SYSTEM OF MARKING AND CLASSIFYING VOTERS. EVERY voter in the district should be listed. This, as you know, is to be done by each block captain listing, and classifying all the voters in his block. For convenience, simplicity and uniformity a standard of marking may well be adopted. There are two bases of classification, and hence two methods of marking. The first and most important basis is with reference to the Prohibition party, and there will be four classifications --The voter who is BOTH a Prohibitionist and an active worker, marked, John Brown. !! The voter who is a straight Prohibitionist, but who is not active, marked, John Brown. The hopeful voter -- one who is not with us, but seems favorable to the party, marked John Brown./ The "hide bound" old party man, marked thus, John Brown, -The second basis of classification, is the former or present old party affiliation. This is valuable especially as to hopeful voters, and Prohibitionists. A prohibitionist, who was formerly a republican may be most apt to convince a republican hopeful. These will be marked as follows, Republican, marked thus, John Brown. Democrat, marked thus, John Brown. Miscellaneous (Socialist, populist, Independent, etc) marked thus, #John Brown. Some times, where the facts are not obtained direct there will be conflicting reports on the same man. This system enables one to mark such conflicting reports without confusion. e.g. A man is reported to be a prohibitionist by one neighbor, a hopeful by another, and a hide bound democrat by another. Here is the marking showing all the facts, John Brown, K For working purposes all voters and others fall into three classes, each class demanding its general plan of treatment. First, the party prohibitionist. Your work with him is to get him at work, selecting for him such tasks as he can do acceptably, and such as he will be likely to undertake. The more definite your suggestions can be without seeming to be dictatorial, the better. Second, the hopeful -- the just-as-good-maxxemmare-a prohibitionistas-you-are-but fellow. He must have his subjunctive conjunction removed. The treatment will differ in different cases-of course. Suggestive theuraputics-suggest that he sit down quietly and make a list of the burning political issues on Stars questions, for which his old party bravely stands, as the defender of his political faith in this state. Chiropractics--the back bone cure. In some cases careful nursing and a good diet will do the business, while some times it will take a surgical operation. But your job is to treat the case intelli-. gently. The diagnosis is easy. The treatment is sometimes difficult. Yet upon the successful treatment of these cases the outcome of the campaign rests. W 2134 Third, the "hopeless! "There there is little doubt as to the classification the affort should be chiefly to fill the party with the hopeful view of our prospects, and convince him that our proposition is politically as well as morally right, If it were only to get HIS vote, the prohibitionist would demand

State Fair Should Not be Open on Sunday

So Says the Legislature

The Minnesota Legislature, at its closing session, adopted the following preambles and resolution by a vote of 31 to 16 in the Senate and 50 to 48 in the House.

WHEREAS, A large proportion of the people of the State and Nation believe the Sabbath or the Lord's Day to be one of the chief cornerstones of our civilization and that its proper observance contributes powerfully to the physical and moral welfare of the people while its descration, especially by those in positions of influence, encourages and promotes immorality and crime, and

WHEREAS, In response to this sentiment all the national expositions controlled by Congress and other great exhibitions such as the automobile shows have been closed on Sunday, and

WHEREAS, During the past two years there has been a wide-spread and growing protest against opening the gates of the State Fair on Sunday as tending toward the commercialization and desecration of the day and as putting the influence of a great state-owned institution on the wrong side of this important issue, and

WHEREAS, Labor Day, the Saturday half holiday, Minneapolis day and St. Paul day afford practically all the people an opportunity to visit our great popular exposition, and

WHERAS, The comparatively small attendance on Sunday, during the two years in which the open-Sunday policy has prevailed, proves that the people do not desire a Sunday show, and

WHEREAS, It is vital to the usefulness and success of the State Fair that it be so conducted as to insure the loyal and enthusiastic support of the people of our great state; therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, That it is the sense of this body that the Board of Managers of the State Agricultural Society close the gates of the State Fair on Sunday hereafter to the general public, admitting only those who are in care of exhibits or stock or who have other legitimate business upon the grounds on that day.

Resolved, that while we admire the ability of Jno. G. Wooley, Oliver W. Stewart, and Messrs Ferguson and Johnson and rejoice in the work that each can do for the great cause of Prohibition, nevertheless we disapprove of and emphatically condemn the conduct of each of these gentlemen in presuming to force their personal differences upon the attention of the general public.

By means of circular letters, and published articles, especially in the New Voice and the Citizen, they have placed their personal differences as paramount to the wellfare of the Cause, and are apparently willing and even determined, to destroy the Prohibition Party and defeat that for which it stands, if necessary, in order that one faction may prevail over the other.

Action on the part of the National Committee that will effectually exaction establish the principle that personal differences between the Party's employees or workers must not be prosecuted at the expense of the cause, even in the slightest degree, will meet with our hearty approval.

A resolution memorializing Congress, asking that a constituional convention, in accordance with Article 5 of the Constitution of the United States, be called, to propose an amendment to the Constitution of the United States providing that United States senators and the President and Vice-President of the United States shall be elected by the direct vote of the people.

A bill for a law abolishing all licenses as applying to the sale of alcoholic liquor; requiring that all alcoholic liquor be manufactured by the state and sold under its direct provision, and that the sale of use for beverage purposes be forever prohibited.

That encouragement be given to the manufacture of denatured and securifical purposes.

