MORAL VALUES REAL DIFFERENCE BETWEEN DEMOCRACY AND COMMUNISM:
HUMPHREY

The world would be better off if Soviet Premier Khrushchev were as concerned "about the inner-man as he is about outer-space," Senator Hubert H. Humphrey (D., Minn.) declared today in a luncheon address before Brown County Democrats at the Northland Hotel in Green Bay, Wisconsin.

"The real difference between communistic and democratic forms of government is not just which can surpass the other in productive achievements," Senator Humphrey warned.

"The real difference is in the attitude toward mankind -- in the basic individual dignity of man, and the freedom of his mind, his soul, and his spirit. The real difference is the difference in our sense of values.

"We should not let ourselves be trapped into arguing with Khrushchev solely on his material terms. It is time we gave more emphasis to the moral and spiritual issues involved, and based our case for freedom on the 'inalienable rights' of man that Thomas Jefferson so rightly insisted should be the very basic foundation of our democracy," Senator Humphrey declared.

Senator Humphrey warned that the Soviet Premier's attractive-sounding doctrine of "live and let live" carried within it the dangers of accepting the status quo in the world.

"That is what he means by his concept of so-called co-existence," Senator Humphrey said. "I reject this attitude and policy. The only kind of co-existence worthy of our traditions and future is truly competitive co-existence, competitive in ideas as well as performance. We should seek to spread our ideas, and the gospel of freedom; we must furnish hope and reassurance to those who seek freedom, and to those searching for liberalization of the policies in communist controlled states.

"We can demonstrate to fellow human beings that in the areas where it counts the most, the free world can help them while the slave world can not. We can do this in the areas of education, health, economic development, and relief of hunger and famine.

"We have the resources to do all these things. The Soviet Union does not. We have the weapons of peace to win the cold war, if we will but use them -- and keep true to our great heritage," Senator Humphrey declared.
