HEAD COACH KEN MASUHR

First Season | Stockton, 2005

Career Record: 4-6-3 | UM Record: 4-6-3 | ACC Record: 0-4-2

Ken Masuhr was announced as the sixth head coach in program history Tuesday, Dec. 5, as made public by Vice President/Director of Athletics Dan Radakovich. Masuhr (pronounced Muh-suhr) comes to Coral Gables after spending nine seasons at Vanderbilt, the past six as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator.

During Masuhr's tenure in Nashville on head coach Darren Ambrose's staff, the Commodores captured five NCAA Tournament berths as well as an SEC regular season crown in 2018, an SEC East Division title in 2019 and an SEC Tournament championship in 2020. Vanderbilt defeated 16 ranked teams over that stretch after registering just eight wins over ranked teams in program history prior to Ambrose and Masuhr's arrival in 2015.

Masuhr focused on the Commodores' defensive unit and developed some of the stingiest back lines in the SEC while also tutoring players like Myra Konte, who became the first Vanderbilt player selected in the NWSL Draft in January 2021 when she was picked 30th overall by the North Carolina Courage. Masuhr helped the Commodores recruit an All-SEC Freshman honoree in each of his seasons in Nashville.

In 2022, Masuhr helped Vanderbilt earn its fifth NCAA Tournament bid in six seasons and defeat Clemson in the first round. Vanderbilt's 2020 SEC Tournament title was the first tournament title for the program since 1994, and its 14 goals during the tournament set a conference record. Masuhr and the Commodores rose to No. 4 in the nation — their highest ranking in program history — and earned their first-ever NCAA Tournament seed at No. 16.

While winning the SEC East in 2019, Masuhr's stout defense only allowed 13 goals all season – good for the second-best mark in program history. Vanderbilt also posted 11 shutouts, making that the third-best mark in program history. In 2018, the Commodores reached the NCAA Tournament and hosted a postseason game for the first time since 2005. The 2017 campaign was a breakthrough season for Masuhr and the Commodores as VU made its first NCAA Tournament since the 2006 season and won the program's first NCAA Tournament match since 1998, holding opponents to one goal or fewer in 17 of 22 games.

Prior to arriving in Nashville, Masuhr spent four seasons at Penn on Ambrose's staff. The Quakers never allowed more than 19 goals over those four seasons, and the team led the nation in shutout percentage and set a program record by allowing just seven goals in 2011. In 2013, Penn recorded 12 shutouts, yielded just eight goals and went 12-1-4, setting a program record for fewest losses in a season.

Masuhr joined Penn from Monmouth, where he spent two seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator with the Hawks. In his first season, Monmouth won the Northeast Conference (NEC) Tournament championship and advanced to the first round of NCAAs.

Masuhr graduated from Richard Stockton with a bachelor's degree in psychology, and he also holds a Master's of Public Administration degree from Kean University. As a coach, Masuhr has an "A" license from the United States Soccer Federation (USSF) as well as the Premier Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

Masuhr and his wife Megan, the varsity girls soccer coach at the University School of Nashville, have two children, Landon and Miller.

PREVIEW

Coming off a narrow 2-1 defeat on the road at the hands of Clemson, the University of Miami soccer team will return home Thursday evening to host Pitt for Senior Night. The Hurricanes will honor nine seniors prior to the game.

Miami enters the match against Pitt after most recently suffering a heartbreaking 2-1 defeat at Clemson.

The Canes fell behind early in the match, as the Tigers scored in the seventh minute to build a 1-0 lead.

Miami responded quickly, firing off a few shots over the next 20 minutes, before breaking through in the 31st minute. After earning a corner kick, Tori Grambo played a short pass to Gisselle Kozarski off the corner. Kozarski proceeded to play a dangerous one-touch cross into the box. JJ Ndaw made her run in as Kozarski played the pass, and Ndaw headed the ball perfectly into the bottom left corner of the goal, evening the match at 1-1. Grambo earned her third assist of the season, while Kozarski picked her second of the 2024 campaign. The goal was Ndaw's first of the season.

After a back-and-forth second period, the Tigers managed to score the game-winning goal in the 80th minute, as they went on to defeat Miami, 2-1.

The Canes have played much better on their home field this season, as they own a record of 4-2-2 at Cobb Stadium this year, versus a mark of 0-4-1 on the road.

Freshman Giovana Canali continues to pace Miami in goals (8), points (16), shots (51), shots on goal (27), and game-winning goals (2) this season. In the ACC, Canali ranks third in shots per goal average (2.08), fourth in shots per game (3.77), and tied for fourth in goals (8). Among freshmen in the conference, Canali is second in goals this season. She was recently ranked as the 17th best freshman in the country by Top Drawer Soccer.

Miami's freshman class has been highly impressive throughout the season, particularly Canali, Ciara Alarcon, Jessica Kaye, and Moira Flynn. Alarcon has played in all 13 games and ranks first on the team in assists (4), while scoring one goal. Kaye has played admirably on the back line for the Canes, and she has played a full 90 minutes in each of the past four games for Miami.

The Canes will need a tremendous defensive effort to earn a victory on Thursday, as they are set to face a Pitt team who has been exceptional offensively this season.

SCOUTING THE PANTHERS

The Panthers enter Thursday night's contest ranked first in the ACC in shots (339) and tied for second in goals (37) this season.

Pitt has won back-to-back matches ahead of Thursday's contest, most recently earning a 3-0 victory over Syracuse on Sunday.

Individually, the Panthers have six different players who have scored multiple goals this season, including three who have scored five or more goals. Senior forward Sarah Schupansky has been sensational for Pitt this season. She currently ranks first in the nation in assists, as she has recorded 15 this season.

Schupansky has also scored six goals, marking the second most on the team so far. Fellow senior forward Samiah Phiri ranks first on the team and tied for fourth in the conference in goals this season (8), while also recording three assists. Senior midfielder Keera Melenhorst has also been highly impressive this season, as she has scored five goals and compiled five assists.

CANES CAPTAINS

• Three Hurricanes will serve as team captains for this season – Adrianna Serna, Julia Edwards and Reese Wheeler.

> Serna has played in 39 games for her career, starting 18. The defender has scored two goals and assisted on another two across 1,910 minutes of time on the field.

> Edwards enters the season as a graduate student, having earned four letters at the University of Miami with 55 games logged and another 32 started. Edwards started 10 games in each of the last two seasons, logging 2,788 minutes for her career.

> Wheeler is a redshirt-sophomore, having played in 17 games while starting eight contests. She won the game against Louisville a year ago with a game-winning goal in the 90th minute.

NEW LOOK CANES

• The Hurricanes brought in 17 newcomers ahead of this season, nine transfer student-athletes and eight freshmen.

• Six of the nine transfers entered Miami as graduate students, while Zoe Shepherd joins the team as a junior and both Crosby Nicholson and Maddie Landers will start their sophomore year at Miami.

• Three of the eight freshmen hail from the state of Florida, while the other five are spread across the nation from Maine all the way to California.