WHEREAS there is pending in this state a proposed amendment to the constitution providing for the Initiative and Referendum; and

WHEREAS the Prohibition party at its last state convention unanimously declared in favor of these measures; and

WHEREAS at the last election, when a similar amendment received 168,004 votes with 41, 577 negatives, the Prohibition party was the chief advocate of the measure; and

WHEREAS every political party in this state is on record favoring the amendment; and

WHEREAS the Prohibition National Convention, adopted a plank favoring these measures; and

WHEREAS the candidate of the Prohibition Party for President of the United States has publicly characterized the Initiative and Referendum as subversive of representative constitutional government as revolutionary as workers of confusion and harm, and as weapons of the bad oftener than the defense of the good, thus arraying our standard bearer against our standard; and

WHEREAS the National Campaign Committee has announced a plan to campaign extensively, arousing in us the fear that the same sentiments will be expressed by some of their speakers or in some of their literature or through both; and

WHEREAS such sentiments expressed by Prohibition speakers or literature would jeopardize the adoption of the amendment, put the Prohibition party on the defensive, doubtless lose to the party many votes and certainly injure, if not destroy, hope of success in our congressional concentration campaigns; therefore

BE IT UNANIMOUSLY RESOLVED by the Minnesota Prohibition State Committee that it respectfully requests that Governor Hanly

candidate of the Prohibition Party for President of the United States, for himself, and the National Campaign Committee for speakers and literature under its control shall give this Committee assurance that in this state will be no adverse reference to, criticism of or attack upon this article in the state and national standard of the party; that any expression other than in defense and advocacy of our standard shall be confined to the statement of relavent facts, these facts being substantially, that the presidential candidate does not favor the measures, but that the party, by platform declarations does; that in the state of Minnesota the plank was unanimously inserted in the platform at the last State Convention; that every state candidate, and every congressional candidate is, so far as known, unequivocally for the measures both personally and politically, and that the party in this state has been and is now an ardent and active supporter of the proposed amendment to our constitution providing for these measures. And be it further

RESOLVED that if these assurances cannot be given that we very respectfully request that the National Campaign Committee send no speakers nor literature into Minnesota except such as will in no way adversely discuss any part of the platform of the party. And be it further

RESOLVED that this Committee express its unbounded confidence in the honesty and integrity of purpose of the National Candidates, the Prohibition National Committee, and the Prohibition National Campaign Committee, and pledges to each of them its loyal support and co-operation in every plan and policy that is in harmony with expressed will of the Prohibition party.

Just one word on the legislative situation in the 39th district.

For the last decade the brewery barons have bossed our legislature. Everybody admits it. They combine with and dominate the "interests" and run things to suit themselves.

The only candidates that know (or care to say) anything about these things are Calderwood and Dorsett. They have put their platform into every home in this district and have stood squarely for the interests of the people. We ought to back them up. They ought to get our votes. They both stand for the people, the people ought to stand by them.

Yours very truly.

P.S. If you can support but one, vote for Calderwood but stand by both if you can.

MINNESOTA SABBATH OBSERVANCE COMMITTEE 353 Plymouth Building MINNEAPOLIS

In harmony with the resolution adopted by the Legislature the managers of the Minnesota State Fair have decided to close the big exposition to the public on Sunday Sept. 4. This action was the culmination of a two years' effort inaugurated by the Christian Publicity League in which the churches of the state co-operated.

Details remain to be worked out. All exhibit buildings will be closed, and the gates will be open only to concessionaires, exhibitors of livestock, and persons actually participating in putting on the fair.

Decision of the board to close the fair on Sunday came at its May meeting at the Fair grounds last Friday. A hearing of business and professional men was to have been held by the board, but favorable action already had been taken when the hour arrived. Included in the delegation were Dr. H. G. Stub, president of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America; Dr. A. J. Allen, president of the Minneapolis Methodist Ministers' Association; George W. Harden, secretary of the Minnesota Gideons; Dr. George D. Haggard, of the Disciples of Christ; C. J. Larson, manager of the Minnesota State Tidning; Prof. J. L. Nydahl, Augsburg Seminary; Frank Nelson, president of Minnesota College; George F. Wells, Hiram A. Scriver and Charles M. Way.

It was decided at the board meeting to put on a complete entertainment and educational program at the state fair Saturday, September 3, the opening day. The entertainment will include aviation, vaudeville, racing and fireworks. Approximately $200,000 will be spent for improvements this summer.

"All hands at the pumps now for the biggest state fair ever." said Geo. F. Wells, executive officer of the Christian Publicity League and of the Minnesota Sabbath Observance Committee, in an interview today. "All Minnesotans are proud of their big show and we'll be there in record-breaking numbers."

The Prohibition Reform party of the United States, organized in the name of the people, to revive, enforce, and perpetuate in the government the doctrines of the Declaration of Independence, submit, in this Centennial year of the Republic, for the suffrages of all good citizens, the following platforms of national reforms and measures:

1. The legal prohibition in the District of Columbia, the Territories, and in every other place subject to the laws of Congress, of the importation, exportation, manufacture and traffic of all alcoholic beverages, as high crimes against society; an amend ment of the National Constitution to render these prohibitory measures universal and permanent; and the adoption of treaty stipulations with foreign powers to prevent the importation and exportation of all alcoholic beverages.

2. The abolition of class legislation and of special privileges i the government; and the adoption of equal suffrage and eligibility to office, without distinction of race, religious creed, property or sex.

3. The appropriation of the public lands in limited quantities to actual settlers only.

The reduction of the rates of inland and ocean postage, of telegraphic communication, of railroad and water transportation and travel, to the lowest practical point, by force of laws wisely and justly framed, with reference not only to the interests of capital employed, but to the higher claims of the general good.

the general good.

4. The suppression by law of lotteries and gambling in gold, stocks, produce and every form of money and property; and the penal inhibition of the use of the public mails for advertising schemes of gambling and lotteries.

partments of the pure service, and private employments (works or accessity, charity, and religion excepted), on that day.

and religion excepted), on that day.
7. The establishment by mandatory provisions in the national and State consitutions, and by all necessary legislation, of a system of free public schools for the universal and enforced education of all the youth of the land.

8. The free use of the Bible, not as a ground of religious creeds, but as a textbook of the purest morality, the best liberty, and the noblest literature, in our public schools, that our children may grow up in its light, and that its spirit and principles may pervade our nation.

