The world of books is the most remarkable creation of man. Nothing else that he builds ever lasts. And build the nations perish. era of books are and yet they were fall, nations after a world and again, day the hearts of die out. But in the world as fresh as the hearts of others. This happened still as fresh as the hearts of have been. still telling men's hearts of the hearts of on, still telling men's hearts of the hearts of written, still telling men's hearts of the hearts of men centuries dead.

Clarence Day, author of Life with
