FLESH EATERS

The legendary, incendiary FLESH EATERS rocket to the head of the class while side—stepping hardcore punk and knocking aside dance—oriented synth—pop bands. Critics and audiences alike have been unable to categorize the band causing endless confusion to record company execs and club promoters. Elements from punk, heavy metal, r&b and country connect up in strange cohesion. On paper it may sound like a collection of disparate parts joined haphazardly together, but if you've seen the band live or heard their previous releases A MINUTE TO PRAY, A SECOND TO DIE(JRR101) or FOREVER CAME TODAY(JRR 805), both on Ruby/Slash Records you know how well it works. THE FLESH EATERS play rock 'n roll, probably the most commercial yet still wild rock 'n roll since THE SEX PISTOLS. And if THE FLESH EATERS aren't dance music, what is? The new LP, A HARD ROAD TO FOLLOW is composed of twelve songs, ten originals and two covers, "Rhymes" by Al Green and "I Take What I Want" by Ann Peebles.

Singer/producer, Chris D. (he's also produced debut LPS for THE GUN CLUB and THE DREAM SYNDICATE) started THE FLESH EATERS in October 1977. The group went through various line-ups until putting a moratorium on live appearances in August 1978. A four song EP "Radio Dies Screaming" was released October '78. Chris continued to record with assorted studio line-ups, releasing material on the TOOTH AND NAIL sampler and a FLESH EATERS' LP NO QUESTIONS ASKED (both on Upsetter Records, who, ironically enough, welcome home THE FLESH EATERS for this, their 4th LP, HARD ROAD). In October '80 Chris put together friends from THE BLASTERS and X to make up THE FLESH EATERS 2nd LP A MINUTE TO PRAY, A SECOND TO DIE which was the first release on Ruby/Slash Records. The group did a series of live shows from February to August '81 at which time conflicting schedules curtailed further appearances. Chris pulled together the existing line-up in November of the same year. They began playing live December '81, recorded their third LP FOREVER CAME TODAY for Ruby, and have remained intact till the present day.

Guitarist, Don Kirk, was born in Midland, Texas and has played guitar off and on since the age of 11. He moved to L.A. in 1970 at the age of 17 and has lived here ever since. THE FLESH EATERS were Don's first band but not because of a lack of offers. "With the FLESH EATERS I felt for the first time I had an outlet for my style of playing." Robyn Jameson, bassist, was born in Stuttgart, Germany. His first musical instrument was classical piano which he played from age 6 to 14. At 16 he took up drums and guitar. At age 22 he moved from Europe to Houston, Texas where he started playing bass guitar. He didn't play with any bands until moving to L.A., his present home. Previous combos include THE TRANSIENTS and THE BLANK ENSEMBLE. Drummer, Chris Wahl is a California native and spent time growing up in both the San Fernando Valley and New Jersey. He's played drums since early teenhood, mainly in cover bands or bands that never made it out of the garage...until THE FLESH EATERS. Chris' one off-again, on-again side project is WEASEL MUSIC a dissonant jazz-punk outfit. Back-up singer, Jill Jordan, another California native, grew up in Porterville, Hermosa Beach and Los Angeles.Jill previously sang with all-girl aggravation aggregation CASTRATION SQUAD. Upon completion of this newest LP, Jill left THE FLESH EATERS to further her career as clothing designer. Her replacement, Stephanie Heasley(she's not on the record), was born in Washington, D.C. and has lived in Maryland, Virgina, and New Orleans before she came to L.A. eight years ago. She began singing in church choirs...before graduating to bands the likes of NERVOUS GENDER and GOBSCHEIT.

AND HERE'S WHAT SOME OF THE MORE ENLIGHTENED CRITICS HAD TO SAY ABOUT PREVIOUS FLESH EATERS' RECORDS "FOREVER CAME TODAY" AND "A MINUTE TO PRAY, A SECOND TO DIE" ON RUBY RECORDS

'An even more readily accesible mixture of punk, heavy metal and early rock'n roll influences' - ROBERT PALMER - New York Times

'THE BEST BAND I HAVE HEARD IN THE LAST SIX YEARS. But don't listen to me when you can get it straight from the vampire's mouth. Buy the third Flesh Eaters' LP FOREVER CAME TODAY, or better yet, put on your best fright wig and see 'em when they come to your town.'

