U. S. CONGRESSMEN MAY BE ADDRESSED AT HOUSE OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C.

When Congress Passes a Law relating to business, you as a business man know pretty well what the effect of that law will be. But experience has shown that members of Congress do not always know how and why their legislative acts will affect business, unless business men write and tell them. Your views are always welcome, for the men who stay in Congress the longest are those who read and heed their constituents' letters. BUT there's a right way to write effectively to your Congressman. May we offer these suggestions:

Do

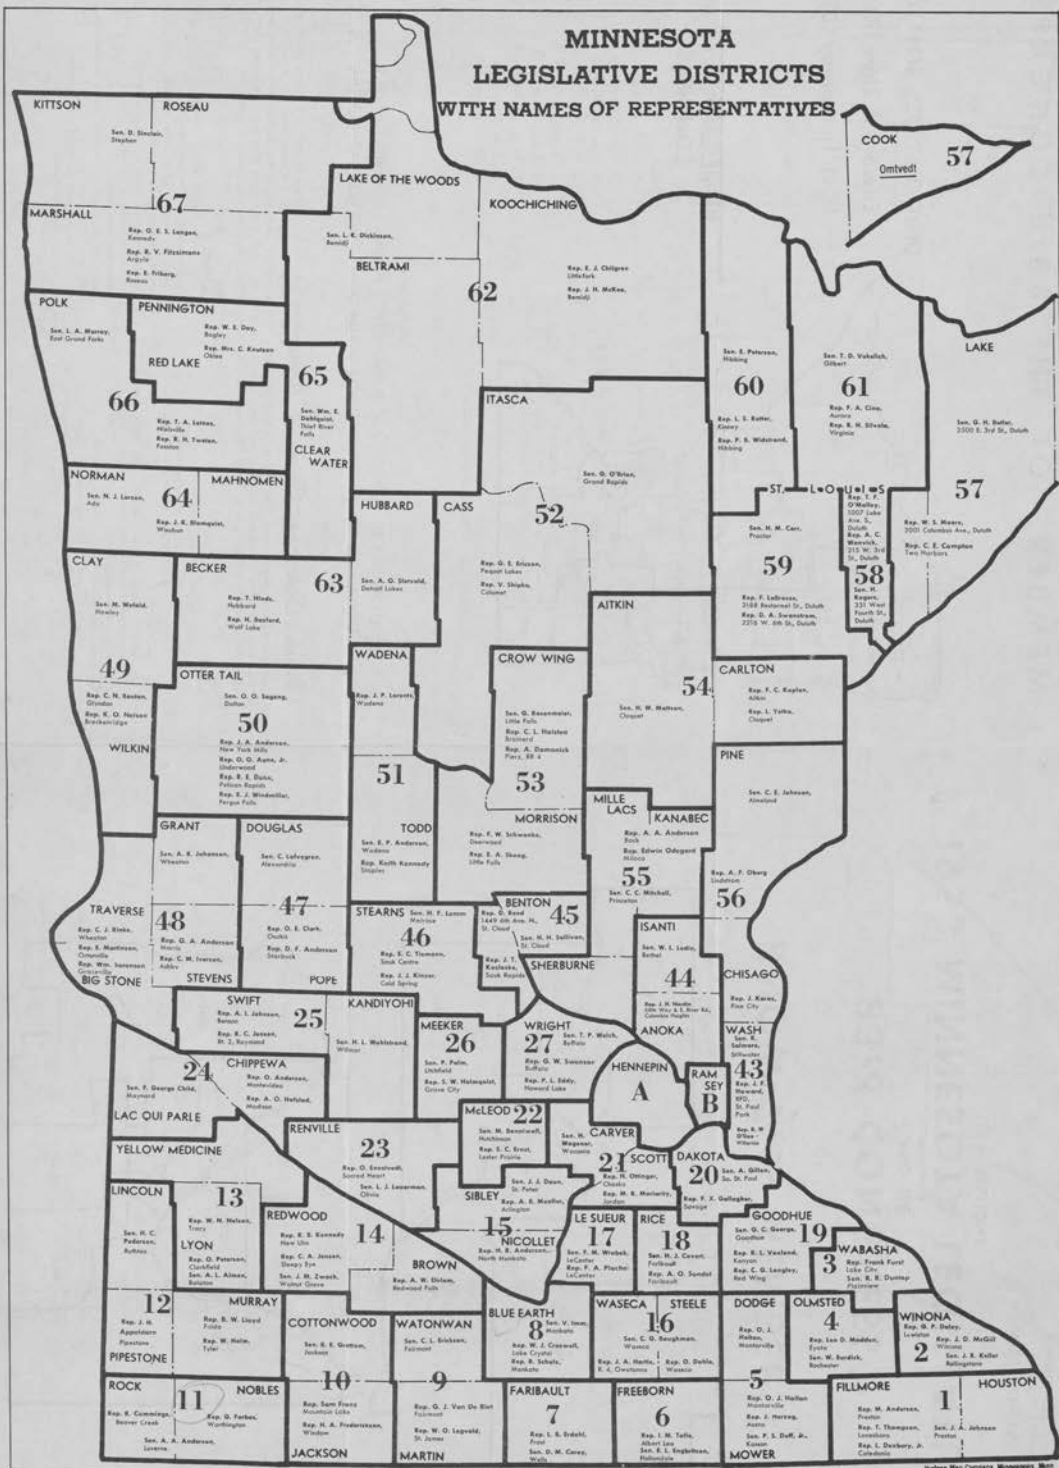

- spell your Congressman's name correctly
- make sure whether he is a Senator or a Representative
- state concisely what you think and why—the briefer, the better
- be sure of your facts
- cite specific illustrations, whenever possible, as to effects proposed legislation would have on your business and your workers
- write on your business stationery
- sign your name plainly. Type it under the signature
- send a letter rather than a telegram when time permits
- seize every opportunity to become personally acquainted with your Congressman

Don't

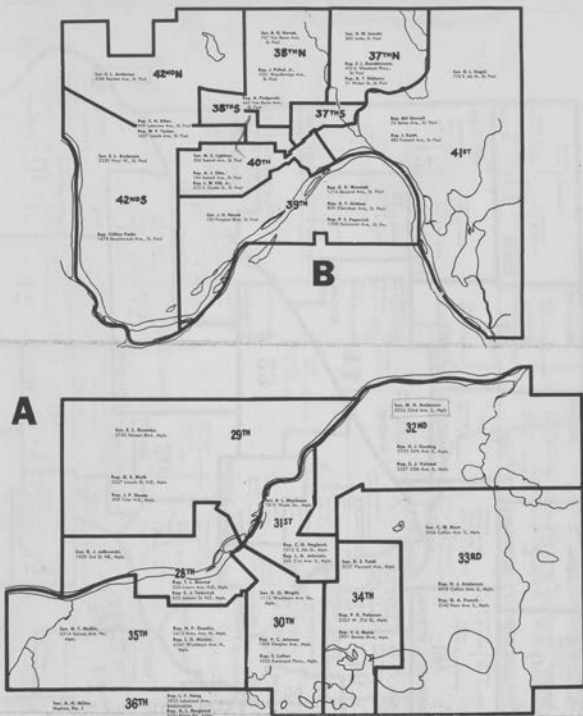

- threaten political reprisals
- write in a captious or belligerent mood
- remind your Congressman of broken promises
- attempt to speak for anybody but yourself
- insert newspaper clippings or mimeograph material
- send a chain letter or postcard
- quote from form letters
- write only when you want a favor. Letters of commendation are always welcome
- try to make an errand boy out of your Congressman
- become a chronic letter writer

Following is a letter sent to Local Leagues suggesting the appointment, immediately, of a local legislative chairman, and a list of those chairman. Next is the "master plan" and proposed calendar which we used to set up the legislative program. In regard to the April 21st letter, we have no record of how many local leagues carried out the suggested action. Group Conference at the 1952 State Convention, also mentioned in this letter, was based on the "master plan."

Dear President:

Although the legislature will not be in session again until winter, 1953, we believe that now is the most advisable time for laying our groundwork for that session.

While it is necessary that the bulk of the actual lobbying be done by League members in and immediately surrounding the Twin City area, our work cannot be carried out effectively and constructively without the help of out-state Leagues.

It is thought that if each local League appoint a board member as legislative chairman at this time, who can be kept informed and will work steadily through the next two-year period in building local League interest and enthusiasm for legislative activity, that we will have a firmer foundation on which to build legislative opinion in regard to the League Program.

May we have the name and address of your local legislative chairman as soon as the appointment is made?

Sincerely,

Mari Donohue

March 11, 1952

To: Local League President
From: Mrs. Donohue, Legislative Chairman
Attention: Local Legislative Chairman

Attached is the proposed plan for Legislative Action which was approved by the State Legislative Steering Committee at a meeting on January 31st.

The Steering Committee is composed of:

Mrs. K. K. McMillan, President	Mrs. Harold Richardson
Miss Barbara Stuhler	Mrs. Talbot Jones
Mrs. Harold Wilson	Mrs. Robt. Anderson
Mrs. David Kruidenier	Mrs. Jas. R. McNamara
Mrs. Hiram Livingston	Mrs. Hamilton Lufkin
Mrs. Harold Field	Mrs. John Donohue

The General Legislative Committee is composed of:

All the Legislative Chairmen in the State

We are attempting to localize our State Legislative Program, our aim being to insure more interest and individual response to Calls for Action, by the local Leagues. We believe this can be accomplished by having one person in each local League responsible for Legislative activity on the State Program level. She should work in cooperation with Resource Chairmen, Voters Service Chairmen, and Public Relations Chairmen, as well as with the corresponding State Chairmen, to put the League program across.

This agenda, we believe, sets up the duties of a Local Legislative Chairman. Those chairmen in the Twin City and Suburban areas will find that their duties will vary slightly from the other chairmen living farther away from St. Paul. Because they are in close commuting distance they will be called on to aid in conducting the "come-see" tours and with the actual lobbying at the Capitol.

You will probably want to discuss this agenda with your Board. We will want your comments, corrections, and additions. Also, we will want to know how much action you believe your League can accomplish along the lines of this agenda.

