-68 starters, including brilliant 6-9 rebounder Dave Cowens and the team's No. 2 and No. 3 men, Jeff Hogan and Jan Gies. Hugh Durham goes into his third year as Seminole head coach with a 30-23 record.

Florida is built around All-America hopeful Neal Walk, 6-10 center who averaged 26.5 points and had a 19.8 rebounding mark as a junior. Jeff Miller comes off the frosh squad with a 19.6 scoring mark and should be a sparkler. The Gators retain seven lettermen in all from their 1967-68 team, which finished with a 15-10 record. Coach Tommy Bartlett is 37-14 over two seasons.

Jacksonville finished 13-13 in a 1967-68 rebuilding year and expects greater things this season as only one starter graduated. Rod McIntyre, 6-8, is the key man both ways. Much is expected also of Rod Morgan, 6-4 junior college sensation. Joe Williams starts his fourth season as head coach with a 50-52 overall record.

Marshall Univ. Tournament

Huntington, W. Va.

Dec. 20: First round—Miami vs. Yale; Maryland vs. Marshall.

Dec. 21: First Game between first night's losers
Second game—championship between first night's winners.

University of Miami will play in the second annual Marshall Invitational this year, meeting the Yale Bulldogs. The Hurricanes have faced all three of the tournament contenders in previous years. Yale defeated Miami 78-62 in 1951 and 70-68 in 1952, but the Hurricanes won 92-90 in 1956 and 86-71 in 1965. Yale had a 15-9 overall record last year and finished third in the Ivy League with an 8-6 mark. Joe Vancisin has a 12-year tenure at Yale and his 155-124 record makes him Yale's all-time winningest coach. This year's team is built around John Whiston, 6-9 center and only returning starter. Jim Morgan, a 5-11 sophomore who averaged 28.1 points per game as a freshman, is sure of one guard spot, while Thatcher Shellaby, 6-3 letterman, will play forward. Other spots are up for grabs.

Maryland, beaten by Miami a year ago, retains four of its top scorers and had added Mickey Wiles, a brilliant guard who transferred to Maryland after lettering at Georgia. The Terps will be taller than a year ago and have more experience. Coach Frank Fellows is starting his second year. His team finished 8-16 last season.

Host Marshall University finished 17-8 last year. The school retains two starters among its eight lettermen. Coach Ellis Johnson, 228-218 in 20 years, is optimistic. He says he has lots of depth but must replace his leading scorer George Stone (23.7) and top rebounder Bob Allen (35.4) before he can be sure of repeating last year's winning record. The last meeting between Miami and Marshall was in 1942 with Marshall winning 37-33.

MIAMI'S ALL-AMERICANS

University of Miami has produced two full-fledged All-America basketball players—Dick Hickox and Rick Barry.

The diminutive Hickox was named to the 1959-60 All-America and Rick Barry to the 1964-65 team. Barry was consensus All-America and was national scoring champion with an average of 37.4 points per game.

The fabulous Barry started his varsity career at UM in 1962-63 and when he had completed his career, he had the highest two single season point years ever put together by a Hurricane player. His 2,298 career scoring total—a UM record—is one of the highest in the history of college basketball.

Rick broke all of the other marks in the UM book except for free throws in a game—which mark he shares with Ron Godfrey, U-Miami head coach. He topped the Miami team in scoring as a junior and a senior. Rick missed four games in his sophomore year or he would undoubtedly have led the team scoring in that campaign also—and would have come close to the top of the all-time scorers in NCAA records.

Six of Barry's games during the 1964-65 season (senior year) were better than 50 point games. In one clash, he hit a high of 59. In a game against the famed Houston team, he tallied 50 points.

Miami's other All-America cage star, Hickox, wound up his UM career in 1961 with 1,529 points, highest ever for a guard at Miami. He led Miami in scoring all three of his varsity years with the Hurricanes.
