HEAD COACH KEN MASUHR

FIRST SEASON | STOCKTON, 2005

Career Record: 0-2-1 | UM Record: 0-2-1 | ACC Record: 0-0-0

Ken Masuhr was announced as the sixth head coach in program history Tuesday, Dec. 5, as made public by Vice President/Director of Athletics Dan Radakovich. Masuhr (pronounced Muh-suhr) comes to Coral Gables after spending nine seasons at Vanderbilt, the past six as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator.

During Masuhr's tenure in Nashville on head coach Darren Ambrose's staff, the Commodores captured five NCAA Tournament berths as well as an SEC regular season crown in 2018, an SEC East Division title in 2019 and an SEC Tournament championship in 2020. Vanderbilt defeated 16 ranked teams over that stretch after registering just eight wins over ranked teams in program history prior to Ambrose and Masuhr's arrival in 2015.

Masuhr focused on the Commodores' defensive unit and developed some of the stingiest back lines in the SEC while also tutoring players like Myra Konte, who became the first Vanderbilt player selected in the NWSL Draft in January 2021 when she was picked 30th overall by the North Carolina Courage. Masuhr helped the Commodores recruit an All-SEC Freshman honoree in each of his seasons in Nashville.

In 2022, Masuhr helped Vanderbilt earn its fifth NCAA Tournament bid in six seasons and defeat Clemson in the first round. Vanderbilt's 2020 SEC Tournament title was the first tournament title for the program since 1994, and its 14 goals during the tournament set a conference record. Masuhr and the Commodores rose to No. 4 in the nation — their highest ranking in program history — and earned their first-ever NCAA Tournament seed at No. 16.

While winning the SEC East in 2019, Masuhr's stout defense only allowed 13 goals all season — good for the second-best mark in program history. Vanderbilt also posted 11 shutouts, making that the third-best mark in program history. In 2018, the Commodores reached the NCAA Tournament and hosted a postseason game for the first time since 2005. The 2017 campaign was a breakthrough season for Masuhr and the Commodores as VU made its first NCAA Tournament since the 2006 season and won the program's first NCAA Tournament match since 1998, holding opponents to one goal or fewer in 17 of 22 games.

Prior to arriving in Nashville, Masuhr spent four seasons at Penn on Ambrose's staff. The Quakers never allowed more than 19 goals over those four seasons, and the team led the nation in shutout percentage and set a program record by allowing just seven goals in 2011. In 2013, Penn recorded 12 shutouts, yielded just eight goals and went 12-1-4, setting a program record for fewest losses in a season.

Masuhr joined Penn from Monmouth, where he spent two seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator with the Hawks. In his first season, Monmouth won the Northeast Conference (NEC) Tournament championship and advanced to the first round of NCAAAs.

Masuhr graduated from Richard Stockton with a bachelor's degree in psychology, and he also holds a Master's of Public Administration degree from Kean University. As a coach, Masuhr has an "A" license from the United States Soccer Federation (USSF) as well as the Premier Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

Masuhr and his wife Megan, the varsity girls soccer coach at the University School of Nashville, have two children, Landon and Miller.

PREVIEW

Coming off a two-game road swing in which the University of Miami Soccer team earned a 1-1 tie at Florida Atlantic before dropping a tightly-contested match at Princeton by a score of 1-0, the Hurricanes will return home to host SEC-foe Missouri.

Despite not coming out on top, Miami had an impressive performance at Princeton. The Canes dominated possession throughout the match and recorded 12 total shots, five of which were on target. Miami conceded a goal early in the second half that proved to be the difference in the match, as the Canes fell 1-0 to the Tigers.

Offensively, Giovana Canali has been highly impressive for Miami throughout the season so far. The freshman from Boca Raton, Florida has recorded eight shots, five of which she placed on frame, and she scored one goal in the Canes' 1-1 draw at FAU. Canali made her first start of the season at Princeton, tallying 54 minutes of action and recording two shots throughout the match.

Kyla Gallagher has also been impressive for Miami in her first season with the Canes. Gallagher has started all three matches for Miami, and the graduate student who transferred in from Providence this past offseason has compiled four shots, two of which came against Princeton.

The Canes' back line has been consistent and reliable so far this season, as Tori Grambo, Emilie McCartney and goalkeeper Claireese Foley have each played 270 minutes through three matches. Foley, a redshirt-freshman, posted eight saves throughout the 2024 campaign, including recording a career-high five saves against Princeton.

Miami will now turn their attention to a talented Missouri team in the third matchup between the two programs throughout history, including the first in Coral Gables.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

Missouri enters Thursday night's match with a record of 1-2-1, however, they have faced two ranked opponents in their first four matches. The Tigers picked up their lone victory against Missouri State in their season-opening contest, and they also secured a 1-1 tie against Illinois. Missouri's losses have come against No. 10 Memphis and most recently No. 23 Saint Louis.

Senior midfielder Milena Fischer has highlighted the Tigers' offense so far this season. Fischer has scored two of Missouri's three goals this year, finding the back of the net in the season-opening win over Missouri State as well as the Tigers' 1-1 draw at Illinois.

Junior midfielder Keegan Good has also scored a goal this year, notching one in Missouri's victory over Missouri State.

Redshirt-junior Bella Hollenbach has started all four games in the net for the Tigers, and she has compiled 14 saves, while allowing five goals.

Miami will aim to earn their first victory of the 2024 campaign against a formidable opponent Thursday evening, as they continue to prepare for ACC play.

CANES CAPTAINS

• Three Hurricanes will serve as team captains for the upcoming season – Adrianna Serna, Julia Edwards and Reese Wheeler.

> Serna has played in 39 games for her career, starting 18. The defender has scored two goals and assisted on another two across 1,910 minutes of time on the field.

> Edwards enters the season as a graduate student, having earned four letters at the University of Miami with 55 games logged and another 32 started. Edwards started 10 games in each of the last two seasons, logging 2,788 minutes for her career.

> Wheeler is a redshirt-sophomore, having played in 17 games while starting eight contests. She won the game against Louisville a year ago with a game-winning goal in the 90th minute.

NEW LOOK CANES

• The Hurricanes brought in 17 newcomers ahead of this season, nine transfer student-athletes and eight freshmen.

• Six of the nine transfers entered Miami as graduate students, while Zoe Shepherd joins the team as a junior and both Crosby Nicholson and Maddie Landers will start their sophomore year at Miami.

• Three of the eight freshmen hail from the state of Florida, while the other five are spread across the nation from Maine all the way to California.