March 11, 1952

PROPOSED PLAN FOR LEGISLATIVE ACTION IN MINNESOTA

1. Train League Lobbyists -- (Twin City and surrounding area people)
Most important criteria is that Lobbyists be well informed on subject matter and so we will greatly rely on our Twin City Resource Chairmen to train them.
2. Inspire Letter Writing -- on League items during the session in answer to Calls to Action. There is the possibility of devoting a Unit Meeting in the fall to letter writing. We intend to put out a kit, "Lobby by Letter", next fall. It will contain the what, why, where, and how of letter writing. Also a statement of the League's stand on state items and how to use this material in a letter to your legislator. A sheet, "If they say -----, tell them -----" on the Agenda Items will probably be prepared to help in face to face, as well as in letter lobbying.
3. Urge and set up "Sight Seeing Tours" during the session for Out-State Leaguers. This is most important, particularly if it is combined with a talk with the legislator on League matters.
4. Work with your Voters Service Chairman, who will arrange local Pre-Election Meetings for candidates running for the State Legislature. Help them understand League items and get their position on these items before they are elected.
5. Keep Files on Legislators. One card kept by local League, one card sent to State Office will be very helpful in lobbying wisely and effectively. If this information is not available to you now, it will be at election time. Files might contain the following information about the legislator:

His district

Is labor strong?
Is farm group strong?
What business is predominant?
What nationality predominates?

Other information

Political Leaders in his district?
What groups supported him in campaign?
What favors would he want to confer?
What reprisals?
Who are his friends? opposition?
Family connections?
Special interest?
Political party?
Caucus?

His organization affiliations

American Legion?
Luncheon clubs?
What is he interested in?

6. Keep Files on League Members. These should be kept according to Legislative District to make it easier for individual calls for action to be answered. Also might contain some of the same information recorded on Legislators File Card, to make it easier to fit the Lobbyist to the Legislator. (This separation into districts is of course for large Leagues.)
7. Keep Files of Other Organizations' Legislative Programs, also the individuals to contact, both in the local community, and at the State Capitol, in these organizations, so that we can work more effectively in cooperation with these other organizations. These would be useful to have in both the local League's and the State League's possession.
8. Legislative Budget -- Do we need one?

March 11, 1952

PROPOSED CALENDAR FOR LEGISLATIVE ACTION

- MAY Local League Legislative Chairman communicate with State Office by May 1st on their evaluation of the enclosed plan for Legislative Action. Suggestions for change or addition will be valued.
- MAY 21-22 At the State Convention, a meeting will be set for Legislative Chairmen, details will be forthcoming. (A Pep Fest)
- SEPTEMBER Area Conferences on Legislative Action will be held.
- OCTOBER Before election, a communication will be sent to local Leagues reviewing the agenda items to come before the State Legislature. At this time the Voters Service Chairman, with the help of the Legislative Chairman, will reach the local candidates for the Legislature with League material on our agenda items, to get the candidates position before the election, and working with the Public Relations Chairman will publicize these facts.
- NOVEMBER General Election, Nov. 4th.
- DECEMBER After election have a meeting with the Representatives and Senators before they leave for the Capitol. Possibly give them a letter or booklet, stating our program, signed by the local President, rather than be state officer. In some towns, this might be done at a luncheon. The Voters Service, State Resource, and Legislative Chairmen might work together on this project.
- DECEMBER Have a meeting of Twin City and suburban League's Legislative and Resource Chairmen, with corresponding State Chairmen, in order to form actual lobbying committees and make plans for action. Possibly a booklet "How it is Done", a handbook on lobbying to be put out by the League, could be distributed at this time.
- JANUARY
1953 In the first week of the session we will have our Legislative Workshop, plus a "come and see" tour. (Skit on Constitutional Convention, Mrs. Minnesota and Daughter, might be given to entertain our Legislator Guests). "Come and See Tours" will continue through the session.
- a. have legislators talk on program items coming up for action
 - b. visit House and Senate while in session
 - c. have League members talk to their legislators
 - d. get copies of legislative publications, such as Journal, Agenda, Bill, etc. for League visitors
- JANUARY
to
APRIL
1953 Until the middle of April 1953, All League members Lobby for the League
- a. in person
 - b. by letter
 - c. by letters to the paper
 - d. by influencing others to lobby

Dear Legislative Chairman,

Your job for next year is already upon you

The Platforms of the two Political Parties are in the process of being created. The first step is being taken at the County Conventions where delegates are elected to go to the State Conventions. The second step is being taken at the State Conventions where the delegates so elected will start work on the Party Platforms. The Republican State Convention will be held May 24th, the D.F.L., May 31st.

How are you, the Legislative Chairman of the non-partisan League of Women Voters of your Town, connected with all this?

1. You can find out who your county delegates are to both the Political Parties' State Conventions.
(Republican delegates elected at April 19th County Conventions)
(D.F.L. delegates elected at May 10th County Conventions)
2. You can interview or write a letter to these delegates, or to as many of them as you think is important, to remind and encourage them to include on their Party Platforms, again, the three items on which we all agree —

Constitutional Revision through Convention
Fair Employment Practices Legislation
Party Designation for Legislators

Will you be willing to do this, your first assignment as a Legislative Chairman for the 1953 Legislative Session? I hope so, because we think it is a wonderful thing to do, both from a legislative and from a public relations point of view.

Hope to see you at the Group Conference on Legislation at the Wednesday afternoon session of the State Convention. It's going to be interesting and exciting.

Sincerely,

Mari Donohue

Mrs. John Donohue
Legislative Chairman

To: Voters Service Chairmen

From: Mrs. Frank Chesley, state Voters Service Chairman

As the first step in our intensified voters service work this year, you will find enclosed a sample copy of the questionnaire for state legislative candidates. They are available at the state office. It has been found in previous years that most candidates file in their own county, at the office of the county clerk. For this reason the state office is leaving it up to you to get the names of the candidates from your legislative district and start your interviews as soon as the filings close (July 21). It is most important that the questionnaires be filled out by all candidates well before the primary election (Sept. 9), so that the information may be relayed to as many voters as possible before they go to the polls. The questionnaires of the winning candidates may be used again before the general election in November.

The procedure, then, is as follows:

1. Obtain names of all candidates from your district
2. Send to the state office for twice as many questionnaires as you have candidates
3. Obtain answers to the questionnaires preferably by personal interview (see page 19 of Give the Voter A Hand) or if this is not possible, then by mail, from all candidates
4. Send one copy of each questionnaire to the state office
5. Keep one copy for use in your district

Informing the public of the qualifications of candidates is one of the League's most vital jobs. Therefore, it is of the utmost importance that we get this information to as many people as possible. Local newspapers are usually glad to print this nonpartisan material. Contact your editor and ask for his cooperation. Sometimes newspapers will run off reprints of the article for your voters booth. In addition, many Leagues make the small expenditure necessary to mimeograph the answers in large quantities to be distributed in grocery boxes, voters booth, doctor's and dentist's offices, help-yourself boxes, to clubs, etc. See your booklet Give the Voter A Hand for further suggestions on distributing this important information and also for ideas on other aspects of pre-election work.

Forthcoming will be the replies to congressional questionnaires. Also forthcoming in early fall will be an informational broadside on the five amendments which will be on the ballot in November. This will be designed for wide public distribution. Another broadside, specifically on Amendment No. 2 which the League strongly supports, will be available in quantity from the Citizens Committee for a Constitutional Convention. (We hope in time for use at your county fair booths.)

Dear Candidate:

Before each election the League of Women Voters of Minnesota disseminates to state voters information regarding candidates for office. We would very much appreciate your filling in and returning to our office the enclosed questionnaire. Your answers will then be forwarded to our forty-eight Leagues throughout the state for distribution to our 4300 members and other citizens.

In order that this information may be properly reprinted and distributed, we would like your answers by August 10th. The enclosed envelope is for your convenience in replying.

RE: CANDIDATE QUESTIONNAIRES

You will find enclosed the replies which have been received from the questionnaires sent to congressional and senatorial candidates, and also the replies to state questionnaires sent to candidates for state offices.* In addition to these, you have by this time probably received answers to the state questionnaires which you sent yourselves to the candidates for the state legislature from your own district.

You have, then, this valuable information in your hand, and are perhaps wondering what to do with it. If every man and woman who will go to the polls on Sept. 9 and again on Nov. 4 could know what is written on these pages, surely they would go better prepared to vote for a more qualified candidate than if they vote by guess-work as so many do, especially in the primary.

It is hoped, therefore, that every local League will make the fullest possible use of this material. There are several possibilities for getting it to your members and to the public.

How to obtain copies

1. Copies of replies from congressional and senatorial candidates, and candidates for state offices may be obtained from the state League office (4 pages for 1 cent)
2. You can mimeograph the pages yourselves for large public distribution. Usually the cost is only that of the paper, as most Leagues have members who can type, and access to a mimeograph machine.
3. You can ask your newspaper editor if he will print the answers. Perhaps he will choose only certain offices to print, but this is better than none. In many cases the newspaper will then run off reprints of the article free of charge for you to distribute.

What to do with the copies

1. Door to door distribution is often done by the Boy and Girl Scouts.
2. Take to industries, labor temples, service organizations, church groups, rural groups, PTA's.
3. Have copies in your voters booth. (Also Significant Roll Calls for incumbent's records)
4. Take a copy to your editor regardless of whether he will make reprints for you. He will value its non-partisan factual information.
5. Place copies in Help Yourself boxes throughout the community.
6. See "Give the Voter a Hand" for further ideas.

By all means try to get this work done this coming week before the primary, as it is during this period that people are wanting help in determining the candidates' qualifications for office and their stands on issues.

Cooperation with other groups in your community is especially rewarding and successful at voters service time. Working together on matters of mutual interest such as registration, getting out the vote, and information on candidates will lead to greater understanding between the League and other groups when it is time for action on our program.

August 29, 1952

Is your League planning any kind of a candidates meeting this fall? If you are, could you please fill out the form below and return it immediately to the state office. The office will then have a complete record and Leagues may write in to find out if nearby Leagues are holding such meetings and when.

* The following information is not noted on the questionnaires. Please be sure that you forward it with any replies to questionnaires which you send your members and your community:

August 22, 1952

Minnesota Republican State Central Committee
Hearings on State Platform for 1952
Nicollet Hotel, Minneapolis, Minnesota

The League of Women Voters of Minnesota, a non-partisan organization of 4300 members in 48 communities throughout the state, adopted at its state convention last May in Rochester, the following item:

"In the interests of responsible, efficient, and democratic government in our state, we will work for a constitutional convention".

Five years of study have convinced the members of the League that many provisions of our state constitution are obsolete, confusing, and unenforceable, completely at odds with efficient and responsible government. For example:

- It has been amended 75 times
- It is 3 times longer than the federal constitution
- It contains out of date provisions such as election of Senators by the Legislature
- It greatly limits home rule
- It limits the legislative session to 90 days
- It does not require judges to be trained in law
- It does not provide adequately for reapportionment

We are hoping that a law will be passed in the 1953 session of the Legislature which will provide for the calling of a constitutional convention. The League hopes that the Republican Party will again include a statement on its Platform in favor of this action, and that the combined strength of the many organizations favoring a constitutional convention will be great enough to achieve this first step toward a more responsible, efficient and democratic government.

