

2001-02 Season Review

The 2001-02 season began with the numbers "13-0." That is what junior forward James Jones wrote on the blackboard at the team's first preseason meeting knowing that if the team could go 13-0 during its non-conference schedule a return to the NCAA Tournament would be within their grasp.

Well the Hurricanes did one better opening the season 14-0 en route to a 24-8 record and the school's fourth NCAA Tournament berth in the last five seasons. Along the way Miami set a school-record for wins in a season (24), three-point field goals (236), three-point field goal attempts (284), blocked shots (190) and consecutive victories (14).

The Hurricanes were one of the most balanced teams in the nation as all five starters averaged in double-figures. Senior John Salmons became the 24th Miami player to surpass 1,000 career points and sophomore Marcus Barnes made (79) and attempted (229) more three-point baskets than anyone else in UM history.

Miami was barely a blip on the college basketball radar screen when they traveled to St. Thomas to start the season at the Virgin Islands Paradise Jam. The Hurricanes opened the season in strong fashion winning games over Eastern Michigan, Alabama-Birmingham and Clemson to secure their first tournament title since 1988. John Salmons recorded 18 points and 10 rebounds to lead Miami to a 67-65 win over Clemson in the championship game and was named the tournament's MVP.

Miami continued its winning ways improving to 8-0 with wins over Lafayette, Florida Atlantic, Howard, Florida International and Texas A&M before taking on legendary Indiana at the Orange Bowl Basketball Classic.

In what many considered to be the Hurricanes' first real test of the season, Miami came through with flying colors defeating the eventual NCAA Championship runner-up 58-53. James Jones was voted the game's MVP after a stellar 13 point, 13 rebound and five block performance against the Hoosiers.

Three days later the Hurricanes defeated Florida A&M, 90-62, to set a UM record for consecutive wins to open a season (10-0).

In Miami's next game against defending Conference USA Champion Charlotte, John Salmons scores 15 points in the 64-56 win to become the 24th player in UM history to surpass 1,000 career points. Salmons, who added 10 assists and nine rebounds, was one rebound shy of the first triple-double in school-history.

The win propelled the Hurricanes into the national polls as Miami debuted at No. 24 in the Associated Press poll and at No. 23 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll on December 24.

The Hurricanes quest for a perfect non-conference record would be realized as Miami defeated LSU, 68-61, at the Sugar Bowl Basketball Classic in New Orleans before returning home for a 71-48 win over St. Francis (PA) at Miami Arena.

With the non-conference portion of the schedule completed the Hurricanes turned their attention towards the BIG EAST Conference. Miami opened conference play with an 11-day four game road trip starting at Georgetown.

Miami defeated 24th-ranked Georgetown, 79-71, at the MCI Center to improve to 14-0 on the year and tie the school-record for consecutive victories. The Hurricanes, however, would soon hit a bump in the road at Storrs, CT.

Fighting for their postseason lives, Connecticut played what some thought was their best game of the season defeating the Hurricanes 76-75. Miami then traveled to New York to face St. John's.

The game was played on campus at Alumni Hall rather than at Madison Square Garden. John Salmons, suffering from the flu, struggled and the Hurricanes fell for the second straight game, 71-60.

Miami concluded the road trip with a 77-68 win over Virginia Tech and looked forward to its next five game at home. Miami opened its home stand with a 76-69 double-overtime win against Pittsburgh, followed by a 102-96 overtime win against Providence. The Hurricanes rallied from a 13-point second-half deficit against the Friars tying the UM BIG EAST record.

Miami defeated Villanova, 76-58, behind Darius Rice's 30 points and 10 rebounds before dropping its first home-game of the season, a 70-65 loss to Boston College.

In another Miami-Connecticut thriller, the Hurricanes exacted some measure of revenge for its first loss of the season with a 68-66 over the Huskies at Miami Arena. The win marked the eighth consecutive season in which Miami had defeated a ranked team at home. Connecticut entered the game ranked 17th in the nation.

With the win the Hurricanes reached a season-high national ranking of 12th by the Associated Press and 11th in the ESPN/USA Today poll released on February 4.

Miami posted its 20th win of the season on the road against Villanova on February 5th before suffering through a two-week span which saw UM drop three of its next four games.

The Hurricanes ended the regular-season on a high note defeating Providence, 81-65, on the road and Virginia Tech, 83-77, on Senior Day at Miami Arena. Miami's win over Providence was its 22nd win of the season marking the most regular season wins since joining the BIG EAST in 1991.

Following the season, John Salmons and Darius Rice were named second-team All-BIG EAST while James Jones was third-team All-BIG EAST selection. Salmons also received the first BIG EAST Sportsmanship Award.

Miami entered the BIG EAST Championship with confidence and conviction. There quarterfinal match-up with Georgetown was a classic. Trailing by 10 with just under eight minutes remaining, the Hurricanes, behind Marcus Barnes' career-high 27 points, rallied back to beat the Hoyas, 84-76, in overtime. The Hurricanes' win established a school-record for wins in a season.

The Hurricanes' quest for their first BIG EAST Tournament title fell short in the semifinals as Pittsburgh defeated Miami, 76-71. Despite the semifinal loss Marcus Barnes was named to the BIG EAST Championship All-Tournament team after averaging 23.5 points in the two tournament games.

Two days later Miami received its fourth NCAA Tournament berth in the last five seasons. Miami was seeded 5th and would face 12th-seeded Missouri in Albuquerque, NM.