9. The separation of the government, in all its departments and institutions, including the public schools, and all funds for their maintainance, from the control of every religious sect, or other association; and the protection alike of all sects, by equal laws, with entire freedom of religious faith and worship.

equal laws, with entire freedom of religious faith and worship.

10. The introduction into all treaties hereafter negotiated with foreign governments, of a provision for the amicable settlement of international difficulties, by arbitration.

11. The abolition of all barbarous modes and instruments of punishment; the recognition of the laws of God and whe claims of humanity in the discipline of jails and prisons, and of that higher an wiser civilization, worthy of our age and nation, which regards the reform of ciminals as a means for the prevention of cr me.

12. The abolition of executive and legislative patronage, and the election of President Vice President, United States Senators, and of all civil officers, so far as practicable, by direct vote of the people.

13. The practice of a friendly and liberal policy to immigrants from all nations; the guaranty to them of ample protection, and of equal rights and privileges.

14. The separation of the money of the government from all banking institutions. The National Government only should exercise the high prerogative of issuing paper money, and that should be subject to prompt redemption on demand, in gold and silver, the only equal standard of values recognized by the civilized world.

15. The reduction of salaries of public officers in a just ratio with the decline of wages and market prices; the abolition of sinecures, unnecessary offices, and official fees and perquisites; the practice of strict economy in the government expenses; and a free and thorough investigation into any and all alleged abuses of public trusts.

Minneapolis, Minnsov. 12, 1888 To the Prohibition Voters of Minnesota: --Your State Central Committee extend congratulations and desire hereby to offer you sincere thanks, for your thorough and effective work performed during the late political campaign, against the saloon license policy of the old political parties. You have done nobly and well. You have stood as firm as the eternal truth which animates you, under the greatest pressure ever brought to bear upon a political party. It is true that some flattered and betrayed you and your cause but such soldiers are found in every army. By your extraordinary exertion you not only prevented an attempted stampede of our forces but you have quadrupled your vote of four years ago, and reduced the majority of the dominant party nearly or quite fifty percent. We also congratulate you on the utter defeat of the left wing .. of the liquor license party. We trust it is dead beyond the hope of a resurrection, and let no Prohibitionist "weep over its bier." The Democratic party in the North has been devoid of every sentiment of reform and its overthrow is a public blessing. If we have tears to shed let them be over the victory of the other wing of that army, the perpetuation of whose power means the perpetuation of the legalized dramshop in our state. The issue was fairly made. The Republican party in convention assembled did by its act virtually move the indefinite postponement of the consider ation of the question of prohibition and by a vote of a majority of the citizens of this state it was carried. They refused to declare for submission. They would not favor local option by counties, but did declare for license as the settled policy of the state and on this issue they have won. And for saloon continuance under high license every Republican voter has cast his ballot. Great things have been promised Prohibitionists. may we reasonably expect? For opening saloons at a high price they have the approval of the people. Fathers have voted for this policy who may live to see their sons go down to drunkard s graves through these gilded palaces of shame and death. Will the leaders adopt a policy at variance with that of the party to whi ch they owe their official position? What may we expect of a legislature elected on this issue? The man cannot rise above his party. Scores of times the people have been deceived by these politicians until we almost lose faith and ARRIANS in the declaration of braham Lincoln that, " You can fool all of the people a part of the time, and a part of the people all the Statements of account were sent to subscribers in July, Oct. and Dec. It was deemed inexpedient to endeavor to secure the holding of the Mat. Convention in Minn. both because of the necessary expense and aleg because, in the jidgment of the Com., it should be held at a poin nearer the center of the party vote. The resignation of Mr. Tupper as a member of the Com. which through an oversight had not been acted upon, was accepted and John S. Mughes was elected to fill h the vacancy. Or Satterlee was my vote requested to appoint sexuon some one as his proxy during his absonce in the South . The mattery of Mr. Tupper's bill for services as cec. Minneapolis,

February 12, 1892.

DEAR SIR:

At its meeting on the 1st inst. the State Central Committee determined that the State Convention should be held at Minneapolis, May 31st and June 1st. Each county will be entitled to one delegate, and in addition to this, to one delegate for each fifty votes or major fraction thereof cast for Fisk for President.

We have less than four months in which to perfect our organization by counties, townships and clubs; hold successful county conventions and insure a largely attended State Convention. It is time for every County Committee to move. Call a meeting of the Committee. Fill vacancies. Elect a chairman for each township. Give us the address of all such, and also the township represented by each. Arrange if possible for some one to visit every township at an early date, to secure the addresses of our men, canvass for our paper, arrange for meetings, circulate the Million Agreement, and awaken interest in the County and State Conventions. Party organization includes every township. Anything less than this is not worthy of the name of organization. Let the organization of the Prohibition Party be as perfect as its principles are noble. Put yourself in communication with your County Committee. See that it is at work. Make suggestions, and offer it such aid as you can give. Club work should now begin also. Until there is a club in your community holding regular meetings and including in its membership all the Prohibitionists within reach, there is no need for you to enquire, "What can I do?"

The state is now being canvassed for guarantee subscriptions for the weekly Prohibition Party paper which it is proposed to start at Minneapolis about March 1st. You will be glad to learn that nearly all the County Committees thus far seen have made liberal responses to the proposition of the publishers. At this rate the paper will start with a subscription list aproximating the vote for Pinkham for Governor. Many counties are equaling the Fisk vote. This is better than we have ever done before. Let all our men rally to the support of their County Committees in this matter. Nothing is more important and now is the time.

Many members of the other parties seem to have somehow gotten the idea that the Prohibition party will not be in it this campaign. This error can be quickly and effectively corrected by active work. It is important that this be done at once as the political unrest of the time gives us a magnificent opportunity to increase our numbers, especially just now before party lines are closely drawn. Many of the votes which we may now have will soon go elsewhere unless we win them. Wherever work is being done, we are receiving a more favorable hearing than ever before. Many County Committees have opened the campaign, and our correspondence indicates that others are about to do so. Let the first issue of the new paper report solid work under way in your county.