- TOM GIVAN - New York Rocker

'The Flesh Eaters have a lot to say...Chris Desjardins is a poet of some worth...the music is blistering rock'n roll, more accessible than one would first think." - Billboard

'Enjoying the Flesh Eaters depends on one's willingness to accept Desjardins' unorthodox assault. It's worth the effort...a rewarding work, filled with an intensely poetic symbology of death and desperate beauty...a heartfelt look at the disease, pain and burning urgency of love.' - CRAIG LEE - Los Angeles Times

'...if you took a shine to the outfit's previous astringent effort A MINUTE TO PRAY, A SECOND TO DIE, this new LP will not disappoint...' - DAVID CHUTE - Los Angeles Herald Examiner

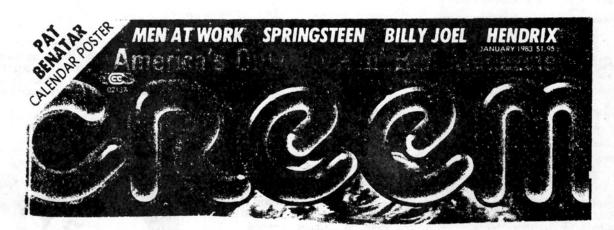

'This LP edges closer to the Great Punk-Metal Fusion that's undoubtedly just a gleam in an enterprising accountant's eye.' DON WALLER - L.A. Weekly

'Without question this month's pick of the stack. Chris D.'s latest combo of Flesh Eaters is the best yet, surpassing even the X/Blasters group that spiced up A MINUTE TO PRAY, A SECOND TO DIE...the white heat of a wall of upfront buzzsaw guitars up against a rich catalogue of roots rhythms: anthemic rock'n roll...' - J. NEO - Ego Mag

'Chris D. is the best singer/songwriter that's ever poked his pate above the stiflin' smog that covers the L.A. sweatbasin.' - BYRON COLEY - New York Rocker

'Chris D.'s singing is fascinating, sometimes brilliant. A voice that crawls, cuts, wails, burns, a tortured John Cale type vacuuming his soul.' - SYLVIE SIMMONS - Sounds(UK)

'...rhythm section Robyn Jameson on bass and drummer Chris Wahl is as incendiary as napalm, and guitarist, Don Kirk, is a real treasure...he kicks up such a hailstorm of fuzzed-out noise that he sounds as though he's been playing rock'n roll since the invention of electricity. I haven't heard a guitar player unwind this kind of hurting sound since James Williamson...maintains the feverish standard set by last year's striking A MINUTE TO PRAY, A SECOND TO DIE...as devilish and combustible as its predecessor, and it offers proof that Chris D. doesn't need an all-star cast to set the underbrush aflame. I recommend it to all those who admire high passion and twelve-gauge impact in rock 'n roll.' CHRIS MORRIS - L.A. Reader

No kidding about madman/lyricist/singer Chris Desjardins either. He makes Ozzy O. sound like the Love Boat the Ozz now physically scribed all the lyrics in shaky capital letters on the innersleeve in an apparent fit of compulsive, speed freak printing-urge that looks like a

almost clean in an unnatural way, effectively setting off Chris' hollered. claim, "Masterpieces can be coaxed from the ruins of five drunken

THE FLESH EATERS

May 24, 1983

THE FLESH EATERS have just made a video available of their song "THE WEDDING DICE" from the Ruby Records LP FOREVER CAME TODAY. The video blends band performance with the ghost story of a love affair that ends in tragedy. Featured in a cameo is veteran B movie queen, MARY WORONOV. "THE WEDDING DICE" will be followed in mid-June by the video of new composition "POISON ARROW" (an original, not the ABC tune) to coincide with release of their upcoming album A HARD ROAD TO FOLLOW on Upsetter Records. Both vids were conceived by singer, CHRIS D., director GARY WALKOW, and lensed by IRA EICHNER for Frolix Films.