Hearings on State Platform for 1952
Hiccollet Hotel, Minneapolis, Minnesota

The League of Women Voters of Minnesota, a non-partisan organization of 4200 members in 48 communities throughout the state, adopted at its state convention last May in Rochester the following item:

"In the interests of responsible, efficient, and democratic government in our state, we will work for party designation for legislators".

The League studied this subject after they had a chance to review the work of the 1951 Legislative session. Although all the items on the League program were also items on the platforms of both the political parties, none of the bills that the League worked for were passed. It seemed to us that part of the trouble, at least, was that the legislators were not committed to the platform of their party, since they were elected without party designation. We believe that party designation would strengthen the two party system, would simplify the voters' choice, would make legislators responsible to their party's platform, and would tend to counteract in a healthy way the influence of the special interest pressure groups which seek to influence legislation.

We are hoping that the Republican Party will again include a statement on its Platform in favor of this action, and that the combined strength of the organizations favoring party designation will be great enough to achieve this important step toward a more responsible government.

Minnesota Republican State Central Committee
Hearings on State Platform for 1952
Nicollet Hotel, Minneapolis, Minnesota

The League of Women Voters of Minnesota, a non-partisan organization of 4300 members in 48 communities throughout the state, adopted at its state convention last May in Rochester the following item:

"In the interests of responsible, efficient, and democratic government in our state, we will work for an efficient civil service system".

Because the League is aware of the service veterans rendered to our country, we believe that this service should be recognized through the incorporation of preference for veterans as an integral part of our civil service system. It is our belief however that the present law needs modification. Because veteran's preference may be used for both entrance and promotional examinations (in some branches of state government a veteran who can not pass the examination gets absolute preference over a non-veteran who may get 100%) many capable non-veterans hesitate to take jobs with the state. This causes our government to be run less efficiently and economically than is necessary.

Because the principle of the merit system requires the selection of public employees solely on the basis of merit and fitness while veterans' preference requires that preference be extended to members of a special class on the basis of membership in that class, veterans' preference is contrary to the merit system. Therefore, since the League of Women Voters has always worked for the merit system in Minnesota, we are hoping that the Republican Party will include a statement to support revision of the veterans' preference in civil service, and that the combined strength of the organizations favoring revision will be great enough to achieve this needed step toward a more efficient state government.

August 22, 1952

The League of Women Voters of Minnesota, a non-partisan organization of 4300 members in 48 communities throughout the state, adopted at its state convention last May in Rochester the following item:

"In the interests of responsible, efficient, and democratic government in our state, we will work for the enactment of a fair employment practices law and other legislation to correct discrimination".

The League has made a study of civil rights in Minnesota for three years and believes that a fair employment law should be passed in this state:

because every worker should have the opportunity to make use of his skills, regardless of his race, religion, or national origin.

because employment on merit puts democracy into practice because employment on merit benefits everyone -- worker, management, the consumer

because experience in Minneapolis and other cities and states show that a fair employment practice commission, with enforcement powers, is an effective and proper instrument for solving this problem.

The League hopes that the Republican Party will again include a statement on its Platform in favor of this action, and that the combined strength of the many organizations favoring a fair employment law will be great enough to achieve this important step toward a more democratic state.

AREA CONFERENCES

June 23, 1952

Dear Local League President:

At our national and state Conventions, at our local Annual Meetings, League members have, the past two months, been very busy making plans for the coming year. The State Board at its post-convention meeting spent many hours discussing methods which will most effectively carry out your plans. This promises to be an active and exciting year.

PROGRAM. As you know we once again at the state convention adopted a four-item Agenda. The economic item was dropped, but Civil Service was taken from the platform and placed back on the agenda. This will be an election year and a legislative year. These two facts determine the timing and the emphasis of both program and non-program responsibilities.

Because we anticipate legislative action on all Current Agenda items we suggest (see enclosed Calendar) that the fall and early winter months be given to work on the state Program and Voters Service. As League members we cannot be prepared nor can we help our communities understand the issues unless the suggested calendar is followed.

AREA CONFERENCES on Legislation in preparation for the legislative session in January will be held some time during September. These will be conducted as workshops for not only Legislative Chairmen and their committees but for all local League members. Details will be sent to you later.

VOTER SERVICE. Soon you will receive Legislative Questionnaires, suggestions for interviews, ideas on candidate meetings and techniques for getting out the vote. In September you will be sent two broadsides clarifying the proposed amendments to our state Constitution. One broadside will explain all five amendments. The other will deal exclusively with Amendment 2, the only amendment on which we have taken a stand.

CALENDAR. Once again we have prepared a suggested calendar consisting of League dates to remember and a schedule for activities on the national, state, and local agendas. Please read carefully at the bottom of the Calendar sheet the dates on which material on the state level will be sent you. It will not be available before dates mentioned.

Summer is here . . . it hardly seems possible that a year ago I was writing my first letter to local League presidents. This year has been quite an experience for me and I have enjoyed it. I have particularly enjoyed meeting and talking with many of you. Once again I would like to extend an invitation to all of you to visit me and the office staff whenever you are in Minneapolis.

Relax and have fun, but don't forget the League - -

Sincerely,

Mrs. Kenneth McMillan, President

Re: Area Conferences on STATE LEGISLATION

"THE LEAGUE IS IN THE LOBBY"

Last year when the State Board (at your request) discussed what phase of League work should be covered by the Area Conferences this fall, it was felt that our program and our members would derive the greatest benefit by conferences on state legislation and state program items.

The purpose of the Conferences this year is to help the Local Leagues understand and assume their responsibilities toward putting our State program items across during a Legislative year.

The plan and the method: these conferences will be open to all members of all Local Leagues. We urge the attendance of not only your Board members but all interested League people. These conferences will provide ample opportunity for discussing the local League's role during a Legislative year and for understanding the role of the State League, thus enabling us to mobilize our strength and work as a whole unit.

The Area Conferences will last a full day. As suggested in the enclosed Outline, your local Senator will talk on "Legislative Procedures" at the luncheon.

Two League members who have had Legislative experience will be there to conduct the meeting and discuss with members the items in the outline.

There will be a registration fee of 35¢. This is necessary to help defray the cost of material which includes an extremely useful and interesting kit called "Lobby by Letter". This kit is a must for every League member because it is designed to simplify and clarify the problem of writing letters to our Legislators.

Enclosed with this letter you will find a Schedule for Area Conferences. Later you will receive a memo with time, meeting place, cost of luncheon, and the name to whom reservations should be sent.

I know that this will be one of the most stimulating and informative conferences we have ever held. I strongly urge every member to attend so that we could truly say, this Legislative year of 1953, that...

Suggested Letter to Senator to be sent by Local League

August _____, 1952

The Honorable _____
Address,
Town, Minnesota

Dear Senator _____,

In September the League of Women Voters of Minnesota is sponsoring Area Conferences throughout the entire state. These conferences will deal with State Legislation and our members will gather together in certain localities to learn more about putting their study program on an action basis.

On September _____ we will hold a conference at _____. Members of local Leagues from _____, _____, _____, and _____ will attend. We would like to have you come as guest speaker to our luncheon session, (time, place), and speak to us on Legislative Procedures.

We will appreciate your notifying us as to whether or not you can come.

We look forward to having you with us on the _____ at _____.

Sincerely yours,

(local legislative chairman or

INSTRUCTION SHEET
for
LEAGUE LEADERS FOR AREA CONFERENCES ON STATE LEGISLATION

"The League is in the Lobby"

1. Local League takes care of registration (35¢) which entitles each person attending the Conference to an Outline and a Lobby by Letter Kit. Local League also takes care of charge for luncheon.
2. Local League will appoint a recorder for your conference. The State Board wants a copy of the proceedings, especially any new questions that are asked.
3. Distribute the Outline, but do not give out the Lobby by Letter Kit until the end of the day, since it contains the answers to the Quiz.
4. Urge free and lots of discussion on each item. Encourage additional purchases of the Kit, since we want every League member throughout the State to have one.
5. Save all good questions to be asked of the Senator at luncheon discussion. Record his answers. An example of what you might want to ask are: when an issue arises, and you have one opinion and your constituents another, what is your responsibility in voting? and along this same line, do you feel that by and large the state or local interests should be first served on controversial matters? See that League members ask the questions of the Senator.

6. Materials for Leader:

Materials for the Group:

State Platform

LEADER'S OUTLINE
for
AREA CONFERENCES ON STATE LEGISLATION

"The League is in the Lobby"

I. Purpose Fulfilled (morning session)

A. Role of State League in a Legislative Year

This will be a ten minute introduction to the conference by the leader handling the morning session. You may wish to start out with this little story which went the rounds at the National Convention in Cincinnati: "A gentleman, very much under the influence of alcohol wandered into a Quaker Meeting House and seated himself next to a Friend. After sitting quietly for some time he said, 'When do we go into action around here?' The Friend drew himself up and said, 'Sir, we go into action when the service is over!'" With this opening, you can touch upon the action phase of the League program. You will want to clarify League purpose, making sure that it is understood that Action is the promotion of political responsibility. Bring out action as the climax of study, that their service is over, the time to act is now!

B. Review of Past Accomplishments

Touch on some past League accomplishments such as Civil Service Law. You might want to mention that the League was given full credit for the passage of the merit system act, and that we have the pen in the State Office with which Governor Stassen signed the bill. (See Platform for other items)

II. This is Your Job

A. Localize Responsibilities

You can point out that each League is responsible for arousing its own community in the interest of League program items. Each is responsible for seeing that its legislators understand League program items. Your job is to localize League legislative action. The State Legislative Committee is only what the local Leagues make it.

B. Pre-election

1. Last fall we suggested that each League appoint a Legislative Chairman. If this hasn't been done, it is hoped that someone can be found for the job in each local League for this year. These are the reasons: each League will then have a committee responsible for mobilizing membership and community to carry out Calls for Action, for working with Voters Service and Public Relations on interviews with legislators and keeping membership informed on results and legislative processes, for getting constant and staggered action with regard to letter writing, and for taking charge of awakening interest in and organizing tours to the legislature during the session, for keeping information about your League flowing to the Legislative Newsletter, and activating telephone committees in order to reach members and influential people in the community when action is needed.

2. Stress the fact that the Legislative Committee should cooperate with Voters Service and the Resource people, also Public Relations, in bringing to the League membership and the general public the qualifications of candidates and the results of our questionnaires. Try to get them published in a local paper, or if possible, have the local League put out a communication to their members, on questionnaire results. These committees, if all working together, can accomplish many purposes in one project.

