

2026 CMSF Entry Checklist

- Livestock Competition Handbook can be found here: Livestock Handbook
- Complete Water Survey #1: Water Survey #1
- Complete YQCA Training: YQCA
 - Complete and download a pdf copy of certificate to upload in Showworks
- Download, read, share with your parents or guardians: Code of Conduct
 - Complete and create a pdf to upload in Showworks
- Go to the online entry system: Showworks Online Entry
- Click Button #1: Register – Enter First and Last Name, select “I am a new Exhibitor”
- Enter required information: School will be your 4-H or FFA Club
- Confirm Information
- Department:
 - Select the Market or Breeding Class you are entering
 - Choose a Division
 - Choose a Class
 - Enter the Tag # from your CMSF DNA kit – if you’ve submitted multiple DNA, enter one. If you bring a backup animal to the fair, adjustments will be made at the scale and verified by livestock staff.
 - Scrapie Tag #s are required for all Sheep and Goat entries
- Entries should include:
 - Market and / or Breeding Class
 - After adding entry, click “Okay, Let’s Continue” to upload Code of Conduct and YQCA certificate
 - Choose Showmanship for the appropriate class (If you are unsure which class you should be in, please ask your leader or refer to the Livestock Handbook: page 67)
 - Bred & Fed (if applicable, and form was submitted with DNA kit)
 - Club or Chapter Group (one per Club or Chapter)
 - Admission Credentials: Add Exhibitor Pass, and up to 2 Parent Passes
 - Enter any additional Breeding Shows, Costume Contests, or Lead Classes
- Once all classes have been added click Continue (brown button at bottom)
- Review all entries
- Provide Payment via Credit, Debit or PayPal
- Confirm Entry
- Picture upload should be skipped at this time, pictures are not due until July 8, 2026 and should be taken closer to the auction. Photos instructions can be found on our website.
- Print a copy or pdf of your receipt!

If you have any questions, please email the Livestock Office at livestock@midstatefair.com.