At the close of the morning session representatives from those various districts gathered into separate groups to decide upon the names of delegates whom they would present to the convention.

There was little speech-making in the morning, J. P. Pinkham, of Deephaven, being the only one to give a talk of any length. Vocal and instrumental music served to enliven the program. Prohibitionists held a banquet and love feast last evening. The assembly hall and adjoining rooms had been converted into a dining room, and the object of the refreshments. This was followed by an extended program in the assembly hall George H. Wells, of Hamline, presided, and after a musical number by the Johnson Trio, of Chicago, "The Prohibition Party Am A-Comin' Into Power," Hev. Matt S. Hughes, of Wesley M. E. church, was introduced, and responded with a lively address.

He said he doubted his right to be in the position he locupled, Tor the reason that he was not sure he was a Prohibitionist in the strict sense. He had, he said, opened Democratic and Republican meet-ist in the strict sense. He had, he said, opened Democratic and Republican meetings with prayer—he believed in doing missionary work. In explaining his position, he said he had never thrown his vote in the way of the reform which he considered the most important of the age. His idea was to vote for the man who would in the end do more for the cause of temperance. A good Republican or Democrat who could be elected might be worth more than a Prohibitionist who could not. He said the temperance workers had great reason for encouragement. They were fighting along the line of reform most difficult to progress; fighting an evil which covers the entire land and entrenches itself in the appetites of men. The cause is gaining ground slowly. In the early itself in the appetites of men. The cause is gaining ground slowly. In the early days in Maine the church members might be engaged in the sale of intoxicating beverages, and liquor was offered the minister upon his calls. This will not do today. And this country is far ahead of Europe in the matter of temperance. The advance of the cause depends upon two elements; first, there is a moral sentiment against the cause depends upon two elements, hist, there is a moral sentiment against the drink evil, and when the moral sense of the people is against any form of vice, sooner or later it will have to go. Again, the or later it will have to go. Again, the economic phase of the question is attracting the attention of the people. When railroads and other large employers of labor will say to their men; "We will discharge you if found in an intexticated condition," the evil is bound to go. He hoped that he might live to see the time when the liquor will be so thereughly under foot traffic will be so thoroughly under foot that at least the government will no longer that at least the government will no longer be in partnership with the rum seller, and the municipal authorities will frown upon the traffic.

Mrs. Julia B. Nelson, of Redwing, was the next speakers and her subject was "The New Man." She gave at length her views of what a man should and should pet do. not do.

Charles M. Way state organizer, spoke on ways and means of conducting the com-ing campaign. He told what had been done during the past year, and said it was to be during the past year, and said it was to be the policy of the executive committee during the coming year not to spend any money before it was actually in sight.

Miss Alice Palmer, of Wayzata, a former missionary, gave an interesting talk.

Ex-Mayor D. H. Evans, of Tracy, talked on "The Business Man in Politics." The question of temperance and prohibition he thought to be of especial interest to the business man. He made a rousing address.

Gen. Neal Dow Kally.

IT WAS A GREAT DAY.

Cold Weather Did Not Prevent-Good Speakers,-Many W. C. T. U'S. Pres-

Cold weather and nipping wind did not prevent an enthustastic audience from assembling in Market Hall, Sabbath p. m. M'ch. 25th, to do honor to Gen'l. Neal Dow in celebrating his ninetieth birthday. Beside the orators and musicians, many ladies prominent in W. C. T. U. work occupied seats on the stage. Daniel W. Doty presided.

The audience sung "America." Prayer and scripture reading followed. Then we listened to the first speaker.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Conley, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, a stranger to many in the audience at the start. Dr. Conley showed himself worthy to eulogize not only the hero of Port Hudson but also the cause of prohibition. His characterization of the recent Neal Dow editorial in the St. Paul Dispatch, (the writer of which held that prohibition would die with Neal Dow) as being one which no true patrlot and lover of mankind could write had the ring of one of Wendell Phillips sentences. He also as a warning to the young, pointed to the weak mayor of St. Paul as an example of executive inef-

Thomas Cochran followed in a stirring address proving the efficiency of the Maine Law. He alluded to the prosperity of the state of Maine as being a monument to the wisdom and vigor of Neal

Father Mahonev, epigramnatic, practical and humorous as ever, came next on the program. He lamented the absence of virigin soil (as he termed the democrats and republicans) to work upon, in the assemblage before him. It had too much of the prayer meeting make up.

Rev. C. B. Wilcox of the 1st. M. E. church, was not least among the orators though last on the program. He said that now men wondered how such a vile system as slavery could have existed in a free country. In the same way, in the future, will our decendants marvel that the traffic in liquors was allowed to thrive and fatten on the homes of America.

The Macalester Boys' Quintette, composed of bright little fellows with good voices, furnished the music.

Of course George F. Wells was there and he had prepared the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this assembly of citizens of St. Paul Heartily congratulates Hon, Neal Dow, soldier, philanthropist, reformer and statesman, on the completion of the ninetieth year of his honorable and useful life. The world owes him a debt of the greatest magnitude.

Resolved, That inspired a new by the story of his courageous purpose, his willing sacrifices and his untiring labors for humanity to which we have to-day listened, we pledge ourselves to put forth more earnest effort than ever before for the uplifting of humanity and especially for the utter extermination of the accursed traffic in alcoholic liquors. We call upon all good citizens to unite their efforts with ours in behalf of tempted manhood and wronged womanhood and childhood; in behalf of every legitimate industry and trade; and in behalf of the home, the school, the church and the nation, against all of which that traffic wages an unceasing and relentless warfare.

