Dear Countess,
I am at home every morning & evening
In the afternoon
I dine in the Park

I shall be very happy to see you & to

news of your
dear mother's last days.

I have been absent so much
during the last few years that I had not met
her in a long time. Hoping to see you soon

Sincerely yours,
Elizabeth Smith Stanbury
26 West 61st St

P.S. - I hope you'll pardon this - I am making my first attempt at dictating my letters to a private secretary - who has not yet her typewriter in hand - but I think - or hope you'll be able to interpret my huncles - And that I shall hear from you soon - & that you'll tell me exactly what you see I can do - Mrs Stanton is at Peterboro - the old home of Genl Smith - for the summer - I will send her your & your mother's love when next I write -
