Sunday Evening May 4. Was to have tried to see Mr. Whiting for words to have the effect of Francia on him (Francia by title is a similar poet!) number of observations tendrils for roots and on these sharpest sweetest tendrils to the general outline. He was followed by Judge Hour who subscribed 100 & declared his willing ness to give as much more for every Kan sas battle where Free State men should be victorious.

Mr. Augier, Mr. Sanborn who advocated this union if a free state should not be elec ted next term. Mr. Thoreau whose sympathies were valued by him at 100 and Mr. Conway who told a story about a little who thought I should like to go to H. L. Saturday after noon and said that if Squatter Sovereignty was democracy it perhaps would be better to go to the Feejee islands.

(Conway before Sanborn)
Mr. Keyes then announced the Concord contributions as amounting to $62 & the officers of the meeting were appointed a com

Mr Whitman of Kansas gave a description of
of the <sup>and sufferings</sup> wrongs of the Kansas people <sup>up to</sup> the sacking of Lawrence. Mr. W. has had rank of. for obs. being assistant Surg. at Arms to the Cong. Comm. He states the objects of the Southern rights conspirators has been to set the free state men free revolutionary light & to outrage them into assault upon Douglas County Sheriffs or United States Marshals. It was a conspiracy and was frustrated by the determination, non resistant law-abiding policy of the men of Lawrence The statesmanlike conduct of their leaders in persisting in the non resistant policy avoiding all conflict with U. S. laws or officers and resisting or disobeying only the territorial laws.

Mr. W. of Kansas followed enlarging in some respects Mr. W's details but add some little