C. Post-election

1. After election, it would help considerably if a meeting is held with elected representatives. (Don't neglect the State Senator just because he doesn't come up for election this year) This may be done just a short time before the legislative session. If they were reelected, know their past voting record on League items. Don't forget to thank them for past support. If they do not favor some of our program items, you still promote goodwill and understanding in talking to these people and letting them know how you want them to represent you. Give them a copy of the League program and platform. This sort of thing, when done locally, can be much more effective than when done on a state-wide basis. It also gives the local Leagues a chance to get help and cooperation from their representatives on local matters. Minneapolis has a very successful luncheon meeting. This might be feasible for some of the larger Leagues, or several Leagues in the same district could go together on a project such as this. This sort of thing can also be done by mail. Send along a letter signed by the local president and board members, including the State program and platform.

2. Files on legislators. We have felt that a card file on legislators would be most helpful to our lobbyists. This is what we had in mind: a card to be sent in duplicate to each local League asking for the following information concerning your legislator -- questions on his district (is labor strong? business or farm groups strong?), his organizations affiliations, his political party affiliation, his opposition, his supporters during election, etc. One card would be kept by the local League, on in the State Office. This information is always available locally at election time, and would aid our lobbyists to work for our program more wisely and effectively.

3. We have suggested that in the larger Leagues a file be kept on members. This should be set up according to legislative district. It would greatly facilitate individual Calls to Action.

4. Don't overlook the Legislative programs of other organizations. Some of them are closely tied to ours. A file kept with information about their programs and key individuals to contact locally and at the Capitol will be invaluable. This should be a duplicate file and will be of use both locally and to the State League.

D. During the Session, We All Lobby By:

1. Letter -- At this point comes the presentation of the Kit, Lobby by Letter. Explain its use and promote the idea that it should be in the possession of every League member in the State. Point out that letter writing is our most important lobbying device, since most of our members do not get to the Capitol. Do not distribute Kit until the end of the day since it contains Quiz Answers.

2. Person -- See your legislator when he is at home, come to the Capitol on our planned tours. Make a special effort to know your legislator.

Note to Twin City and Surrounding Area Leagues -- Our 'in person' Lobbying, as always, will be done by Resource people from these Areas. Knowledge of the subject matter is important. No Lobbying committee can be too big. Start now thinking about being a Lobbyist for the League. We will hold training sessions to help you before the Session opens.

3. Tours -- This year will see a definite program for "Come and See Tours". They will consist of visiting House and Senate sessions, committee hearings, interviews with legislators and lunch with your local representatives. They will be set on specific days, you will have a tour guide. This is the educational part of our legislative program and a must for all League members. The Legislative chairman in each League will be responsible for making reservations for the tours at the State Office, and for seeing that her League gets to the Capitol sometime during the session.

4. Letters to the Editor -- If your paper has a mail bag column, a letter to the Editor is invaluable because it reaches many people at once.

5. Influencing others to act -- Don't forget that your job is to influence others to act. Help them to understand the need for action and for making themselves heard. Present your neighbors with a copy of Lobby by Letter, to help get action on our program. Bring them along on a Capitol Tour.

6. Legislative Newsletter -- After the session starts, you will be kept informed by a newsletter, telling how our program is progressing. We will be interested in what the local Leagues are doing to promote action.

7. Calls for Action -- When a Call for Action is sent out, a single answer from the local League is never sufficient. There must be many letters from individuals coming in. We are suggesting that telephone committees be set up, so that all members can quickly be reached and requested to act. These committees can also be used for getting staggered action on an item. Once a bill has been introduced, a few letters every week will carry a terrific amount of force, and a gentle reminder by telephone to start action on an item will be most helpful. Your telephone committees will be invaluable.

III. Legislative Facts of Life (afternoon session)

This should be a short talk on lobbying as you see it from the Leader's own personal viewpoint. We want League members to understand exactly what we are up against when we go to lobby. Make them see you in comparison with paid lobbyists. Let them know how dependent you are upon their letters and their action back home. Draw on your own experiences with special interest groups and public interest groups. This is the place on the Area Conference Program for giving the League members first hand information on what goes on at the Legislature. Present the roll call. Tell the members how the legislators voted on League items during the last session.

IV. Program Quiz

Make this the 'fun' part of your Conference with lots of audience participation. Pass out the Quiz Sheets and give them about 5 minutes to write down reasons why we support Constitutional Convention. After the time is up, tell them to keep their Quiz Sheets, but you pose the opposition's reasons and let them give you the answers from what they have written on their Quiz Sheets. Do this with each item separately.

End of session

THE PLATFORM

The Platform consists of governmental issues and specific legislation to which the League has given sustained attention through the years. The League may resume support of any such issues or specific legislation whenever the State Board shall decide that active work is needed for (a) the preservation, improvement or enforcement of legislation previously enacted into law, or (b) the passage of any such legislation not previously enacted into law.

CHILD WELFARE:

Regulation of employment of children in street trades
Acceptance by legislature of Sheppard-Towner Maternity and Infancy Act
Increased maximum mother's allowance
Reimbursement of counties for 1/3 of their expenditures under Mother's Allowance Law
Raised marriageable age of girls from 15 to 16, except with approval of juvenile court judge
Appropriation of $43,000 a year for infancy-maternity work, nearly commensurate for withdrawal of federal aid
Prohibited theatrical employment of children under 10 years of age (The "Stage Child" Bill)
Ratified Child Labor Amendment
Included girls as well as boys up to age 21 under minimum wage law
Aid to Dependent Children

STATUS OF WOMEN:

Limited work week of women in industry to 54 hours
Made women eligible for jury service
Removed discrimination against employment of women in public services because of marital status, through:
(1) Opposition to amendment to Teacher Tenure Law proposing abolition of all married teachers
(2) Opposition to 2 bills and 2 resolutions making possible discharge of married women from public employment

SOCIAL PROBLEMS AFFECTING GENERAL WELFARE:

Improved marriage laws - 5-day waiting period between application for a marriage license and its issuance
Adequate lay representation on Welfare Boards
Permissive Legislation to enable Minnesota to participate in the Federal Public Housing Program

Extension of Public Health Services, including:

- (1) Larger Units of Public Health Services
 - (2) The Public Health Nursing Bill
- Merit provision in Minnesota Unemployment Compensation Act relating to administration, personnel

INCREASED EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES:

Minimum school year increased from 6 to 8 months
Enforced compulsory school attendance
Secured physical education in all schools
Revised State Aids to Schools
Secured Teacher Tenure Law for cities of first class
Reorganization of State Teachers' Retirement Fund
Reorganization of School Units
Secured survey for reorganization of School Districts in each County

INCREASED EFFICIENCY IN ADMINISTRATION OF GOVERNMENT:

Appointed Interim Comm. on Reorganization of State Departments
Established a Legislative Research Committee
Provided equitable assessment of property through creation of office of Supervisor of Assessments or County Assessor for each County
A State Civil Service System
Ratification of "Lame Duck amendment" (Ratification by Minnesota of 20th amendment to Constitution of the United States)

STATE PROGRAM - 1952-1953
(As adopted at state Convention, May 22, 1952)

The League of Women Voters is dedicated to work unrelentingly to support and strengthen the form of government of the United States. The purpose of the League is to promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government.

The League may take action on governmental issues. Action may include 1) providing information, 2) building public opinion, 3) supporting legislation.

League members are encouraged to work as individuals in the political party of their choice BUT THE ORGANIZATION AS A WHOLE SHALL NOT SUPPORT OR OPPOSE ANY POLITICAL PARTY OR CANDIDATE.

The Program is divided into two parts: 1) the Current Agenda and 2) the Platform. The Current Agenda consists of those governmental issues which the League convention chooses for concerted action during the coming year. The Platform consists of governmental issues and specific legislation to which the League has given sustained attention through the years. It is the responsibility of the state Board to provide the membership with basic information on items on the Current Agenda and to determine the specific time action shall be taken on items on both the Current Agenda and the Platform.

CURRENT AGENDA

The League of Women Voters of Minnesota in the interests of responsible, efficient and democratic government in our state will work for:

- I. A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION
- II. THE ENACTMENT OF A FAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES LAW AND OTHER LEGISLATION TO CORRECT DISCRIMINATION
- III. AN EFFICIENT CIVIL SERVICE SYSTEM
- IV. PARTY DESIGNATION FOR LEGISLATORS

DO'S and DON'TS in WRITING YOUR LEGISLATOR

ALWAYS REMEMBER—You write letters to your representatives not to get them to do what you want, but to help them better represent you.

DO spell your legislator's name correctly and know whether he is a Senator or a Representative.

DO describe the bill by number or by its popular name. Your legislator has hundreds of bills before him during the session and cannot always take time to figure out to which one you are referring.

DO present a concise statement of the reasons for your position, particularly if you are writing about a field in which you have specialized knowledge. He has to vote on many matters with which he has had little or no first hand experience. Some of the most valuable help he gets comes from facts presented in letters from persons who really know what they are talking about.

DO make your letters short. Many letters are received by your legislator each day, and a long one may not get as prompt a reading as a brief statement.

DO time your letter to arrive while the issue is alive. If your legislator is a committee member, he will appreciate having your views while the bill is before him for study and action.

DO write letters of commendation when your legislator has done something of which you particularly approve.

DON'T write to a legislator from any other district except your own.

DON'T write letters that demand or insist he vote for or against a certain bill, or that tell him you want him to vote for, but not why.

DON'T threaten him with defeat at the next election.

DON'T write a chain letter, form letter, or postcard.

DON'T become a chronic letter writer.

DON'T write a legislator more than once on the same subject. Quality, not quantity, is what counts.

Dear League member,

WELCOME TO THE LOBBY!

It seems as though there are two reasons why people don't write letters - one is they don't know what to say and the second is they lost their pen. This kit is designed to take care of the first contingency. We trust you to find your pen.

On the use of this kit, may we say that realizing how very difficult it is for the majority of our members to come to the Capitol to lobby in person, we hoped to devise a method whereby each member could become a lobbyist by mail. You have in the center of the kit the Do's and Don'ts of letter writing to guide you. On the right hand side you will find the Current Agenda items together with the reasons the League supports them, catalogued for easy reference.

So, if you will fill in the names of your legislators in their proper places on the left hand flap, tuck some of your personal stationery into the pocket at the back, and clip that wandering pen to the kit, you will be ready the moment the legislature goes into session to "Lobby by Letter".

Good luck to you!

CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION

BECAUSE our present constitution is too lengthy (almost 3 times longer than the federal constitution) and too detailed ($\frac{1}{2}$ of its more than 19,000 words are devoted to a complete listing of 70 trunk highway routes) and has been amended 75 times.

BECAUSE our present constitution is antiquated. For instance, it says that our state debt should be limited to $250,000 when in fact our debt on Dec. 31, 1951, was $127,295,000. Such openly flaunted provisions create a lack of respect for what should be our most valued state document.

BECAUSE our present constitution is inflexible. The legislature meets every 2 years for 90 days. That time limit appeared adequate in 1857, but now the legislators "cover the clock" to make the session last another 120 hours. Even so, more than 80 bills were passed by the House on the "last" day of the session in 1951. Consequently the legislators could not possibly know the contents of all bills and many worthwhile measures were lost in the last minute rush.

BECAUSE our present constitution is irresponsible. For instance, we call the governor the "chief executive" and yet we really have a five-headed executive when you include the secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, and attorney-general. Since each of the five officials is elected it is possible to have executives of different political beliefs holding office at the same time. Such a situation can never result in efficient teamwork.

DON'T write a chain letter, form letter, or postcard.

DON'T become a chronic letter writer.

DON'T write a legislator more than once on the same subject. Quality, not quantity, is what counts.

BECAUSE our present constitution is unfair. For instance, many state representatives speak for as few as 6,000 voters, while others speak for as many as 40,000. This is because the legislature, in spite of a great increase and shift in population since 1910, has not revised the legislative districts since that time.

BECAUSE our present constitution is too rigid. Many of the amendments, while providing new ways of getting revenue, provide also just how that revenue must be allocated, with the result that certain state operations are adequately financed while others are not. Another example of rigidity is the requirement of a vote by the people to change the tax rate on the railroads. The rate on other industries is changed by legislators.

BECAUSE our present constitution is restrictive. It allows the local communities very little home rule, and as a consequence the legislature spends much of its time on local affairs which they might better spend on matters of statewide importance. Legislators cannot know the local problems of every town, so they must take the word of a few or frequently a single representative that "this would be a good thing for our town".

BECAUSE our present constitution is lax in regard to the qualifications for judges and other court officials. For example, only supreme and district court judges need be "learned in the law", thus probate and municipal judges, justices of the peace, clerks of supreme and district courts, and court commissioners need not be trained in the legal profession.

ALWAYS REMEMBER—You write letters to your representatives not to get them to do what you want, but to help them better represent you.

DO spell your legislator's name correctly and know whether he is a Senator or a Representative.

DO describe the bill by number or by its popular name. Your legislator has hundreds of bills before him during the session and cannot always take time to figure out to which one you are referring.

DO present a concise statement of the reasons for your position, particularly if you are writing about a field in which you have specialized knowledge. He has to vote on many matters with which he has had little or no first hand experience. Some of the most valuable help he gets comes from facts presented in letters from persons who really know what they are talking about.

DO make your letters short. Many letters are received by your legislator each day, and a long one may not get as prompt a reading as a brief statement.

DO time your letter to arrive while the issue is alive. If your legislator is a committee member, he will appreciate having your views while the bill is before him for study and action.

DO write letters of commendation when your legislator has done something of which you particularly approve.

DON'T write to a legislator from any other district except your own.

DON'T write letters that demand or insist he vote for or against a certain bill, or that tell him you want him to vote for, but not why.

DON'T threaten him with defeat at the next election.

DON'T write a chain letter, form letter, or postcard.

DON'T become a chronic letter writer.

DON'T write a legislator more than once on the same subject. Quality, not quantity, is what counts.

A fair employment practices law would provide for:

1. Establishment of a conciliation commission to adjust complaints of discrimination and to carry on educational work.
2. A separate board of review to hold hearings on any cases which could not be adjusted by conciliation and to issue cease and desist orders.
3. Court procedure for the ultimate enforcement of the law. Penalties could be imposed only by the court, after trial, and after refusal by the respondent to comply with the order of the court.

Experience has shown that this kind of law is needed:

1. It is needed because members of some racial, religious and nationality groups are often excluded from consideration for responsible jobs which would properly use their skills - generally because employers fear friction with other workers or customers.
2. It is needed to persuade employers to face the issue of discrimination squarely. When they do, they find their fears are largely unfounded and only a little intelligent effort is needed to employ workers on merit and without discrimination.
3. A commission protects employers and others against unfounded suspicions of discrimination. It is an impartial public body and is just as effective in clearing up false charges as it is in correcting discrimination when found.
4. A commission is given the responsibility for carrying out an educational program through the adjustment of cases and through conferences with business, labor and civic groups. Such a program has proved effective in other cities and states because the existence of the law impels those concerned to devote serious attention to it.

BECAUSE the present law acts to reduce the efficiency of the state departments. Vacancies, in many instances, must be filled by persons less qualified than others available for appointment because the less qualified persons have veterans' preference.

BECAUSE under the present law veterans' preference may be used for both entrance and promotional examinations. This creates dissatisfaction and hardship among state employees. Many capable non-veterans hesitate to take jobs with the state because the chances for promotion are so slim.

BECAUSE in these days of high taxes, the veteran and the non-veteran alike want their state government to be run as efficiently and economically as possible. This can only be done if all civil service jobs are filled by people who make high grades on the examinations.

BECAUSE the principle of the merit system requires the selection of public employees solely on the basis of merit and fitness, while veterans' preference requires that preference be extended to members of a special class on the basis of membership in that class. Thus veterans' preference is contrary to the merit system.

BECAUSE it would strengthen the two-party system. (At present only Minnesota and Nebraska, which has a unicameral legislature, elect their legislators on a non-party ticket).

BECAUSE the present non-partisan system does not mean that a legislator has no party. It only means that he doesn't have to tell his party affiliation on the ballot.

BECAUSE it would simplify the voter's choice, letting him know by party label which issues he is supporting when he votes for a candidate. As it is, the party to which the legislator belongs is known only to those who visit the legislature.

BECAUSE government should seek the solutions to problems which represent the will of most of the people. As it is many pressure groups, representing special and sectional interests, vie for the vote of legislators and exercise a disproportionate amount of influence for lack of any political party organization. The party should weigh these competing interests and decide which is the fair decision for most people. Then legislators should support that compromise as stated in the party platform.

BECAUSE it would force legislators to accept the responsibilities of party membership (such as working for the platform) along with the privileges which they now enjoy (such as the caucus, committee appointments, support for bills, party endorsement).

BECAUSE it would make the elected legislator as responsible for enacting into law the measures stated in his party platform as the Governor and other executive officers are now since they run with party labels.

FACTS ABOUT OUR STATE CONSTITUTION

- IF THEY SAY - The constitution is our fundamental law and is a sacred document.
TELL THEM - The constitution is our fundamental law, but it is not sacred. It was written by well-meaning men, prone to error and lacking in vision. An instrument of government should be flexible and dynamic, capable of renewing itself, as ours is not.
- IF THEY SAY - The present constitution is good enough. Are you prevented from doing anything you want to by the present constitution?
TELL THEM - Yes, many people are deprived of the most fundamental right of every citizen of a democracy - the right of equal representation in the legislature. Our American Revolution was fought in protest against the abuse of taxation without representation, a condition that exists in Minnesota today.
- IF THEY SAY - Constitutional revision would mean reapportionment and then the big cities would get control of the state.
TELL THEM - Delegates to a convention would be elected in the same way and number as members of the House of Representatives. It is unlikely that this rural majority would favor a reapportionment which would give control of the legislature to the urban communities.
- IF THEY SAY - Legislators cannot be delegates so we will have to send inexperienced people and impractical theorists to a convention. A lot of radicals might get control.
TELL THEM - If Amendment 2 is passed, legislators can be delegates to the convention. If Amendment 2 is not passed, there are plenty of others qualified to serve. Since the convention will be elected in the same way as the House of Representatives, it is likely that the convention will be conservative, not radical, in tone.
- IF THEY SAY - The proposed constitution would make the governor a dictator. It would put him in charge of finances and to a large degree of the courts.
TELL THEM - The "proposed constitution" is not necessarily the one that the convention would write. The reforms which the Constitutional Commission suggest in our judiciary and executive branch are similar to changes made in states which have recently modernized their constitutions and do reflect the considered opinion of men qualified to pass on such matters. The separation of powers would be retained in any constitution so no governor could become a dictator.
- IF THEY SAY - True, there are many obsolete provisions, but these can easily be removed by amendment.
TELL THEM - We have amended the constitution 75 times and yet our obsolete provisions have not been removed, though the need has been reiterated for the last 26 years. The present provision of our amending process which says that an amendment must have a majority of all votes cast at the election makes our constitution difficult to amend.
- IF THEY SAY - The present constitution is good enough; it doesn't need to be revised.
TELL THEM - The question of whether our constitution should be revised by a convention should be decided by the people of Minnesota. The legislature should allow Minnesota citizens the opportunity of voting on whether or not a constitutional convention should be called.
- IF THEY SAY - The revised constitution would not be approved by the people.
TELL THEM - If Amendment 2 passes, the convention must submit the revised constitution to the people. If it does not, citizens must elect delegates who feel the responsibility of submitting the constitution to the voters.

FACTS ABOUT FAIR EMPLOYMENT LEGISLATION

- IF THEY SAY - Fair employment legislation means more government control.
TELL THEM - Every law restricts the freedom of some people in order to prevent injury to others. The only freedom which is limited by the law is the freedom to hire a less competent worker and to reject a more competent applicant because of prejudice against him.
- IF THEY SAY - The enforcement powers provided in the law are dangerous and objectionable.
TELL THEM - The Commission has no power to issue orders, impose penalties or to give publicity to any case. It is a conciliation body only. If the Commission's conciliation should fail, a Board of Review would hear all the facts, would either dismiss the complaint or would order any action necessary to remedy the discriminatory practice found. Either party may appeal the Board of Review's decision to the District Court. Only the Court has ultimate enforcement power. Refusal to comply with an order of the Court would make the violator guilty of contempt.
- IF THEY SAY - An employer's business may be injured if he is forced to hire incompetents or employees whom his customers dislike.
TELL THEM - The experience of Dayton's is typical. Over the past 5 years, the company has employed Negro workers in sales and other positions throughout the store. Donald Dayton says, "We have been operating with people from many minority groups for some time. The difficulties of integration which we feared might arise just never did. Both the public and our own employees seemed to receive the plan with hearty approval." The whole purpose of the law is to persuade employers to hire on the basis of the applicant's merit and competence.
- IF THEY SAY - Minnesota does not need fair employment legislation.
TELL THEM - The fact is that the practice of discrimination in the state is widespread and serious. The welfare of 22,000 Negroes, 18,000 Indians, and several thousand other racial, national, and religious minorities should be of concern to all the people in the state. The principal problem attacked by the law is not the problem of unemployment but the problem of underemployment. There is a great loss of potential productive power when college graduates, skilled machinists, or able sales men and women are restricted to laboring jobs.
- IF THEY SAY - It can be done better by education than by legislation; you can't legislate morals and human understanding.
TELL THEM - The fair employment practice acts do not attempt to legislate morals; they merely prohibit illegal acts of discrimination. There is no conflict between the proposed legislation and a program of education since this legislation provides for the use of every effective educational device.
- IF THEY SAY - This is a problem which chiefly concerns the three largest cities.
TELL THEM - It is not true that the problem is limited to the three largest cities. For one thing an important portion of industrial employment in the metropolitan areas lies outside the jurisdiction of the city governments. Furthermore, the largest racial minority out in the state is the American Indian group. Only a very small proportion of the Indian people in the state reside in the principal cities.

