EDWARDS-FORD

The Wedding Bells again are pealing forth their chimes and cupid with his unerring accuracy has located two happy hearts.

On Thursday Evening, August 15, at 8 o'clock, Mr. B. F. Edwards and Miss Lulu D. Ford, were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Duncan at the residence of the bride, Mrs. Ford, 3529 Dearborn Street. Mr. Edwards is the Business Manager of The Ideal Publishing Co., and also the Circulating Manager of The BULLETIN. He is in every respect, a thorough capable business man and enjoys the confidence and esteem of a large circle of friends.

Miss Ford is a young lady who possesses many charms. She is the manager, at present, of a local manufacturing concern. Miss Ford is a sister of the Rev. John Ford whose brilliant career as an educator is making him a world power.

Only a very few of the most intimate friends witnessed the ceremony, which was simple and impressive. The happy couple after receiving the congratulations and best wishes of those present left the city for Michigan City, Mich., and other points in Michigan on a short tour. They will be at home at 3529 Dearborn after Tuesday to receive their friends. The Bulletin wishes Mr. and Mrs. Edwards much happiness and success and predicts for them many years of connubial bliss.

Mrs. B. F. Edwards, Central Ave., entertained a company of ladies at cards Monday evening, in compliment to Mrs. Carrie Shanklin and Mrs. Carrie French of Chicago. Three tables were played. Seasonable refreshments were served. Mrs. John Lewis received first prize. Mrs. Elnora Barkdale Smith, second, and Mrs. Harriet Hall, consolation. 1918

The Adelphai Club, met at the residence of Mrs. E. W. Lindsay last Tuesday afternoon and had a splendid meeting. Mrs. Lola Edwards won the prize in the literary contest, the subject being, "Money is a necessary asset to happiness." The club presented the former president Mrs. Carrie Lindsay a handsome handpainted chop plate. Mrs. L. A. Turner made the presentation speech. Mrs. Lindsay who has been an officer of the club for ten years, happily and feelingly responded. The occasion was highly enjoyable.