Missouri, led by Clarence Gilbert's 20 points, had six players score in double-figures and the Tigers ended Miami's season with a 93-80 win in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Rice finished with 23 points, his second consecutive 20-point game to open the season, and a team-high seven rebounds. Barnes ended with 19 connecting on five of 12 three-point attempts.

Miami extended its lead to 13 (56-43) following two free throws from Barnes at the 12:35 mark. UAB then went on a 10-0 run to cut the lead to only three with 10:09 to play.

After a free throw from Salmons made the score 81-79 with 10 seconds left, the UM defense smothered the Blazers who were unable to get a shot off before the buzzer.

2001-02 Season Recap and Boxscores

Game 9 - MIAMI 58, No. 21 INDIANA 53
December 15, 2001
American Airlines Arena, Miami, FL

James Jones recorded his second double-double of the season with 13 points and 13 rebounds, and also registered five blocks to lead the University of Miami to a 58-53 win over No. 21 Indiana in the Orange Bowl Classic.

With the win the Hurricanes (9-0) matched the best start in school history. Following the game Jones was named Orange Bowl MVP.

Miami held Indiana to a season-low 33 percent shooting, including 1-for-15 from 3-point range. The Hoosiers also shot themselves in the foot connecting on just 12-for-25 at the free-throw line.

Tom Coverdale scored 16 points and sophomore George Leach had a career-high 10 to lead Indiana. Elton Tyler and John Salmons each scored 12 points for the Hurricanes.

With the score tied at 31-31, the Hurricanes ran off seven consecutive points early in the second half to take their biggest lead. Darius Rice dunked on an alley-oop from Salmons with 14 minutes left to make it 36-31. Salmons was then fouled intentionally on a breakaway by Jeff Newton and made both free throws for a 38-31 lead.

With 30 seconds left, Coverdale missed a 3-point attempt that would have tied the game at 54. Barnes then made three free throws and Jones added one to clinch the win.

2001-02 Season Recap and Boxscores

Game 15 - CONNECTICUT 76, No. 21 MIAMI 75 January 5, 2002 Gampel Pavilion, Storrs, CT

Johnnie Selvie made two free throws with 5.7 seconds remaining as Connecticut beat No. 21 Miami 76-75 at Gampel Pavilion in Storrs, CT, snapping the Hurricanes' 14-game winning streak.

Selvie was fouled as he tried to put back a Tony Robertson miss. It was a redemption for Selvie who, a minute earlier, threw away a pass with 1:04 left. The turnover led to a Darius Rice 3-pointer that put the Hurricanes up 75-74 with 36.5 seconds left.

Miami had one more chance to score as John Salmons took the inbounds pass, drove the lane and put up a shot that missed wide.

Caron Butler led the Huskies with 18 points.

The Huskies trailed 43-38 at the break but worked their way back by dominating the post and getting most of their starters back after a foul-filled first half.

The Huskies outrebounded the Hurricanes 41-28 and outscored Miami 40-26 in the paint. Selvie finished with 12 points and had a team-high eight boards.

The Hurricanes rallied back from three 10-point deficits in the second half.

Rice led Miami with 22 points, and Salmons added 17.

Game 17 - No. 21 MIAMI 77, VIRGINIA TECH 68 January 12, 2002 Cassell Coliseum, Blacksburg, VA

Elton Tyler scored a season-high 20 points to lead the University of Miami to a 77-68 victory over Virginia Tech in Blacksburg, VA. The win snapped the Hurricanes' two-game losing streak.

The Hurricanes received 18 points from Marcus Barnes and 16 from Darius Rice. Miami finished the four-game conference-opening road trip 2-2.

Rice hit two 3-pointers in the final three minutes to help Miami seal the victory.

The Hokies used an 11-7 run to get within one point with 3:50 left. But Miami went 6-for-6 from the line over the final 36 seconds and held the Hokies to one field goal over the final two minutes.

Terry Taylor led the Hokies with 17 points, but was held to just two field goals in the second-half.

Miami had trouble with the Hokies' zone defense in the first half, shooting mostly from the perimeter and getting outrebounded 19-14. Taylor's layup gave the Hokies a 23-15 lead after 10:42, but the Hurricanes clamped down on defense, double-teaming Taylor and allowing only one field goal over the final 9:18.

Game 31 - No. 7 PITTSBURGH 76, No. 20 MIAMI 71 BIG EAST Championship Semifinals March 8, 2002 Madison Square Garden, New York, NY

Brandin Knight and Julius Page took over down the stretch and led No. 7 Pittsburgh to a 76-71 win over No. 20 Miami in the semifinals of the BIG EAST Tournament.

Knight tied the tournament record with 14 assists and scored 20 points for the Panthers. Miami which got a career-high 30 points from Elton Tyler, led 58-54, and Pitt was in trouble with big man Ontario Lett charged with his fourth personal foul with 8:06 to play.

But Knight and Page, who had 16 points, would not let the Panthers fall any farther behind. Page hit a pair of 3-pointers and saved the ball in a scramble, finding Lett for a basket that put Pitt in front at 61-60. Two straight baskets by Jaron Brown opened the lead to 68-62. Then Knight, the conference co-player of the year, scored and hit Page with an alley-oop pass for another basket.

With Pitt holding a nine-point lead at 74-65, Miami made its run. A basket and free throw by Tyler and a 3-pointer by John Salmons made it 74-71, and the Hurricanes had the ball with 24 seconds to play.

But Salmons' pass glanced off Tyler's hands under the basket, and Page added a pair of free throws to seal the victory. Marcus Barnes scored 20 points, and Salmons had 10 for Miami. Lett finished with 13 points, and Brown had 10 for Pittsburgh.