FACTS ABOUT VETERANS' PREFERENCE IN CIVIL SERVICE

IF THEY SAY - Don't you think veterans deserve special treatment?

TELL THEM - Yes, veterans and disabled veterans certainly deserve to have special treatment in the way of extra points added to their examination grade. (10 points preference for a disabled veteran and 5 points for non-disabled veterans) But all persons taking the examination should be required to first get a passing grade before the preference points are added.

IF THEY SAY - Don't you think veterans will resent the taking away of some of their preference?

TELL THEM - Most people, veteran and non-veterans alike, want their state offices to be run as efficiently as possible. Efficiency requires the best man for the job. As it is now many capable non-veterans will not try for a civil service job because the chances of promotion are so poor. It is significant that veterans appearing before a commission studying this problem expressed a willingness to compete with non-veterans on an equal basis for promotions.

IF THEY SAY - The great wealth of talent found among veteran applicants at this time makes possible the appointment of well qualified persons.

TELL THEM - Yes, but it is expected that in times of future economic crises, veterans will more widely avail themselves of their rights to preference. This is a problem not only of quantity, but quality, for the least efficient workers are generally the first to be laid off by private industry. The veterans among these workers will undoubtedly take advantage of the preference available to them in Civil Service.

IF THEY SAY - But don't you think the disabled veteran is entitled to all the preference we can give him?

TELL THEM - A disabled veteran certainly deserves more preference than a non-veteran if he is truly disabled. But under the present law the term "disabled veteran" is not defined. The report of the Veteran's Preference in Public Employment Commission recommends that a disabled veteran should be defined as one who is certified by the Veterans Administration to have 10% or more disability.

IF THEY SAY - I think these changes should be made, but I wouldn't dare vote against the veteran.

TELL THEM - The majority of veterans are not in civil service and they, along with many who are, feel that civil service workers should be efficient, capable people. Veterans are citizens and pay taxes. They want efficient service from the state government who spends those taxes.

FACTS ABOUT PARTY DESIGNATION FOR LEGISLATORS

IF THEY SAY - Party Designation for legislators may lead to national party control of state officials.

TELL THEM - National party control of state party organizations is limited by law. Even if that were not so, it would be better to have our lawmakers answerable to a party, whose membership is open to every interested citizen, rather than to private interests who lobby for selfish gains. Party designation would strengthen the two-party system which is one of the keystones in American political democracy.

IF THEY SAY - Some legislators who have served the state for many years might not be re-elected if they had to declare their party affiliations.

TELL THEM - In that case the candidate may not be the choice of the majority of voters in his district and his election without party designation defeats democratic principles. The non-partisan system does not mean that a legislator has no party. It only means he doesn't have to tell his party affiliation on the ballot.

IF THEY SAY - People should vote for a man and not a party.

TELL THEM - The majority of voters are more familiar with party principles than they are with those of individual candidates. Party platforms express the will of the majority of party members.

IF THEY SAY - If we get party designation in the state legislature, won't the next step be party designation on a city, county, and township level?

TELL THEM - There may be some danger of this. However, although 46 of the 48 states have party designation on the state level, less than half of the cities in the U.S. of over 5,000 population have party designation on the local level, and there seems to be no increase in this number over the last ten years which would indicate a trend. Alert citizens could stop a trend if it did develop.

IF THEY SAY - Electing legislators without party designation seems to work out all right, so why change?

TELL THEM - Minnesota's executive officers, elected with party designation, are bound to support and carry out the principles and program set forth in their party platform. It is logical that the law-making body of the state government should also be responsible for supporting legislation called for in the party platforms. If the present plan works so well, why isn't more legislation in the public interest (supported by the majority of interested voters in both major parties) passed during the legislative sessions?

IF THEY SAY - I feel that the majority of voters who do not belong to any party are much better represented under our present plan.

TELL THEM - It would still be possible for any candidate who disagreed fundamentally with the political thinking of both parties to run as an Independent, for which provision is made in the law. So if a voter found his views better expressed in the statements of an Independent candidate than in the platform of either of the major political parties, he would be free to vote for the Independent candidate.

IF THEY SAY - Party designation would lead to control by political bosses.

TELL THEM - Not so long as the people elect to public office men of ability and character, capable of independent analysis and judgment, who do not follow suggestions of various groups simply to curry their favor and their vote.

Dear Senator:

We are looking forward to again working with you in the 1953 session of the Minnesota Legislature.

As you will remember, the League of Women Voters is a non-partisan organization, whose purpose is to promote political responsibility of citizens. We have units in fifty different towns and cities throughout the state.

We are sending along to you a copy of our state program and our reasons for supporting these items. We would like you to know that again, the state legislative committee, as well as the resource chairman for each of these four items, stand ready to help by making available to you any information or material on these vital subjects in which we are all interested.

We have also included your name on our mailing list for our state publication, The Articulate Voter, for the next few issues. We hope you will find it interesting and helpful.

Sincerely,

CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION

BECAUSE our present constitution is too lengthy (almost 3 times longer than the federal constitution) and too detailed ($\frac{1}{4}$ of its more than 19,000 words are devoted to a complete listing of 70 trunk highway routes) and has been amended 75 times.

BECAUSE our present constitution is antiquated. For instance, it says that our state debt should be limited to $250,000 when in fact our debt on Dec. 31, 1951, was $127,295,000. Such openly flaunted provisions create a lack of respect for what should be our most valued state document.

BECAUSE our present constitution is inflexible. The legislature meets every 2 years for 90 days. That time limit appeared adequate in 1857, but now the legislators "cover the clock" to make the session last another 120 hours. Even so, more than 80 bills were passed by the House on the "last" day of the session in 1951. Consequently the legislators could not possibly know the contents of all bills and many worthwhile measures were lost in the last minute rush.

BECAUSE our present constitution is irresponsible. For instance, we call the governor the "chief executive" and yet we really have a five-headed executive when you include the secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, and attorney-general. Since each of the five officials is elected it is possible to have executives of different political beliefs holding office at the same time. Such a situation can never result in efficient teamwork.

CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION

FAIR EMPLOYMENT LEGISLATION

VETERANS' PREFERENCE IN CIVIL SERVICE

PARTY DESIGNATION FOR LEGISLATORS

BECAUSE our present constitution is unfair. For instance, many state representatives speak for as few as 6,000 voters, while others speak for as many as 40,000. This is because the legislature, in spite of a great increase and shift in population since 1910, has not revised the legislative districts since that time.

BECAUSE our present constitution is too rigid. Many of the amendments, while providing new ways of getting revenue, provide also just how that revenue must be allocated, with the result that certain state operations are adequately financed while others are not. Another example of rigidity is the requirement of a vote by the people to change the tax rate on the railroads. The rate on other industries is changed by legislators.

BECAUSE our present constitution is restrictive. It allows the local communities very little home rule, and as a consequence the legislature spends much of its time on local affairs which they might better spend on matters of statewide importance. Legislators cannot know the local problems of every town, so they must take the word of a few or frequently a single representative that "this would be a good thing for our town".

BECAUSE our present constitution is lax in regard to the qualifications for judges and other court officials. For example, only supreme and district court judges need be "learned in the law", thus probate and municipal judges, justices of the peace, clerks of supreme and district courts, and court commissioners need not be trained in the legal profession.

Dear Sir:

We offer our congratulations on your election to the Minnesota Legislature.

The League of Women Voters, as you probably know, is a non-partisan organization, whose purpose is to promote political responsibility of citizens. We have units in fifty different towns and cities throughout the state.

We are sending along to you a copy of our state program and our reasons for supporting these items. We would like you to know that we have resource chairmen for each of these four items, and they, as well as the state legislative committee, stand ready to help by making available to you any information or material on these vital subjects in which we are all interested.

We have also included your name on our mailing list for our state publication, The Articulate Voter, for the next few issues. We hope you will find it interesting and helpful.

We shall be looking forward to working with you during the 1953 session.

Sincerely,

Mari Donohue
Mrs. John K. Donohue
State Legislative Chairman

PROGRAM
SUGGESTIONS

This is just a reminder that January 15th is the deadline for state program suggestions. Don't forget that we are asking for a response from every League whether or not they have suggestions to offer. If your League is satisfied with the present program we want to know that, too.

FINANCE

Mrs. Johnson, state finance chairman, would appreciate your returning the preliminary finance report which was sent you on September 2nd. She needs this information on your plans for reports to the national Board. Upon receipt of the preliminary report, we will send you 2 copies of the final fund-raising report (one for your files, the other to be sent to the state office.) Please remind your finance chairman to send this report if she has not done so.

EDUCATIONAL T.V.

The response from local Leagues concerning educational television showed that, while the majority of Leagues were favorably inclined toward the idea, they felt additional information was needed. Therefore, the state Board agreed that the League of Women Voters of Minnesota would support the idea of educational television for Minnesota but that we need more information before taking a position on specific proposals regarding the establishment of it.

CONSTITUTIONAL
REVISION

One of the main topics of discussion at the state Board meeting on December 4th was "What should we do now that Amendment 2 has been defeated?" It was agreed that we might have to support any one of a number of bills that might be introduced. These were the possibilities that we could foresee

1. Submission to the voters of the question of calling a constitutional convention (with or without the provisions of Amendment 2).
2. Amending the present amending process.
3. Single amendments which effect revision of specific sections of the constitution.