A collection was taken for the World's W. C. T. U.

is as follows:

The Prohibition Reform party of the United States, organized in the name of the people, to revive, enforce, and perpetuate in the government the doctrines of the Declaration of Independence, submit, in this Centennial year of the Republic, for the suffrages of all good citizens, the following platform of national reforms and measures:

1. The legal prohibition in the District of Columbia, the Territories, and in every other place subject to the laws of Congress, of the importation, exportation, manufacture and traffic of all alcoholic beverages, as high crimes against society; an amender these prohibitory measures universal and permanent; and the adoption of treaty stipulations with foreign powers to prevent the importation and exportation of all alcoholic beverages.

2. The abolition of class legislation and of tipulations with foreign powers to prevent, the importation and exportation of all alcoholic beverages.

2. The abolition of class legislation and of special privileges in the government; and the adoption of equal suffrage and eligibility to office, without distinction of race, religious creed, property or sex.

3. The appropriation of the public lands in limited quantities to actual settlers only.

The reduction of the rates of inland and ocean pestage, of telegraphic communication, of railroad and water transportation and travel, to the lowest practical point, by force of laws wisely and justly framed, with reference not only to the interests of capital employed, but to the higher claims of the general good.

4. The suppression by law of lotteries and gambling in gold, stocks, produce and every form of money and property; and the penal inhibition of the use of the public mails for advertising schemes of gambling and lotteries.

5. The abolition of those foul enormities.

5. The abolition of those foul enormities, polygamy and the social evil, and the protection of the purity, peace and happiness of homes, by ample and efficient legislaof homes, by ample and emotion against tion.

6. The national observance of the Christian Sabbath, established by laws prohibiting ordinary labor and business in all departments of the public service, and private employments (works of necessity, charity, and religion excepted), on that day.

7. The establishment by mandatory provisions in the national and State constitutions, and by all necessary legislation, of a system of free public schools for the aniversal and enforced education of all the youth of the land.

8. The free use of the Bible, not as a ground of religious creeds, but as a textbook of the purest morality, the best liberty, and the neblect literature, in our public beguition of the laws of God and the claims of humanity in the discipline of jails and prisons, and of that higher and wiser civilization, worthy of our age and nation, which regards the reform of criminals as a means for the prevention of orime.

12. The abolition of executive and legislative patronage, and the election of President, Vice President, United States Senators, and of all civil officers, so far as practicable, by direct vote of the people.

13. The practice of a friendly and liberal policy to immigrants from all nations; the guaranty to them of ample protection, and of equal rights and privileges.

14. The separation of the money of the government from all banking institutions. The National Government only should exercise the high prerogative of issuing paper money, and that should be subject to prompt redemption on demand, in gold and silver, the only equal standard of values recognized by the civilized world.

15. The redwetion of salaries of public standard of values recognized by the civilized world.

15. The redwotion of salaries of public officers in a just ratio with the decline of wages and market prices; the abolition of sinecures, innecessary offices, and official fees and perquisites; the practice of strict economy in the government expenses; and a free and thorough investigation into any and all alleged abuses of public trusts.

The following resolutions, adopted by the Prohibition National Convention of 1872, were also read and reaffirmed by vote of the Convention:

Convention:

Convention:

WHEREAS, Protection and allegiance are reciprocal duties, and every citizen who yields obedience to the just demands of the government is entitled to the full, free and perfect protection of that government in the enjoyment of personal security, personal liberty and private property; and

WHEBEAS, The traffic in intoxicating drinks greatly impairs the personal security and personal liberty of a large mass of citizens, and renders private property insecure; and and personal liberty of a large mass of citizens, and renders private property insecure; and

"Whereas, All other political parties are hopelessly anwilling to adopt an adequate policy on this question, therefore we, in National Convention assembled, as citizens of this free Republic, sharing in the duties and responsibilities of its government, in discharge of a solemn duty we owe to our country and our race, units in the following declaration of principles:

1 That while we acknowledge the pure patriotism and profound statesmanship of those patriots who laid the foundation of this government, securing at once the rights of the States, severally; and their inseparable union by the Federal Constitution, we would not merely garnish the sepulchres of our republican fathers; but we do hereby renew our solemn pledges of fealty to the imperishable principles of civil and religious liberty embodied in the Declaration of American Independence and our Federal Constitution.

2. That the traffic in intoxicaling beverages is a dishonor to Christian civilization, in mical to the best interests of society, a political wrong of unequaled enormity, subversive of the ordinary objects of government, not capable of being regulated or restrained by any system of license whatever; but imperatively demanding for its suppression, effective legal prohibition, both by State and National legislation. Therefore, Resolved, That while we recognize the good Providence of Almighty God in supervising the interests of this nation from its establishment to the present time, having organized our party for the Legal Prohibition of the liquor traffic, our reliance for ultimate success is upon the same Omnipotent Arm.

Resolved, That there can be no greater peril to the nation than the existing party competition for the liquor vote; that any party not openly opposed to the traffic, experience shows, will engage in this competition; will court the favor of the criminal classes, will barter away the public morals, the purity of the ballot, and every object of good government for party success.

Resolved, That while adopting national political measures for the prohibition of the liquor traffic, we will continue the use of all moral means in our power to persuade men away from the injurious practice of using intoxicating beverages.

Resolved, That we invite all persons, whether total abstainers or not, who recognize the terrible injuries inflicted by the liquor traffic, to unite with us for its overthrow, and to secure thereby peace, order and the protection of person and property.

TWO OF GOD'S NOBLEMEN.
Their Characters and Labors Appreciated.

The following tributes to the memory of Chairman Higgins and Mr. w. J. Dean have been spread on the minutes of the State Committee and engrossed copies thereof furnished to the families of our deceased comrades:

GEORGE W. HIGGINS.

The State Executive Committee of the Prohibition party of Minnesota desires to record its high appreciation of the character and labors of its late chairman, Hon. Geo. W. Higgins, and its sense of the great loss sustained by our cause in his removal by death.

He was a manly man, bearing his part in life bravely and gladly, being neither impelled thereto by a mere sense of duty nor especially desirous of honor except that honor which God gives to those who walk his ways.

