GAYLE FULKS

Head Coach - 9th Season (123-115) - Fairleigh Dickinson '07

Coming off one of the most successful campaigns in program history, Gayle Fulks is entering her ninth season at the helm of the Davidson College women's basketball program.

Named the 12th head coach in school history on May 10, 2017, eight years later Fulks has guided the Wildcats to 123 wins and three postseason appearances, including the 2025 WBIT. In addition to ranking second on Davidson's all-time wins list, Fulks has coached 15 all-conference performers, while leading her club to a number of record-setting performances along the way.

Along with 18 conference games for the first time in A-10 play, the 2024-25 campaign yet again featured one of the nation's toughest non-conference slates. The Wildcats rose to the challenge posting 19 victories, their most under Fulks, and a program-best 13 league wins en route to a third-place finish, their highest since joining the league in 2014.

Davidson's 13 wins in Atlantic 10 play weren't the only standard set last season. The Wildcats proved to be one of the most efficient and productive teams from the outside making a school-record 241 highlighted by eight games with at least 10 made 3-pointers. They also ranked among national leaders in 3-pointer differential (5th), 3-point defense (1st) and assists per game against (1st). In conference play, no team was better in blocks, points allowed, field-goal percentage defense and 3-point field goal percentage defense.

The 2024-25 season was capped by Davidson's first-ever at-large selection into the Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament (WBIT), where the Wildcats traveled to 30-game winner and Sun Belt regular season champion James Madison.

This most recent season comes after a successful 2023-24 where the team posted an 18-8 record to go along with a .692 winning percentage that ranked the third best in program history, while the 18 wins were tied for the most in a season since 2013. Davidson got off to an accelerated start with a 12-1 record including two wins over ACC opponents and their first-ever win over a ranked team. In mid-November, the 'Cats traveled to Cameron Indoor Stadium and earned a 69-62 win over Duke, which was receiving votes in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll and was No. 22 in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Poll. The noteworthy win over the Blue Devils ignited a 10-game winning streak for Davidson, which was the program's longest in 29 years.

Fulks' sixth season welcomed milestone victories for the Davidson women's basketball program, as the Wildcats defeated Morgan State on Dec. 28, 2022 for the program's 500th win and a 68-55 defeat of crosstown rival Charlotte captured the inaugural 704 Cup trophy. Throughout the campaign, Fulks coached Elle Sutphin, an Atlantic 10 Preseason All-Conference selection, to a Second Team All-Conference honor at the conclusion of the year. The redshirt-junior averaged 16.4 points per game during the regular season while shooting 49.3 percent from the floor and a nationally-ranked 88.3 percent from the free throw line.

The 2021-22 season saw Fulks and the 'Cats conclude the season at the WBI for the program's fifth all-time postseason appearance. There, Davidson defeated Northeastern and Austin Peay to capture the most postseason victories in a single-season in program history, while ending the season at 18-15 overall, which marked the most wins in a single-season since 2012-13 and the most in Fulks' tenure.

The 2019-20 season was another successful campaign for Fulks and the women's basketball program. The Wildcats finished with a 16-15 record, their second straight season with a winning mark, and reached the A-10 Championship quarterfinals for the second consecutive season as well. The team got off to a program-best 5-0 record to start league play, which was its longest winning streak of the season and the longest overall since a six-game streak during the 2012-13 season.

Fulks had the honor of coaching the A-10 Rookie of the Year Suzi-Rose Deegan, the first Wildcat to earn the league's top rookie award since Davidson joined the A-10 in 2014-15 and just the third player overall in program history to claim rookie of the year. Deegan was also named to the A-10 All-First Team, while Katie Turner earned a spot on the league's all-third team for a second year in a row.

Davidson (17-15) made great strides during Fulks' second year, finishing tied for fourth in the A-10 standings after being picked to finish 11th in the preseason poll. The Wildcats went a program-best 10-6 in league play and won the program's first game in the A-10 Championship with a first-round victory against St. Bonaventure.

It was a solid first year for Fulks as a head coach at Davidson during the 2017-18 season. The Wildcats doubled their win total from the previous season by going 12-18 overall and 7-9 in Atlantic 10 play. Fulks earned her first career coaching victory with a 70-57 triumph at Western Carolina, Nov. 10. She became the third Wildcat head coach in the program's 39-year history to start a career with a win. It was also Davidson's 10th straight win in the series vs. the Catamounts.

Fulks came to Davidson from Wake Forest University, where she spent five years as an assistant coach under Jen Hoover. The last two seasons while there, 2015-16 & 2016-17, Wake Forest earned at-large bids to the Women's NIT, reaching the second round both seasons during Fulks' tenure.

During the 2016-17 season, the Demon Deacons went 17-16 overall and earned a win over Bethune-Cookman in the first round of the WNIT before falling to Middle Tennessee State to end their season.

In addition to helping the Demon Deacons to consecutive NIT appearances the last two seasons, Fulks was recognized during the 2015-16 campaign as one of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's (WBCA) Thirty Under 30 honorees. The award is given annually to up-and-coming coaches 30 years old and younger, to recognize their involvement in community service, mentorship and impact on others' professional manner and attitude as well as association involvement.

In her first season with the Deacs, she helped guide one of the top-scoring backcourts in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Point guard Chelsea Douglas led the team in scoring at 14.6 points per game, while Lakevia Boykin was right behind her at 14.4 points. The two combined to make 134 three-pointers on the season, with Douglas' 72 ranking as the third-most for a single-season in school history.

Fulks joined the Wake Forest staff after one season as an assistant coach at UNC Greensboro in 2011-12. With the Spartans, Fulks assisted with academics, recruiting, scouting, game preparation and practice planning, along with player development. She also served as the team's academic liaison.

Fulks broke into the coaching ranks at Longwood University, where she was on staff from 2007-11. In her first season with the Lancers, they went 16-13, notching the program's best win total in its Division I era at the time.

Prior to her first collegiate job, Fulks served as the Assistant Video Coordinator during the 2007 season for the WNBA's New York Liberty, where she assisted with scouting reports and film exchange.

A four-year letterwinner at Fairleigh Dickinson, Fulks was a co-captain and member of the Northeast Conference All-Academic squad. She graduated in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in business management.

The Wildcats proved to be one of the most efficient and productive teams from the outside, making a school-record 241 3-pointers, highlighted by eight games with at least 10 made threes. They also ranked among national leaders in 3-pointer differential (5th), 3-point defense (1st) and assists per game against (1st). On Friday, Davidson Vice President and Director of Athletics Chris Clunie announced a contract extension for head women’s basketball coach Gayle Fulks through the 2032 season.