LEGISLATIVE TOURS

Mrs. Donohue, state Legislative Chairman, has completed a schedule for tours of the Legislature for the local Leagues. You will be sent a form designating the day that has been selected for your League. Please see that as many members as possible sign up to make this trip. I know everyone of them will find it tremendously interesting and informative.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR

COME AND SEE

YOUR STATE LEGISLATURE IN SESSION

Our much talked-of "Tours to the Capitol" are now arranged. Attached you will find a complete schedule of the tours with specific dates for each local League. As you see, we have planned in certain instances for several Leagues to come at one time in order to insure a good group coming through.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TOURS

- Meet your tour leader at the Information Desk in the Capitol Rotunda at 10 a.m. sharp. She will have copies of the legislative publications for the day to distribute to you.
- You will go to the Senate Gallery. The Senate is then in session. You will be introduced by your local Senator who has been informed of your visit.
- Next, breaking up into small groups, you will proceed to sit in on House committee hearings.
- Lunch with your senator or representative. You may, at this time, talk with him about League Program if you wish.
- Go into House Gallery which is now in session. Be introduced there by your representative.
- Attend Senate committee hearings.

It will be necessary to have you notify the state League office TEN DAYS IN ADVANCE of your tour date as to how many we can expect from your League. We must have prior notice in order to make plans for gallery seats and lunch. Where we are able to do so, we will arrange for your senator and representative to lunch with you. We are suggesting that the local League stand the expense of the luncheons for their own representative and senator.

SEND THIS TO STATE OFFICE TEN DAYS BEFORE THE DATE OF YOUR TOUR

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF MINNESOTA

84 SOUTH TENTH STREET, ROOM 406

MINNEAPOLIS 3, MINNESOTA

Atlantic 0941

January 28, 1953

To: Local League Presidents
From: Mrs. K. K. McMillan, state president

By the time this letter reaches you the Legislature will have been convened and be hard at work. At this session bills of great importance to you as individuals and to the well-being of the state of Minnesota will be presented. I hope that all of you are keeping in touch with what is going on so that you will be ready to support League-sponsored bills when they come up for consideration. I also hope all of your legislators have been contacted and they know you are interested and firmly behind the legislative program of the League.

ORGANIZATION REPORT A questionnaire which is to be used by the state Organization Chairman in reporting to the national Board is enclosed. Will you have it filled out and return it to the state office by March 1st? Your treasurer has been notified that she is to fill out the bottom of it.

TV As President of the League of Women Voters I have been appointed to the Executive Committee of the Minnesota Citizens Committee for Education Television. The membership of this committee has recently been increased in order to broaden its base and to obtain the viewpoints of a number of additional organizations interested in educational tv. Almost all of the objections and reservations that the Local Leagues expressed have been resolved satisfactorily. There does remain the question of finance. I am sorry I do not have, as yet, that complete information. You will be notified as soon as it is available.

Speaking of TV...have you seen the excellent series of "Know Your City Government" that the Minneapolis League is presenting every Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. over WCCO, Channel 4? Although this program deals exclusively with Minneapolis city government, it is of interest to every League member throughout the state.

PUBLICATION You received, along with Mrs. Lee's letter of December 12, a pamphlet published by the AAUW called "Currents and Cross Currents". This is a very important and timely publication. I strongly urge you to encourage every member of your League to purchase a copy (10¢) or, at least to read thoroughly someone else's copy. I feel that the League of Women Voters (which is sometimes under attack) can be a steady influence in their communities by being able to analyze and evaluate any "attack" literature they may read or hear about. This type of thing is of growing concern to us and we need to "keep a level head".

PROGRAM Congratulations! More Leagues responded with state Program suggestions than ever before. Although we did not reach, by any means, our 100% goal we still have a chance. Because of legislative decisions and other problems we have had to call another Board meeting early in February. This means that Leagues which did not send in a letter concerning state Program may still do so. It would be a great achievement if we could have 100% participation this year. Won't you do your part?

LEGISLATIVE KITS Mrs. Donohue, Legislative Chairman, felt that you would be interested in seeing the information used by our lobbyists. We agreed so you will find in this mailing a "lobbyist's Legislative Kit". Because the material in it is of use to everyone you may want additional copies - the price, as usual, is 1¢ per page. The maps, published by the Minn. Restaurant Ass'n., may be obtained from the state office for 5¢ each.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

League Stand

The League of Women Voters of Minnesota in the interests of responsible, efficient and democratic government in our state will work for a CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Resume *

Authors of HF#22 in the 1951 Session in the House were Mr. Holmquist, Christie, F.K. Peterson, Cina and Forbes.

This bill provided for a Convention to revise the Constitution of the State of Minnesota. The Constitution is outmoded and has many obsolete provisions. Both political party conventions in their platforms carried planks for such action. However, some influential groups in the State fear that "special-interest" provisions now imbedded in the Constitution would be eliminated at such a convention and so they oppose calling one.

In the Committee of the Whole, the House on February 28, 1951, recommended that the bill be indefinitely postponed. Mr. Holmquist moved when this report came before the House, that the report be amended by striking the language "to be indefinitely postponed" and inserting in lieu thereof "to pass". This motion was defeated by a vote of 53 yeas and 63 nays. (A vote yes was in effect a vote for HF#22). So the bill was killed.

EMPLOYMENT ON MERIT

League Stand

The League of Women Voters of Minnesota in the interests of responsible, efficient and democratic government in our state will work for THE ENACTMENT OF A FAIR EMPLOYMENT LAW AND OTHER LEGISLATION TO CORRECT DISCRIMINATION.

Resume *

Authors of HF#74 in the 1951 Session in the House were Mr. Langley, P.K. Peterson, Children, Dirlam and Oberg.
Authors of SF#69 in the Senate were Mr. Mullin, Rosenmeier, and Vukelich.

This bill provided for a Fair Employment Practices Commission to prevent discrimination in employment and labor practices based on race, color, religion or national origin. Both the Republican and Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party Platforms called for Fair Employment Legislation, and it was a major plank in the Governor's platform.

In the House on March 21, the authors of the bill moved to place it on Special Orders. This motion was defeated by a vote of 71 yeas to 42 nays (the motion requiring a 2/3 vote, or 88 in the House). On March 28th, the authors of the bill again moved to place it on Special Orders. This motion was carried 90 to 36.

On March 29th, Mr. Forbes moved to amend the bill making it apply only to cities over 50,000 population which would mean only Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth. This motion was defeated by a vote of 38 yeas and 66 nays. Later that same day, a Duxbury-Forbes amendment to include household servants, employees of religious and fraternal groups, and employees of a firm with less than eight persons, was passed with 69 yeas and 54 nays. This was an effort to create more opposition to the bill. Then again on the same day, a Duxbury-Forbes amendment to hamper the FEPC Commission by forbidding it to try to eliminate discrimination by means of education, conference, and conciliation procedures and to conduct research and publication of its findings was defeated by a vote of 51 yeas and 66 nays. Still again the same day, a Duxbury-Forbes crippling amendment was presented to prevent the FEPC Commission from issuing a complaint. Experience shows that where discrimination does exist it usually is voluntarily dropped when a complaint is issued. This amendment was passed by a vote of 68 yeas and 55 nays. Still again Forbes pressed for an amendment to include protection by the law for those with "facial or bodily disfigurement, blindness, deafness, or physically handicapped." This was an effort to use the disabilities of unfortunate human beings as a method of creating hostility toward the bill. The amendment was defeated by a vote of 40 yeas and 68 nays. The bill as amended finally passed the House on March 29th, 1951, with 75 yeas and 48 nays.

In the Senate on April 9, 1951, Mr. Sletvold, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported the bill back with the recommendation that the bill be indefinitely postponed. Mr. Mullin, one of the authors of the bill, feeling that there were not enough votes to defeat Mr. Sletvold's motion, moved a substitute motion to send the bill back to the committee for further consideration. This motion carried by a vote of 36 yeas and 31 nays. The bill was later killed in the Committee.

So the Fair Employment Bill was defeated in the 1951 session of the Legislature.

VETERANS PREFERENCE IN CIVIL SERVICE

League Stand

The League of Women Voters of Minnesota in the interests of responsible, efficient and democratic government in our state will work for AN EFFICIENT CIVIL SERVICE SYSTEM.

Resume

Authors of HF#1403 in the House were Mr. Illsley, Rinke, Forbes and Letnes. Authors of SF#1214, a companion bill in the Senate, were Mr. Duff, Novak, Johanson.

The 1951 Session of the Legislature made no change in the Veterans Preference Law although the Legislature has had the benefit of three studies of Veterans Preference. (The Legislative Research Committee report, 1948, merely examined the facts; the Little Hoover Commission Report, 1951, and the Interim Committee on Veterans Preference in Public Employment Report, 1951, made recommendations for change in the law.)

The outcome of the hearings of the Interim Committee on Veterans Preference (appointed by 1949 Legislature) was a bill approved by all members except the Disabled American Veterans representative. The bill did not get out of the Veterans and Military Affairs Committee in the House. (Chairman, Mr. Illsley; Vice-chairman, Mr. Clark) Lack of leadership plus indifference and lack of understanding of the existing situation, and the fact that the bill was very controversial undoubtedly were the reasons.

The Senate committee did pass the bill (Soldiers' Welfare and Soldiers' Home Committee; Chairman, Mr. Grottum); but since the House committee had killed it, Mr. Duff, the author, did not ask the Senators to vote on it. Instead he asked them to study the bill and come back next session prepared to take action on Veterans Preference.

In the closing days of the session a bill was passed authorizing the establishment of a civil service personnel system in any city of the second, third or fourth class, village or borough and providing for the operation and abolishment of such system. Such a merit system would be subject to the veterans' preference law without modification.

PARTY DESIGNATION

League Stand

The League of Women Voters of Minnesota in the interests of responsible, efficient and democratic government in our state will work for PARTY DESIGNATION.

Resume *

Authors of HF#9 in the House were Mr. Oberg, P.K. Peterson, Day, Schulz and Chilgren.

This bill which was introduced in the 1951 Session in the House provided for party designation when running as a candidate for the Legislature. Only Nebraska goes along with Minnesota in keeping voters from knowing to what political party a candidate belongs. Both the Republican and Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party Platforms called for Party Designation, but some legislators think it is to their advantage to continue the "independent" status.

In the Committee of the Whole, the House voted to indefinitely postpone this bill. When this report came formally before the House, Mr. Schulz moved to amend the report by substituting the words "to pass" for the words "to be indefinitely postponed". This action lost by a vote of 53 yeas to 59 nays. (A vote yes is a vote for Party Designation). So the bill was defeated.

LEGISLATIVE ETIQUETTE

League Legislative Etiquette is determined by the fact that the League's contact with public officials is a continuing contact with the purpose of building up a permanent friendly relationship.

