United States Senator Hubert H. Humphrey will spend Wednesday, September 29, in Winona, making a series of public appearances.

Bringing his campaign for re-election into Winona County as part of a tour of southeastern Minnesota, Senator Humphrey will address three Winona colleges during the day, speak at a joint luncheon of the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, and Exchange Clubs, and attend the 50th anniversary dinner of the Winona Trades and Labor Council in the Winona Redmen's Wigwam.

The day will be climaxed with a DFL Rally in the Redmen's Auditorium, with Senator Humphrey as the guest speaker.

Colleges at which Senator Humphrey will speak include a student convocation at St. Mary's, convocation at College of St. Teresa, and a student assembly at the Winona State Teachers College.

Senator Humphrey will come here after a day's tour of Goodhue and Wabasha Counties. Also on the day's program of events at which the Senator will appear will be a 3:45 o'clock "Coffee Party" at the Winona County Court House, arranged by Morris Bergsrud, Winona County DFL Chairman.

The joint service club luncheon at which businessmen of Winona will hear Senator Humphrey speak will be held in the Flamingo Room of the Hotel Winona.
