

Ken and Barbara Jo Davis papers

Copyright Notice:

This material may be protected by copyright law (U.S. Code, Title 17). Researchers are liable for any infringement. For more information, visit www.mnhs.org/copyright.

A Proclamation In Memory of Ken Davis

WHEREAS, Ken Davis assisted with the growth and development of the National Coalition for Black Development in Home Economics, giving freely of his time, talent and expertise; and

WHEREAS, Ken Davis, was a friend of the home economics profession, supporting the activities of the American Home Economics Association, the Minnesota Home Economics Association, and the professional involvement of his wife, Barbara Jo Davis; and

WHEREAS, Ken Davis promoted the involvement of African-American Home Economists in the commercial foods industry; and

WHEREAS, Ken Davis shared his zest for life with colleagues and friends in such a manner that his laughter, caring, love for music, and love of fine clothing were infectious; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the National Coalition for Black Development in Home Economics, on the occasion of the celebration of his life and work, issue this proclamation, and publish it in its quarterly newsletter; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the National Coalition for Black Development in Home Economics award to Ken Davis its first honorary membership (posthumously).