Training Certificate

By clicking on the 'Next' button below, you will print out a proof of participation certificate for having reviewed the content of this course. In signing the certificate, you will certify that you did indeed review this entire course.

Once you print out a certificate, make a copy of it for your records and provide the original certificate to the custodian of records at your agency. These certificates are public records and disclosable to the public and media, who will then appreciate your familiarity with the laws and ethics principles covered in this course.

For attorneys wishing to obtain MCLE credit for this course, please go to the Options page in order to view your Certificate, or have it emailed to you. Please keep this certificate for your records and for reporting to the State Bar.