As a Christian he was exceptionally consistent; as a church worker devoted, aggressive and practical; one of the kind of men who ease a pastor's path and make church comradery and labor a delight.

He early united with the Prohibition party, for the last fourteen years was chairman of the Minnesota State Prohibition Committee and for several years past has represented Minnesota on the National Committee. In these positions, especially the latter he rendered eminent service through his same optimism, his keen political sagacity and his cheerful self-sacrifice.

Living daily in the performance of his duty as he saw it, his passing on was a mere incident in his history, the larger and better part of which is now being written.

WILLIAM J. DEAN.

Only he who knoweth the hearts of men can truly portray the character and life of such a man as Wm. Johnson Dean. Yet the State Executive Committee of the Prohibition party of Minnesota would pay this brief and imperfect tribute to his memory.

Although moving in the higher social and business circles, he was known and loved for his simplicity of spirit and humility of demeanor. His piety was unaffected, his labors for humanity abundant, and like his benevolences, cheerfully bestowed.

Joining the Prohibition party early in its history, he was for nearly twenty-five years a member of the State Prohibition Committee and during a portion of this time its chairman and treasurer and a member of the National Committee. Twice he was our candidate for governor and once for mayor of Minneapolis. In these relations his business ability and wide influence enabled him to render most valuable service to the party.

All in all he was a consistent Christian, a faithful friend, a helpful reformer and an ideal Christian business man, honored alike by his business associates and rivals. To know him was to have a larger hope for humanity and to be inspired to effort for its ennoblement.

the city of Chicago, through official circulars to the consular service of the U.S. We deem it a grave impropriety for Secretary Wilson, a cabinet officer, to act as honorary president, and to appear as a speaker on the program of the said Brewer's Congress, and we respectfully, but most insistently request President Taft to instruct Secretary Wilson not to act as an honorary president nor to permit his name to be used on the program of a gathering to promote a business every success of which is built upon the degradation of manhood, the wreck of the home, and the destruction of the life, liberty and happiness of the people.

Resolved: That a telegram conveying this request be sent to President Taft, and that copies of these resolutions be sent to Secretaries P. C. Knox, of the Department of State, and James Wilson, of the Department of Agriculture.

Resolved: That this association recognizes in the liquor traffic an institution so destructive to everything sacred to society or valuable in life that we can but maintain an attitude of unrelenting hostility toward it.

We condemn every form and degree of license or regulation as a complicity with this crime; such measures are vicious in principle, and have proven pernicious in practice, that "It can never be legalized without sin."

We maintain that the Christian and patriotic citizen of this state and nation should unite for the total and final overthrow of this enemy of the race and we heartily endorse the declaration of the General Conference of 1904 that "No political party has the right to expect, nor should it receive the support of Christian men so long as it supports the license system or refuses to put its self on record in open hostility to the saloon."

Resolved: That the Lay Electoral Conference of the Northern Minnesota Conference approve the amendment to the constitution recommended by the General Conference of 1908 in which they recommended that P. 41, Sec. I, of Discipline be amended as follows: Strike out in the second line the word "Wednesday" and substitute therefore the words "Secular Day" so that the lines as amended shall read "The General Conference shall meet at 10:00 o'clock on the morning of the first Secular Day in the month of May," etc.

Resolved: That this Conference heartily approves the organization to be known as the Layman's Association and that we pledge to it our hearty support.

Resolved: That we, the members of the Northern Minnesota Lay Electoral Conference favor a plan to unite into one body the Ministerial Conference and the Lay Conference with equal representation, and that our delegates to the General Conference in 1912 use their endeavor to that end.

Resolved: That it be the sense of this Conference that the term Presiding Elder be restored instead of the present designation District Superintendent.

In doing the work of our Conference, we desire herewith to express our heartfelt thanks to the members of the Hennepin Methodist and Lowry Hill Congregational churches for their great service in furnishing us auditoriums for our meetings, and to the people and press of Minneapolis for their splendid co-operation and hospitality.

J. M. RICHARDSON, Wm. McVEIGH. ANTHONY ANDERSON.

WILLIAM J. DEAN.

Minnesota Methodism suffered a serious loss during the year in the death of William J. Dean of Minneapolis. He was born in Ontario in 1843 and came to Minnesota in 1885. He served three years in the Civil War. In 1893 he organized the firm of Dean & Co., which became one of the largest wholesale implement houses in the Northwest. Brother Dean was a man of the highest Christian character. He was respected as much by his business rivals as by those who were associated with him and was greatly beloved by all who came to know him well. He was noted for his kindness to all who came in contact with him, knowing no distinctions of social condition. Brother Dean was an official member of the Hennepin Ave. church and for fourteen years president of the Minneapolis Y. M. C. A. He was still more prominent in Prohibition work, having been the Prohibition candidate for mayor of Minneapolis twice and twice its candidate for governor.

GEORGE W. HIGGINS.

George W. Higgins was born in Maine fifty-six years ago, but spent practically his whole life in Minneapolis. His character was an inspiration to all who knew him. He gave cheerfully and extensively of his time and means to the church. He was also prominent in philanthropic effort. During the last fourteen years of his life he was chairman of the state Prohibition committee and for almost the same period a member of the national committee and in those capacities he contributed mightily to the overthrow of the liquor traffic, a victory of which he was always confident. Both here and as an official of the church he proved himself one of the wisest of counsellors.

the church he proved himself one of the wisest of counsellors.

Brother Higgins made a business of his religion. He discharged his political duties also with a keen sense of responsibility to God as a citizen and leader in the cause of politico-moral reform.

VII. Memoirs

CHARLES F. BUBLITZ

The Rev. Charles F. Bublitz, one of our retired ministers, died suddenly at his summer home close to Silent Lake, near Dent, Minn., on Sunday, Dec. 24, 1933. Because of an incurable ailment of the heart, he had moved to his summer home on the attractive shores of this lake where he entered upon a quiet mode of life after his retirement. However, he retained an active interest in the affairs of the local church.

