MINNESOTA BLACK MUSIC AWARDS

• Mr. WELLSTONE. Mr. President, I want to take this occasion to bring to the attention of my colleagues an extraordinary achievement in the State of Minnesota. On Friday, September 2, I had the privilege of attending the 13th Annual Minnesota Black Music Awards, which was a part of the Minnesota Black Music Expo '94. This event recognized Mr. Gary Hines and the Sounds of Blackness for their 23d year in music.

I was honored to issue a proclamation which I was able to present that evening, and I ask that a copy of the proclamation be included in the RECORD.

The proclamation follows:

PROCLAMATION

Whereas: September 1-4th has been designated as the celebration of the Minnesota Black Music Expo '94, which over 50,000 individuals have attended to this date; and

Whereas: The Minnesota Black Music Expo '94 music and artist conference attracts artists and industry patrons from major cities throughout the country; and

Whereas: They continue to promote and encourage new music, products and services while serving as an inspiration to all who encounter their work; and

Whereas: This year represents the Minnesota Black Music Expo's 13th annual Minnesota Black Music awards, honoring Mr. Gary Hines and The Sounds of Blackness for their 23rd year in music; and

Whereas: Through their proud heritage and rich culture, Mr. Gary Hines and the Sounds of Blackness have enriched our state and nation's history, pride and diversity; and

Whereas: This year the Minnesota Black Music Awards also hosts the presentation of keys to the cities and presents to Mr. Jerry Boulding the Vanguard award for outstanding industry contributions; and

Whereas: Our state holds deep pride in all of the people and achievements of the Minnesota Black Music Expo '94;

Now therefore, I, Paul D. Wellstone, United States Senator for the State of Minnesota, do hereby congratulate The Minnesota Black Music Expo '94 and this year's Minnesota Black Music award recipients Mr. Gary Hines and the Sounds of Blackness, with highest recognition of their dedication, achievements and continuing enthusiasm which have been instrumental in helping to make Minnesota the great state that it is.

PAUL DAVID WELLSTONE,
U.S. Senator.●

Proclamation

WHEREAS, music, all varieties, is an outstanding feature of Minnesota's arts and entertainment scene; and

WHEREAS, "The Minnesota Black Music Awards and Music Expo" has contributed in promoting many varieties of music to our City and has helped to establish our State as a music and arts center; and

WHEREAS, this proclamation and the Minnesota Black Music Awards and Music Expo express the commitment of this program to Minnesota's music communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sharon Sayles Belton, Mayor of the City of Minneapolis, do hereby proclaim June 19 through 21, 1998 to be in the City of Minneapolis and urge all citizens to take note.
