THE OPENING TIP

CRYSTAL CLEAR

Junior leader Crystal Henderson was named to the 2025-26 Preseason All-Sun Belt Second Team following a stellar 2024-25 campaign. Henderson led the Sun Belt in minutes per game, ranked second in the conference in steals and steals per game, and finished fourth in assists and assist-to-turnover ratio. She was also named 2023-24 Sun Belt Freshman of the Year after leading all Sun Belt freshmen in scoring, steals and assists, and finishing top five in assists among all freshmen in the NCAA during the 2023-24 season. Henderson's honors marked the third Freshman of the Year honors in program history, and the first since the 2016-17 season.

SO INTERNATIONAL

Georgia State's roster features international flare with Finland native Monna Julkunen and Ana Luiza Ramos Pires from São Paulo, Brazil. A returning sophomore, Julkunen brings experience in Blue and White after appearing in 24 games last season. Pires joins the Panthers as a transfer from Garden City Community College, where she started nearly every game over two seasons.

HOLLOMAN HONORS

Graduate student Cheyenne Holloman was named a 2026 Kay Yow Servant Leader Award recipient, recognizing her dedication to service and leadership beyond the court. Presented by the Kay Yow Cancer Fund, the award honors collegiate athletes who exemplify the values of legendary NC State coach Kay Yow, whose legacy continues through the fund's mission to advance cancer research and support women impacted by the disease.

FRESH FACES

Georgia State welcomes six new faces to the roster for 2025-26, including two freshmen and four transfers ready to make an impact. Freshmen Savannah Robinson-Holmes and Grace Lanier bring youthful energy and potential, while transfers Ana Luiza Ramos Pires (Garden City CC), Nari Powers (Salt Lake CC), Ari Dyson (Trinity Valley CC), and ACC Power Four standout Gabbie Grooms brings collegiate experience and depth to bolster the Panthers' lineup.

Gene Hill is in his sixth season as the head coach of the Georgia State women's basketball program.

Named the Georgia State head coach by Director of Athletics Charlie Cobb on April 19, 2018, Hill brought strong ties to Atlanta and a track record of winning as an assistant coach at Power 5 conference programs. He took over as the 11th head coach in GSU history after five seasons on the staff at NC State, which followed a four-year stint at Georgia Tech.

In his first season at the helm, Hill led the Panthers to a historic season in 2018-19, going 17-14 (11-7 Sun Belt) and earning a bid to the WBI, GSU's first postseason appearance since 2003. Hill's first year marked the winningest season in GSU history since 2003-04. The seven-win improvement in conference play from the previous year ranked fifth in Division I, and the team's 11 Sun Belt wins were the most conference wins for GSU since 2004-05. Jada Lewis earned All-Sun Belt honors along with Allison Johnson, and Johnson was named Sun Belt Newcomer of the Year. The Panthers set a school single-season record for most 3-pointers made.

He led one of the youngest teams in Division I in 2019-20 with six freshmen averaging at least 10 minutes per game. The Panthers defeated New Mexico State on Nov. 29 in El Paso, Texas for the program's 600th win. Senior Shaq Miller-McCray ranked in the national Top 25 with 71 blocked shots on the season, and redshirt junior Jada Lewis became the 22nd Panther all-time to reach 1,000 career points.

Hill and his staff navigated the Covid-19 environment throughout a challenging 2020-21 season, leading GSU to a winning season for the second time in his first three years. The Panthers won the final three games of the regular season to earn the No. 2 seed in the East at the conference tournament. It was the first time the program had earned a No. 2 seed since 2001. Taylor Hosendove earned All-Sun Belt honors after ranking 11th in the league in scoring and fifth in rebounding.

In his fourth season, Hill finished the 2021-22 campaign 13-16 overall. The team held an overall GPA of 3.38, and earned numerous individual accolades with eleven members of the Honor Roll, six members of the Dean's List, and two members of the President's List. The 2022-23 squad featured a Top 10 scorer in the Sun Belt in Mikyla Tolivert and a Top 10 rebounder in Deasia Merrill, as well as another strong performance in the classroom, highlighted by a pair of Academic All-District selections in Tolivert and Alyssa Phillip.

In his sixth season with the Panthers, Hill finished the 2023-24 season 15-15 (9-9 Sun Belt), his best conference mark since joining the Georgia State women's basketball staff. The team held an overall GPA of 3.54, and earned 12 individual academic accolades with two President's List, five Dean's List and five Honor Roll honors. Kamryn Dziak, Mikyla Tolivert, Alyssa Phillip and Kaleigh Addie were also named to the Academic All-District team under Hill's helm. The 2023-24 team featured Sun Belt Freshman of the Year Crystal Henderson, and All-Sun Belt First team Mikyla Tolivert, who led the team in scoring and ranked top 10 in the conference for free throws and steals.

Through his first six seasons at GSU, Hill's record stands at 76-98, while his overall record is 88-138, including two seasons at USC Spartanburg (now USC Upstate).

Before joining Georgia State, Hill helped guide NC State to a 112-52 record over five seasons, including three NCAA Tournament appearances and a 2018 Sweet 16 berth. At Georgia Tech (2009-12), he played a key role in four consecutive NCAA Tournament runs, including the program's first Sweet 16 in 2012, while mentoring future WNBA draft picks Alex Montgomery and Sasha Goodlett.

Hill previously coached at Butler, East Carolina, Lander, and USC Spartanburg, earning a reputation as a strong recruiter and developer of talent. His efforts at Butler produced multiple 1,000-point scorers and four straight Horizon League All-Newcomer honorees.

