N.Y. 19

Miss Laura Jane Musser

Linden Hill

Little Falls, Minnesota

Dear Miss Mamer;

I am returning your subject.

It is O.K. Except the 3rd measure of your countersubject which might be improved if its rhythm would be different than the subject.

The canon also is O.K.

I hope you are resting and preparing for a busy season: in the meantime Mrs. Gramini joins me in wishing you the very best of everything.

With kindest personal regards to your charming mother and to you I am

Sincerely
Vittorio Gramini

Dear Miss Musser;

I received your telegram today,

The Oct 23 date at 11. am. seems to be O.K.

and I shall expect you then.

Please ring me up as soon as you arrive in town. I also received your letter and have been looking around for some place for you, but up to today I have been unable to find anything for you. You see, I do not know of anyone or of any place you can stop outside of hotels, and from your letter I understand you have written to several of them.

By your telegram I gather you have found someplace, and I am glad you have succeeded. I shall be looking forward to seeing you. Kindest regards to your charming Mother and to yourself.

Sincerely
Vittorio Giannini