Brother Bublitz was born in Germany May 7, 1866. He came to America with his parents, who settled near Brownton, Minn., in 1878. A definite call to the ministry led him to prepare for it in the colleges in Berea, Ohio, and Galena, Ill. After completing his school work he entered the Northern German Conference in 1888, being ordained deacon in 1891 and elder in 1893. During the 37 years of his active ministry he served the German Methodist churches in Alexandria, Ada, Clearwater, Salem, Bertha, and Morgan, all in Minnesota, also Hatton and Valley City in North Dakota.

While serving his first charge, he was united in marriage Sept. 25, 1888, to Miss Louise Baumeister of Cologne, Minn. This good wife died in 1894, leaving the care of their three infant sons to the father alone. Grown to, manhood, they are William F. of Enderlin, N. D.; Carl E. of Lennox, S. D., and Louis of Dent. Sept. 25, 1895, Brother Bublitz married were born to this union: Mrs. Louise Johannaber of Coleraine, Minn.; Mrs. Pearl Ridgeway and Lester of Marble, Minn., and Wilbur H. of Hawks, N. D. In addition to these he leaves his devoted widow, Mrs. Louise Bublitz of Dent, nine grandchildren, and four sisters to cherish his memory.

The funeral services were held in the Methodist Church of Dent, the pastor, the Rev. F. H. Stephens, officiating. Four sons of the deceased and his two sons-in-law bore the beloved form to its last resting place in the beautiful Pleasant Hill cemetery near Dent.

Brother Bublitz had an excellent religious background. His parents were decout Christians with clear religious experiences. Besides, his father was a pioneer local preacher until the age of 90 with a major record. The son early profited by his father's example, for he, too, was definitely conscious of Christ's pardoning grace. His devotion to his tian experience deepened. He was a proficient pastor and a successful preacher of the Gospel of salvation. And above all, he was a faithful husband, a wise father, and a true friend.

W. F. FINKE.

The Reverend William L. Langrell was a native of Ireland, born in 1854. He migrated to Ottawa, Canada, in 1878 where he served several churches as a local preacher. He joined the Minnesota Conference in 1883, was in the effective relation 36 years and retired 13 years ago.

He was united in marriage to Miss Ella Langrell of Ottawa, Canada, in 1884, who died in 1931 and was buried in Beechwood cemetery, Ottawa, Canada.

Brother Langrell died January 8, 1934, in his eightieth year in the home of his cousin, C. A. Conner, Ottawa, Canada, and was buried by the side of his wife.

. Brother Langrell was a good minister of Jesus Christ. He ministered in a number of our good churches such as Plainview, Chatfield, Le Center, where he built that comfortable parsonage, doing much of the work with his own hands.

He rests from his labors and his works do follow him.

FRANK DORAN.

CHARLES ELWOOD MEAD

Charles Elwood Mead, elder son of James W. and Emma Gray Mead, was born in Brown county, Indiana, March 15, 1867. June 18, 1891, he married Daisy Collett of Moores Hill, Indiana. Mrs. Mead was called home June 7, 1929.

The parents of Rev. Mead were among the most progressive of the community, taking a keen interest in everything for the improvement of society, but their chief interest was in the church. From earliest childhood he had Christian training in the church and home, and he gave himself to Christ in his early youth. He joined the Southeastern Indiana Conference in 1891, serving the following charges: New Belleville, Whiteland, Scottsburg and Metamora. In 1899 he transferred to the Minnesota Conference, where he spent the remainder of his active ministry, retiring in 1929. His was a fruitful ministry. He made many friends wherever he served. His charges in Minnesota were Dundas, Castle Rock, Winona, Stewartville, Pine Island, Chatfield, Dodge Center and Dover.

June 19, 1930, he married Bertha Brodie of Dodge Center, Minn. They made their home near Mooresville, Ind. He passed away at his home Sunday, Nov. 26, 1933. He leaves to mourn his going his wife and five Children, Merrill P. Mead, San Francisco; Mrs. Florence Hurning, Eyota, Minn; Mrs. Marie Brown Honolulu, Hawaii; Warren R. Mead, Chatfield, and Charles W. Mead, Mooresville, Ind. He also leaves a brother, William Mead, and a sister, Mrs. Etta Watkins, both of Indiana and six grandchildren.

GEORGE F. WELLS

Rev. George F. Wells, who died in Washington, D. C., July 4, 1934, where he and his family had been residents for eleven years, was buried in Chatfield, Minn., July 9, 1934, surrounded by a loyal group of his ministerial friends and his wife, Mrs. Frances A. Wells, and two daughters, Marjorie and Mrs. Florence W. Werner. Mrs. Wells was Frances A.

Coleman and they were married Dec. 21, 1876, by Dr. D. W. Couch, superintendent of Madison District, Wisconsin.

For fifty years Brother Wells was a state and national leader in prohibition and temperance activities. As a Methodist minister beginning in 1875 he lent himself bravely to the general task of the church with a specific effort in the field of temperance. He was a capable leader and in his writings exhibited a popular style as many of his friends will remember in the papers which he edited or contributed to—the "Backbone", "Public Weal", "Northwestern Patriot", "Minnesota Patriot", papers distributed widely throughout the Dakotas and Minnesota.

Brother Wells was born in Keysville, N. Y., Aug. 24, 1853. He was the son of Rev. and Mrs. George C. Wells. In his fine work as a minister of the gospel in Minnesota, where he served several charges most acceptably and among them Chatfield, and as a champion of purity and right-eousness and in his fine Christian home life, Brother Wells preserved his good inheritance, and his friends who know his life say, "Well done good and faithful servant". His work in Minnesota and Washington as a preacher of the gospel and temperance worker was greatly appreciated. Brother W. G. Calderwood, his most intimate friend, wrote these fitting lines:

"He was a soldier brave and true, Fighting as loyal soldiers do. Fearless and dauntless he led the way Ever he marched in the van to the fray."