A LaGrange, Ga., native, Hill graduated from Coker College, where he played for the Cobras and began his coaching career as an assistant for the women's team. He has participated in national leadership programs including The Villa 7 Consortium and the Advocates for Athletic Equity's Achieving Coaching Excellence initiative.

#FAMILYBYCHOICES

GSU Women's Basketball is a family. Not by blood, but by choice. Every member of this team has chosen to be here and continues to make that choice everyday. Players, coaches, and staff all contribute to the team's success, showing that being a family is about mutual dedication and shared effort. Each person takes responsibility both on and off the court. They support one another through challenges, learn from setbacks, and grow together as a team. This motto is a reminder that being a family means actively showing up, lifting each other, and working toward common goals.

BETWEEN THE LINES

The Miami Hurricanes enter their upcoming matchup looking to regain early-season momentum after opening the year with five straight wins before dropping their last two contests to Ohio State and Kentucky. Miami has shown strong offensive consistency, posting double figures in every quarter this season, including seven quarters with 20 or more points. With the loss of all five starters from the 2024-25 campaign, Miami's lineup at the Watsco Center features a dramatically reshaped roster. The Hurricanes retained only two players from last season, sophomore Ahnay Adams and redshirt freshman Simone Pelish. To replenish the roster, Miami added 12 newcomers, including seven transfers from the portal and five freshmen, forming a group that ESPNW ranked as the No. 10 recruiting class in the nation.

HISTORIC SEASON OPENER

Georgia State opened the season in historic fashion Monday night, defeating Oglethorpe 108-59 at the GSU Convocation Center. The performance ranked third all-time in GSU history for both steals (26) and points (108) in a single game, marking one of the most dominant outings in program history.

SERIES HISTORY

Georgia State trails the all-time series against Miami, with the Canes holding a 5-3 advantage across eight meetings. Miami took control over the history, claiming the last three wins in the series. This game will break the stalemate in Miami as the series sits at 2-2. The most recent meeting came on November 10, 2006, when Miami secured a 68-60 victory.

SINCE '08

Crystal Henderson lit up the court in Georgia State's season opener against Oglethorpe, pouring in 24 points. That performance marks the first time since 2008 that a player has scored 24 or more points in a GSU season opener.

LANIER LEGACY

Grace Lanier etched her name into the record book with a standout performance against the FIU Panthers. The freshman posted her first collegiate double-double and shattered the GSU single-game steals record with 10 steals. She surpassed the previous mark of nine, set by Jylisa Williams against Delaware State on Dec. 21, 2008.

A GSU WIN WOULD...

- The Panthers will improve their overall record to 5-5.
- GSU will improve the overall series to 4-5.
- This will mark the first win in Miami since 1982.
- This will mark the 97th GSU win for head coach Gene Hill.

FLASHBACK TO LAST MEETING | 11/10/06

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - Georgia State senior guard Kelcey Roegiers-Jensen, a native of St. Petersburg, Fla., returned to her home state and did not disappoint her fans or her teammates, helping to lead a spirited second half comeback for the Panthers who fell to host Miami, 68-60, on Friday evening in the season opener for both teams at the BankUnited Center.

Roegiers-Jensen scored 17 second half points, including four key 3-pointers, and finished with a game-high 20 as Georgia State (0-1) rallied from a 22-point second-half deficit with less than 12 minutes on the clock after going on a 24-8 run. Leading by four, 62-58, with 1:10 remaining, Hurricanes' (1-0) senior guard Renee Taylor, who led Miami with 18, scored Miami's final six

The Panthers locked down on the Hurricanes defensively in the second period, limiting them to 27 percent field goal shooting in helping to trim the deficit. Miami was held to three field goals over the final 12 minutes, but made enough free throws when it mattered to win.

For the game, State shot 37 percent from the field and 82 percent (9-for-11) from the free throw line. Miami was 39 percent from the floor and out rebounded Georgia State, 45-41.

"I am very proud of the effort we had to-night," expressed head coach Lea Henry. "We played well the entire game, but missed some shots in the first half. We were down by 14 at halftime, but our defensive intensity and shot selection picked up in the second half and that really helped bring us back in this game. Our freshmen played well tonight against a very good Miami team."

Georgia State freshman forward Danyie McKeller (Fayetteville, N.C.) totaled 17 points and four rebounds and freshman forward RaShay Rawls (Augusta, Ga.) added four points and eight rebounds in their collegiate debuts. Sophomore forward Marquitta Head (Conley, Ga.) added eight points and eight rebounds off the bench for the Panthers. Roegiers-Jensen also collected five boards and six assists.

Taylor paced four Miami players in double figures as forward Brittany Denson posted a double-double with 13 points and a game-high 13 rebounds. Guards Maurita Reid and Albrey Grimsley added 11 and 15, respectively.

State never led in the contest and trailed 39-25 at halftime before mounting its comeback. Down by six, 20-14, with 8:32 remaining in the period, Miami pulled ahead following a 3-pointer from Reid en route to its 14-point halftime advantage. McKeller showed baseline skills beyond her years in the frontcourt, using her quickness to slip past defenders as she posted 12 first half points for Georgia State.

"Danyie [McKeller] played a phenomenal game," Henry continued. "She made great moves under the basket in the first half which surprised several of the Miami players, and scored from outside in the second half after Miami made its second half adjustments. Danyie and Shay [Rawls] are really going to surprise a lot of people this year."
