NOTES FOR UJA SPEECH

UJA
Life

UJA

Many of you are aware that I have spoken at a number of UJA functions this year - indeed all over the country. Why? I am doing so and I am pleased to be here this evening because of my deep conviction that the work of the UJA is important for the strengthening of our country and is vital if peace is to be achieved in the Middle East. Regretably the Middle East represents a confrontation between the United States and the Soviet Union. The achievement of peace and stability in that area is essential if we are to avoid World War III. The key to peace in the Middle East is the "staying power" of Israel - the ability to stay where they are until an atmosphere of negotiation and conciliation replaces the present atmosphere of war and conflict.

War III

Israel Staying Power

② "Staying Power"

↳ Staying power is costly. It is a matter of great concern that the defense budget in Israel today is 2 1/2 times greater than the defense budget in 1967. Think of what could be done with those funds - helping to build a prosperous Middle East, the desalinization of salt water, the irrigation of deserts, higher living standards that come from jobs, the improvement of health facilities - think of what could be done for all the peoples in the Middle East, Arab and Jew, if funds now used for war were used instead to improve the lot of mankind.

Needs of the Economy

2079 Israeli GNP
on Defense

↳ Yet today Israel spends 20% of its entire Gross National Product on its defense budget - twice the comparable figure for the United States even though we have  $\frac{1}{2}$  million Americans in Southeast Asia today.

Twice
U.S.

↳ This is an awful burden on Israel which, after all, is the representative and the symbol of world democracy in the Middle East.

We learned a long time ago that our nation cannot live in isolation.

The tradition of assisting the needy is a long and well established one with us. Our children, Jew and Christian alike, are brought up to contribute in their Sabbath schools to the underprivileged of the world. We like to think that our international commitments as a nation are similarly conceived and motivated. Our obligation is to share our strength and our resources wherever people or nations are in need.

UJA
Purpose

↳ The UJA is in that American tradition. The funds and the energy that you and I commit to the UJA are used not for war but for peace, not to destroy but to build, not to wound but to heal

not war
but peace.

- the old people's homes, housing those whose lives have been given to help build Israel, homes built with your funds.

- the young people in Israel who are educated with your funds.

- the recent immigrants to Israel from the Moslem countries and from behind the Iron Curtain who are transported to freedom and assimilated and absorbed into the free Israeli life with your funds.

✓ Israel's - Social + Welfare Budget this yr - 6365, million -
1 over 1 Billion for Defense

- the unfortunate Jews still in Moslem and Iron Curtain countries who are fed and clothed with your funds.

Israel's social and welfare budget this year requires 365 million dollars. The UJA in this country has undertaken the responsibility of raising 270 million out of that sum - more than ever before.

It is these good works that you help to build that create the rudiments of peace and can perhaps lay the foundation for a Middle East community of Arab and Jew alike living side by side in a common effort to turn the desert into bloom.

MEMORANDUM

For: HHH
From: John G. Stewart
Subject: UJA remarks, Baltimore, Maryland, February 16

The next few months are critical in the search for peace in the Middle East. There is, I believe, a growing awareness among many of the world's leaders that the Middle East situation cannot be permitted to rock along from crisis to crisis -- from atrocity to atrocity.

The United States will be exploring for workable solutions with Great Britain, France, and the Soviet Union at the United Nations -- in support of the Secretary General's Representative, Gunnar Jarring. These informal conversations can be immensely important and every American -- regardless of party -- surely hopes they will be productive. Incidentally, Ambassador Charles Yost, a member during the campaign of the Humphrey-Muskie task force on international organizations, is a talented and skilled diplomat with extensive personal knowledge of the Middle East. He is ideally suited to pursue these initiatives with the other major powers.

What are the elements of a lasting peace in the Middle East?

1. The existence of the State of Israel must be accepted by all of its neighbors. - End State of Belligerency

2. The fragile, often-violated truce lines must be transformed into agreed and secure boundaries.

Navigation

3. The State of Israel must have free navigational rights in all international waters, including the Suez Canal and the Gulf of Aqaba. - Israel must have means of Self Defense

4. The arms race, which breeds insecurity as it feeds on hostility, must be finally terminated. ~~Self defense means to protect~~

5. The international community must assist the countries immediately concerned in solving the human tragedy posed by the Arab refugees.

6. The resources of the Middle East countries must be used primarily for human and economic development rather than war and destruction.