1. For attendance at committee meetings:

1. Play poker face - Giggles of mirth or ohs and ahs or horror are equally bad. Public officials are no less sensitive to ridicule than are other people. It is therefore well not to join in laughter at jokes at the expense of a member.
2. Refrain from remarks and comments until after the meeting. The least a visitor can do is not to add to the confusion. In smaller meetings it is often possible for the members to guess the kind of thing that is being said.
3. Reserve judgment of any legislative body until after more than one visit. A better understanding of methods of work is always obtained through further study.

11. For interviews with Legislators

1. It should be born in mind that there are at least three purposes to an interview:
 - a. To put the League on record in the hope of influencing the Legislator's vote;
 - b. To obtain information;
 - c. To make a friend for the League. Your interview may effect a later vote on some other measure even if it does not have any apparent effect upon the one under immediate consideration.
2. It is helpful to be familiar with previous contacts which the League has had with the Legislator such as interviews so that by referring to them you are certain the Legislator has a complete picture of the League's work. The State Office of the League is glad to provide information on such contacts.
3. Plan your approach and the statement of the reasons for support of the measure under consideration before the interview, but keep your method flexible so that you can adapt it to the developments of the interview.
4. Be sure to express appreciation of any support which the Legislator has given to League measures in the past.
5. Listen appreciatively to all jokes and stories.
6. Do not get into an argument. If there is no possible basis for agreement, express appreciation of the opportunity of hearing his point of view and regret that his position is not in accord with the League's and retire as gracefully as possible. Leave the way open to come back again.

THE DO'S AND DON'TS OF LOBBYING

1. Remember when you interview your representatives, that they have been chosen by the majority of the voters in your district to act for that district in the highest legislative body in the state; that these representatives are sincere and do a good deal of very hard work.
2. Make an appointment before calling at a legislator's office or residence, so that he will not feel that the visit is an intrusion. It is desirable that you take another League member along for the interview.
3. Never overstay your time. Take your cue for leaving from your representative.
4. KNOW YOUR MEASURE THOROUGHLY and be able to ANSWER OPPOSITION to it.
5. Let your representative talk and present his side fully. It is helpful to learn his point of view.
6. Do not take notes during the interview, but if you expect to make a report fill it in as soon as possible afterwards.
7. Please note and report any NEW ARGUMENTS AGAINST the measure presented during the interview.
8. Don't be afraid to admit ignorance on special points. Say, "I will look that up and let you know later," and be sure to do so.
9. Confine your conversation as far as possible to the measures you are discussing, and if measures come up which are not on the League's support program, explain that in the League we do not support measures unless they have been studied for at least a year, that we try to do a few things well rather than a lot superficially.
10. Remember that the League is strictly non-partisan and that we as members are interested in the public merits of the measure.
11. Keep a sense of proportion and realize the subject in which you are so interested may not be important to the person you are interviewing, except as you are able to make it so.
12. It will aid greatly in an interview if you know something of the legislator's record, especially if he has voted on measures in which we are interested.
13. Leave the legislator with a friendly feeling, even though he turns you down. Say you are sorry you can't agree and do not emphasize the difference of opinion.

U. S. CONGRESSMEN MAY BE ADDRESSED AT HOUSE OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C.

When Congress Passes a Law relating to business, you as a business man know pretty well what the effect of that law will be. But experience has shown that members of Congress do not always know how and why their legislative acts will affect business, unless business men write and tell them. Your views are always welcome, for the men who stay in Congress the longest are those who read and heed their constituents' letters. BUT there's a right way to write effectively to your Congressman. May we offer these suggestions:

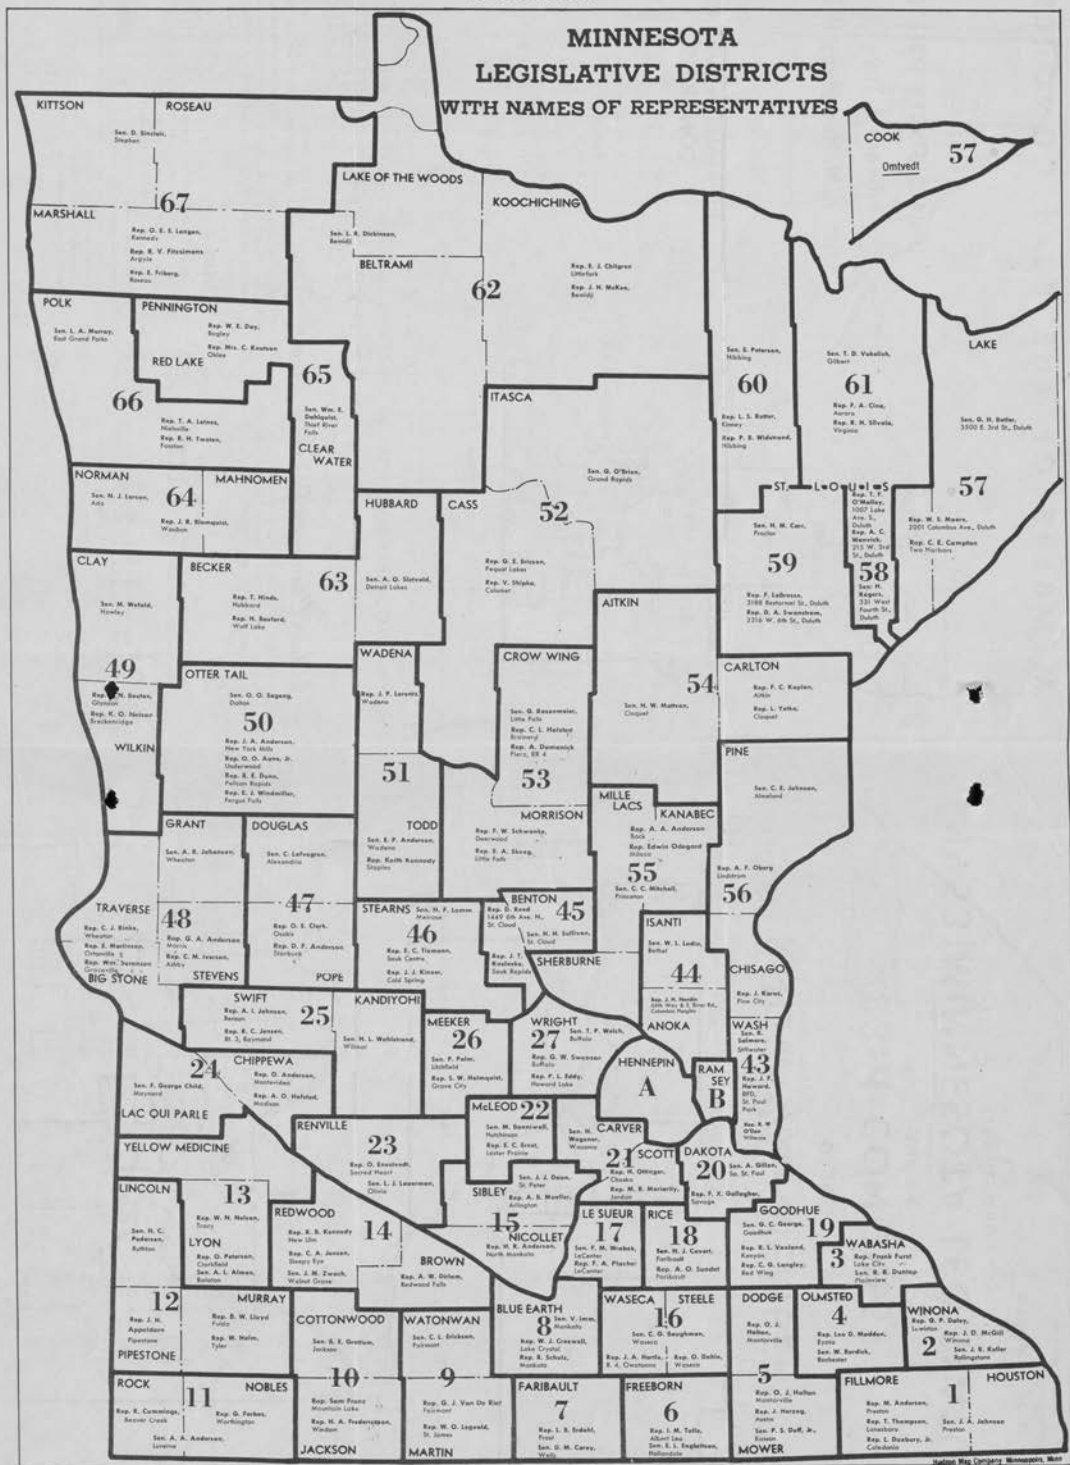

Do

- spell your Congressman's name correctly
- make sure whether he is a Senator or a Representative
- state concisely what you think and why—the briefer, the better
- be sure of your facts
- cite specific illustrations, whenever possible, as to effects proposed legislation would have on your business and your workers
- write on your business stationery
- sign your name plainly. Type it under the signature
- send a letter rather than a telegram when time permits
- seize every opportunity to become personally acquainted with your Congressman

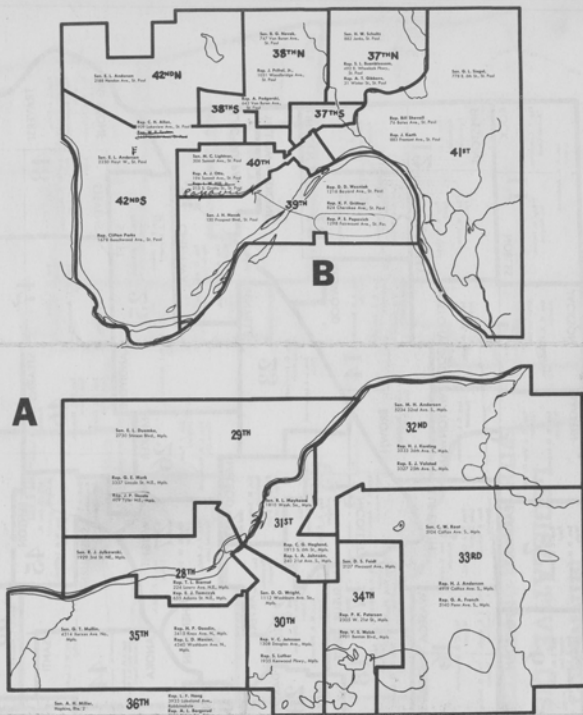

Don't

- threaten political reprisals
- write in a captious or belligerent mood
- remind your Congressman of broken promises
- attempt to speak for anybody but yourself
- insert newspaper clippings or mimeograph material
- send a chain letter or postcard
- quote from form letters
- write only when you want a favor. Letters of commendation are always welcome
- try to make an errand boy out of your Congressman
- become a chronic letter writer
