you should have told me to save my MA PC notices. That you got the PC, if not, why not? Mine always goes out to some one & I don't like cutting it too much. I got to hear that your preacher, he's swell!!
I got the other 2 A.M. when as it isn't too easy to get not here anyway. I got had the most awful picture Edna St. V. Millay in it. I never saw of any body a perfect way.
I heard her poem. I heard Paul Muni. Went to see him yesterday. Wait till Brooklyn that & I'll see you. I get home is on. Phila. Sun. 2:30 Round Table in Phila. with Jane is she really works her today.
The watch museum tonight. I'll still fun for me, the most for the money.
I'll "watch my step".

Love-

wed: Dear M = Please send 1st Chap. of Rolland Hayes back to me - I have two more but I'll not bother you with them. Just saw M.A. twice in the P.C.
you get that, don't you?
He certainly won a point!
June is working in Patterson, N.J. Half the night & I see her seldom.
Nadia is at 118th St. (same) She might as well be in Patterson! Chester is in uptown. 140th St. is so off the earth.
I went to Euro in Mon. but the dinner last my evening. I feel like a rat all the time. So depressing. I heard that Christopher Columbus wife was named Ippa - so! I'll ask Phil see if they know her.
Ha! Love - E.O.

Dear LGM

THE CHRYSLER BUILDING

With its shining spire of Nirosta steel literally scraping the sky, reaching a height of 77 stories—1,046 feet, 43/4 inches, the Chrysler Building takes its rightful place among the wonders of the modern world. From the Observatory on the 71st floor over 1,600 square miles are visible. The Chrysler Building occupies a plot of 37,555 sq. ft.; has a content of 14,300,000 cubic feet. The building contains more than 1,000,000 sq. ft. of office space and is planned to house and serve comfortably 15,000 tenants.

went to Schuyler party Sun. nite. - I tried better than ever & it's beautiful!
The new cat is just like the departed one only smaller & its brother, too. Same bunch of cats. Judy gave me in ice cold cake - but as a pie Geo. went to put me on & his it rained hard there was no bus! after an hr. we went to Amos, and there was no taxi for awhile, we whistled thru frozen sidewalks.
Finally got on. Clutching coats.
Purse & muff slipped on ice but my knee on taxi fell into it blat. its floor was like a skating rink. Sub - still clutching the big cake! Sub + down in it. Knees turning backward & wet as shower curtain. Geo. was a Jenny face red! 2 next time I'll leave before 10-92. no Laura.
Too many people were there.
Like a Bahai meeting
G. - likes a few, love.

I met a chap last nite who has an exhib. of pictures - one is of M. K.
his name is Paul Metzger
He is very fine & pleasant.
Shall I ask him for a photo of it. His works excellent. I imagine you'd want to see it too. Let that drift. He's in my funny about twice a week. Mr. Schuyler was still Behring at midnite as I left. He is very fine.
I'm glad to have heard him at last.
How can we teach him not to swim like a pendulum? He looked a tho he'd done it all his life. aren't we all a screw?
If we had him in the theatre he'd be told just once not to do that she wouldn't. But away off it's more difficult to get out it's terrible. But away at Jody she wouldn't be wondering.
Perhaps she's afraid of Jody!
I'd love to know any of Jody's things'll be coming along soon. Love - E.P. mes.

Thurs. aft. Dear L.G.M. — I dished a bit dirt because I thought you'd enjoy it. Thanks for the blue baby thing - its so sweet!
I'll see that artist either Fri. or Sat. He is very nice. He'll probably have a picture of some kind already.
He's a chap who knows his stuff.
Paul Meltzer. We'll have to talk some time. Have a good time for me.
I'll be glad when the holidays are over!

saw you + Marian in Cabot P.C. Dwarf said M.A. came out at the Metropolitan with a group + looked like a wooden post + sang with a jester face. "I made me so mad I wouldn't listen to her singing!" said the Dwarf. "Where's Roland Hayes?" 2 other copies are out. I can't seem to get any thing back! I heart that Margorie Lawrence - Met. star from Australia who married Dr. King, went to Mexico on her honeymoon + got infantile paralysis. She can no longer take steps like a girl.