"He was a Prince of the royal blood, A Prince of the lineage of God. Born of the spirit of Christ the Lord, A Son of Jehovah through the Word."

SAMUEL L. PARISH.

T. J. WHEELER

Thomas James Wheeler was born in London, England, July 19, 1868. April 13, 1893, he was united in marriage to Gertrude Moody of Margate, England. To this union three children were born, two daughters, Ethel and Lily, and one son, Sidney, all at home. In June, 1907, the family came to America, residing at Mankato, Minn. Twenty-one years ago he purchased the studio in Stewartville which he conducted up to the time of his death except for a year and a half when he operated a studio at Fairfax, Minn., from November, 1926, to May, 1928. He was a member of the Baptist church in England and was an officer in the Baptist church at Margate, England, for many years. Upon coming to Stewartville he united with the Methodist Church. In addition to his photo business he did local preaching and for nine years served as pastor of the Methodist Church at High Forest. He also served as pastor at Simpson and Marion.

He died at his home Sept. 5. Rev. G. H. Chant conducted the funeral service and he was buried in Woodlawn cemetery.

Besides his wife he is survived by his three children, Ethel, Lilly and Sidney; three sisters, Jennie, Emma and Mary Ann Wheeler, who live in England.

CARRIE BERDINE KENNEY

Carrie Berdine Kenney was born at Woodstock, Ill., July 11, 1863, and passed to her heavenly home Dec. 9, 1933, and was laid to rest in Corinthian cemetery at Farmington, Minn. When still a very small child, her parents moved to Fennimore, Wis., and when she was nine years of age, they moved to Dows, Iowa.

After the passing of her parents, she, with a twin sister, moved to a claim near Woolsey, S. D. After disposing of their claim in 1886 she moved with her sister to Minnesota settling in a home near Morristown. One year later she was united in marriage to M. W. Kenney, and two years later on learning that her husband felt that he was called to the ministry, she cheerfully joined with him in his sacred calling. Those who knew her best, loved her much, as she was always looking after the poor, and the needy in their parishes, and always responded to sick calls. For more than 10 years, she had been failing in health, and on the advise of her physician, she and her husband retired and settled in Farmington, Minn., in 1929. She took great delight in the thought of living in their own home which they had purchased a short time before. But it was evident to all that she was failing fast. Before her passing, she said that she was ready to go, and calmly arranged all her affairs. She selected her text (Phil. 1:21), and requested Rev. B. F. Koch, to preach the sermon. The funeral was conducted by the District Superintendent. The attending ministers were Rev. Frank Doran, A. J. Northrup, B. F. Koch, Merrill Abbey and the local ministers, Reverends McLeod, Nash and Jensen. She leaves to mourn her passing, her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Arla Dutiel of St. Paul, and Gladys Wolfe of Wagner, S. D.; two granddaughters, Carol Dutiel of St. Paul, and Andree Dutiel, who lives with her grandfather.

MRS. DAVID MORGAN

The funeral service for Mrs. David Morgan of Cudahy, Calif., was held in Huntington Park, Calif., Oct. 29, 1933. Her maiden name was Celia A. Crippen. She was born at Athens, Ohio, Jan. 28, 1847, her father being a prominent citizen of that city. There she grew to womanhood, received a good education, and became the wife of the Rev. David Morgan June 24, 1871, and entered upon her career as the companion of a Methodist minister. In 1874 the Morgans were transferred to the Minnesota Conference and assigned to the Lake Crystal charge. A three-year pastorate here was followed by pastorates at Janesville, Clinton Avenue, St. Paul; Twenty-Fourth Street M. E. Church, Minneapolis, and King's Street, St. Paul.

After 20 years of pastoral work in the Ohio and Minnesota Conferences, Mr. Morgan was made superintendent of the St. Paul Bethel, a city missionary enterprise for the poor of that city, and was annually reappointed to that work until he had completed 25 years of service there. During nearly all of this time the family residence was at Hamline, the family being connected with the University church there.

Mrs. Morgan had been well educated in music and was an efficient helper of her husband who was notably successful in evangelistic work on his charges. Either as organist or director of the choir, or singer in the choir, she contributed greatly to the success of Mr. Morgan's ministry. Her practical turn of mind made her very useful in the social activities of the churches served by herself and husband, and in their ministries to the poor connected with the Bethel. Fifth Annual Meeting International Supreme Lodge of Good Templars, Indianapolis, Ind., May 26, 1859: Representative Samuel F. Burdette, Iowa (who with his brother Bobb, noted humorist, published the Burlington Hawkeye) submitted the following: WHEREAS, The interest manifested by members of various temperance organizations on prohibition is almost universal and we as an Order look upon the advancement of prohibitory principles as the surest element of the success of our glorious cause and as our membership throughout states, territories and countries where the Order has obtained a foothold are looking to us for an expression of opinion on this all-important subject, THEREFORE, Be It RESULVED, That we endorse the following Platform of the Grand Lodge of Minnesota adopted at Hastings on May 19, 1888, as the embodiment of our views on the subject of prohibition: Î Total abstinence from all intoxicating liquors as a beverage. II. No license in any form under any circumstances for the sale of liquors to be used as a beverage. III The absolute prohibition of the manufacture, importation and sale of intexicating liquors for such purposes and prohibition by the will of the people expressed in due form of lew with the penalties deserved for a crime of such enormity. IV. The creation of a healthy public opinion on the subject by the active dissemination of the truth in all the modes known to enlightened philanthropy. The election of good, honest men to administer the laws. VI. Persistence in efforts to save individuals and communities from so dreadful a scourge, against all forms of opposition until our success is complete and universal. Rev. John Quigley of the Minnesota Methodist Conference was chairman and William B. Reed of Hastings a member of the committee which drafted this platform.
