CLOTHING ASKED BY FRENCH WOUNDED

Mrs. Louis W. Hill Requests St.
Paulites to Help Provide for Needy.

If any persons are wondering what they can do to help France Mrs. Louis W. Hill has a new plan which she has been asked by Mrs. Isabel S. Lathrop of Paris, president of the American fund for French wounded, to carry out.

In a letter to Mrs. Hill yesterday, Mrs. Lathrop said that so great have become the number of French wounded and so great the demands that they are now compelled to beg for warm clothing for the wounded soldiers.

Suffered Last Winter.

"We have received from you," Mrs. Lathrop wrote, "through the vacation war relief committee and the clearing house, cases containing night-shirts and flannel for which we are most grateful.

"We are very grateful for the night-shirts. The wounded man does not seem to be so popular at home now and we find ourselves compelled to beg for supplies. We hate to do it, but feel sure you will understand how heavy our demands are now.

"We are in real want for warm underwear. The last dreadful winter was a lesson, so we are begging now for warm clothes."

Goods Will Be Held.

Mrs. Hill already has arranged with St. Paul wholesale houses for the holding of warm underwear which they have in stock and which St. Paul people can purchase through Mrs. Hill.

Any person wishing to help the American fund for French wounded by buying warm underwear for the French soldiers should communicate with Mrs. Hill at the Railroad building. There will be no active campaign and Mrs. Hill will handle the matter with her work at the model shop of the Red Cross.
